THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED

GENESIS

CHAPTER 1

TN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning

were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the him; male and female created he them.

firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning

were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning

were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind; and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind; and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him male and famale created he them.

firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door: and unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

9 C And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand.

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear. 14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slaveth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 T And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of E'den.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born I'rad: and I'rad begat Mē-hū'jā-ĕl: and Mēhū'jā-ĕl begat Mē-thū'sā-ĕl: and Mēthū'sā-ĕl begat Lā'mĕch.

19 ¶ And La'mech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was A'dah, and the name of the other Zil'lah.

Cain slayeth Abel and is cursed. Seth

20 And A'dah bare Ja'bal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zil'lah, she also bare Tu'bălcāin, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tut băl-cāin was Nā'a-mah. 23 And Lā'měch said unto his wives. A'dah and Zil'lah, hear my voice; ye wives of La'mech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt. 24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold. truly La'mech seventy and sevenfold.

25 🏻 And Adam knew his wife again: and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name E'nos: then began men to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

HIS is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him:

2 Male and female created he them: and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3 ¶ And Adam lived a hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth:

4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he

6 And Seth lived a hundred and five years, and begat E'nos:

7 And Seth lived after he begat E'nos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died. 9 T And E'nos lived ninety years, and begat Cā-ī'năn:

10 And E'nos lived after he begat Cā-ī'nan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of E'nos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 @ And Cā-ī'nān lived seventy years.

and begat Ma-hā'la-lē'ěl:

13 And Cā-i'năn lived after he begat Må-hā'là-lē'ĕl eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters: 14 And all the days of Ca-i'nan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 C And Mà-hā'là-lē'ĕl lived sixtv and five years, and begat Ja'red:

16 And Mà-hā'là-lē'ěl lived after he begat Ja'red eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters: 17 And all the days of Ma-ha'la-le'el were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 C And Jä'rěd lived a hundred sixtv and two years, and he begat Enoch:

19 And Ja'red lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

20 And all the days of Ja'red were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died. 21 I And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Me-thu'se-lah:

22 And Enoch walked with God after he begat Mē-thū'sē-làh three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: 24 And Enoch walked with God: and he was not: for God took him.

25 And Me-thu'se-lah lived a hundred eighty and seven years, and begat La'mech:

26 And Mē-thū'sē-lah lived after he hegat La'měch seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters:

27 And all the days of Mē-thū'sē-lah were nine hundred sixty and nine years:

and he died.

28 ¶ And Lā'měch lived a hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son: 29 And he called his name Noah, saying. This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands. because of the ground which the LORD hath cursed.

30 And La'mech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters: seven hundred seventy and seven years: with pitch. and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Ta'phěth.

CHAPTER 6

ND it came to pass, when men began A to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair: and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said. My Spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them. the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And GoD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. 6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man. whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 II These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God. 10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Ja'pheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 W Make thee an ark of gopher wood: rooms shalt thou make in the ark. 31 And all the days of La'meth were and shalt pitch it within and without

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark and his wife shall be three hundred cubits, the him, into the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of the flood.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind; two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee.

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER 7

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause t to rain upon the earth forty days and orty nights; and every living substance hat I have made will I destroy from off he face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that he LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the arth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were

upon the earth.

11 I In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Ja'pheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and hare up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were cov-

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ground was drv. the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

ND God remembered Noah, and A every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged.

2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was re-

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ar'a-rat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 C And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on shall not cease. the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he staved yet other seven days: and again he sent forth the dove out of

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days. and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of 14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month.

15 T And God spake unto Noah. saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth: that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing. and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 C And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savor; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night

CHAPTER Q

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

is the blood thereof, shall ve not eat,

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

6 Whose sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply: bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud: and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant beall flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 C And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Ja'pheth: and Ham is the father of Cā'năan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah:

4 But flesh with the life thereof, which and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be a husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Ca'naan. saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shëm and Jā'phēth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done

25 And he said, Cursed be Ca'naan: a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

25 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Ca'naan shall be his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Ja'pheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Cā'năan shall be his servant.

28 C And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

CHAPTER 10

TOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah; Shem, Ham, and Ja'pheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Ja'pheth; Go'mer, and Mā'gŏg, and Mād'ā-ī, and Jā'văn, and Tū'băl, and Mē'shech, and Ti'răs.

a city, and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language: and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Bā'běl: because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a hundred years old, and begat Ar-phax'ad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Ar-phax'ad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Ar-phax'ad lived five and thirty years, and begat Sa'lah:

23 And Se'rug lived after he begat Na'hor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nā'hŏr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Te'rah: 25 And Na'hor lived after he begat Te'rah a hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

of the Chal'dees.

29 And Abram and Na'hor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sā'raī; and the name of Nā'hŏr's wife, Mil'cah, the daughter of Ha'ran, the father of Mil'cah, and the father of Is'cah.

CHAPTER 12

NOW the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will show thee:

2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a

3 And I will bless them that bless thee. and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Ha'ran.

5 And Abram took Sa'rai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Ha'ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Ca'naan; and into the land of Ca' năan they came.

6 C And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Si'chem, unto the plain of Mo'reh. And the Ca'naan-ite was then in the land.

7 And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Ha'i on the east; and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sa'rai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake: hundred and five years: and Te'rah and my soul shall live because of thee. 14 I And it came to pass, that, when tians beheld the woman that she was right hand, then I will go to the left. very fair.

Phā'raōh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sā'raī, Abram's wife.

18 And Phā'raōh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Phā'raōh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hā'ī; 4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 Of And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. 6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Ca'naan-ite and the Per'iz-zite dwelt then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will the other.

12 Abram dwelt in the land of Ca'naan. and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sod'om.

13 But the men of Sod'om were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

14 Q And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

CHAPTER 14

AND it came to pass in the days of Am'ra-phěl king of Shi'när, Ar'ioch king of El-la'sar, Ched'or-la-o'mer king of E'lam, and Ti'dal king of nations; 2 That these made war with Be'ra king

8 And there went out the king of Sod' om, and the king of Go-mor'rah, and the king of Ad'mah, and the king of Zebôi'im, and the king of Bê'la, (the same is Zō'ar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Sid'dim:

9 With Ched'or-la-o'mer the king of E'lam, and with Ti'dal king of nations, and Am'ra-phel king of Shi'nar, and År'ī-ŏeh king of El-lā'sär; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Sid'dim was full of slime pits; and the kings of Sŏd'om and Gō-mŏr'rah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sŏd'om and Gō-mčr'rah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sod'om, and his goods, and departed.

13 I And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Măm'rê the Ām'ō-rīte, brother of Ēsh'cŏl, and brother of Ā'nēr: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods. and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

FTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

El'i-ē'zēr of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number Ho'bah, which is on the left hand of them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.

6 And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness. 7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it. 8 And he said, Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

Hā'gar.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hā'gar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sa'rai said unto Abram. My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me

6 But Abram said unto Să'rai. Behold. thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sa'rai dealt serve them; and they shall afflict them. hardly with her, she fled from her face.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly. that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ish'mā-ĕl; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction. 12 And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him: and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. 13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?

Hā'gar bare, Īsh'mā-ĕl.

many nations. 5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham: for a father of many nations kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee

12 And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant. 15 T And God said unto Abraham, As for Sa'rai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sā'raī, but Sarah shall her

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ish'mā-ĕl might live before thee!

19 And God said. Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. 20 And as for Ish'mā-ĕl. I have heard thee: Behold. I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ish'mā-ĕl his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ish'ma-el his son.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18

AND the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mam're: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day; 2 And he lifted up his eyes and looked and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favor in thy sight, pass not away,

I pray thee, from thy servant:

vourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread. and comfort ve your hearts: after that ve shall pass on: for therefore are ve come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal. knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 @ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life: and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saving, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh. 16 C And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sod'om: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, Shall I hide from · Abraham that thing which I do:

fetched, and wash your feet, and rest mand his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment: that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, Because the cry of Söd'om and Gö-mör'rah is great. and because their sin is very grievous. 21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me: and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sod'om: but Abraham stood vet before the LORD.

23 ¶ And Abraham drew near, and said. Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that he far from thee: Shall not the Tudge of all the earth. do right?

26 And the LORD said, If I find in Sod'om fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it. 29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

↑ND there came two angels to Sŏd' om at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sod'om: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said. Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay: but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly: and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread.

4 CI But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sod'om, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them. 6 And Lot went out at the door unto my Lord:

them, and shut the door after him, 7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand. and pulled Lot into the house to them.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness. both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

thou here any besides? son-in-law, and 33 And the LORD went his way, as soon thy sons, and thy daughters, and what. soever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great hefore the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons-in-law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons-in-law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose. then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daugh. ters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth.

and set him without the city. 17 I And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain: escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so,

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast showed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: O, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also. that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zō'ar. 23 The sun was risen upon the earth

when Lot entered into Zō'ar. 24 Then the LORD rained upon Sod'om and upon Gö-mör'rah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 C But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 II And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sod'om and Gō-mŏr'rah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow. when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 M And Lot went up out of Zo'ar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zō'ar: and he dwelt in a cave. he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the vounger. Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger. Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also: and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Mo'ab: the same is the father of the Mo'ab-ites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben'-am'mi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

CHAPTER 20

↑ND Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelt between Ka'desh and Shur, and sojourned in Gē'rär.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife. She is my sister: and A-bim'e-lech king of Ge'rar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But God came to A-bim'e-lech in a dream by night, and said to him. Behold. thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.

4 But A-bim'ē-leeh had not come near her: and he said, LORD, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said. He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore A-bim'ē-lēch rose early in the morning, and called all his serv-ants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then A-bim'ē-lēch called Abraham. and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And A-bim'ē-lĕch said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt show unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And A-bim'ê-lêch took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And A-bim'ē-lēch said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other? thus she was reproved.

17 ¶ So Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed A-bim'ē-lech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of A-bim'elech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER 21

AND the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was a hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto

6 ¶ And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have borne him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of Ha'gar the Egyptian, which she had borne unto Abraham, mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hā'gār, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Bē'ērshā'hā.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and went.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hā'gar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hā'gar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Pā'rān: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that \(\hat{A}\) bim'\(\hat{c}\) liech and \(\hat{Ph}\) chool the chief captain of his host spake unto \(\hat{A}\) braham, saying, \(\hat{G}\) do \(is\) with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God, that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear. 25 And Abraham reproved A-bim'etech because of a well of water, which burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his A-bim'e-lech's servants had violently son; and he took the fire in his hand. taken away.

26 And A-bim'ē-leeh said, I wot not who hath done this thing; neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it. hut to-day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen. and gave them unto A-bim'e-lech; and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And A-bim'ē-lech said unto Abraham. What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place Bē'ēr-shē'bà: because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Bē'ēr-shē'bà: then A-bim'ē-lēch rose up, and Phi'chol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Phi-lis'tines.

33 I And Abraham planted a grove in Bē'ēr-shē'bà, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. 34 And Abraham sojourned in the Phi-lis'tines' land many days.

CHAPTER 22

AND it came to pass after these things, that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Mo-ri'ah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 C And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the and a knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said. My father: and he said. Here am I. my son. And he said. Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slav his son. 11 And the Angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I. 12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eves. and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram. and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Tehovah-ii'reh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it

15 I And the Angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time.

16 And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son,

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the seashore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies:

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Bē'ēr-shē'ba; and Abraham dwelt at Bë'ër-shë'ba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying. Behold, Mil'cah, she hath also borne of my people give I it thee: bury thy children unto thy brother Na'hor;

21 Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kem'ū-el the father of

22 And Chē'sĕd, and Hā'zō, and Pĭl' dăsh, and Jid'lăph, and Bē-thu'ěl.

23 And Be-thū'el begat Re-bek'ah: these eight Mil'cah did bear to Na'hor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reu'mah, she bare also Te'bah, and Gā'hām, and Thā'hāsh, and Mā'a-chah.

CHAPTER 23

AND Sarah was a hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kīr'jāth-ar'ba; the same is Hē'bron in the land of Ca' năan: and Abraham came to mourn for

Sarah, and to weep for her. 3 M And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Heth, saying, 4 I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying. If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to E'phron the son of Zō'här,

9 That he may give me the cave of Măch-pē'lah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.

10 And E'phron dwelt among the children of Heth: and E'phron the Hit'tite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that Ca'naan-ites, among whom I dwell: went in at the gate of his city, saying,

I thee, and the cave that is therein, I my son Isaac.

Sarah's death. Her burial in Machbelah give it thee; in the presence of the sons

12 And Abraham bowed down himself

before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto E'phron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee. hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And E'phron answered Abraham.

saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver: what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto E'phron; and Abraham weighed to E'phron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

17 I And the field of E'phron, which was in Mach-pe'lah, which was before Măm'rē, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in 5 And the children of Heth answered the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Măch-pē'lah before Măm'rē: the same is He'bron in the land of Ca'naan.

20 And the field, and the cave that is himself to the people of the land, even therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER 24

AND Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the

5 And the servant said unto him, Per- well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. adventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee. and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Měs'ō-pō-tā'mĭ-à, unto the city of Nā'hŏr.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O LORD God of my and worshipped the LORD. master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and show kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold. I stand here by the well of water: and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast showed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Reběk'ah came out, who was born to Bethū'el, son of Mil'cah, the wife of Nahör, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was very fair to and room for the camels. look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the and he ungirded his camels, and gave 17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Be-thu'el the son of Milcáh, which she bare unto Na'hor.

25 She said moreover unto him. We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head,

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 C And Re-bek'ah had a brother, and his name was La'ban: and La'ban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring, and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Re-běk'ah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me, that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house,

32 ¶ And the man came into the house:

straw and provender for the camels, and also: so I drank, and she made the camwater to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's

35 And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made me swear. saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Ca'naanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master. Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy wav: and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water: and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me. Both drink thou. and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rē-běk'áh came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said,

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bē-thū'ěl. Nā'hor's son. whom Mil'cah bare unto him: and I out the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham. which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now, if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not. tell me; that I may turn to the right hand. or to the left.

50 Then La'ban and Be-thu'el answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rē-běk'ah is before thee: take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words. he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Re-bek'ah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto

Rē-běk'ah his wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her. Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

CHAPTER 26

AND there was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto A-bim'ē-lech king of the Philis'tines unto Ge'rar.

2 And the LORD appeared unto him. and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of.

3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed:

5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gē'rär.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rē-bĕk'ah; because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that A-bim'elech king of the Phi-lis'tines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Re-bek'ah his wife.

9 And A-bim'ē-lech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: 29 ¶ And Jacob sod pottage: and and how saidst thou, She is my sister? E'sau came from the field, and he was And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And A-bim'e-lech said. What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lain with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And A-bim'e-lech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this point to die: and what profit shall this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year a hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very ing water.

20 And the herdmen of Ge'rar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saving, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well E'sek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it Sit'nah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Rē-hō'bŏth; and he said. For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Bē'ēr-shē'bà.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said. I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then A-bim'ē-lech went to him from Ge'rär, and A-huz'zăth one of his friends, and Phi'chol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said. Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said unto La'ban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children. for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And La'ban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favor in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him. Thou know-

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased blessed thee since my coming: and now, when shall I provide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock.

32 I will pass through all thy flock to-day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with 34 And La'băn said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ring-streaked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey be-the rest of La'ban's flocks.

37 ¶ And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chestnut tree; and pilled white streaks in them. and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstreaked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the flock of La'ban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not La'ban doeth unto thee. unto La'ban's cattle.

CHAPTER 31

ND he heard the words of La'ban's A sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Lā'băn, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee. 4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Le'ah to the field unto his flock, 5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me.

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be twixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstreaked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ring-streaked. 9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ring-streaked, speckled, and grizzled.

11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: and I said,

Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the ring-streaked, and all the brown in the cattle are ring-streaked, speckled, and grizzled: for I have seen all that

14 And Rachel and Le'ah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? 15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever force thy daughters from me. God hath said unto thee, do.

17 I Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten. the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Pā'dăn-ā'răm, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Ca'naan.

19 And Lā'băn went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's.

Lā'băn the Syrian, in that he told him

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gĭľē-ăd.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day, that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gil'e-ad.

24 And God came to La'ban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then La'ban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and La'ban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gil'ē-ăd.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Lā'ban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by 32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me. and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Lā'băn went into Jacob's tent. and into Le'ah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Le'ah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images. 20 And Jacob stole away unawares to and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And La'ban searched all the tent, but found them not.

> 35 And she said to her father. Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with La'ban; and Tacob answered and said to La'ban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have 26 And La'ban said to Tacob. What hast not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house: I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for 29 It is in the power of my hand to do thy cattle; and thou hast changed my

43 ¶ And Lā'băn answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle. and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have borne?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee. 45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren. Gather stones; and they took stones, and made a heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And La'ban called it Je'gar-sa'hadū'tha: but Tacob called it Gal'e-ed.

48 And La'ban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Găl'ē-ĕd.

49 And Miz'päh; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And La'ban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee:

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Na'hor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Tacob sware by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

CHAPTER 32

ND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said. This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Ma'ha-na'im.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to E'sau his brother unto the land of Sē'ir, the country of E'dom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord E'sau: Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with La'ban, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother E'sau, and also he cometh to meet thee. and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands:

8 And said, If E'sau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 Q And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me. Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast showed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Tordan: and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of E'sau: for I fear him, lest he will come pass over this heap and this pillar unto and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for E'sau his brother:

14 Two hundred she goats and twenty 55 And early in the morning La'ban he goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams.

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, ban departed, and returned unto his forty kine and ten bulls, twenty she asses and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants. Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When E'sau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto. my lord E'sau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto E sau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him; and himself lodged that night in the company,

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two women-servants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jab bok.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had. 24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me. 27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Is'rā-ĕl: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said. Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him

30 And Tacob called the name of the place Pē-nī'ĕl: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Pē-nū'ěl the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Is'rā-ĕl eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day; because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

CHAPTER 33

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, E'sau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Le'ah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Le'ah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost.

3 And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. 4 And E'sau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Le'ah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And E'sau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thy-

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said. Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Sē'īr.

15 And E'sau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So E'sau returned that day on his way unto Sē'ir. 17 And Jacob journeyed to Suc'coth, and built him a house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Suc'coth.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to Shā'lĕm, a city of Shē'ehem, which is in the land of Cā'năan, when he came from Pā'dănā'răm; and pitched his tent before the

AND Dinah the daughter of Le'ah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. 2 And when Shē'chem the son of Hā' mor the Hi'vite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the dam-

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Īs'rā-ĕl in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Ha'mor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shē'chěm longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ve shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ve therein, and get you possessions therein. 11 And Shē'chem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give. 12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to 13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shē'chem and Hā'mor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised:

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you. and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us. to be circumcised: then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hā'mŏr and Shē'chem Hā'mor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Tacob's daughter: and he was more honorable than all the house of his only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hā'mŏr and unto Shēchem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly. and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hā'mor and Shē' chem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of She'chem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Tacob said to Simeon and Levi. Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Ca'naan-ites and the Periz-zītes: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

CHAPTER 35

AND God said unto Jacob, Arise, go A up to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of E'sau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away in hard labor, that the midwife said unto the strange gods that are among you, her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son and be clean, and change your garments: also,

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my disunto us for to dwell with us, to be one tress, and was with me in the way which

> 4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand. and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shē'chem.

5 And they journeyed; and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 C So Tacob came to Luz which is in the land of Ca'naan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him. 7 And he built there an altar, and called the place El'-beth'-el; because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Deborah Rē-běk'ah's nurse died. and she was buried beneath Beth-el under an oak: and the name of it was called Al'lon-bach'uth.

9 M And God appeared unto Jacob again, when ne came out of Pā'dan-ā'rām, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Is'ra-el shall be thy name; and he called his name Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land. 13 And God went up from him in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Tacob called the name of the place where God spake with him.

Beth-el.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to Eph'rath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labor.

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died,) that she called his name Běn-ō'nī: but his father called him Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Eph'rath, which is Beth-

20 And Tacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 ¶ And Is'rā-ĕl journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of

22 And it came to pass, when Iş'rā-ĕl dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bil'hah his father's concubine: and Iş'rā-ĕl heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

23 The sons of Lē'ah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Is'sa-char, and Zeb'ú-lun: 24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph, and

Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bil'hah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan, and Naph'tà-li:

26 And the sons of Zil'pah, Lē'ah's handmaid; Gad, and Ash'er. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Pā'dǎn-ā'rǎm.

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Măm'rē, unto the city of Ar'ba, which is He'bron, where Abra-

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons E'sau and Jacob buried him.

CHAPTER 37

AND Jacob dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Cā'năan.

2 These are the generations of Tacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bil'hah, and with the sons of Zil'pah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report.

3 Now Iş'rā-ĕl loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colors.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren; and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed: 7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying. 12 C And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in She'chem.

13 And Is'rā-ĕl said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren. and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of He'bron, and he came to Shë'chem.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying,

What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dô'thăn. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dö'thăn.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them. they conspired against him to slay him. 19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him; and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said,

Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colors that was on him:

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat bread; and unto her.

him, and said unto him, What is this they lifted up their eyes and looked, and. behold, a company of Ish'mā-ĕl-ītes came from Gil'e-ad, with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh. going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren. What profit is it if we slay our brother.

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ish'mā-ĕl-ites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh: and his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by Mid'i-an-ites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ish'mā-ĕl-ītes for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 T And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren. and said, The child is not; and I. whither shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood:

32 And they sent the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in

for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my. son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 And the Mid'i-an-ites sold him into Egypt unto Pŏt'i-phar, an officer of Phā'raōh's, and captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38

ND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain A-dullăm-ite, whose name was Hī'rah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Ca'năan-îte, whose name was Shu'ah; and he took her, and went in

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she called his name O'nan. 5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name She'lah: and he was at Chē'zīb, when she bare

him.

6 And Tudah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tā'mar.

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto O'năn. Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And O'nan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tā'mār his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till She'lah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Ta'mar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 ¶ And in process of time the daughter of Shu'ah Tudah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Tim'nath, he and his friend Hi'rah the A-dul'lam-ite.

13 And it was told Ta'mar, saving, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Tim-nath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnăth; for she saw that She'lah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a harlot; because she had cov-

16 And he turned unto her by the way. and said. Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter-in-law:) and she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by 19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the A-dul'lam-ite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place. saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the wayside? And they said. There was no harlot in this blace.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this blace.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 I And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah. saying, Tā'mar thy daughter-in-law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.

25 When she was brought forth she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said. She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shē'lāh my son. And he knew her again no more.

27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Phā'rēz.

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Za'rah,

CHAPTER 39

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Pot'i-phar, an officer of Pha'raöh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ish' mā-él-ites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand.
4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly person, and well-favored.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife; how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth. 14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in a Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled.

16 And she laid up his garment by her,

until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound; and he was there in the prison.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

CHAPTER 40

AND it came to pass after these of things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pha'raöh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward. 5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadiv to-day?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God?

tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me:

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Phā'raōh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Phā'raōh's cup, and I gave the cup into Phā'raōh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place; and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and show kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Phā'raōh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should out me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Phā² raöh: and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Toseph answered and said. This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

of them, each man his dream in one lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 Q And it came to pass the third day, which was Pha'raoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Phā'raoh's hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him.

CHAPTER 41

ND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Phā'raōh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favored kine and fat-fleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, illfavored and lean-fleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favored and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favored and fat kine. Šo Phā'raöh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaöh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Phā'raöh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Phā'raōh, saying, I do remember my faults this day:

10 Pha'raoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:

11 And we dreamed a dream in one 19 Yet within three days shall Pha'raoh night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream

12 And there was there with us a voung man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon; and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Phā'raōh.

15 And Phā'raöh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Phä'raōh, saving. It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pha'raöh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed and wellfavored; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill-favored and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill-favored kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had eaten them up it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill-favored, as at the beginning. So I awoke. 22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, sleven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind.

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears; and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Phā'raōh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath showed Phä'raöh what he is about to do.

27 And the seven thin and ill-favored neck kine that came up after them are seven years: and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Phā'raōh: What God is about to do he showeth unto Phā'raōh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt: and the famine shall consume the land:

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Phā'raōh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Phā'raōh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Phā'raōh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37 C And the thing was good in the eves of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Phā'raōh said unto his servants. Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Phā'raōh said unto Toseph. Forasmuch as God hath showed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will be greater than thou.

41 And Phā'raōh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. 42 And Pha'raöh took off his ring from 26 The seven good kine are seven his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, years; and the seven good ears are seven and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his 43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they to Joseph for to buy corn; because that cried before him. Bow the knee: and he the famine was so sore in all lands. made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Phā'raōh said unto Joseph, I am Phā'raöh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Phā'raōh called Joseph's name Zăph'nàth-pā'à-nē'àh; and he gave him to wife As'e-nath the daughter of Pot'iphē'rah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Phā'raōh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering: for it was without number. 50 And unto Joseph were born two sons, before the years of famine came: which As'e-nath the daughter of Pot'iphē'rah priest of On bare unto him, 51 And Joseph called the name of the they knew not him. firstborn Ma-nas'seh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he E'phrā-im: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction. 53 Of And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pha'raoh for bread: and Pha'raoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt come hither.

CHAPTER 42

YOW when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence: that we may live, and not die.

3 I And Toseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Tacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall.

5 And the sons of Is'rā-ĕl came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Ca'naan.

6 And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Toseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them. Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Ca'naan to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but 9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them. Ye are spies: to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants

11 We are all one man's sons: we are true men; thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said. Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Ca'naan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them. That is if that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies: .

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Pha'raoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Phā'raoh surely ye are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear God:

19 If we be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ve shall not die. And they did so. 21 C And they said one to another.

We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 C Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren. My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Carnaan, and told him all that befell unto them; brother be with you.

saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men: we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Cā'năan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that we are true men; so will I deliver you your brother, and ve shall traffic in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ve bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

AND the famine was sore in the land. . 2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your 6 And Ĭş'rā-ĕl said, Wherefore dealt

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saving. Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Iş'rā-ĕl his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time. 11 And their father Is'rā-ĕl said unto them. If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight.

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 \ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before

Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said. Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. born according to his birthright, and the

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought not die, both we, and thou, and also our down in our hands to buy food; we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Toseph came at noon; for they heard that they should eat bread there. 26 ¶ And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said. Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered. Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son. and said. Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Ser on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself. and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews: for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first-youngest according to his youth: and the men marveled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

CHAPTER 44

AND he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Ca'naan; how then should we steal out of thy lard's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and aded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And Judah and his brethren saw him not since:

came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants; behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, O my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Phā'raōh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying,

Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

of 1 - 1 - - C - 1 - - - 1

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since:

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

CHAPTER 45

THEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Phā'raōh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence. 4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. 8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Phā'raōh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Gō'shen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I nourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them; and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pha'raôh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pha' raöh well, and his servants.

17 And Phā'raōh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Cā'nāan;

IS And take your father and your households, and come unto me and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the 19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours. 21 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Phā'raōh, and gave them provision for the way. 22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

GENESIS 45, 46

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them. See that ve fall not out by the way.

25 C And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Ca'naan unto Tacob their father.

26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Tacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Tacob their father revived.

28 And Is'rā-ĕl said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER 46

AND Îs'rā-ĕl took his journey with all that he had, and came to Bē'ērshe'ba, and offered sacrifices unto the God of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto Iş'rā-ĕl in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Tacob. And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt: for I will there make of thee a great nation.

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again: and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eves.

5 And Jacob rose up from Be'er-she' ba: and the sons of Iş'rā-ĕl carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Phā' raöh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Ca'naan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him:

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters. and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 I And these are the names of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

9 And the sons of Reuben: Hā'nŏch, and Phal'lu, and Hez'ron, and Car'mi. 10 ¶ And the sons of Simeon; Jēmu'el, and Jā'min, and O'had, and Jā'ehin, and Zō'har, and Shā'ūl the son of a Ca'năan-ît-ish woman.

12 Q And the sons of Judah: Er. and O'năn, and She'lah, and Pha'rez, and Zā'rah: but Er and O'nan died in the land of Ca'naan. And the sons of Phas rēz were Hĕz'rŏn and Hā'mŭl.

13 I And the sons of Is'sa-char; Tô'là, and Phū'vah, and Job, and Shim'ron.

14 W And the sons of Zeb'ū-lun: Se-red, and E'lon, and Tah'le-el.

15 These be the sons of Le'ah, which she bare unto Jacob in Pā'dan-ā'rām, with his daughter Dinah; all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 I And the sons of Gad: Ziph'i-ön. and Hag'gi, Shu'ni, and Ez'bon, E'ri.

and Ar'o-di, and A-re'li.

18 These are the sons of Zil'pah, whom La'ban gave to Le'ah his daughter: and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife:

Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 M And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Må-nas'seh and E'phra-im, which As'e-nath the daughter of Pot'i-phe'rah priest of On bare unto him.

21 ¶ And the sons of Benjamin were Bē'lah, and Bē'chēr, and Ash'bĕl, Gē'ra. and Na'a-man, E'hi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Hup'pim, and Ard. 22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.

23 ¶ And the sons of Dan; Hū'shǐm. 24 And the sons of Naph'ta-li; Jäh' zē-ĕl. and Gū'nī, and Jē'zēr, and Shil'lem.

25 These are the sons of Bil'hah, which Lā'ban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob; all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six:

27 And the sons of Joseph, which were borne him in Egypt, were two souls: all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threescore and ten.

unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Gō'shen; and they came into the land of Gö'shĕn.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot. and went up to meet Is'ra-el his father, to Gö'shen, and presented himself unto him: and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Is'rā-ĕl said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up. and show Pha'raöh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house. which were in the land of Ca'naan, are come unto me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Phā'raōh shall call you, and shall say,

What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Gö'shen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 47

HEN Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Ca'naan; and, behold, they are in the land of Go'shen.

2 And he took some of his brethren. even five men, and presented them unto Phā'raöh.

3 And Phā'raöh said unto his brethren. What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh. Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Phā'raōh. For to sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Ca'naan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Gō'shĕn.

5 And Phā'raōh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and lord also hath our herds of cattle; there

28 C And he sent Judah before him brethren to dwell: in the land of Go'shen let them dwell: and if thou knowest anu men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Phā'raöh.

8 And Phā'raōh said unto Tacob, How old art thou?

9 And Tacob said unto Phā'raōh. The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Phā'raōh.

11 C And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Răm'ē-sēş, as Phā'raōh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father. and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

13 Q And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Ca'naan fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Ca'naan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Ca'naan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said. Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle: and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my is not aught left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Phā'raōh; and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pha'raoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Phā'raōh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Phä'raoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Phā'raöh: lo, here is seed for you, and we shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Phā'raōh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Phā'raōh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Phā'raōh's.

27 I And Is'rā-ĕl dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Gō'shen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was a hundred forty and seven vears.

29 And the time drew nigh that Iş'rā-ĕl must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:
30 But I will lie with my fathers, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And Iş'rā-ĕl bowed himself upon the bed's head.

CHAPTER 48

ND it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Ma-nas'seh and E'phrā-im.

2 And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Is'rā-ĕl strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Ca'naan, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession.

5 M And now thy two sons, E'phrā-im and Ma-nas'seh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Pā'dăn, Rachel died by me in the land of Ca'naan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Eph' răth: and I buried her there in the way of Eph'rath; the same is Beth-lehem.

8 And Is'rā-ĕl beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless

10 Now the eyes of Is'rā-ĕl were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Iş'rā-ĕl said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath showed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, E'phrathou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and im in his right hand toward Is'ra-el's left hand, and Må-näs'sĕh in his left hand toward Is'rā-ĕl's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Is'ra-ĕl stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon E'phrä-im's head. who was the younger, and his left hand upon Mà-năs'sĕh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Ma-nas'seh was the firstborn.

15 I And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day,

16 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of E'phrā-im, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from E'phrā-im's head unto Ma-nassĕh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying. In thee shall Is'ra-el bless, saying, God make thee as E'phra-im and as Mā-nās'sēh: and he set E'phrā-im before Ma-năs'sĕh.

21 And Is'rā-ĕl said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Am'o-rite with my sword and with my bow.

4 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ Simeon and Levi are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honor, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Is'rā-ĕl.

8 ¶ Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise; thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies: thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shi'loh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

21 @ Năph'ta-li is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

22 ¶ Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well: whose branches run over the wall:

23 The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him: 24 But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Tacob: (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Is'rā-ĕl;)

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb:

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

27 II Benjamin shall raven as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 I All these are the twelve tribes of Is'rā-el: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of E'phron the Hit'tite, 30 In the cave that is in the field of Mặch-pẽ'làh, which is before Mặm'rē, in the land of Cā'năan, which Abraham bought with the field of E'phron the Hit' tite for a possession of a buryingplace.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rē-bek'ah his wife; and there I

of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

CHAPTER 50

AND Joseph fell upon his father's 1 face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Toseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. and the physicians embalmed Is'ra-el

3 And forty days were fulfilled for himfor so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past. Toseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo. I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Ca'naan. there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Phā'raōh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 I And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Phā'raōh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of

Egypt.

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Gö'shĕn.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of A'tad, which is beyond Jordan: and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Ca'naan-ites, saw the mourning in the floor of A'tad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called A'běl-miz'rā-im, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the 33 And when Jacob had made an end land of Ca'naan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Mach-pe'lah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of E'phron the Hīt'tīte, before Măm'rē.

15 C And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Toseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which unto them. we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command hefore he died, saving,

17 So shall ye say unto Toseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said. Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil from hence. against me: but God meant it unto good. to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

22 C And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house; and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw E'phrā-im's children of the third generation: the children also of Mā'chir the son of Mànăs'sĕh were brought up upon Toseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren. the God of thy father. And Joseph wept I die; and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Tacob.

> 25 And Toseph took an oath of the children of Is'rā-el, saying, God will surely visit you, and ve shall carry up my bones into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

26 So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him. and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, 3 Is'sa-char, Zeb'ū-lun, and Benjamin, 4 Dan, and Năph'ta-lī, Gad, and Ash'er.

Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 I And the children of Is'rā-ĕl were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty: and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl are more and mightier than we:

10 Come on, let us deal wisely with

Now these are the names of the children of Is ra-el, which came into Egypt; every man and his transport may not the came and fight against us. and so get the came into Egypt; every man and his transport may not they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us. and so get the come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pha'raoh treasure cities, Pī'thom and Rā'am-sēs.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the 5 And all the souls that came out of the more they multiplied and grew. And loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for they were grieved because of the children of Is'ra-ël.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Is'rā-ĕl to serve with rigor:

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigor.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiph'rah, and the name of the other Pu'ah;

16 And he said. When ve do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him; but if it be a child's mother. daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. 18 And the king of Egypt called for the nursed it. midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive

19 And the midwives said unto Phat raöh. Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made them houses.

22 And Phā'raōh charged all his people, saving. Every son that is born ve shall cast into the river, and every daughter ve shall save alive.

CHAPTER 2

AND there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 And his sister stood afar off, to wit

what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the daughter of Phā'raōh. came down to wash herself at the river: and her maidens walked along by the river's side: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said. This is one of the Hebrews'

children.

7 Then said his sister to Phā'raōh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Phā'raōh's daughter said to her Go. And the maid went and called the 9 And Phā'raōh's daughter said unto her. Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child. and

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days. when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said.

Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Phā'raōh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pha'raoh. and dwelt in the land of Mid'i-an: and he sat down by a well.

16 Now the priest of Mid'i-an had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. 18 And when they came to Reu'el their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to-day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zippö'rah his daughter.

called his name Ger'shom: for he said, and I have also seen the oppression I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Iş'ra-el sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their Is'ra-el out of Egypt. cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. 25 And God looked upon the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and God had respect unto them.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Mid'i-an: and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Hō'rĕb.

2 And the Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet; for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. 6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was 7 ¶ And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I

afraid to look upon God.

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hit'tites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Per'iz-zites. and the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'ū-sites. 9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the mighty hand.

22 And she bare him a son, and he children of Is'ra-el is come unto me:

wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. 10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Phā'raöh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of 11 I And Moses said unto God. Who am I, that I should go unto Phā'raōh, and that I should bring forth the children of Iş'rā-ĕl out of Egypt?

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Isrā-ĕl, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said unto Moses, I Am THAT I Am: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Is'ra-el.

I Am hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl, The LORD God of your fathers. the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Is'ra-ël together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saving, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hittītes, and the Ām'ō-rītes, and the Pĕr' iz-zites, and the Hi'vites, and the Teb'ūsites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Is'rā-ĕl, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' iourney into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 T And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a 20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

22 But every woman shall borrow of her neighbor, and of her that sojourneth thy mouth, and teach thee what thou in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 4

ND Moses answered and said, But. A behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of

Jacob, hath appeared unto thee. 6 I And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow. 7 And he said. Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land; and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, even thy firstborn.

O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant; but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be with shalt sav.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Le'vite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also. behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

17 And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

18 ¶ And Moses went and returned to Tethro his father-in-law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Mid'i-an, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses. When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Phā'raōh, Thus saith the LORD, Iş'rā-ĕl is my son, even my firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son,

24 C And it came to pass by the way in straw to make brick, as heretofore: let the inn, that the LORD met him, and them go and gather straw for themsought to kill him.

25 Then Zip-pö'rah took a sharp stone. and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 M And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 C And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl:

30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses. and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Is'ra-el, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went A in, and told Phā'raōh, Thus saith the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Phā'raōh said, Who is the Lorp, that I should obey his voice to let Isrā-ĕl go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Iş'rā-ĕl go.

3 And they said. The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God: lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pha'raoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people the eyes of Pha'raoh, and in the eyes of selves

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry. saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our

God.

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labor therein; and let them not regard vain words.

10 I And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Phā'raōh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: vet not aught of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hasted them. saying, Fulfil your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, which Phā'raōh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?

15 Of Then the officers of the children of Is ra-el came and cried unto Pharaöh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten: but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said. Ye are idle, ue are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Îs'rā-ĕl did see that they were in evil case, after it was said. Ye shall not minish aught from your bricks of your daily task.

20 C And they met Moses and Aaron. who stood in the way, as they came forth from Phā'raöh:

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savor to be abhorred in his servants, to put a sword in their hand saying, Behold, the children of Is'ra-si to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me 23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAPTER 6

HEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pha'raoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty; but by my name JE-HOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Ca'năan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments:

7 And I will take you to me for a people. and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for a heritage: I am the LORD

27 These are they which spake to Pha? raoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Is'ra-ël from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 I And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt,

29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

30 And Moses said before the LORD. Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pha'raoh hearken unto me?

CHAPTER 7

ND the LORD said unto Moses, See, ✓ I have made thee a god to Phā² raöh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Phā'raōh, that he send the children of Is'rā-ĕl out of his land.

3 And I will harden Phā'raōh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Is'ra-el, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Iş'rā-ĕl from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old. and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Phā'raöh.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses

and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Phā'raōh shall speak unto you, saying, Show a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron. Take thy rod. and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Phā'raöh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Phā'raōh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 Then Phā'raöh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magi- raoh's heart was hardened, neither did that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. 13 And he hardened Phā'raōh's heart.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses. Phā'raōh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him. The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold. I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt. both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pha'raoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Phahe hearken unto them; as the LORD had and from thy houses, and from thy serv-

23 And Phā'raöh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, Go unto Phā'raōh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs:

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneadingtroughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 I And the LORD spake unto Moses. Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. 7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs

upon the land of Egypt.

and Aaron, and said, Entreat the LORD. that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Phā'raōh, Glory over me: when shall I entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, To-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the LORD our God.

ants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Phā'raöh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Phā'raōh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses: and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps; and the land stank.

15 But when Phā'raōh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

16 I And the LORD said unto Moses. Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of

Egypt.

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharivers, and over the ponds, and cause raoh, This is the finger of God: and Pharaöh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

20 T And the LORD said unto Moses Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Phā'raōh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith 8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold. I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Gō'shen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to-morrow shall 24 And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Phā'raōh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 © And Phā'raōh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do: for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Phā'raōh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: entreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Phā'raōh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow: but let not Phat raōh deal deceitfully any more in not let-LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Phā'raöh.

and entreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Phä'raöh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Phā'raōh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Iş'rā-ĕl and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all go? that is the children's of Is'rā-el.

5 And the Lorp appointed a set time. saying, To-morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Is-rā-ĕl died not one.

7 And Pha'raoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Is'raěl-ites dead. And the heart of Phā'raōh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 T And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Phä'raöh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the magicians could not stand ting the people go to sacrifice to the before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pha'raoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

18 Behold, to-morrow about this time

I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now. 19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die. 20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 I And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven. that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as that y there was none like it in all the land of LORD. Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Go'shen, where the children of Is'ra-ĕl were, was there no hail.

27 T And Phā'raöh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 Entreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD: and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD's.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Phā'raōh, and spread abroad his hand unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Phā'raōh, and said unto him. Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to-morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Phā'raöh.

7 And Phā'raōh's servants said unto know that ye will not yet fear the LORD him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Phā'raöh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God:

but who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

12 T And the LORD said unto Moses. Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 Then Phā'raōh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and entreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven: and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Is'ra-ĕl had light in their dwellings.

24 ¶ And Phā⁷raōh called unto Moses. and said. Go ve. serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be staved: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said. Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our

God.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us: there shall not a hoof be left behind: for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

28 And the children of Is'ra-ĕl went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 T And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Phā'raōh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Phā'raöh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 C And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ve and the children of Is'ra-el; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyp-

37 ¶ And the children of Ĭş'rā-ĕl jour-neyed from Răm'ē-sēş to Suc'cŏth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victuals.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Is'ra-el, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Is'rā-ĕl in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt not carry forth aught of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Is'ra-el shall

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn hand hath the LORD brought thee out of with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Is'rā-ĕl: as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the selfsame day, that the LORD did bring the children of Is'rā-ĕl out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

CHAPTER 13

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out in the month A'bĭb.

5 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canăan-îtes, and the Hit'tites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Hi'vites, and the Jěb'ū-sītes, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

14 And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Phā'raöh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the Lord brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Phi-lis'tines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the 7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten Red sea: and the children of Iş'rā-ĕl with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And they took their journey from Suc'coth, and encamped in E'tham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them. 8 And the LORD hardened the heart of 19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Iş'rā-ĕl cried. out unto the LORD.

11 And they said unto Moses. Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will show to you to-day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak 3 For Phā'raōh will say of the children unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Iş'ra-ĕl shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honor upon Phā'raōh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horse-

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honor upon Phā'raōh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 Q And the Angel of God, which went before the camp of Iş'rā-ĕl, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Is'ra-el: and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all 10 And when Pha'raoh drew that night, and made the sea dry land, 22 And the children of Is'ra-ĕl went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Phā'raōh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Is'ra-el; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 I And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea. that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the the mighty waters. midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pha'raoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Iş'rā-ĕl walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Iş'rā-ĕl that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Is'rā-ĕl saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore.

31 And Ĭş'rā-ĕl saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD. and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

22 So Moses brought Is'rā-ĕl from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 ¶ And when they came to Mā'rah, they could not drink of the waters of Mā'rah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Ma'rah.

24 And the people murmured against against us? Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried unto the LORD; and the LORD showed him a tree, which when he proved them,

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning. every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake today, and seethe that ve will seethe; and to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not stink. neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to-day; for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD: today ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 I And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

tempt the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD. saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Iş'rā-ĕl, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

8 And all the people answered together, 22 And let them judge the people at and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo. I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 I And the LORD said unto Moses. 24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of Go unto the people, and sanctify them his father-in-law, and did all that he had to-day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes,

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sī'naī.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: 13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount. 14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their 15 And he said unto the people. Be ready against the third day; come not at in the earth beneath, or that is in the uour wives.

16 Q And it came to pass on the third thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the

a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Si'nai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount: and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD. The people cannot come up to mount Sī'naī: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him. Away. get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break any thing that is thy neighbor's. forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

CHAPTER 20

AND God spake all these words, saying,

2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any Moses drew near unto the thick darkthing that is in heaven above, or that is ness where God was.

water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to day in the morning, that there were them, nor serve them; for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

6 And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will 18 And mount Si'nai was altogether on not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath louder, Moses spake, and God answered of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 ¶ Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor 18 I And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moses said unto the people. Fear not: for God is come to prove you, 3 Thou shalt have no other gods before and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and 22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 ¶ An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

NOW these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

2 If thou buy a Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife. and she have borne him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant shall plainly say. I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free;

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the doorpost; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 ¶ And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife, her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 If He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbor, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 T And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death. 16 C And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, out by himself: if he were married, then or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe. 26 And if a man smite the eve of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eve's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth: he shall let him go free for his tooth's

28 Tf an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten: 11 And if he do not these three unto but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER 22

IF a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution: if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

5 If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man shall deliver unto his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbor's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbor.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbor an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

.11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbor's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.
13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow aught of his neighbor, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be a hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 ¶ And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife. 17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

19 ¶ Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 ¶ He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

21 ¶ Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me. I will surely hear

will kill you with the sword; and your land of Egypt. wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 If thou at all take thy neighbor's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I son of thy handmaid, and the stranger. am gracious.

28 Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

29 (Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

31 ¶ And ye shall be holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast before me empty:) it to the dogs.

CHAPTER 23

THOU shalt not raise a false report:

put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 M Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause. 4 If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

8 ¶ And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 I Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a

24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the 10 And six years thou shalt sow the land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let not be to him as a usurer, neither shalt it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard. and with thy oliveyard.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month A'bib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear

16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labors, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labors out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 T Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice. provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in

him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Am'o-rites. and the Hit'tites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Ca'naan-ites, the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'ū-sītes; and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.

27 I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come; and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send hornets before thee. which shall drive out the Hi'vite, the Ca'naan-ite, and the Hit'tite, from before thee.

29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philis'tines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

CHAPTER 24

AND he said unto Moses, Come up A unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nā'dāb, and A-bī'hū, and seventy of the elders of Is'rā-el; and worship ye to do, let him come unto them. afar off.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 I And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and the cloud. all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All LORD was like devouring fire on the top the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Is'ra-el.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nā'dab, and A-bi'hū, and seventy of the elders of Is'ra-ĕl;

10 And they saw the God of Iş'rā-ĕl: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Is'rā-ĕl he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

12 I And the LORD said unto Moses. Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua; and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hûr are with you: if any man have any matters and a cloud covered the mount. 16 And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Si'nai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of 17 And the sight of the glory of the of the mount in the eyes of the children of İş'rā-ĕl.

15 And Moses went up into the mount.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl. that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass, 4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

6 Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense, 7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the eph'od, and in the breastplate. 8 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. 9 According to all that I show thee, the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 ¶ And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. 11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure sold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with 14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it. 16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubim of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubim on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubim shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cher-

21 And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Ĭş'rā-ĕl.

23 Thou shalt also make a table of after the pattern of the tabernacle, and shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. 24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of a handbreadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof. 27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table

showbread before me always.

31 II And thou shalt make a candlebe the length thereof, and a cubit and a stick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side:

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that make. come out of the candlestick.

howls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was showed thee in the mount.

CHAPTER 26

OREOVER thou shalt make the VI tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubim of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second: that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one

And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou

8 The length of one curtain shall be 34 And in the candlestick shall be four thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits; and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is out-36 Their knops and their branches most in the coupling, and fifty loops in shall be of the same: all of it shall be the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the back side of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dved red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 @ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there he in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two 5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the sockets under one board for his two board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards,

21 And their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 C And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. 29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold. 30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was showed thee in the mount. 31 I And thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubim shall it be made.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 ¶ And thou shalt hang up the veil under the taches, that thou mavest bring in thither within the veil the ark of the testimony: and the veil shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy blace.

35 And thou shalt set the table without the table on the side of the tabernacle silver.

CHAPTER 27

ND thou shalt make an altar of A shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basins, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans; all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was showed thee in the mount.

so shall they make it.

9 ¶ And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of a hundred cubits long for one side:

10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of a hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the the veil, and the candlestick over against hooks of the pillars and their fillets of

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the eph'od of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof: and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the curious girdle of the eph'od, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onvx stones. and grave on them the names of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Is'ra-el: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the eph'od for stones of memorial unto the children of Îş'rā-ĕl: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

13 ¶ And thou shalt make ouches of gold:

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathed work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathed chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the eph'od thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

2 And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them take of his blood, and put it upon the with water.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the eph'od, and the eph'od, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the eph'od:

6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them; and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, bu the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with 15 Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the Lord: it is a sweet savor, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. 19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. 20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration: 23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons: and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast fire without the camp; it is a sin offering, of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Is'ra-el; for it is a heave offering; and it shall be a heave offering from the children of Iş'rā-ĕl of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days. when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy blace.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things. wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD, where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

45 ¶ And I will dwell among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, and will be their God. 46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off 8 And the table and his furniture, and the golden earrings, which are in the lie pure candlestick with all his furni- ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. 3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears.

and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand. and fashioned it with a graving tool. after he had made it a molten calf: and they said. These be thy gods, O Is'rā-ĕl, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To-morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morof Iş'rā-el, saying, Verily my sabbaths row, and offered burnt offerings, and ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 T And the LORD said unto Moses Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods,

O Is'rā-ĕl, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God. and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Is'rā-ĕl, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides: on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said. It is not the voice of overcome; but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of s'rā-ĕl drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were naked, (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies,)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to-day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I them that shout for mastery, neither is will go up unto the LORD; peradventure it the voice of them that cry for being I shall make an atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin-; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless, in the day when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAPTER 33

▲ND the LORD said unto Moses. Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saving, Unto thy seed will I give it:

2 And I will send an Angel before thee: and I will drive out the Ca'naan-ite, the Am'ō-rīte, and the Hit'tīte, and the Periz-zīte, the Hī'vīte, and the Jeb'ū-sīte: 3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way.

4 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses. Say unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Is'ra-el stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Ho'reb.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses. until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door; and all the people rose up and worshipped.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp; but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 C And Moses said unto the LORD. See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name. and thou hast also found grace in my 13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, show me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.

14 And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. 15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated. I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. 18 And he said, I beseech thee, show me thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom will show mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and the top of the mount.

3 And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 I And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Si'nai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

6 And the LORD passed by before him. and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the chilthe fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.

10 ¶ And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in thee, and enlarge thy borders; neither

26 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the

kid in his mother's milk.

27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Iş'rā-ĕl.

28 And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights: he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Si'nai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Iş'rā-ĕl saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Is'rā-ĕl came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Si'nai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Ĭş'rā-ĕl that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Is'ra-el saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

8 And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the eph'od, and for the breastplate. 10 And every wise-hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded:

11 The tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets:

12 The ark, and the staves thereof. with the mercy seat, and the veil of the covering:

13 The table, and his staves, and all his

14 The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light:

15 And the incense altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle;

16 The altar of burnt offering, with his brazen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot: 17 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court:

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords;

19 The clothes of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one 2 Six days shall work be done, but on whom his spirit made willing, and they the seventh day there shall be to you a brought the LORD's offering to the work Of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willinghearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered, offered an offering of gold unto the Lord.

23 And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought

them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wisehearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' and stones to be set, for the eph'od, and for the breastplate;

28 And spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Iş'rā-ĕl brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every they caused it to be proclaimed throughman and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Is rā-ĕl, See, the LORD hath called by name Bē-zăl'ē-ĕl the son of Ü'rī, the son of Hûr, of the tribe of Judah;

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle.

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 I And he made a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubim made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 I And he made a hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needlework:

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapiters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

ND Bē-zăl'ē-ĕl made the ark of A shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the staves into the rings 27 And for the sides of the tabernaele by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. 6 I And he made the mercy seat of length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

8 One cherub on the end on this side. and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubim on the two ends thereof.

9 And the cherubim spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another: even to the mercy seat-ward were the faces of the cherubim.

10 Cl And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof. and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof:

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a border of a handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold. and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof. 14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table. 15 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table. 16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold.

17 I And he made the candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers. were of the same:

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same; all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 I And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit: it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it: the horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 I And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north side the hangings were a hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. 15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass: the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

23 And with him was A-ho'li-ab, son of A-his'a-mach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy blace, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: 26 A be'käh for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary. and the sockets of the veil; a hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapi-ters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

CHAPTER 39

ND of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made clothes of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses. 2 And he made the eph'od of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod. that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 C And they wrought onvx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the eph'od, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Isrā-ĕl; as the LORD commanded Moses.

¶ And he made the breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst. 13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Is'ra-el, twelve according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve Moses. tribes.

15 And they made upon the breast-

work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathed chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathed chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the eph'od, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the eph'od inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the eph'od underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the eph'od.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the eph'od with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the eph'od, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the eph'od; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 C And he made the robe of the eph'od of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe. round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in: as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 ¶ And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, 28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen. 29 And a girdle of fine twined linen. and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the LORD commanded 30 ¶ And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon plate chains at the ends, of wreathed it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue. to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Iş'rā-ĕI EXODUS 39, 40

manded Moses, so did they.

33 C And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets:

34 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins.

and the veil of the covering:

35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy seat:

36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the showbread:

37 The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light:

38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door;

39 The brazen altar, and his grate of his foot, and sanctify it. brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot:

40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation:

41 The clothes of service to do service in the holy blace, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office.

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Is'rā-ĕl made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had he. they done it: and Moses blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

ND the LORD spake unto Moses,

A saving.

2 On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the veil.

4 And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps the ark, and put the mercy seat above thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold did according to all that the LORD com- testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the hurnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil. and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof; and it shall be holv.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and 12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him. and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. 14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did

17 I And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the testimony, and cover the ark with the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 I And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the for the incense before the ark of the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the The cloud by day and the fire by night covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the veil.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 C And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD: as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the veil: 27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon: as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 I And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 C And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their, feet thereat: 32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Is'rā-ĕl went onward in all their iournevs:

37 But if the cloud were not taken up. then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Iş'rā-ĕl, throughout all their journeys.

LEVITICUS

CHAPTER 1

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ěl. and say unto them. If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall the herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire:

8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD.

10 I And if his offering be of the flocks.

The burnt offerings. The meat offering namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the alter northward before the LORD; and the priests. Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar. 12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD

14 T And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD.

CHAPTER 2

ND when any will offer a meat offer-A ing unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon.

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD:

3 And the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

7 C And if thy oblation be a meat offering baked in the frying pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD.

10 And that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven; for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 C As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savor.

13 And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full ears. 15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat

CHAPTER 4

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, A saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saving. If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them:

3 If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the veil of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation: and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

11 And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung.

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the carny unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ And if the whole congregation of Is 7a-81 sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD; and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD. 16 And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the veil.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. 19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it spon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 ¶ And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty;

28 Or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savor unto the Lord; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be foreiven him.

32 And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar: The trespass offerings thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER 5

ND if a soul sin, and hear the voice of whether swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2 Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcass of an unclean beast, or a carcass of unclean cattle, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty.

3 Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And if he be not able to bring a lamb. then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder:

CHAPTER 7

TIKEWISE this is the law of the trespass offering: it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards.

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon his iniquity. the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORDs it is a trespass offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of beast, of which men offer an offering fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the scoured, and rinsed in water. whole oblation for a heave offering unto 29 All the males among the priests the Lord, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice; and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ve shall in no wise eat

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover ve shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 C And the LORD spake unto Moses. saving.

29 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el. saving. He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD, shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast; it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar; but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for a heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons, by a statute for ever, from among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl.

35 I This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Is'rā-el, in statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering. of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings:

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Si'nai, in the day that he commanded the children of Is'ra-ĕl to offer wilderness of Si'naï.

CHAPTER 8

ND the LORD spake unto Moses. saving.

2 Take Aaron and his sons with him. and the garments, and the anointing oil. and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread.

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.

7 And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the eph'od upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the eph'od, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the U'rim and the Thum'mim.

9 And he put the mitre upon his head: also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the anointing oil. and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons. the day that he anointed them, by a and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

15 And he slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood their oblations unto the LORD, in the at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

18 ¶ And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram

19 And he killed it: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savor, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew it: and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the

LORD.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD;

16 And he took all the fat that was the burnt offering: they were consecramade by fire unto the LORD.

> 29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 C And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ve burn with 33 And we shall not so out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 9

ND it came to pass on the eighth day. A that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Is'ra-el:

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering:

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace and a meat offering mingled with oil: sons presented unto him the blood. for to-day the LORD will appear unto which he sprinkled upon the altar round

you.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said. This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 C Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar: as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13. And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 Q And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering. and offered it according to the manner. 17 And he brought the meat offering.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them; and came down from offering of the sin offering. and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10

AND Nā'dāb and Â-bī'hū, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mish'ā-ĕl and El-zā'phan, the sons of Ŭz-zī'el the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto El'ē-ā'zar and unto Ith'a-mar, his sons, fice of the morning.

hand of Moses.

12 M And Moses spake unto Aaron. and unto El'ē-ā'zar and unto Ith'a-mar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it most holy.

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Is'ra-el.

content.

CHAPTER 11

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and 12 to Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, 11 And that ye may teach the children saying, These are the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ve eat.

4 Nevertheless, these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, bewithout leaven beside the altar: for it is cause he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

5 And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof: he is unclean unto you.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you.

9 These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth:

22 Even these of them ve may eat: the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ve shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcass of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth aught of the carcass of them shall wash his clothes.

26 The carcasses of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whose toucheth their carcass shall be unclean until the even.

35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcass falleth shall be unclean: whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

36 Nevertheless a fountain or pit. wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcass shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcass fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcass fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto vou.

39 And if any beast, of which ve may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcass thereof shall be unclean until the even.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ve make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

44 For I am the LORD your God: ve shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ve shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

45 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for

I am holv.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

CHAPTER 12

AND the LORD spake unto Moses,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl. saving, If a woman have conceived seed, and borne a man child, then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath borne a male or a female.

8 And if she be not able to bring a lamb. then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him. and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again 3 And in the eighth day the flesh of his the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;

10 And the priest shall see him: and. behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh:

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest:

17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him

24 I Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white:

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it. and. behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard:

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days:

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague; and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more:

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall; and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing; 36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in theskin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

turn unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Lē'vītes, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Lē'vītes redeem at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Letvites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Is ra-ei.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

35 ¶ And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Ca'naan, and to be your God.

39 ¶ And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant:

40 But as a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are my servants, which I him.

The redemptions in the year of jubilee brought forth out of the land of Egypt:

they shall not be sold as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigor: but shalt fear thy God.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you, of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover, of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land; and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever; but over your brethren the children of Iş'rā-ël, ye shall not rule one over another with rigor.

47 And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigor over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

Israel's obedience to be rewarded

CHAPTER 26

TE shall make you no idols nor graven L image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

2 W Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD. 3 C If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them:

4 Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

6 And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

they shall fall before you by the sword. 8 And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new.

11 And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you. 12 And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. 13 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen: and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright. 14 I But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if we shall despise my statutes. or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that we break my covenant:

16 I also will do this unto you; I will idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

55 For unto me the children of Iş'rā-ĕl even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. 19 And I will break the pride of your power: and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land vield their fruits.

21 And if ye walk contrary unto me. and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate.

23 And if ye will not be reformed by me 7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and by these things, but will walk contrary unto me:

24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you. that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate. and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest: because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ve dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37 And they shall fall one upon another. as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to

CHAPTER 27

AND the LORD spake unto Moses. A saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl. and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular yow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thy estimation.

3 And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And if it be from five years old even tion shall be of the male twenty shekels. and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value with Jacob, and also my covenant with him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast. then it and the exchange thereof shall he holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast. of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

he shall add a fifth bart thereof unto thy estimation. 14 Q And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el; and the Le' vites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they,

CHAPTER 2

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying.

2 Every man of the children of Is ra-ĕl shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Näh'shon the son of Am-min'a-dab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Is'sa-char: and Nethăn'ē-ĕl the son of Zū'ar shall be captain of the children of Is'sa-char.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zěb'ū-lun: and E-lī'āb the son of Hē'lŏn shall be captain of the children of Zĕb'ū-lŭn.

8 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were a hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies: these shall first set forth.

10 I On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be E-li'zur the son of Shed'e-ur.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Simeon; and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelū'mĭ-ĕl the son of Zū'rĭ-shăd'daī.

13 And his host, and those that were

53 But the Le'vites shall pitch round numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

> 14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be E-lift a-saph the son of Reu'el.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were a hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies: and they shall set forth in the second rank.

17 I Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Le'vites in the midst of the camp; as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.

18 ¶ On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of E'phra-im according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of E'phra-im shall be E-lish' à-mä the son of Am-mi'hud.

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of Mà-nas'sĕh: and the captain of the children of Ma-nas'seh shall be Ga-ma' li-ĕl the son of Pē-däh'zŭr.

21 And his host, and those that were thousand and two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of Benjamin; and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Ab'i-dăn the son of Gid'ē-ō'nī.

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of E'phrā-im were a hundred thousand and eight thousand and a hundred. throughout their armies: and they shall go forward in the third rank.

25 The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan shall be A'hī-ē'zēr the son of Am'mĭ-shăd'daī.

26 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

27 And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Ash'er: and the captain of the children of Ash'er shall be Pa'gi-el the son of Oc'ran.

28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

29 ¶ Then the tribe of Naph'ta-li: and the captain of the children of Năph'tà-li shall be A-hī'ra the son of E'nan.

30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were a hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred: they shall go hindmost with their standards.

32 These are those which were numbered of the children of Is'ra-el by the house of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Le'vites were not numbered among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl; as the LORD commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Is'ra-el did according to all that the LORD com-manded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

CHAPTER 3

HESE also are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sī'naī.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Na'dab the firstborn, and A-bî'hû, El'ē-ā'zar, and Ĭth'a-mär.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office.

4 And Nā'dāb and A-bī'hū died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sī'naī, and they had no children: and El'ē-ā'zar and Ith'a-mār ministered in their father.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that Ger'shon-ites.

they may minister unto him.

to do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Is'ra-el, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Lë'vites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Is'ra-el instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Ist rā-ĕl: therefore the Lē'vītes shall be mine:

13 Because all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Is'ra-el, both man and beast: mine they shall be: I am

the LORD.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sī'naī, saving, 15 Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Ger'shon, and Ko'hath. and Me-ra'ri.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Ger'shon by their families; Lib'ni, and Shim'ē-ī.

19 And the sons of Kö'hath by their families; Äm'răm, and Ĭz'ē-här, Hē' bron, and Ŭz-zī'ěl.

20 And the sons of Me-ra'ri by their families; Mäh'lī, and Mū'shī. These the priest's office in the sight of Aaron are the families of the Le'vites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Ger'shon was the family of the Lib'nītes, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the 22 Those that were numbered of them, 7 And they shall keep his charge, and according to the number of all the males, the charge of the whole congregation be- from a month old and upward, even fore the tabernacle of the congregation, those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Ger'shon-ites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Ger'shon-ites shall be Ē-lī'à-săph the son of Lā'ĕl.

25 And the charge of the sons of Gërshon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it.

27 ¶ And of Kō'hāth was the family of the Am'rām-ites, and the family of the L̄c'e-hār-ites, and the family of the H̄c'bron-ites, and the family of the Uz-zīc'el-ites: these are the familles of the Kō'hāth-ites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kō'hāth shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

'30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kö'häthites shall be El'i-zā'phān the son of Üz-zī'ēl.

31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And El'ē-ā'zar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the Lē'vītes, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Mē-rā'rī was the family of the Māh'lītes, and the family of the Mū'shites: these are the families of Mē-rā'rī.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Mē-rā'rī was Zū'rī-ēl the son of Āb'ī-hāil: these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And under the custody and charge of the sons of Mē-rā'rī shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto.

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins.

38 ¶ But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Is ra-ei; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

39 All that were numbered of the Let vites, which is Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the Lord, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of İş'rā-ĕl from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Lē'vītes for me (I am the Lord) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Is'rā-ēl; and the cattle of the Lē'vītes instead of all the firstligns among the cattle of the children of Is'rā-ēl.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Is'ra-ĕl.

43 And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 T And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saying,

45 Take the Lē'vites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Iş'rā-ĕi, and the cattle of the Lē'vites instead of their cattle; and the Lē'vites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Is'rā-ĕi, which are more than the Le'vites:

47 Thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel is twenty gē'rāhs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his

SOUS.

49 And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Le' vites:

50 Of the firstborn of the children of Is'ra-ël took he the money: a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

5 M And the LORD spake unto Moses.

saving.

6 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el. When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty:

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against the curse: whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; beside the atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his. 10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

11 C And the LORD spake unto Moses.

saving.

12 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and say unto them. If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him.

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an e'phah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near.

and set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering; and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no. man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot.

And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.
23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:

26 And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even the memorial there-of, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled:

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl. and say unto them. When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD:

3 He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree. from the kernels even to the husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let head of his separation at the door of the the locks of the hair of his head grow, tabernacle of the congregation, and shall dead hody. 7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 Q And this is the law of the Nazarite: when the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings,

15 And a basket of unleavened bread. cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings.

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering, and his drink offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shave the tion, and put it in the fire which is under ing to his service. the sacrifice of the peace offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: this is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get: according to the yow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 I And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saving,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying unto them, 24 The LORD bless thee, and keep thee: 25 The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: 26 The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Is'ra-el, and I will bless them.

CHAPTER 7

ND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them;

2 That the princes of Is'ra-el, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered, offered:

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying.

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Le'vites. 7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Ger'shon, according to their service: 8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Mē-rā'rī, according unto their service, under the hand of Ith'a-mär the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But unto the sons of Ko'hath he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

10 ¶ And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses. They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the first day was Näh'shon the son of Am-min'a-dab, of the tribe of Judah:

13 And his offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof-was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense:

15 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

16 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

17 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Näh'shon the son of Ammin'a-dab.

18 ¶ On the second day Në-thăn'ë-ĕl the son of Zū'ar, prince of Is'sa-char,

84 This was the dedication of the altar, thirty shekels, one silver bowl of sev- in the day when it was anointed, by the enty shekels, after the shekel of the princes of Isra-ei: twelve chargers of sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

85 Each charger of silver weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy: all the silver vessels weighed lamb of the first year, for a burnt two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

86 The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece. after the shekel of the sanctuary: all the two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five gold of the spoons was a hundred and

87 All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their meat offering: and the kids of the goats for sin offering twelve.

88 And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty and four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after that it was anointed.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spake unto him.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so: he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold; unto the shaft thereof. unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the pattern which the LORD had showed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 T And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saving.

6 Take the Le'vites from among the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and cleanse them. 7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Le'vites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Is'ra-el together.

10 And thou shalt bring the Le'vites before the LORD: and the children of Iş'rā-ĕl shall put their hands upon the Lë'vites:

children of Iş'rā-ĕl, that they may execute the service of the LORD.

12 And the Le'vites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Le'vites.

13 And thou shalt set the Lē'vites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the

LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Let vites from among the children of Is'ra-el: and the Le'vites shall be mine.

15 And after that shall the Le'vites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Is'ra-el; instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Is'rā-ĕl, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the firstborn of the children of Is'rā-ĕl are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Le'vites for all the firstborn of the children of 19 And I have given the Lë'vites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, to do the service of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Îș'rā-ĕl: that there be no plague among the children of Is'ra-el, when the children of Is'rā-ĕl come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Is'rā-ĕl did to the Le'vites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Le'vites, so did the children of Is'ra-ĕl unto them.

21 And the Lë'vites were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Le'vites in to do their service in the tabernacle of 11 And Aaron shall offer the Le'vites the congregation before Aaron, and bebefore the LORD for an offering of the fore his sons; as the LORD had comso did they unto them.

23 C And the LORD spake unto Moses.

saying, 24 This is it that belongeth unto the Le'vites: from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Lē'vītes touching their charge.

CHAPTER 9

ND the LORD spake unto Moses in A the wilderness of Si'nai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2 Let the children of Iş'rā-el also keep the passover at his appointed season.

nacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumbet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Is'ra-el, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets: and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

11 C And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. 12 And the children of Is'ra-el took their journeys out of the wilderness of Si'nai: and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Pa'ran.

13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Näh'shon the son of Ammĭn'a-dăb.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Is'sa-char was Ne-than'e-el the son of Zū'ar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zěb'ū-lun was E-li'ab the son of Hē'lon. 17 And the tabernacle was taken down: and the sons of Ger'shon and the sons of Mē-rā'rī set forward, bearing the tabernacle.

18 I And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was E-li'zur the son of Shed'e-ur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shē-lū'mĭ-ĕl the son of Zū'rĭ-shăd'daī.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was E-li'a-saph the son of Deū'ěl.

21 And the Ko'hath-ites set forward. bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 I And the standard of the camp of the children of E'phra-im set forward according to their armies: and over his host was E-lish'a-mä the son of Ammī'hŭd.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Ma-nas'seh was Ga-ma'li-el the son of Pē-däh'zŭr.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Ab'i-dan the son of Gid'ē-ō'nī.

25 C And the standard of the camp of beginnings of your months, ye shall the children of Dan set forward, which blow with the trumpets over your burnt was the rearward of all the camps offerings, and over the sacrifices of your throughout their hosts: and over his host was A'hi-e'zer the son of Ammi-shăd'dai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Ash'er was Pa'gi-el the son of Oc'ran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Năph'tà-li was A-hi'rà the son of E'nan.

28 Thus were the journeyings of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl according to their armies, when they set forward.

29 C And Moses said unto Ho'bab, the son of Ra-gu'el the Mid'i-an-ite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said. I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Īs'rā-ĕl.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 @ And they departed from the mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for

34 And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark swarest unto their fathers? set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Is'rā-ĕl.

CHAPTER 11

ND when the people complained, it see my wretchedness. A displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp. 2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, they may stand there with thee.

3 And he called the name of the place Tăb'ē-ràh: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 I And the mixed multitude that was among them fell a lusting: and the children of Is'ra-ĕl also wept again, and said. Who shall give us flesh to eat? 5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic:

6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, besides this manna, before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as coriander seed, and the color thereof as the color of bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 I Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favor in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou hear it not thyself alone.

13 Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

18 And say thou unto the people. Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow, and ve shall eat flesh: for ve have went in the ears of the LORD, saving, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you; because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 C And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle. 25 And the LORD came down in a cloud. and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was El'dad, and the name of the other Me' dad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp, > 33 And while the flesh was vet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

> 34 And he called the name of that place Kib'rŏth-hăt-tā'a-vah: because there they buried the people that lusted. 35 And the people journeyed from Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah unto Ha-ze'roth; and abode at Ha-zë'rŏth.

CHAPTER 12

ND Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek. above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ve not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam *be*came leprous, white as snow; and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses. Alas. my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 And Moses cried unto the LORD. saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but soit in her face. should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeved not till Miriam was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people removed from Hà-ze'roth, and pitched in the wilderness of Pā'răn.

CHAPTER 13

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Send thou men, that they may search the land of Ca'naan, which I give unto the children of Is'ra-el: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Pā'rān: all those men were heads of the children of Is'ra-ël.

4 And these were their names: Of the tribe of Reuben. Sham-mu'a the son of Zăc'cur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shā'phāt the son of Hö'rī.

6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jē-phun'něh.

7 Of the tribe of Is'sà-chär, I'găl the son of Joseph. 8 Of the tribe of E'phra-im, O-she'a the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Păl'tî the son of Rā'phū.

10 Of the tribe of Zeb'u-lun. Gad-dĭ-ĕl the son of Sō'dī.

11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Ma-nas'seh, Gad'di the son of Sū'sī.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Am'mi-ĕl the son of Ge-măl'lī.

13 Of the tribe of Ash'er, Se'thur the son of Mī'chā-ĕl. 14 Of the tribe of Naph'ta-li, Näh'bī the son of Voph'si. 15 Of the tribe of Gad, Ge-u'el the son of Mā'chī.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called O-she'a the son of Nŭn, Jē-hŏsh'ū-a.

17 I And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Ca'naan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities theu be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strongholds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first ripe

21 \ So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rē'hob, as men come to Hā'math.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto He'bron; where A-hi'man, Shē'shaī, and Täl'maī, the children of A'năk, were. (Now He'bron was built seven years before Zō'ăn in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the brook of Esh'col, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates. and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Esh'col, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Iş'rā-ĕl cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, unto the wilderness of Pa'ran, to Ka'desh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of A'nak there.

29 The Am'à-lek-ites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hit'tites, and the Jĕb'ū-sītes, and the Am'ō-rītes, dwell in the mountains: and the Ca'naan-ites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Tordan.

30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than 32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of A'nak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

CHAPTER 14

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Is'rā-ĕl murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

The spies report. The people murmur

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into

Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl.

6 T And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Je-phun'neh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. 9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses. How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have showed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak,

saying,

16 Because the LORD was not able to sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saving.

18 The LORD is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the quilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned

according to thy word:

21 But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the

LORD.

22 Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice:

23 Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

24 But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went: and his seed shall possess it.

25 (Now the Am'a-lek-ites and the Cā'naan-ītes dwelt in the valley.) Tomorrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red

26 T And the LORD spake unto Moses

and unto Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you

29 Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness, and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, the LORD will not be with you. which have murmured against me, bring this people into the land which he land, concerning which I sware to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Je-phun'neh, and Joshua the son of Nŭn

> 31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prev. them will I bring in. and they shall know the land which ye have despised.

32 But as for you, your carcasses, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcasses be wasted in the wilderness.

34 After the number of the days in which ve searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise.

35 I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land,

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Je-phun'neh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Is'ra-el; and the people mourned greatly.

40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Am'a-lek-ites and the Canăan-îtes are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore

CHAPTER 15

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and say unto them. When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which

I give unto you,

3 And will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savor unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock:

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour, mingled with the fourth part of a hin of oil.

5 And the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour, mingled with the third part of a hin of oil.

7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of a hin of wine, for a sweet savor unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the LORD; 9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour, mingled with half a hin of oil. 10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD. 11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. 12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ve do to every one according to their number.

13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your ignorance. generations, and will offer an offering covenant of the LORD, and Moses, de- made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses. saving.

18 Speak unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl. and say unto them. When ye come into the land whither I bring you.

19 Then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up a heave offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering: as ue do the heave offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it. 21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD a heave offering in your generations.

22 ¶ And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments. which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses.

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations:

24 Then it shall be, if aught be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in rance, then he shall bring a she goat of to be your God: I am the LORD your the first year for a sin offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 Ye shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

30 @ But the soul that doeth aught presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD; and that soul shall he cut off from among his people.

31 Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off: his iniquity shall be upon him.

32 M And while the children of Is'ra-ël were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. 34 And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him.

35 And the LORD said unto Moses. The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. 36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses.

37 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses,

saying,

38 Speak unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments, throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribband of blue:

30 And it shall be unto you for a fringe. that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a whoring:

40 That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

41 I am the Lord your God, which and A-bi'ram, the sons of E-li'ab; which brought you out of the land of Egypt, said, We will not come up:

God.

CHAPTER 16

TOW Kō'rah, the son of Iz'har, the son of Kô'hặth, the son of Levi, and Da'than and A-bi'ram, the sons of E-li'ab, and On, the son of Pe'leth, sons of Reuben, took men:

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Is'ra-el, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown:

3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them. Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face:

And he spake unto Kō'rah and unto all his company, saying, Even to-morrow the LORD will show who are his. and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him.

6 This do: Take you censers, Kō'rāh.

and all his company;

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to-morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: ue take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi. 8 And Moses said unto Ko'rah, Hear,

I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Iş'rā-ĕl hath separated you from the congregation of Iş'rā-ĕl, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Da'than brought us up out of a land that floweth came out, and stood in the door of their with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us?

14 Moreover, thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. 15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Kō'rah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ve before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers: thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with

Moses and Aaron.

19 And Ko'rah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses

and unto Aaron, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? 23 I And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying.

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Ko'rah, Da'than, and A-bi'ram.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Da'than and A-bi'ram; and the elders of Is'rā-ĕl followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast every side: and Da'than and A-hi'ram tents, and their wives, and their sons. and their little children.

> 28 And Moses said, Hereby ve shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that abbertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

31 I And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth. and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Ko'rah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Is'ra-el that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 I And the LORD spake unto Moses.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. 49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides them that died about the matter of Ko'rah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

6 I And Moses spake unto the children of Is'ra-el, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Iş'rā-ĕl: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses. Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die

8 III And the LORD spake unto Aaron. Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every meat offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is thine: the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Is'rā-ĕl: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the Is'rā-ĕl, which they offer as a heave

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem. according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gë'rahs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savor unto the LORD.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Is'ra-el offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 T And the LORD spake unto Aaron. Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl.

21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Iş'rā-ĕl for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Isrā-ĕl henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die.

23 But the Le'vites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Is'ra-el they have no inheritance. 24 But the tithes of the children of offering unto the LORD, I have given to of her blood directly before the taberthe Le vites to inherit: therefore I have nacle of the congregation seven times. said unto them, Among the children of

27 And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

28 Thus ye also shall offer a heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Is'ra-ĕl; and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the hest thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When we have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Le'vites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress.

31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, lest ye die.

CHAPTER 19

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came voke.

3 And ye shall give her unto Ēl'ē-ā'zār the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her

6 And the priest shall take cedar wood, 26 Thus speak unto the Le'vites, and and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

11 I He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Iş'rā-ĕl: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is vet upon him.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean. 16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

CHAPTER 20

HEN came the children of Is'ra-el. even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month; and the people abode in Kā'desh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 And there was no water for the congregation; and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

7 I And the LORD spake unto Moses

saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou the bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a assembly together, thou and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock hefore their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to on the seventh day; and on the seventh them water out of the rock; so thou shall give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock. and he said unto them, Hear now, ve rebels; must we fetch you water out of 11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and 21 And it shall be a perpetual statute with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 C And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not. to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, therefore ve shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 This is the water of Měr'i-bäh; because the children of Is'rā-ĕl strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

14 C And Moses sent messengers from Kā'desh unto the king of E'dom, Thus saith thy brother Is'ra-el. Thou knowest all the travail that hath befallen us:

15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

16 And when we cried unto the LORD. he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Ka'desh, a city in the uttermost of thy border.

17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we this evil place? it is no place of seed, or will not turn to the right hand nor to the of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And E'dom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword. 19 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl said The death of Aaron. The fiery serpents unto him. We will go by the high wav: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water. then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said. Thou shalt not go through. And E'dom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus E'dom refused to give Is'rā-ĕl passage through his border: wherefore Is'rā-ĕl turned away from him.

22 T And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kā'děsh, and came unto mount Hôr.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hôr, by the coast of the land of E'dom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Merĭ-bäh.

25 Take Aaron and El'e-a'zar his son. and bring them up unto mount Hôr:

26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon El'ē-ā'zar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hôr in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Ěl'ē-ā'zar his son: and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and El'ē-ā'zar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of

CHAPTER 21

ND when king A'rad the Ca'naan-1 ite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Iş'rā-ĕl came by the way of the spies; then he fought against Is'rā-ĕl, and took some of them prisoners.

2 And Iş'rā-ĕl vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed de-utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Iş'rā-ĕl, and delivered up the Cānăan-îtes; and they utterly destroved them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hôr mah.

4 M And they journeyed from mount Hôr by the way of the Red sea, to com-pass the land of E'dom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

6 And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Is'ra-ĕl died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole; and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 ¶ And the children of Is'rā-ĕl set forward, and pitched in O'both.

11 And they journeyed from O'both, and pitched at I'jē-āb'a-rīm, in the wilderness which is before Mo'ab, toward the sunrising.

12 I From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zā'rĕd.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Ar'non. which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Am'o-rites: for Är'non is the border of Mo'ab, between Mô'ăb and the Ăm'ō-rites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, What he did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Ar'non, 15 And at the stream of the brooks that roeth down to the dwelling of Ar. and lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to Bē'ēr: liver this people into my hand, then I will that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people to-gether, and I will give them water. 17 ¶ Then Iş'rā-ĕl sang this song,

Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it:

direction of the lawgiver, with their and they took the villages thereof, and 21 ¶ And Is'rā-ĕl sent messengers unto Sī'hon king of the Am'o-rites,

saying,

22 Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Si'hon would not suffer İş'rā-ĕl to pass through his border: but Si'hon gathered all his people together, and went out against Iş'rā-ĕl into the wilderness: and he came to Ja'haz, and fought against İş'gā-ĕl.

24 And Iş'rā-ĕl smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Ar'non unto Jab'bok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Iş'rā-ĕl took all these cities: and Is'ra-el dwelt in all the cities of the Am'o-rites, in Hesh'bon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Hěsh'bŏn was the city of Sī'hŏn the king of the Am'o-rites, who had fought against the former king of Mo'ab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Ar'non.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Hěsh'bon, let the city of Si'hon be built and prepared:

30 We have shot at them; Hesh'bon is perished even unto Dī'bŏn, and we have laid them waste even unto Nö'phah, which reacheth unto Měďě-bà.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses. Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites. which dwelt at Hesh bon.

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

CHAPTER 22

ND the children of Is'ra-el set for-A ward, and pitched in the plains of Mō'āb on this side Jordan by Jer'i-chō. 2 T And Bā'lāk the son of Žip'por saw all that Iş'rā-ĕl had done to the Am'orîtes.

3 And Mō'āb was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Mo ab was distressed because of the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

4 And Mô'ab said unto the elders of Mid'i-an, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Bā'lāk the son of Zip'por was king of the Mô'ăb-îtes at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore unto Bā'laam the son of Bē'or to Pē'thor. which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against 9 And God came unto Bā'laam, and said. What men are these with thee?

10 And Bā'laam said unto God, Bā'lāk the son of Zip'por, king of Mo'ab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Bā'laam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed. 13 And Ba'laam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Ba'lak. Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with 14 And the princes of Mo'ab rose up. and they went unto Ba'lak, and said. Bā'laam refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Bä'läk sent yet again princes, more, and more honorable than thev.

16 And they came to Ba'laam, and said to him, Thus saith Ba'lak the son of Ziopor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honor, and I will do whatsoever thou savest unto me: come therefore. I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Ba'laam answered and said unto the servants of Bā'lāk, If Bā'lāk would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 And God came unto Bā'laam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Ba'laam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with 27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Bā'laam: and Bā'laam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Bā'laam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Bā'laam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Ba'laam. Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Ba'laam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him. Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? Behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Bā'laam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Bā'laam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Bā'laam went with the princes of Ba'lak.

39 And Bā'laam went with Bā'lāk, and they came unto Kîr'jăth-hū'zŏth.

40 And Ba'lak offered oxen and sheep. and sent to Ba'laam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Bā'lāk took Bā'laam, and brought him up into the high places of Bā'āl, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER 23

ND Bā'laam said unto Bā'lak, Build And here seven alters, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Bā'lāk did as Bā'laam had spoken: and Bā'lāk and Bā'laam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Bā'laam said unto Bā'lāk, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to meet me; and whatsoever he showeth me I will tell thee. And he went to a high place.

4 And God met Bā'laam: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the LORD put a word in Bar laam's mouth, and said, Return unto Bā'lāk, and thus thou shalt speak.

6 And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Mo'ab.

7 And he took up his parable, and said Bā'lāk the king of Mo'ab hath brought me from A'ram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and come, defy Iş'rā-el.

8 How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom

12 And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?

13 And Ba'lak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place. from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.

14 ¶ And he brought him into the field of Zō'phim, to the top of Piş'gah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 And he said unto Bā'lāk, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet the

16 And the LORD met Bā'laam. and put a word in his mouth, and said. Go again unto Bā'lăk, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Mo'ab with him. And Ba'lak said unto him. What hath the LORD spoken?

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Bā'lāk, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zīp'pŏr:

19 God is not a man, that he should lie: neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed: and I cannot reverse it.

21 He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Is'ra-ël: the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of a unicorn.

23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Is'ra-el: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Iş'rā-ĕl, What hath God wrought!

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

25 ¶ And Bā'lāk said unto Bā'laam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Bā'lāam answered and said unto Bā'lāk, Told not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that I must do? 27 ¶ And Bā'lāk said unto Bā'lāam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Bā'lāk brought Bā'laam unto Të-shi'mon.

29 And Bā'laam said unto Bā'lāk, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Bā'lāk did as Bā'lāam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

CHAPTER 24

AND when Bā'laam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Iş'rā-ĕi, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Bā'laam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Iş'rā-ĕl abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

3 And he took up his parable, and said, Ba'laam the son of Be'or hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Is'ra-el!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lignaloes which the LORD hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters.

7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than A'gag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of a unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows.

9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 ¶ And Bā'lāk's anger was kindled against Bā'lām, and he smote his hands together: and Bā'lāk said unto Bā'lām, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honor; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honor.

12 And Bā'laam said unto Bā'lak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saving, 13 If Bā'lāk would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the Lorn, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the Lord saith, that will I speak?

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

15 ¶ And he took up his parable, and said, Bā'laam the son of Bē'or hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the Most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Is rā-ĕl, and shall smite the corners of Mo ab, and destroy all the children of Shĕth.

18 And E'dom shall be a possession, Se'ir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Is'rā-ël shall do valiantly. 19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 ¶ And when he looked on Åm'å-lěk, he took up his parable, and said, Åm'å-lěk was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever.

21 And he looked on the Ke'nītes, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless the Ke'nite shall be wasted, until Assh'ur shall carry thee away captive.

23 And he took up his parable, and said. Alas, who shall live when God doeth this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chit'tim, and shall afflict Assh'ur, and shall afflict E'ber, and he also shall perish for ever.

25 And Bā'laam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Ba'lak also went his way.

CHAPTER 25

AND İş'rā-ĕl abode in Shĭt'tĭm, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Mo'ab.

2 And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. 3 And Is'rā-ĕl joined himself unto Bā'āl-pē'ŏr: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Is'rā-ĕl.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Is'ra-el.

5 And Moses said unto the judges of Īş'rā-ĕl, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Bā'āl-pē'or.

6 And, behold, one of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl came and brought unto his brethren a Mid'i-ăn-īt'ish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And when Phin'e-has, the son of El'ē-ā'zar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his

hand;

8 And he went after the man of Is'rā-ĕl into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Iş'rā-ĕl, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was staved from the children of Is'rā-ĕl. 9 And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand. 10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses,

saving.

11 Phin'ē-has, the son of El'ē-a'zar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Īṣ'rā-ĕl, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Is'rā-ĕl in my jealousy.

12 Wherefore say, Behold, I give unta him my covenant of peace:

13 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an ever. lasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atone. ment for the children of Is'ra-el.

14 Now the name of the Is'ra-ël-ite that was slain, even that was slain with the Mid'i-an-it'ish woman, was Zim'ri. the son of Sa'lū, a prince of a chief house among the Sim'e-on-ites.

15 And the name of the Mid'i-an-it ish woman that was slain was Coz'bi, the daughter of Zûr; he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Mid'i-an 16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses.

saying, 17 Vex the Mid'i-an-ites, and smite them: 18 For they vex you with their wiles. wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of Pe'or, and in the matter of Coz'bi, the daughter of a prince of Mid'i-an, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague for Pē'or's sake.

CHAPTER 26

ND it came to pass after the plague. that the LORD spake unto Moses and unto El'e-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

2 Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Iş'rā-ĕl.

3 And Moses and El'e-a'zar the priest spake with them in the plains of Mo'ab by Jordan near Jer'i-cho, saying,

4 Take the sum of the people, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Ĭş'rā-ĕl, which went forth out of the land of Egypt.

And Kō'hǎth begat Am'rǎm.

59 And the name of Am'ram's wife was Josh'ē-bed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Am'ram, Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 And unto Aaron was born Na'dab and A-bi'hū, Ĕl'ē-ā'zar and Ĭth'a-mär. 61 And Na'dab and A-bi'hū died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD. 62 And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand. all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Moses and El'ē-ā'zar the priest, who numbered the children of Is'rā-ĕl in the plains of Mö'ab by Jordan near Jĕr'ĭ-chō.

64 But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Is'ra-el in the wilderness of Si'naī.

65 For the LORD had said of them. They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jē-phun'něh, and Toshua the son of Nun.

2 And they stood before Moses, and before El'ē-ā'zar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by gregation, the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Kō'rāh; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father be done away from among his family, because he hath no son? Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses brought their cause before the LORD.

6 C And the LORD spake unto Moses.

7 The daughters of Zē-lō'phē-hǎd speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter. 9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren. then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Is'ra-ël a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

AND Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Is'rā-ĕl, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded. 2 If a man yow a yow unto the LORD.

or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand. and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth, not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand; and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all a husband, when she vowed, or uttered aught out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard of Mid'i-an.

34 And one goat for a sin offering; be- it: then her vows shall stand, and her shall stand.

> 8 But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it, then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her line. wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

> 9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath:

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day: then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being uet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER 31

ND the LORD spake unto Moses. A saying,

2 Avenge the children of Is'ra-el of the Mid'i-an-ites: afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses and El'ē-ā'zar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Iş'rā-el, unto the camp at the plains of Mo'ab, which are by Jordan near Jer'i-cho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and El'ē-ā'zar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them. Have ye saved all the women alive?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, through the counsel of Bā' laam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Pë'or, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.

18 But all the women children, that out all the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl, shall ye have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves. 19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 T And El'ē-ā'zar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses:

thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slaver and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slaver shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whose killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover ve shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ve shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ve are: for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ve shall inhabit, wherein I dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

ND the chief fathers of the families L of the children of Gil'ē-ad, the son of Mā'ehir, the son of Mà-năs'sĕh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl:

2 And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Is'rā-ĕl: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zē-lōphē-had our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the dren of Iş'rā-ĕl, shall be wife unto one lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the jubilee of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Is'ra-el according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well.

command concerning the daughters of Zē-lö'phē-had, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Is'rā-ĕl remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Is'rā-ĕl shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the chilof the family of the tribe of her father. that the children of Iş'rā-ĕl may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Is'rā-ĕl shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Ze-lophē-hăd:

oseph hath said well.

11 For Mäh'läh, Tir'zah, and Hög'läh,
6 This is the thing which the Lord doth and Mil'cah, and Noah, the daughters of Zē-lō'phē-had, were married unto their father's brothers' sons: 12 And they were married into the families of the sons of Ma-nas'seh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments, which the LORD com-manded, by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl in the plains of Mo'ab by Jordan near Jer'i-cho.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED

DEUTERONOMY

CHAPTER 1

HESE be the words which Moses I spake unto all Iş'rā-ĕl on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red sea, between Pā'rān, and Tō'phěl, and Lā'bān, and Hà-zē'rŏth, and Dĭz'a-hăb.

2 (There are eleven days' journey from Hō'rĕb by the way of mount Sē'ĭr unto Kā'dĕsh-bär'nē-à.)

3 And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Is'ra-el, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 After he had slain Sī'hŏn the king of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt in Hesh' bon, and Og the king of Ba'shan, which dwelt at As'ta-roth in Ed're-i:

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Mō'ab. began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in Hō'rĕb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Am'o-rites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Ca'naan-ites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Eū-phrā'tēs.

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 ¶ And I spake unto you at that time saving. I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!)

12 How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes. and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes. wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ And when we departed from Hō'rĕb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Am'o-rites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kā'deshbär'nē-ā.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Am'o-rites. which the LORD our God doth give unto 21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it. as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what not go in thither. cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Esh'col, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding ve would not go up. but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:

27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said. Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Am'ō-rītes, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saving, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the An'a-kim there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did not believe the LORD your God,

33 Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware,

saving.

35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers.

36 Save Caleb the son of Te-phun'neh: he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the LORD.

37 Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt 38 But Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Îş'rā-ĕl to inherit it.

39 Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge thither, and unto them will I give it, and wilderness: these forty years the Lore they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

41 Then we answered and said unto me. We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them. Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Am'ō-rītes, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Se'ir, even unto Hôr'mah. 45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto

you. 46 So ye abode in Kā'desh many days. according unto the days that ye abode

there.

CHAPTER 2

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Se'ir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying, 3 Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of E'sau, which dwell in Se'ir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a footbreadth; because I have given mount Se'ir unto E'sau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed for a possession. thee in all the works of thy hand: he between good and evil, they shall go in knoweth thy walking through this great thy God hath been with thee; thou hest lacked nothing.

8 And when we passed by from our brethren the children of E'sau, which dwelt in Se'ir, through the way of the plain from E'lath, and from E'zi-on-ga'ber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Mo'ab.

9 And the LORD said unto me. Distress not the Mo'ab-ites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lat for a possession.

10 The E'mim dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the An'a-kim;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the An'a-kim; but the Mo'ab-ites call them E'mim.

12 The Hō'rim also dwelt in Sē'ir beforetime: but the children of E'sau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelf in their stead; as Iş'rā-ĕl did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook Ze'red. And we went over the brook Ze'red.

14 And the space in which we came from Kā'děsh-bar'nē-a, until we were come over the brook Zē'rěd, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them.

15 For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were con-

16 T So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saving.

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Mo'ab, this day: 19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot 20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time: and the Ammonites call them Zamzum'mim;

21 A people great, and many, and tall, as the An'a-kim; but the LORD destroved them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their

stead:

22 As he did to the children of E'sau. which dwelt in Se'ir, when he destroyed the Ho'rim from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

23 And the A'vim which dwelt in Hazē'rim, even unto Az'zah, the Caph'torim, which came forth out of Caph' tor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

24 @ Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Ar non: behold, I have given into thine hand Si'hon the Am'ō-rīte, king of Hĕsh'bŏn, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 Cl And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Ked'e-moth unto Si'hon king of Hesh'bon with words of peace, saying, 27 Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet:

29 (As the children of E'sau which dwell in Se'ir, and the Mo'ab-ites which dwell in Ar, did unto me:) until I shall pass over Tordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sī'hŏn king of Hĕsh'bŏn would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as abbeareth this

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Si'hon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 Then Sī'hon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Ja'haz.

33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain:

35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

36 From A-ro'er, which is by the brink of the river of Ar'non, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gil'e-ad. there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jab'bok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbade

CHAPTER 3

HEN we turned, and went up the way to Bā'shan: and Og the king of Bā'shan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Ed'rē-ī.

2 And the LORD said unto me. Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt at Hesh'bon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Ba'shan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time. there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Ar'gob, the kingdom of Og in Bã'shăn.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Si'hon king of Hesh'bon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Am'o-rites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Ar'non unto mount Hermon:

Sī'rī-on; and the Am'o-rītes call it that the LORD your God hath done unto She'nīr:

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gil'ē-ad, and all Ba'shan, unto Sal'chah and Ed're-i, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bā'shăn.

11 For only Og king of Bā'shan remained of the remnant of giants: behold. his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Răb'bàth of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from A-ro'er, which is by the river Ar'non, and half mount Gilē-ăd, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gil'e-ad, and all Bā'shăn, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh; all the region of Ar'gob, with all Ba'shan, which was called the land of giants.

14 Jā'īr the son of Ma-nas'seh took all the country of Ar'gob unto the coasts of Gē-shu'rī and Mā-ăch'a-thī; and called them after his own name. Ba'shan-hā'voth-jā'ir, unto this dav.

15 And I gave Gil'ē-ad unto Ma'chir. 16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gil'ē-ad even unto the river Ar'non half the valley, and the border even unto the river Tăb'bok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chin'në-rëth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under Ash'doth-pis'gah eastward. 18 C And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Is'rā-ĕl, all that are meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

9 (Which Hermon the Sī-dō'nǐ-ans call time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the Lorn your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying, 24 O Lord God, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to the might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan. that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of Pis'gah. and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Běth'-pē'or.

CHAPTER 4

NOW therefore hearken, O İş'rā-el, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish aught from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Bā'āl-pē'or: for all the men that followed Ba'al-pe'or, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes 21 ¶ And I commanded Joshua at that and judgments, even as the LORD my

Moses exhorteth Israel to obedience

God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them: for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great. that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons. and thy sons' sons:

before the LORD thy God in Ho'reb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me, the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness,

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

similitude on the day that the LORD whither the LORD shall lead you. spake unto you in Ho'reb out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

the earth, the likeness of any winged with all thy soul. fowl that flieth in the air.

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eves unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun. and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ue are this day.

21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land. I must 10 Specially the day that thou stoodest not go over Jordan; but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ve shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger;

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you 15 Take ye therefore good heed unto among the nations, and ye shall be left yourselves; for ye saw no manner of few in number among the heathen,

> 28 And there we shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him. 17 The likeness of any beast that is on if thou seek him with all thy heart and 30 When thou art in tribulation, and all in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient might live: unto his voice;

31 (For the LORD thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers, which he sware unto them.

32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was showed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God:

there is none else beside him.

36 Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he showed thee his great fire: and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because he loved thy fathers. therefore he chose their seed after them. and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38 To drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the fire.

earth beneath: there is none else. 40 Thou shalt keep therefore his statwell with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

41 ¶ Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sun-

43 Namely, Be'zer in the wilderness. in the plain country, of the Reubenites: and Ra'moth in Gil'é-ad, of the Gadites and Gö'lan in Ba'shan, of the Ma năs'sites.

44 M And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Is'rā-ĕl:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of la rā-ĕl, after they came forth out of Egypt

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth - pe'or, in the land of Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, who dwell at Hěsh'bon, whom Moses and the children of Iş'ra-ĕl smote, after they were

come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bā'shān, two kings of the Am'o-rites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sunrising 48 From A-ro'er, which is by the bank of the river Ar'non, even unto mount Si'on, which is Hermon, under the springs of Pis'gah.

CHAPTER 5

ND Moses called all Is'rā-ĕl, and 🕽 said unto them, Hear, O Is rā-ĕl the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep and do them.

2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Hō'rĕb.

3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. 4 The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the 5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the utes, and his commandments, which I Lord: for ye were afraid by reason of command thee this day, that it may go the fire, and went not up into the mount,) saying, from the house of bondage.

7 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

8 Thou snan not make the sure that the slayer might flee thither, image, or any likeness of any thing that image, or any likeness of any thing that is in the earth which should kill his neighbor unawares, is in heaven above, or that is in the earth

9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

10 And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

12 Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it. as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee. 13 Six days thou shalt labor, and do all

thy work:

14 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.

15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

16 4 Honor thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

17 Thou shalt not kill.

18 Neither shalt thou commit adul-

19 Neither shalt thou steal.

20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbor.

21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbor's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbor's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbor's.

22 These words the LORD spake of the thick darkness, with a great voice: possess.

beneath, or that is in the waters beneath and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire.) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath showed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire; we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth.

25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say; and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it. and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me: and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again.

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 Ye shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be unto all your assembly in the mount out well with you, and that ye may prolong of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and your days in the land which ye shall

CHAPTER 6

NOW these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it:

2 That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

3 ¶ Hear therefore, O Is'rā-ĕl, and observe to do it: that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Is'rā-ĕl: The LORD our God is one LORD:

5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eves.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou hath commanded us. buildedst not,

11 And houses full of all good things. which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full;

12 Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God. and serve him, and shalt swear by his name.

14 Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about vou:

15 (For the LORD thy God is a jealous

God among you;) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

16 C Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Măs'sah.
17 Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers.

19 To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken 20 And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Phā'raōh's bondmen in Egypt: and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand:

22 And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pha'raoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And he brought us out from thence. that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he sware unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our righteousness. if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he

CHAPTER 7

WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Gir'ga-shites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Ca'naan-ites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'ū-sites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou;

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them.

nor show mercy unto them:

3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt from thee all sickness, and will put thou take unto thy son.

4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. 5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not set his love upon vou, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of send the hornet among them, until they Phā'raöh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God. he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them for the LORD thy God is among you, a that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

10 And repayeth them that hate him to repay him to his face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12 Q Wherefore it shall come to pass. if ve hearken to these judgments, and keep and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy

13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all peobarren among you, or among your cattle. it: for it is a cursed thing.

15 And the LORD will take away none of the evil diseases of Egypt. which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate

16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee.

17 If thou shalt say in thine heart. These nations are more than I: how can

I dispossess them?

18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember what the LORD thy God did unto Phā'raōh, and unto all

Egypt;

19 The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the won-ders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover the LORD thy God will that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them:

mighty God and terrible.

22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and their face, to destroy them: he will not little: thou mayest not consume them at be slack to him that hateth him, he will once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And he shall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomihe sware unto thy fathers to give thee. nation into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly ple: there shall not be male or female detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor

CHAPTER 8

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and harley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates;

a land of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalf eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given

thee.

Il Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day: 12 Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied:

14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage; 15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint.

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end;

17 And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish.

20 Ås the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9

HEAR, O Is'rā-ĕl: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall, the children of the An'a-kim, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of A'nakt

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which goeth over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the Lord hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.

7 ¶ Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD. 8 Also in Hô'rĕb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights; I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God: and on them was written according to all the words which the LORD spake with you in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. 13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. 15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. inheritance, which thou broughtest out

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water. because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Tab'e-rah, and at Mas'sah, and at Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kā'dĕsh-bär'nē-a, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD. and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people and thine stretched out arm.

CHAPTER 10

T that time the LORD said unto me. A Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt out them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of shittim wood. and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount, out of the midst of the fire. in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me. 6 T And the children of Is'rā-ĕl took their journey from Be-e'roth of the children of Ja'a-kan to Mo-se'ra: there Aaron died, and there he was buried: and El'ē-ā'zar his son ministered in the seen. priest's office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gud-go'dah: and from Gud-go'dah to Jot'bath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 I At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 M And now, Is'rā-ĕl, what doth the fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his destroyed them unto this day:

The tables of stone. God's greatness by thy mighty power and by thy ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, 13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.

17 For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18 He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore the stranger: for ve were strangers in the land of Egypt, 20 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God: him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have 22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER 11

HEREFORE thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, alway.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm.

3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land:

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pur-LORD thy God require of thee, but to sued after you, and how the LORD hath

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place:

6 And what he did unto Da'than and A-bī'rām, the sons of E-lī'āb, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Is'ra-el:

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this. day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it:

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 I For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eves of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and he full

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them:

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ve perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

. 18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. 19 And ve shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the doorposts of thine house, and upon thy gates:

21 That your days may be multiplied. and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 ¶ For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him:

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Eū-phra'tēş, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be. 25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 @ Behold, I set before you this day

a blessing and a curse:

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Ger'i-zim, and the curse upon mount E'bal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Ca'naan-ites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gil'gal, beside the plains of Mô'rěh?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12

HESE are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places. wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and thee.

under every green tree:

3 And ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your

God.

5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ve seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither ve shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety:

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause manded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice yows which ve yow unto the LORD:

12 And ve shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Le'vite that is within your gates; forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest:

14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command

15 Notwithstanding, thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.

16 Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

17 I Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine. or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy yows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thine hand:

18 But thou must eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Le'vite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto.

19 Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Le'vite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 When the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh; thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have comgates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 Even as the roebuck and the hart is offerings, and your sacrifices, your eaten, so thou shalt eat them; the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

23 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour with all your soul.

it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose:

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

29 When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee. whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land:

30 Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee: and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31 Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination to the LORD which he hateth have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

F there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ve love the LORD your God with all your heart and

4 Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ve shall serve him, and cleave unto him.

5 And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

6 ¶ If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known,

thou, nor thy fathers:

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth:

8 Thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him: neither shall thine eye pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him:

9 But thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

11 And all Is'rā-ĕl shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying, search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you:

15 Thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be a heap for ever; it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to thine hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers

18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

CHAPTER 14

/E are the children of the LORD your I God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

2 For thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

4 These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg, and the wild ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass. 9 These ye shall eat, of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat: 10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto 11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat. 12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind, 14 And every raven after his kind.

15 And the owl, and the nighthawk, and the cuckoo, and the hawk after his kind, 16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan.

17 And the pelican, and the gier-eagle, and the cormorant.

18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat. 19 And every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat. 21 TY Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art a holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

22 Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase year by year.

23 And thou shalt eat before the LORD 3 Thou shall not eat any abominable thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil. and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:

26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul

desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household.

27 And the Le'vite that is within thy gates: thou shalt not forsake him: for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

28 C At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates:

29 And the Le'vite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou dcest.

CHAPTER 15

AT the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth aught unto his neighbor shall release it: he shall not exact if of his neighbor, or of his brother;

because it is called the LORD's release. 3 Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release: 4 Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it: 5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to ob- is well with thee: serve to do all these commandments which I command thee this day. 6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee. as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many thee.

7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

8 But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

year, the year of release, is at hand; and household, thine eve be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee.

and it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

12 ¶ And if thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to-day.

16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean berson shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

CHAPTER 16

BSERVE the month of A'bib, and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the month of A'bib the LORD thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unte the LORD thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place his name

3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction: for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days: neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of -Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

9 ¶ Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

11 And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Le'vite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there.

12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine:

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast. thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Le'vite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 Three times in a year shall all thy day at even, remain all night until the males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty:

17 Every man shall give as he is able. according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

18 ¶ Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eves of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

20 That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

CHAPTER 17

HOU shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evil-favoredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2 Of If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;

4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and inquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Īs'rā-ĕl:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from the throne of his kingdom, that he shall among you.

8 ¶ If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the choose;

9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Le'vites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment:

CHAPTER 19

7HEN the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 Thou shalt separate three cities for 11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 I And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbor ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbor to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to from the helve, and lighteth upon his falsely against his brother; neighbor, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live:

6 Lest the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee. 8 And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandthee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three:

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 @ But if any man hate his neighbor. and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities;

12 Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the quilt of innocent blood from Is'ra-el, that it may go well with thee.

14 C Thou shalt not remove thy neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

And shall say unto them, Hear, O Iş'rā-ĕl, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them:

4 For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 ¶ And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and an-

16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hit'tites, and the Am'orites, the Cā'nāan-ites, and the Pēr'izzītes, the Hī'vites, and the Jēb'ū-ṣītes; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

CHAPTER 21

IF one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley.

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried:

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Is'rā-ĕl, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Is'rā-ĕl's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10 ¶ When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive.

11 And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife:

12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house; and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails;

13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make humbled her.

15 Cf If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have horne him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son he hers that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath. that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

18 Q If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place:

20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice: he is a glutton, and a drunkard.

21 And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Is'ra-el shall hear, and fear. 22 C And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:

23 His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not thee for an inheritance.

CHAPTER 22

HOU shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass: and so shalt thou do with his rai- the elders of the city.

merchandise of her, because thou hast ment; and with all lost things of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself.

4 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto

the LORD thy God.

6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young:

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thu days.

8 When thou buildest a new house. then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence, 9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled.

10 Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.

11 Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woolen and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her,

14 And give occasions of speech against defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel. and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her;

17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him:

19 And they shall amerce him in a hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Iş'rā-ĕl: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die; because she hath wrought folly in Is'rā-ĕl, to play the whore in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

22 Of If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Īs'rā-ĕl.

23 If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her:

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ve shall stone them with stones that they die: the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbor's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 T But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die:

nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbor, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

28 If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found:

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

wife, nor discover his father's skirt.

CHAPTER 23

HE that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

2 A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An Ammonite or Mo'ab-ite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD: even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever:

4 Because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Ba'laam the son of Bē'or of Pē'thor of Měs'o-po-ta'mi-a, to curse thee.

5 Nevertheless, the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Ba'laam; but the LORD thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 Thou shalt not abhor an E'domite: for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because thou wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

9 ¶ When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every wicked thing.

10 If there be among you any man. 26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceth him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad:

13 And thou shalt have a paddle upon thy weapon; and it shall be, when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which cometh from thee:

14 For the LORD thy God walketh in 30 I A man shall not take his father's the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee: therefore shall thy camp be holy: that he see no unclean thing in thee. and turn away from thee.

15 Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped from his master unto thee:

16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it liketh him best: thou shalt not oppress him.

17 C There shall be no whore of the daughters of Iş'rā-ĕl, nor a sodomite of the sons of Is'ra-el.

18 Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

19 Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury:

20 Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 When thou shalt vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be

shall be no sin in thee.

23 That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform; even a freewill offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the LORD thy God, which thou hast promised with thy mouth.

24 When thou comest into thy neighbor's vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes thy fill at thine own pleasure; but thou shalt not put any in thy vessel.

25 When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbor, then thou mayest pluck the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbor's standing corn.

CHAPTER 24

WHEN a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favor in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband hate her. and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house: or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

4 Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled: for that is abomination before the LORD; and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

5 When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year. and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

6 © No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

7 If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Iş'rāel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you.

8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the 22 But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it Le'vites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so we shall observe to do.

9 Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt,

10 When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee.

12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge:

13 In any case thou shalt deliver him. the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

14 Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

15 At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon

LORD, and it be sin unto thee. 16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

17 I Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless: nor take a widow's raiment to pledge:

18 But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

19 When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forget a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands.

20 When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21 When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

22 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

IF there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked.

2 And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

3 Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.

4 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.

5 ¶ If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother

it: for he is poor, and setteth his heart shall go in unto her, and take her to him upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the to wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother unto her.

6 And it shall be, that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Is'ra-ël.

7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say. My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Is'rā-ĕl, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her:

9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say. So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Ĭs'rā-ĕl, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

11 When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets:

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand.

thine eye shall not pity her.

13 Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small: 14 Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small: 15 But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have; that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

16 For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

17 ¶ Remember what Am'a-lek did unto thee by the way, when ye were

come forth out of Egypt;

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all which the LORD thy God giveth thee for that is among you. an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of not forget it.

CHAPTER 26

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. and possessest it, and dwellest therein:

2 That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father; and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great. mighty, and populous:

6 And the Egyptians evil entreated us. and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:

7 And when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labor, and our oppression:

8 And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders:

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God:

11 And thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thine enemies round about, in the land thou, and the Le'vite, and the stranger

12 When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase the Am'a-lek from under heaven; thou shalt third year, which is the year of tithing. and hast given if unto the Le'vite. the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled:

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Le'vite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them:

14 I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away aught thereof for any unclean use, nor given aught thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart. and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice:

18 And the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments:

19 And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honor; and that thou mayest be a holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

CHAPTER 27

AND Moses with the elders of Is ra-el commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be, on the day when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, his father or his mother; and all the peothat thou shalt set thee up great stones.

and plaster them with plaster:

3 And thou shalt write upon them all neighbor's landmark: and all the people the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount E'bal, and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Lē'vītes spake unto all Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Is'ra-el: this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God.

of the LORD thy God, and do his com-mandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

These shall stand upon mount Gěr'i-zim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Joseph, and Benjamin:

13 And these shall stand upon mount E'bal to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Ash'er, and Zeb'ū-lun, Dan, and Naph-

14 I And the Le'vites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Is'ra-el with a loud voice,

15 Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place: and all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 Cursed be he that setteth light by ple shall say, Amen.

17 Cursed be he that removeth his shall say, Amen.

18 Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way: and all the people shall say, Amen.

19 Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless. and widow: and all the people shall say, Amen.

20 Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt: and all the people shall say, Amen.

21 Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast: and all the people shall say, Amen.

22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: and all the people shall say, Amen.

23 Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law: and all the people shall

sav. Amen.

24 Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbor secretly: and all the people shall say, Amen.

25 Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person: and all the people shall say, Amen.

26 Cursed be he that confirmeth not all 10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice the words of this law to do them; and all the people shall say, Amen.

CHAPTER 28

AND it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD Levi, and Judah, and Is'sa-char, and thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy

God.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body. and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto: and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

o The LORD shall establish thee a holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD: and they shall be afraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, serve and to do them:

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 ¶ But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body.

when thou goest out.

20 The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that hefore thy face: they shall come out thou settest thine hand unto for to do. until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly: because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

> 21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust; from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be thou shalt lend unto many nations, and removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And thy carcass shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the which I command thee this day, to ob- botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and commandments and his statutes which thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

CHAPTER 29

HESE are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Iş'rā-ĕl in the land of Mō'āb, besides the covenant which he made with them in Hō'rĕb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Is'rā-ĕl. and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Phā'raōh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land:

3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles:

4 Yet the LORD hath not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ve might know that I am the LORD your

God.

7 And when we came unto this place, Sī'hon the king of Hesh'bon, and Og the king of Bā'shān, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Ma-năs'sĕh.

9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

10 Tye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Is'ra-el

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into with thou shalt fear, and for the sight of his oath, which the LORD thy God mak-eth with thee this day:

13 That he may establish thee to-day for a people unto himself, and that he whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt may be unto thee a God. as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto to Tacob.

this covenant and this oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt: and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ve have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among

them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood:

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst:

20 The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall smoke against that man. and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Is'ra-el, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you. and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it;

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, Ad'mah and Zē-bō'im, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath:

24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made 14 Neither with you only do I make with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them:

27 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

CHAPTER 30

ND it shall come to pass, when all A these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee.

2 And shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart.

and with all thy soul;

3 That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of the seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his com-mandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 @ For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? 13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee. in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 C See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; 16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments. and his statutes, and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. 17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve

18 I denounce unto you this day, that ve shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19 I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and which he shall choose, thou shalt read thy seed may live:

20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy hearing. God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto and women, and children, and thy stranhim: for he is thy life, and the length of ger that is within thy gates, that they

AND Moses went and spake these A words unto all Is'rā-ĕl.

2 And he said unto them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: also the LORD hath said unto me. Thou shalt not go over this Tordan.

3 The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Si'hon and to Og, kings of the Am'o-rites, and unto the land of them. whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 I And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Îs'rā-ĕl, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them: and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. 8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

10 And Moses commanded them, saving, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles,

11 When all Is'rā-ĕl is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place this law before all Ĭs'rā-ĕl in their

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ve live in the land whither ve go over Jordan to possess it.

14 I And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud; and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Is'ra-el: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: right is he.

go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware.

22 Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Îş'rā-ĕl.

23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Iş'rā-ĕl into the land which I sware unto them: and I will be with thee. 24 C And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, 25 That Moses commanded the Let vites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. 27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death?

28 Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I know that after my death ve will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Is'ra-el the words of this song, until they were ended.

CHAPTER 32

IVE ear, O ye heavens, and I will I speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall drop as the rain. my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass:

3 Because I will publish the name of the LORD: ascribe ye greatness unto our

God.

4 He is the Rock, his work is perfect: them, that this song shall testify against for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and

5 They have corrupted themselves. their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus requite the LORD, O foolish people and unwise? is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

7 @ Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will show thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee. 8 When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the hounds of the people according to the of the mountains. number of the children of Is'ra-el. 9 For the LORD's portion is his people:

Tacob is the lot of his inheritance. 10 He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest. fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:

12 So the LORD alone did lead him. and there was no strange god with him. 13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock:

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bā'shān, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape.

15 T But Jesh'ū-run waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of and two put ten thousand to flight, exhis salvation.

16 They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 They sacrificed unto devils, not to God: to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

18 Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

19 And when the LORD saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

20 And he said. I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God: they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people: I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For a fire is kindled in mine anger. and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations

23 I will heap mischiefs upon them: I will spend mine arrows upon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

25 The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs.

26 I said, I would scatter them into corners. I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely. and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this.

28 For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

29 O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

30 How should one chase a thousand. cept their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For their rock is not as our Rock. even our enemies themselves being judges.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sŏd'om, and of the fields of Gō-mŏr'rah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33 Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps.

34 Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

35 To me belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 For the LORD shall judge his people. and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. 37 And he shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection.

39 See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh: and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

43 Rejoice, O ve nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

44 C And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Hö-she'a the son of Nun. 45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Is'ra-el:

46 And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all mies. the words of this law.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it. 48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying,

49 Get thee up into this mountain Ab'à-rim, unto mount Nê'bō, which is in the land of Mo'ab, that is over against Jer'i-cho; and behold the land of ments, and Is'ra-el thy law: they shall Ca'naan, which I give unto the children put incense before thee, and whole burnt of Is'rā-ĕl for a possession:

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hôr, and was gathered unto his people:

51 Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl at the waters of Měr'i-bäh-Kā'děsh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Îs'rā-ĕl.

52 Yet thou shalt see the land before thee: but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Īs'rā-ĕl.

CHAPTER 33

ND this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Is'rā-ĕl before his death. 2 And he said, The LORD came from

Sī'naī, and rose up from Sē'ir unto them. he shined forth from mount Pa'ran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

3 Yea, he loved the people: all his saints are in thy hand: and they sat down at thy feet: every one shall receive of thy words.

4 Moses commanded us a law, even the inheritance of the congregation of Tacob.

5 And he was king in Jesh'ū-run, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl were gathered together.

6 4 Let Reuben live, and not die; and 13 ¶ And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath, 22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bā'shan.

23 C And of Năph'ta-li he said, C with the blessing of the LORD, possess thou the west and the south.

24 T And of Åsh'er he said, Let Åsh'er be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foct in oil.

25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength

26 I There is none like unto the God of Tesh'ū-run, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy

them

28 Ĭs'rā-ĕl then shall dwell in safetv 15 And for the chief things of the alone; the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

29 Happy art thou, O Iş'rā-ĕl: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee; and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

CHAPTER 34

AND Moses went up from the plains of Mo'ab unto the mountain of Nē'bō, to the top of Pis'gah, that is over against Jer'i-cho: and the LORD showed him all the land of Gil'e-ad, unto Dan,

2 And all Năph'tà-lī, and the land of E'phrā-im, and Ma-nas'seh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea

3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jer'i-cho, the city of palm trees, unto Zō'ar.

4 And the LORD said unto him, This is 20 4 And of Gad he said, Blessed be the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

5 ¶ So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Mo'ab, according to the word of the LORD.

6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Mō'ab, over against Beth'-pe'or: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

7 II And Moses was a hundred and Năph tà-lī, satisfied with favor, and full twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

8 ¶ And the children of Is'rā-ĕl wept for Moses in the plains of Mo'ab thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 I And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Is'rā-ĕl hearkened unto him. and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 I And there arose not a prophet since in Is'ra-ĕl like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

11 In all the signs and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,

12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses showed in the sight of all Is'rā-ĕl.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

CHAPTER 1

NOW after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Toshua the son of Nun. Moses' minister, saving,

2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Eu-phra'tes, all the land of the Hit'tites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

unto this people shalt thou divide for an ren armed, all the mighty men of valor. unto this people snan thou divide an an inheritance the land, which I sware unto 'and help them; their fethers to give them.

15 Until the LORD have given your

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from goest.

8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then theu shalt have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 M And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Ma-năs'sĕh, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jor-6 Be strong and of a good courage: for dan; but ye shall pass before your brethbrethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the it to the right hand or to the left, that land of your possession, and enjoy it, thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Tordan toward the sunrising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua, saving, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel earth beneath. against thy commandment, and will not commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER 2

AND Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shit'tim two men to spy secretly, saving, Go view the land, even Jer'i-cho. And they went, and came into a harlot's house, named Ra'hab, and lodged there. 2 And it was told the king of Jer'i-cho.

saying, Behold, there came men in hither to-night of the children of Is'ra-el to search out the country.

3 And the king of Jer'i-cho sent unto Rā'hāb, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.

4 And the woman took the two men. and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

5 And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark. that the men went out; whither the men went, I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them.

6 But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 I And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof; 9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land. and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Am'o-rites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sī'hŏn and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any unto thee: only the LORD thy God be man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in 12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear hearken unto thy words in all that thou unto me by the LORD, since I have showed you kindness, that we will also show kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token:

> 13 And that ye will save alive my father. and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee.

15 Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by; and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household. home unto thee.

19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.

20 And if thou utter this our business. then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

21 And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 C So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them:

24 And they said unto Toshua. Truly the LORD hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us.

CHAPTER 3

ND Joshua rose early in the morning; A and they removed from Shit'tim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Is'ra-el, and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the host; 3 And they commanded the people, saying. When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Le'vites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore.

5 And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to-morrow the LORD will do wonders among you.

6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

7 M And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Is'rā-ĕl, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee.

8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying. When ye are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, ye shall stand still in Jordan

9 M And Joshua said unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God.

10 And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hit'tites, and the Hi'vites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Gir'ga-shites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Jeb'u-sites.

11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan.

12 Now therefore take you twelve men out of the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl, out of every tribe a man.

13 And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon a heap.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people:

15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest.)

16 That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon a heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zăr'ē-tăn; and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people passed over right against Jĕr'i-chō.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Is'ra-el-ites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

CHAPTER 4

AND it came to pass, when all the peo-ple were clean passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying, 2 Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Ĭş'rā-ĕl, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Is'rā-ĕl:

fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall he for a memorial unto the children of Ĭs'rā-ĕl for ever.

8 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 ¶ For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Ma-nas'seh, passed over armed before the children of Is'rā-ĕl, as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jer'i-chō.

14 ¶ On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Iş'rā-el; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua,

saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant were circumcised; but all the people

6 That this may be a sign among you, of the LORD were come up out of the that when your children ask their midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Tordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all his banks, as they did before.

19 And the people came up out of Tordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gil'gal, in the east border of Ter'i-cho.

20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gĭl'găl.

21 And he spake unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Ĭş'rā-ĕl came over this Jordan on dry land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the the feet of the priests which bare the ark waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over:

24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that we might fear the LORD your God for ever.

CHAPTER 5

ND it came to pass, when all the kings of the Am'o-rites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Ca'naan-ites, which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Īs'rā-ĕl.

2 C At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Is'rā-ĕl the second time.

3 And Toshua made him sharp knives and circumcised the children of Is'ra-el at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Is'rā-ël walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware that he would not show them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called Gil'găl unto this day.

10 Tand the children of Is'rā-ĕl encamped in Gil'gāl, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jēr'ī-chō.

11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the selfsame day.

12 ¶ And the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Iş'rā-ël manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Cā' năan that year.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jĕr'i-chō, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?

15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAPTER 6

NOW Jer'i-chō was straitly shut up because of the children of Is'rā-ël: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into thine hand Jer'i-cho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valor.

3 And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nún called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the 'ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the Lorn.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the

LORD.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the Lord, and blew with the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the Lord followed them.

9 ¶ And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rearward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall we shout.

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 ¶ And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rearward came after the ark of the LORD, the briests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 ¶ And the city shall be accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Ra'hab the harlot shall live. she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And ye, in any wise keep uourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make uourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Is'rā-ĕl a curse, and trouble it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware unto her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Ra'hab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they upon their heads.

brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Is'ra-el.

24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver. and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 And Toshua saved Ra'hab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had: and she dwelleth in Is'rā-ĕl even unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Ter'i-cho.

26 T And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jer'i-cho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So the LORD was with Toshua: and his fame was noised throughout all the-country.

CHAPTER 7

BUT the children of Is'rā-ĕi committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for A'chan, the son of Car'mi, the son of Zăb'dī, the son of Zē'rah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Is'ra-el.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jer'i-chō to A'i, which is beside Beth'-a'ven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed A'i.

3 And they returned to Toshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite A'i; and make not all the people to labor thither; for they are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people 21 And they utterly destroyed all that about three thousand men; and they fled before the men of A'i.

5 And the men of A'i smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Sheb'a-rim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

6 I And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Is'ra-el, and put dust

7 And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Am'ō-rites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelf on the other side Jordan!

8 O Lord, what shall I say, when Iş'rā-ĕl turneth their backs before their enemies!

9 For the Cā'nāan-ītes and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Is ra-ëi hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of İş'rā-ĕl could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Is rā-ēl. There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Is rā-ēl: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Iş'rā-ĕl.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Is rā-ĕl by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zār'hītes: and he brought the family of the Zār'

hites man by man; and Zăb'di was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Ā'ehān, the son of Cār'mī, the son of Zāb'dī, the son of Zē'rāh, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Ā'chān, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Iş'rā-ēl, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me

20 And A'chan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Is'ra-el, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 ¶ So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Iş'rā-ĕi, and laid them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Is'rā-ëi with him, took A'chān the son of Ze'rāh, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of A'chōr.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Is ra-el stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of A'chör, unto this day.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ā'ī: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ā'ī, and his people, and his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to A'i and her king as thou didst unto Jer'i-cho and her king; only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prev unto vourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

3 C So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against A'i: and Toshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valor, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us.) till we have drawn them from the city: for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before

them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you.

9 @ Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and A'i, on the west side of A'i: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Is'ra-ěl, before the people to A'i.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of A'i: now there was a valley between them and A'i.

12 And he took about five thousand and brought him to Joshua. men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and A'i, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night that all the Is'ra-el-ites returned unto into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to pass, when the sword.

king of A'i saw it, that they hasted and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Is'ra-el to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Is'ra-ĕl made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people that were in A'i were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in A'ī or Beth-el, that went not out after Is' rā-ĕl: and they left the city open, and pursued after Is'rā-ĕl.

18 And the LORD said unto Toshua. Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward A'i; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand; and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of A'i looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Is'rā-ĕl saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended. then they turned again, and slew the men of A'i.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Is'ra-ĕl, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of A'i they took alive.

24 And it came to pass, when Is'rā-ĕI had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of A'i in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, A'i, and smote it with the edge of the 25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of A'i.

26 For Toshua drew not his hand back. wherewith he stretched out the spear. until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of A'î.

27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Is'ra-ĕl took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt A'i, and made it a gether, to fight with Joshua and with Is heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

29 And the king of A'i he hanged on a tree until eventide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcass down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl in mount Ē'băl.

31 As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Is'ra-el, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lifted up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace us; and how shall we make a league offerings.

32 And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

33 And all Is'ra-ĕl, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Le'vites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Ger'i-zim, and half of them over against mount E'bal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Is'ra-el. 34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Is' rā'ěl, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that were conversant among them.

CHAPTER 9

AND it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the Hit'tite, and the Am'ō-rīte, the Ca'naan-īte, the Per'iz. zīte, the Hī'vīte, and the Jeb'ū-sīte. heard thereof:

2 That they gathered themselves torā-ĕl, with one accord.

3 And when the inhabitants of Gib'e-on heard what Joshua had done unto Ter'i-cho and to A'i.

4 They did work willly, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors. and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up:

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them: and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gil'gal, and said unto him, and to the men of Is'rā-el, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ve a league with us.

7 And the men of Is'ra-el said unto the Hi'vites, Peradventure ye dwell among with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come, because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Am'o-rites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sī'hon king of Hesh'bon, and to Og king of Bā'shan, which was at Àsh'tā-rŏth.

11 Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy:

13 And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

14 And the men took of their victuals. and asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD.

15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them.

16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gib-ē-on, and Chē-phī'rah, and Bē-ē'roth, and Kīr'jāth-jē'ā-rim.

18 And the children of Is'ra-el smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl. And all the congregation murmured against the mighty. princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised them.

22 ¶ And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my

God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Is'ra-el, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

CHAPTER 10

Now it came to pass, when A-dō'nī-zē'dēk king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ā'ī, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jer'i-cho and her king, so he had done to A'i and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gib'e-on had made peace with Is'rā-ĕl, and were among them;

2 That they feared greatly, because Gib'ē-on was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than A'i, and all the men thereof were

3 Wherefore A-do'nī-zē'děk king of Jerusalem sent unto Hö'ham king of He'bron, and unto Pi'ram king of Tarmuth, and unto Ja-phī'a king of Lā'chish, and unto Dē'bīr king of Eg'lon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gib'e-on: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of İş'rā-ĕl.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Am'orites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of He'bron, the king of Jär'muth, the king of La'chish, the king of Eg'lon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gib'e-on, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gib'e-on sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gil'gal, saving, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Am'orites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gil'găl, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.

8 I And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Toshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gil'gal all none moved his tongue against any of 10 And the LORD discomfited them before Is'ra-el, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gib'e-on, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Běth'-ho'ron, and smote them to A-zē'kāh, and unto Măk-kē'dah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Is'ra-ĕl, and were in the going down to Beth'-ho'ron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto A-ze'kah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Is'rā-ĕl slew with the sword.

12 II Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Am'o-rites before the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, and he said in the sight of Iş'rā-ĕl, Sun, stand thou still upon Gib'e-on; and thou. Moon, in the valley of Aj'a-lon.

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Ta'sher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Is'rā-ĕl.

15 ¶ And Joshua returned, and all Iş'rā-el with him, unto the camp to Gĭl'găl.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Măk-kē'dah. 17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Măk-kë'dah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Is'ra-el had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

the children of Is'ra-el.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave. 23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of He'bron, the king of Jär'muth, the king of La'chish, and the king of Eg'lon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua. that Toshua called for all the men of Is'ra-el, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ve fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them. and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 ¶ And that day Joshua took Makke'dah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Mak-ke'dah as he did unto the king of Jer'i-cho.

29 Then Joshua passed from Mak-kē'dah, and all Iş'rā-ĕl with him, unto Lib'nah, and fought against Lib'nah:

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Is' rā-ĕl; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Ter'i-cho.

31 ¶ And Joshua passed from Lib'nåh. and all Is'ra-el with him, unto La'chish, and encamped against it, and fought against it:

32 And the LORD delivered La'chish 21 And all the people returned to the into the hand of Iş'rā-ĕl, which took it on camp to Joshua at Mak-ke'dah in peace: the second day, and smote it with the were therein, according to all that he had done to Lib'nah.

33 Then Hô'răm king of Gë'zër came up to help La'chish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 C And from La'chish Joshua passed unto Eg'lon, and all Iş'ra-el with him: and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to La chish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eg'lon, and all Iş'rā-ĕl with him, unto Hē'bron:

and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eg'lon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 C And Joshua returned, and all Is'rā-ēl with him, to Dē'bīr; and fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof. and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein: he left none remaining: as he had done to He'bron, so he did to De'bir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Lib'nah, and to her king.

40 C So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from Kaděsh-bär'nē-å even unto Gā'zà, and all the country of Go'shen, even unto Gĭb'ē-on.

42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Îş'rā-ĕl fought for Îş'rā-ĕl. 43 And Joshua returned, and all Is'rā-ĕl with him, unto the camp to Gil'găl.

CHAPTER 11

AND it came to pass, when Jā'bin king of Hā'zor had heard those things, that he sent to Jo'bab king of edge of the sword, and all the souls that Ma'don, and to the king of Shim'ron, and to the king of Ach'shaph.

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chin'ne-roth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west,

3 And to the Ca'naan-ite on the east and on the west, and to the Am'o-rite. and the Hit'tite, and the Per'iz-zite, and the leb'u-site in the mountains, and to the Hi'vite under Hermon in the land of Mĭz'pĕh.

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the seashore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Me'rom, to fight against İs'rā-ĕl.

6 And the LORD said unto Toshua. Be not afraid because of them: for tomorrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Is'rā-ĕl: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Me'rom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Ĭş'rā-ĕl, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zi'don, and unto Mis'rē-photh-mā'im, and unto the valley of Miz'peh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 I And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hā'zŏr, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hā'zŏr beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hā'zŏr with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Is'rā-ĕl burned none of them, save Hā'zŏr only; that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Isrā-či took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 ¶ As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Gö'shën, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of ĭs'rā-ĕi, and the valley of the same;

17 Even from the mount Hā'lāk, that goeth up to Sē'īr, even unto Bā'āl-gād in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Toshua made war a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Igrā-ĕl, save the Hi'vītes the inhabitants of Gib-ĕ-ôn: all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of the Lord to harden their hearts, that they should come against 1g-rā-ēl in hattle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as the Lord commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the An'a-kim from the mountains, from Hē'bron, from Dē'bir, from Ā'nāb, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Is'rā-ĕi: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the An'a-kim left in the land of the children of Is'ra-el: only in Ga'za, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Is'rā-ēl according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

CHAPTER 12

NOW these are the kings of the land, Ge'der, one; which the children of Is'rā-ei 14 The king of smote, and possessed their land on the of A'rād, one;

other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Ar'non unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the

2 Si'hŏn king of the Ām'ō-rītes, who dweit in Hesh'oŏn, and ruled from Ā-rō'er, which is upon the bank of the river Ār'nŏn, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gil'ē-ād, even unto the river Jāb'ošk, which is the box.

3 And from the plain to the sea of Chin'nā-röth on the east, and unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea on the east, the way to Běth'-jēsh'ī-möth; and from the south under Ash'döthder of the children of Ammon:

pĭş'gah:

4 ¶ And the coast of Og king of Ba' shān, which was of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt at Ash'tā-rŏth and at Ed'rē-ī.

5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Sal'cah, and in all Ba'shan, unto the border of the Gesh'ū-rītes and the Mā-āch'a-thites, and half Gil'ē-ād, the border of Si'hon king of Hesh'bon.

6 Them did Moses the servant of the Lorn and the children of is rā-ēl smite: and Moses the servant of the Lorn gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Mà-năs'sĕh.

7 ¶ And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Iş'rā-ēl smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Bā'āl-gād in the velley of Lebanon even unto the mount Hā'lāt, that goeth up to Sē'īr; which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Iş'rā-ēl for a possession according to their divisions; 8 In the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; the Hir'rites, the Am'ō-rites, and the Cā'nāan-ties, the Pēr'iz-zites, the Hir'vites, and the Jēb'ū-ṣītes:

9 The king of Jer'i-cho, one; the king of A'i, which is beside Beth-el, one; 10 The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of He'bron, one;

11 The king of Jär'muth, one; the king of Lā'chish, one;

12 The king of Eg'lon, one; the king of Ge'zer, one;

13 The king of De'bîr, one; the king of Ge'der, one;

14 The king of Hôr'mah, one; the king of Ā'rād, one;

15 The king of Lib'nah, one; the king which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan of A-dul'lam, one;

16 The king of Mak-ke'dah, one: the king of Beth-el, one

17 The king of Tap-pū'ah, one: the king of He'pher, one; 18 The king of A'phek, one; the king plain of Med'e-ba unto Di'bon:

of La-sha'ron, one; 10 The king of Ma'don, one; the king of Ha'zŏr, one;

20 The king of Shim'ron-me'ron, one: the king of Ach'shaph, one:

21 The king of Ta'a-nach, one; the king of Mē-gid'do, one; 22 The king of Ke'desh, one; the king of Jok'nē-am of Car'mel, one: 23 The king of Dor in the coast of Dor.

one: the king of the nations of Gil'gal. one:

24 The king of Tir'zah, one: all the kings thirty and one.

CHAPTER 13

NOW Joshua was old and stricken in years; and the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Phi-lis'tines, and all Ge-shu'ri,

3 From Si'hôr, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ek'ron northward, which is counted to the Carnăan-ite: five lords of the Phi-lis'tines; the Ga'zath-ites, and the Ash'doth-ites, the Esh'ka-lon-ites, the Git'tites, and the Ek'ron-ites; also the A'vites:

4 From the south, all the land of the Ca'năan-îtes, and Mē-a'rah that is beside the Sī-dō'nĭ-ans, unto A'phek, to the borders of the Am'o-rites:

5 And the land of the Gib'lites, and all Lebanon toward the sunrising, from Bā'āl-găd under mount Hermon unto the entering into Ha'math.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto Mis're-photh-maim. and all the Sī-dō'nĭ-ănş, them will I drive out from before the children of Is'rā-ĕl: only divide thou it by lot unto the Iş'rā-ĕl-ites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh.

8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, that were slain by them.

eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:

9 From A-ro'er, that is upon the bank of the river Ar'non, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the

10 And all the cities of Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, which reigned in Hesh'bon, unto the border of the children of

Ammon:

11 And Gil'ë-ăd, and the border of the Gesh'ū-rītes and Mā-ach'a-thites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bā'shān unto Săl'câh;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bā'shan. which reigned in Ash'ta-roth and in Ed'rē-ī, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite.

13 Nevertheless the children of Is'rā-ĕl expelled not the Gesh'ū-rītes, nor the Mā-āch'à-thites: but the Gesh'ū-rites and the Ma-ach'a-thites dwell among the Is'rā-ĕl-ītes until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Is'ra-el made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto

them.

15 ¶ And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

16 And their coast was from A-rō'ēr. that is on the bank of the river Ar'non. and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Měďě-bà;

17 Hesh'bon, and all her cities that are in the plain: Dī'bon, and Bā'moth-bā'al, and Beth'-ba'al-me'on.

18 And Ta-ha'za, and Ked'e-moth, and Mĕph'a-āth.

19 And Kīr'jà-thā'im, and Sib'mah, and Zā'rĕth-shā'här in the mount of the valley, 20 And Beth'-pe'or, and Ash'dothpiş'gah, and Běth'-jěsh'i-moth,

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sī'hon king of the Am'o-rites, which reigned in Hesh'bon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Mid'i-an, E'vi, and Re'kem, and Zûr, and Hûr, and Re'ba, which were dukes of Si'hon, dwelling in the country

22 ¶ Bā'làam also the son of Bē'ŏr. the soothsaver, did the children of Is'ra-ĕl slav with the sword among them

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coast was Jā'zēr, and all the cities of Gil'e-ad, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto A-rō'ēr that is before Răb'bah:

26 And from Hěsh'bon unto Ra'mathmiz'peh, and Bet'o-nim; and from Ma' ha-na'im unto the border of De'bir;

27 And in the valley, Beth'-a'ram, and Běth'-nim'rah, and Suc'coth, and Za' phon, the rest of the kingdom of Sī'hon king of Hesh'bon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of Chin'në-rëth on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 ¶ And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Ma-nas'seh by their in mine heart. families.

30 And their coast was from Ma'hanā'im, all Bā'shan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bā'shān, and all the towns of Jā'īr, which are in Bā'shan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gil'ē-ăd, and Ash'tà-röth, and Ed're-i, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bā'shān, were pertaining unto the children of Mā'chĭr the son of Mā-nās' seh, even to the one half of the children of Mā'chĭr by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Mo'ab, on the other side Jordan, by Jěr'i-chō, eastward.

33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Is'ra-ĕl was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

CHAPTER 14

AND these are the countries which the A children of Is'ra-el inherited in the land of Ca'naan, which El'e-a'zar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Le'vites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Ma-nas'seh and E'phra-im therefore they gave no part unto the Le'vites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did, and they divided the land.

6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gil'găl: and Caleb the son of Jē-phun'něh the Kē'něz-īte said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kal dĕsh-bär'nē-à.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kā'desh-bar'nē-a to espy out the land and I brought him word again as it was 8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying. Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God,

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Iş'rā-ĕl wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me; as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the An'a-kim were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. 13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave

unto Caleb the son of Je-phun'něh

Hē'bron for an inheritance.

14 He'bron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Tephun'nëh the Kë'nëz-ite unto this day: because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl.

15 And the name of He'bron before was Kīr'jāth-ar'ba; which Arba was a great man among the An'a-kim. And the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15

WHIS then was the lot of the tribe of I the children of Judah by their fami-lies: even to the border of E'dom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Mā'a-lĕh-a-crăb'bim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kā'desh-bar'ne-a, and passed along to Hěz'ron, and went up to A'dar. and fetched a compass to Kär'kā-a:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea. even unto the end of Jordan. And their horder in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to Beth'hog'la, and passed along by the north of Beth'-ar'a-bah; and the border went up to the stone of Bo'han the son of

Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Dē'bīr from the valley of A'chor, and so northward, looking toward Gil'gal, that is before the going up to A-dum'mim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-she'mesh, and the goings out thereof were at En-ro'gel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hin'nom unto the south side of the Jěb'ū-şīte; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hin'nom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Neph-to'ah, and went out to the cities of mount E'phron; and the border was drawn to Ba'a-lah, which is Kirjăth-jē'a-rim:

10 And the border compassed from Bā'a-lah westward unto mount Sē'ir. and passed along unto the side of mount Jē'à-rim, which is €hĕs'à-lŏn, on the north side, and went down to Beth'shē'mēsh, and passed on to Tim'nah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of Ek'ron northward: and the border was drawn to Shic'ron, and passed along to mount Ba'a-lah, and went out unto Jab'ne-el; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 C And unto Caleb the son of Tephun'nëh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Ar'ba the father of A'nak. which city is Hē'bron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of A'nak, She'shai, and A-hi'man, and Tal'mai, the children of A'nak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Dē'bīr: and the name of Dê'bîr before was Kîr'jath-sê'phêr.

16 ¶ And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kīr'jāth-sē'phēr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ach'sah my daughter to wife.

17 And Oth'ni-ĕi the son of Kē'năz. the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Ach'sah his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field; and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her. What wouldest thou?

19 Who answered, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the coast of E'dom southward were Kab'ze-el, and É'dēr, and Jā'gŭr,

CHAPTER 16

AND the lot of the children of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jer'i-sho, unto the water of Jer'i-cho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jer'i-cho throughout mount Beth-el.

2 And goeth out from Beth-el to Luz.

Är'ehī to Āt'ā-rŏth,

3 And goeth down westward to the coast of Japh'le-ti, unto the coast of Běth'-hō'rŏn the nether, and to Gē'zēr: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.

4 So the children of Joseph, Ma-nasseh and E'phra-im, took their inheritance.

5 T And the border of the children of E'phra-im according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was At'a-rothăd'där, unto Běth'-hô'ron the upper;

6 And the border went out toward the sea to Mich'me-thah on the north side: and the border went about eastward it on the east to Ja-no'hah;

7 And it went down from Já-no'háh to At'a-roth, and to Na'a-rath, and came to Ter'i-chō, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from Tap-pu'ah westward unto the river Ka'nah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of E'phra-im by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of E'phrā-im were among the inheritance of the children of Ma-nas'seh.

all the cities with their villages.

10 And they drave not out the Ca'naanītes that dwelt in Gē'zēr: but the Cā' năan-ites dwell among the E'phrā-imītes unto this day, and serve under tribute.

CHAPTER 17

HERE was also a lot for the tribe of Ma-nas'seh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Ma'chir the firstborn of Ma-nas'seh, the father of Gil'ē-ad: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gil'ē-ad and Ba'shan.

2 There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Ma-nas'seh by their families: for the children of A'bi-ē'zēr, and for the children of He'lek, and for the children of As'ri-el, and for the children of Shē'chem, and for the children of He'pher, and for the children of Shē-mī'da: these were the male children of Ma-nas'seh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 ¶ But Zē-lō'phē-hăd, the son of Hē'phēr, the son of Gil'ē-ad, the son of Mā'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mäh'lah, and Noah, Hog'lah, Mil'cah, and Tir'zah.

4 And they came near before El'ē-ā'zar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manăs'sĕh, besides the land of Gil'ē-ăd and Ba'shan, which were on the other side Jordan; unto Tā'ā-nāth-shī'lōh, and passed by had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Ma-nas'seh's sons had the land of Gil'e-ad.

> 7 ¶ And the coast of Mā-nās'sĕh was from Āsh'ēr to Mĭeh'mē-thah, that lieth before She'chem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tap'pū-äh.

8 Now Ma-nas'sen had the land of Táp-pũ'áh: but Táp-pũ'áh on the border of Ma-nas'seh belonged to the children of E'phrā-im;

9 And the coast descended unto the river Kā'nāh, southward of the river: these cities of E'phrā-im are among the cities of Ma-nas'seh: the coast of Manăs'sĕh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the 10 Southward it was E'phrā-im's, and northward it was Ma-nas'seh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Ash'er on the north, and in Is'sa-char on the east.

11 And Ma-năs'sĕh had in Ĭs'sa-char and in Ash'er Beth'-she'an and her towns, and Ib'le-am and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En'-dôr and her towns, and the inhabitants of Ta'anach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Mē-gid'do and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Ma-nas'seh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Ca'naan-ites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Is'ra-ĕl were waxen strong, that they put the Ca'naan-ites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Toshua answered them. If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thy-self there in the land of the Per'iz-zītes and of the giants, if mount E'phra-im be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Toseph said. The hill is not enough for us: and all the Ca'naan-ites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both 6 Because the daughters of Ma-nas'seh they who are of Beth'-she'an and her towns, and theu who are of the valley of came again to Joshua to the host at Těz'rē-ĕl.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to E'phra-im and to Manăs'sĕh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot onlu:

18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Ca'naanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

CHAPTER 18

AND the whole congregation of the children of Iş'rā-el assembled together at Shi'loh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there: and the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Is'rā-ĕl seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, How long are ye slack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe; and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Tudah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north. 6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. 7 But the Le'vites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Ma-nas'seh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them. 8 ¶ And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shī'löh.

9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by north bay of the salt sea at the south end

Shī'lōh. 10 Of And Joshua cast lots for them in Shi'loh before the LORD: and there Ioshua divided the land unto the children of Is'ra-el according to their divisions.

11 4 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jer'i-cho on the north side, and went up through the moun. tains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth'-a'ven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of Luz which is Beth-el, southward; and the border descended to At'a-roth-a'dar. near the hill that lieth on the south side of the nether Beth'-ho'ron.

14 And the border was drawn thence. and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth be-fore Běth'-hō'rŏn southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kir'iathbā'al, which is Kīr'jāth-jē'a-rīm, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kir'iath-ie'a-rim, and the horder went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Neph-to'ah:

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hin'nom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hin'nom, to the side of Jeb'u-si on the south, and descended to En-ro'gel.

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to En-she'mesh, and went forth toward Ge-li'loth, which is over against the going up of A-dum'mim, and descended to the stone of Bo'han the son of Reuben,

18 And passed along toward the side over against Ar'a-bah northward, and went down unto Ar'a-bah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth'-hog'lah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the cities into seven parts in a book, and of Jordan; this was the south coast.

the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jer'i-cho, and Beth'hog'lah, and the valley of Ke'ziz,

22 And Běth'-ăr'a-bah, and Zěm'a-

AND the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Tudah.

2 And they had in their inheritance Bē'ēr-shē'bā, or Shē'ba, and Mŏl'a-dah. 3 And Hā'zar-shu'ăl, and Bā'lah, and

A'zĕm. 4 And El-to'lad, and Beth'ul, and Hôr'màh, 5 And Zik'lag, and Beth'-mar'ca-both, and Hā'zār-su'sāh,

6 And Běth'-lē-bā'ŏth, and Shà-ru'hĕn; thirteen cities and their villages:

7 A'in, Rem'mon, and E'ther, and A'shan; four cities and their villages: 8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to Ba'a-lath-be'er, Rā'māth of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of

Simeon according to their families. 9 Out of the portion of the children of Tudah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them:

20 And Jordan was the border of it on their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

> 10 M And the third lot came up for the children of Zeb'ū-lun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sā'rīd:

> 11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Măr'a-läh, and reached to Dăb'ba-sheth, and reached to the river

13 And from thence passeth on along on the east to Git'tah-he'pher, to Ittah-kā'zīn, and goeth out to Rēm'monměth'ō-är to Nê'ah:

14 And the border compasseth it on the north side to Han'na-thon; and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jiph'

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zěb'ū-lŭn according to their families, these cities with their villages. 17 I And the fourth lot came out to Is'sa-char, for the children of Is'sa-char according to their families.

18 And their border was toward Jezrē-ĕl, and Chē-sŭl'lŏth, and Shu'nĕm, 19 And Hăph'rā-im, and Shī'hön, and A-nā'hà-răth

20 And Răb'bith, and Kish'i-on, and A'bĕz.

21 And Rē'měth, and Ĕn-găn'nim, and En-had'dah, and Běth'-paz'zez; 22 And the coast reacheth to Tā'bŏr, and Shā'ha-zī'mah, and Běth'-shê' mesh; and the outgoings of their border were at Tordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Is'sa-char according to their families, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Ash'er according to their families.

25 And their border was Hěl'kăth, and Hā'lī, and Bē'těn, and Åch'shaph,

26 And A-lăm'mē-lĕch, and Â'măd, and Mish'ē-ăl; and reacheth to Car'měl westward, and to Shi'hôr-lib'nath;

27 And turneth toward the sunrising to therefore the children of Simeon had Beth'-da'gon, and reacheth to Zeb' ulun, and to the valley of Jiph'thah-ël' toward the north side of Beth'-e'mek. and Në-i'ël, and goeth out to Ca'bul on the left hand.

28 And He'bron, and Re'hob, and Ham' mon, and Ka'nah, even unto great

Zī'don:

29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turneth to Ho'sah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Ach'zib:

30 Um'mah also, and A'phek, and Re'hob: twenty and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ash'er according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Năph'tà-li, even for the children of Năph'tà-li according to their families.

33 And their coast was from He'leph, from Al'lon to Zā'a-nan'nim, and Ad'amī, Nē'kĕb, and Jăb'nē-ĕl, unto Lā'kŭm; and the outgoings thereof were at Jordan:

34 And then the coast turneth westward to Az'noth-ta'bor, and goeth out from thence to Huk'kok, and reacheth to Zĕb'ū-lŭn on the south side, and reacheth to Ash'er on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising. 35 And the fenced cities are Zid'dim.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naph'ta-li according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zô'rah, and Esh'tā-ŏl, and Ir'she'mesh, and Jeth'lah,

46 And Me'-jär'kon, and Rak'kon. with the border before Ja'phō.

47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Le'shem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Lē'shem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Is'ra-el gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked. even Tim'nath-se'rah in mount E'phraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 These are the inheritances, which El'ē-ā'zar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shi'loh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAPTER 20

HE LORD also spake unto Toshua.

2 Speak to the children of Is'ra-el, saying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:

3 That the slayer that killeth any person unawares and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursue 43 And E'lon, and Thim'na-thah, and after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbor unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 ¶ And they appointed Kē'desh in Galilee in mount Naph'ta-li, and She' chem in mount E'phra-im, and Kir'jathär'bå, which is He'bron, in the mountain of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jer'i-chō eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out tribe of the children of Simeon, these of the tribe of Reuben, and Ra'moth in Gil'ē-ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Go'lan in Ba'shan out of the tribe of Mà-năs'sĕh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Is'ra-el, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at mawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER 21

HEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Le'vites unto El'e-a' zar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl:

2 And they spake unto them at Shi'löh in the land of Ca'naan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl gave unto the Le'vites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Ko'hath-ites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of E'phrā-im, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Mà-năs'sĕh, ten cities.

6 And the children of Ger'shon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ís'sa-char, and out of the tribe of Ash'er, and out of the tribe of Năph'tà-lī, and out of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in Bā'shan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Me-ra'rī by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zeb'ū-lun, twelve cities.

8 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl gave by lot unto the Le'vites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the cities which are here mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Ko'hath-ites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

11 And they gave them the city of Ar'ba the father of A'nak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Je-phun'neh for his possession.

13 ¶ Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hē'bron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Lib'nah with her suburbs.

14 And Jăt'tîr with her suburbs, and Ēsh'tē-mō'ā with her suburbs,

15 And Hô'lon with her suburbs, and Dē'bīr with her suburbs,

16 And A'in with her suburbs, and Jut'tah with her suburbs, and Beth'shē'mesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gib'ē-on with her suburbs, Gē'bà with

18 An'a-thoth with her suburbs, and Al'mon with her suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 M And the families of the children of Ko hath, the Le vites which remained of the children of Ko'hath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of E'phrā-im.

21 For they gave them She'chem with her suburbs in mount E'phrā-im, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Ge'zer with her suburbs.

22 And Kib-zā'im with her suburbs, and Běth'-hō'rŏn with her suburbs; four cities.

23 And out of the tribe of Dan, El'tēkěh with her suburbs, Gib'bē-thon with her suburbs, 24 Åi'jà-lòn with her suburbs, Găth'rim'mon with her suburbs; four cities. 25 And out of the half tribe of Må-näs' zš And out of the hair tripe of Ma-nassěh, Ta'năch with her suburbs, and Găth'-rīm'mòn with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kō'hāth that remained.

27 ¶ And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levities, out of the other half tribe of Ma-nas'sch they gave Go'lan in Ba'shan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Be-esh'-te-rah with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Is'sa-shar, Ki'shon with her suburbs, Dab'a-reh with her suburbs.

32 And out of the tribe of Naph'tâ-li, Kê'dêsh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hām'möth-dôr' with her suburbs, and Kār'tān with her suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Ger'shon-ites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

35 Dim'näh with her suburbs, Nä'håläl with her suburbs; four cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Be'zer with her suburbs, and Ja-ha'zah with her suburbs.

37 Kĕd'ē-mŏth with her suburbs, and Mĕph'à-ăth with her suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Rā'mŏth in Gil'ē-ād with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Macha-na'im with her suburbs, 39 Hesh'bon with her suburbs, Ja'zer with her suburbs; four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the children of Mē-rā'rī by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Lê' vites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Le'vites within the possession of the children of Iş'rā-ēl were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

43 ¶ And the LORD gave unto Is'rā-ĕl all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 There failed not aught of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Is'rā-ĕI; all came to pass.

CHAPTER 22

THEN Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.

5 But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their the land of Gil'e-ad, and they spake tents. 7 @ Now to the one half of the tribe of Ma-nas'seh Moses had given possession in Ba'shan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he this day against the LORD? blessed them,

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 (And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mà-năs'sĕh returned, and departed from the children of Is'ra-el out of Shilöh, which is in the land of Ca'naan, to go unto the country of Gil'e-ad, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 M And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Ca'naan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Må-năs'sĕh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to 11 ¶ And the children of Is'rā-ĕl heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Ma-năs'sĕh have built an altar over against the land of Ca'naan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

12 And when the children of Is'ra-ĕl heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Is'ra-el gathered them-war against them.

13 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Mà-năs'sĕh, into the land of Gil'ē-ăd, Phin'e-has the son of El'e-a'zar the priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl; and each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Iş'rā-ĕl.

15 C And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad. and to the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh, unto with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Iş'rā-ĕl, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel

17 Is the iniquity of Pe'or too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, seeing ye rebel to-day against the LORD, that to-morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Is'ra-ël.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not A'chăn the son of Zē'rah commit a trespass in the accursed thing. and wrath fell on all the congregation of Is'ra-el? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Is'ra-el, 22 The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Iş'rā-ĕl he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to selves together at Shi'loh, to go up to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt offering or meat offering, or if to offer peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ve have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the Lord before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the Lord.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should rebel against the Lord, and turn this day from following the Lord, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the Lord our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when Phin'ē-hās the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Iş'rā-ēl which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Mā-nās'sēh spake, it pleased them.

31 And Phin's-has the son of Él's-a'zar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Ma-nas'sĕh, This day we perceive that the Lord is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the Lord: now ye have delivered the children of Is'rā-ēl out of the hand of the Lord.

32 ¶ And Phin'ē-hās the son of Ēl'ē-ā' zār the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gil'ē-ād, unto the land of Cā'năan, to the children of Īṣ'rā-ĕi, and brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Iş'rā-ëi; and the children of Iş'rā-ëi blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God.

CHAPTER 23

AND it came to pass, a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Is ra-el from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age.

2 And Joshua called for all Is'rā-ēl, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them. I am old and stricken in age:

3 And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.

5 And the LORD your God, he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you.

6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left;

7 That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them:

8 But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong; but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

11 Take good heed therefore unto your-selves, that ye love the LORD your God.
12 Else, if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you: so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

16 When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ve shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

CHAPTER 24

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Is ra-ël to Shë'chem, and called for the elders of Iş'rā-ĕl, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented them- bow. selves before God

2 And Toshua said unto all the people. Thus saith the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Te'rah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nā'chor: and they served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Ca'naan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him

Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and E'sau: and I gave unto E'sau mount Se'ir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

Egypt: and ye came unto the sea: and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD. he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroved them from before you.

9 Then Bā'lāk the son of Zip'por, king of Mo'ab, arose and warred against Is'ra-el, and sent and called Ba'laam the son of Be'or to curse you:

10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam, therefore he blessed you still: so

I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jěr'i-chō: and the men of Jěr'i-chō fought against you, the Am'o-rites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Ca'naan-ites. and the Hit'tites, and the Gir'ga-shites, the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'ū-sites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet before you. which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Am'o-rites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labor, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 W Now therefore fear the LORD. and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the

LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Am'ō-rītes, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the

6 And I brought your fathers out of LORD, to serve other gods;

TOSHUA 24

17 For the LORD our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bond-age, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Am'o-rites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD; for he is our

God.

19 And Toshua said unto the people. Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Toshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that we have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD

God of Iş'rā-ĕl.

24 And the people said unto Joshua The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

the people that day, and set them a pertained to Phin'e-has his son, which statute and an ordinance in She'chem. was given him in mount E'phra-im.

Inshua maketh a covenant. His death

26 C And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people. Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you. lest ve deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Tim'nath-se'rah, which is in mount E'phra-im, on the north side of the hill of Ga'ash.

31 And Is'rā-ĕl served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the LORD. that he had done for Is'ra-ël.

32 ¶ And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Iş'rā-ĕl brought up out of Egypt, buried they in She'chem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Ha'mor the father of She' chem for a hundred pieces of silver; and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And El'ē-ā'zar the son of Aaron huried him in a hill that 25 So Joshua made a covenant with died; and they buried him in a hill that

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

CHAPTER 1

NOW after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Is'rā-ĕl asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Ca'naanites first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, Judah shall go men. upe behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Ca'naanites: and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Ca'naan-ites and the Per'iz-zites into their hand: and they slew of them in Be'zek ten thousand

5 And they found A-do'nī-bē'zĕk in Bê'zĕk: and they fought against him, and they slew the Ca'naan-ites and the Pěr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But A-do'nī-bē'zěk fled; and they cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And A-do'ni-be'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now the children of Judah had fought against Terusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword.

and set the city on fire.

9 (II And afterward the children of Tudah went down to fight against the Canăan-îtes, that dwelt in the mountain. and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Judah went against the Canăan-îtes that dwelt in Hē'bron: now the name of He'bron before was Kiriăth-ar'ba: and they slew She'shai, and A-hī'măn, and Täl'maī.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of De'bir: and the name of Dē'bīr before was Kīr'jāth-sē'phēr:

12 And Caleb said. He that smiteth Kīr'jāth-sē'phēr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ach'sah my daughter to wife. 13 And Oth'ni-el the son of Ke'naz. Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Ach'sah his daughter to thereof unto this day. wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of off her ass; and Caleb said unto her,

What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him. Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 ¶ And the children of the Kē'nīte. Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the Tudah into the wilderness of Tudah. which lieth in the south of A'rad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

nursued after him, and caught him, and he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain: but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron.

> 20 And they gave He'bron unto Caleb. as Moses said; and he expelled thence the three sons of A'nak.

21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Teb'ū-sites that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jeb'ū-sites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Terusalem unto this day.

22 I And the house of Toseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to descry Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Show us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will show thee mercy.

25 And when he showed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hit'tites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name 27 ¶ Neither did Ma-nas'seh drive out the inhabitants of Beth'-she'an and her towns, nor Ta'a-nach and her towns, her father a field: and she lighted from nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ib'le-am and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Mē-gid'do and her towns: but the Ca' năan-îtes would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Iş'rā-ĕI was strong, that they put the Ca'naanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 W Neither did E'phrā-im drive out city of palm trees with the children of the Ca'naan-ites that dwelt in Ge'zer; but the Cā'năan-ītes dwelt in Gē'zēr among them.

30 ¶ Neither did Zĕb'ū-lun drive out the inhabitants of Kit'ron, nor the inhabitants-of Nā'ha-lol; but the Ca'naanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 @ Neither did Ash'er drive out the 18 Also Judah took Gā'zā with the inhabitants of Ac'ehō, nor the inhabitants of Zi'don, nor of Ah'lab, nor of Aeh'zib, nor of Hel'bah, nor of A'phik, nor of Re'hob:

Cā'năan-ītes, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 M Neither did Năph'tâ-lī drive out the inhabitants of Běth'-shê'měsh, nor the inhabitants of Beth'-a'nath; but he dwelt among the Ca'naan-ites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless, the inhabitants of Beth'-she'mesh and of Běth'-ā'năth became tributaries unto them.

34 And the Am'o-rites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Am'o-rites would dwell in mount Hē'rēs in Āi'jā-lŏn, and in Shāăl'bim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Am'o-rites was from the going up to Ak-rab'bim, from the rock, and upward.

CHAPTER 2

AND an Angel of the LORD came up from Gil'gal to Bō'chim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you.

2 And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice; why have ye done this?

3 Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you: but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the Angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Is'ra-el, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place Bö'chim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And when Joshua had let the people go, the children of Is'ra-ĕl went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD. that he did for Is'rā-ĕl.

his inheritance in Tim'nath-he'res, in the mount of E'phra-im, on the north side of the hill Ga'ash.

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers; and there arose another generation after them. which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Is'ra-el.

11 C And the children of Is'ra-el did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served

Bā'a-lim:

12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed them-selves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Ba'al and Ash'ta-roth.

14 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was hot against Iş'rā-el, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 Q Nevertheless the LORD raised up udges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them; they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in. obeying the commandments of the LORD: but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the udge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and cor-rupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way

20 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was 9 And they buried him in the border of hot against Is'ra-el; and he said, Because that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:

22 That through them I may prove Is'rā-ĕl, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER 3

NOW these are the nations which the Lord left, to prove Is'rā-ēl by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Cā'nāan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl might know to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, five lords of the Phi-listines, and all the Ca'maan-ites, and the Si-do'ni-ans, and the Hr'vites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Ba'al-hēr'mon unto the entering in of Ha'māth.

4 And they were to prove Is'rā-ël by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 © And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl dwelt among the Carnan-ites, Hit tites, and Am'o-rites, and Per'iz-zites, and Hit vites, and Jeb'ū-sites:

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 And the children of Is'ra-el did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, and served Ba'a-lim and the groves.

8 ¶ Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Is/rā-ēl, and he sold them into the hand of chū'shān-rīsh'a-thā'im king of Mēs'ō-pō-tā'mi-à: and the children of Is/rā-ēl served Chū'shān-rīsh'a-thā'im eight years.

9 And when the children of Is ra-ei cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer to the children of Is ra-ei, who delivered them, even Oth'ni-ei the son of Ke'naz, Calen's younger brother.

10 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Îş'rā-ĕl, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chū'shān-rīsh'ā-thā'im king of Mĕs'ō-pō-tā'mī-ā into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chū'shān-rīsh'ā-thā'im.

11 And the land had rest forty years: and Oth'ni-el the son of Ke'naz died.

12 ¶ And the children of Ĭṣ'rā-ēl did evil again in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord strengthened Ēg'lŏn the king of Mō'āb against Ĭṣ'rā-ēl, because they had done evil in the sight of the Lord,

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Am'a-lek, and went and smote Iş'rā-el, and possessed the city of palm trees.

14 So the children of Is'rā-ĕl served Eg'lŏn the king of Mō'āb eighteen years. 15 But when the children of Is'rā-ĕl

15 But when the children of 1§ 7a-el cried unto the Lord, the Lord raised them up a deliverer, E'hūd the son of Gĕ 7a, a Benjamite, a man left-handed: and by him the children of Iş 7a-ĕl sent a present unto Eg Jōn the king of Mō 3b.

16 But E'hud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eg'lön king of Mō'āb: and Eg'lön was a verv fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again from the quarries that were by Gil'gäl, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And E'hud came unto him; and he was sitting in a summer parlor, which he had for himself alone. And E'hud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.

21 And E'hud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the far closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and the dirt came out.

23 Then E'hud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlor upon him, and locked them.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlor; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, bethe earth.

26 And E'hud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Se-i'rath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of E'phrā-im, and the children of Is'ra-ĕl went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Mô'ăb-îtes into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of Tordan toward Mo'ab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Mo'ab at that time about ten thousand men, all lusty, and all men of valor; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Mo'ab was subdued that day under the hand of Is'ra-el. And the land had rest fourscore years.

31 M And after him was Sham'gar the son of A'nath, which slew of the Phi-listines six hundred men with an oxgoad: and he also delivered Iş'rā-ĕl.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honor: for the LORD shall sell Sis'er-a into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose. and went with Bā'rāk to Kē'dĕsh.

10 ¶ And Bā'rāk called Zĕb'ū-lŭn and Năph'tà-li to Kē'děsh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet; and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now He'ber the Ke'nite, which was of the children of Ho'bab the father-inlaw of Moses, had severed himself from the Kē'nītes, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zā'a-nā'm, which is by Kë'dësh.

12 And they showed Sis'er-a that Ba' rak the son of A-bin'o-am was gone up

16 But Ba'rak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Ha-ro' sheth of the Gen'tiles: and all the host of Sis'er-a fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not a man left.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jā'ĕl Hē'bēr's wife took a nail of the tent, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

22 And, behold, as Ba'rak pursued Sis'er-a. Ja'el came out to meet him. and said unto him, Come, and I will show thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sis'er-a lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So God subdued on that day Ta'bin the king of Ca'naan before the children of Is'rā-ël.

24 And the hand of the children of Ĭs'rā-ĕl prospered, and prevailed against Ja'bin the king of Ca'naan, until they had destroyed Ja'bin king of Ca'naan.

CHAPTER 5

HEN sang Deborah and Bā'rāk the son of A-bin'o-am on that day, saying,

2 Praise ve the LORD for the avenging of Is'ra-el, when the people willingly offered themselves.

3 Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I. even I, will sing unto the LORD: I will sing braise to the LORD God of Is'ra-ĕl.

4 LORD, when thou wentest out of Se'ir, when thou marchedst out of the field of E'dom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

12 Awake, awake, Deborah: awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Bā'rāk, and lead thy captivity captive, thou son of

A-bin'o-ăm.

13 Then he made him that remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of E'phrā-im was there a root of them against Am'a-lek; after thee, Benjamin, among thy people; out of Mā'chir came down governors, and out of Zeb'ū-lun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of Is'sa-char were with Deborah; even Is'sa-char, and also Bā'rāk: he was sent on foot into the valley. For the divisions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 Gil'ē-ăd abode beyond Tordan; and why did Dan remain in ships? Ash'er continued on the seashore, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zĕb'ū-lŭn and Năph'tà-lī were a people that jeoparded their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

28 The mother of Sis'er-a looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice. Why is his chariot so long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots?

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answer to herself.

30 Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey; to every man a damsel or two; to Sis'er-a a prey of divers colors, a prey of divers colors of needlework, of divers colors of needlework on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil?

31 So let all thine enemies perish, O LORD: but let them that love him be as the sun when he goeth forth in his might. And the land had rest forty against Iş'rā-ĕl: and because of the hands of the Mid'i-an-ites.

Mid'i-an-ites the children of Is'ra-el made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strongholds.

3 And so it was, when Is'ra-el had sown, that the Mid'i-an-ites came up. and the Am'a-lek-ites, and the children of the east, even they came up against

4 And they encamped against them, 23 Curse ye Me'roz, said the angel of and destroyed the increase of the earth. till thou come unto Ga'za, and left no sustenance for Is'ra-el, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to de-strov it.

6 And Is'rā-ĕl was greatly impoverished because of the Mid'i-an-ites: and the children of Is'ra-el cried unto the Lord.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Iş'rā-ĕl cried unto the LORD because of the Mid'i-an-ites.

8 That the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Is'ra-el, which said unto them. Thus saith the LORD God of Ĭş'rā-ĕl, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Am' ō-rītes, in whose land ve dwell: but ve

11 I And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Oph'rah, that pertained unto Jo'ash the A'bi-ez'rīte: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Mid'i-an-ites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valor.

13 And Gideon said unto him, O my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath 2 And the hand of Mid'i-an prevailed forsaken us, and delivered us into the 14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Iş'rā-ĕl from the hand of the Mid'i-ān-ites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, O my Lord, wherewith shall I save Is'rā-ĕl? behold, my family is poor in Mā-nās'sh, and I am the least in my father's house. 16 And the Lord said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Mid'i-an-ites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then show me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

In and Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an Finah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and nour out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lorn, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord Goo! for because I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. 24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehoyahsha'lòm: unto this day it is yet in Oph' rah of the A'bi-ez'rites.

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young builock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Bā'āl that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Ba'al was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Jo'ash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Jō'ash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Bā'al, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Jō'āsh said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Bā'āl' will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him he put to death whilst it is yet morning; if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him Jer' ub-ba'al, saying, Let Ba'al plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all the Mid'ī-ăn-ites and the Am'ā-lêk-ites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jēz'rē-ĕl.

34 But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Ā'bǐ-ē'zēr was gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Mā-nās'sēh; who also was gathered after him; and he sent messengers unto Ash'ēr, and unto Zēb'ū-lūn, and unto Nāph'tā-lī; and they came up to meet them.

36 ¶ And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Is'rā-ĕl by mine hand, as thou hast said,

37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and if be dry upon all the earth be-sides, then shall I know that thou wilt save Is ra-el by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER 7

THEN Jer'ub-ba'al, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Ha'rod: so that the host of the Mid'i-an-ites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Mō'reh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Mid'i-ăn-ites into their hands, lest Iş'rā-ël vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosover is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gil'é-ād. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Mid'i-an-ites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of [$'\text{s'}\text{al'}\text{el'}\text{ever}\text{man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Mid'ī\text{-an was beneath him in the vailev.}

9 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phū'rah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phū'rāh his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host.

12 And the Mid'i-ăn-ites and the Am' à-lēk-ītes and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the see side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Mid'i-ăn, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Jo'ash, a man of İs'rā-el: for into his hand hath God delivered Mid'i-an, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Iş'ra-ël, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Mid'i-ān.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the the princes of Mid'i-an, O'reb and camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 @ So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they stood every man in his place round about the camp; and all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fied to Běth'-shit'tah in Zer'e-rath, and to the horder of A'běl-mē-hō'lah, unto Tăb' hàth.

23 And the men of Is'ra-ĕl gathered themselves together out of Naph'ta-li, and out of Ash'er, and out of all Ma-nasseh, and pursued after the Mid'i-an-

24 ¶ And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount E'phrā-im, saying, Come down against the Mid'i-an-ites, and take before them the waters unto Běth'-bā'rah and Jordan. Then all the men of E'phrā-im gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Běth'-ba'rah and Jordan.

25 And they took two princes of the Mid'i-an-ites, O'reb and Ze'eb; and they slew O'reb upon the rock O'reb. and Ze'eb they slew at the winepress of Ze'eb, and pursued Mid'i-an, and brought the heads of O'reb and Ze'eb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

CHAPTER 8

AND the men of E'phrā-im said unto A him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Mid'i-an-ites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of E'phrā-im better than the vintage of A'bi-e'zer?

Ze'eb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said

4 I And Gideon came to Tordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, vet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me: for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Ze'bah and Zăl-mun'na, kings of Mid'i-ăn.

6 4 And the princes of Suc'coth said. Are the hands of Zē'bah and Zal-mun'na now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Ze'bah and Zalmun'na into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 ¶ And he went up thence to Pēnu'el, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Pe-nu'el answered him as the men of Suc'coth had answered

9 And he spake also unto the men of Pē-nū'ĕl, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zē'bàh and Zăl-mun'nà were in Kär'kor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell a hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

11 T And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of No'bah and Jog'be-hah, and smote the host: for the host was secure.

12 And when Zē'bāh and Zăl-mun'nā fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Mid'i-an, Ze'bah and Zăl-mun'na, and discomfited all the host.

13 ¶ And Gideon the son of Jō'āsh returned from battle before the sun was 14 And caught a young man of the men of Suc'coth, and inquired of him: and he described unto him the princes of Suc'coth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Suc. coth, and said, Behold Ze'bah and Zal-3 God hath delivered into your hands mun'na, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zē'bah and Zāl-mun'na now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness, and briers, and with them he taught the men of Sŭc'cŏth.

17 And he beat down the tower of Pē-nū'ěl, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Ze'bāh and Zāl-mun'nā, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tā'bōr'. And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive,

I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Je'ther his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zē'bāh and Zāl-mun'na said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew Zē'bāh and Zāl-mun'na, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 Then the men of Iş'rā-ĕl said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Mid'i-ăn.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.

24 ¶ And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were ish mā-ĕi-ītes.) 25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; besides ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Mid'i-an, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an eph'od thereof, and put it in his city, even in Oph' rah: and all Is'ra-el went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 ¶ Thus was Mid'i-an subdued before the children of Is'rā-ĕl, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And Jĕr' ŭb-bā'āl the son of Jō' ash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in She' chem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called A-bim'ë-lech.

32 ¶ And Gideon the son of Jō'āsh died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Jō'āsh his father, in Oph'rāh of the Ā'bī-ēz'rītes.

33 And it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of fs'rā-ĕl turned again, and went a whoring after Bā'ā-līm, and made Bā'āl-be rith their god.

34 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither showed they kindness to the house of Jer'ub-ba'al, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had showed unto Is'ra-ël.

CHAPTER 9

AND A-bim'ē-lēch the son of Jēr'ŭhbā'āl went to Shē'chēm unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of She'chem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jer'üb-bā'āl, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shëchëm all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow A-bim'e-lech; for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Ba'āl-bē'rīth, wherewith Ā-bim'ē-lĕth hired vain and light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Oph'rah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jer'ub-ba'al, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Jo'tham the youngest son of Jer'ub-ba'al was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of She'chem gathered together, and all the house of Mil'lo, and went and made A-bim'elech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shē'chem.

7 (II And when they told it to Jo'tham, he went and stood in the top of mount Ger'i-zim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shē'chēm, that God may hearken unto you.

8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honor God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig tree,

Come thou, and reign over us.

11 But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine.

Come thou, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees. If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made A-bim'ē-lĕch king, and if ye have dealt well with Jer'ub-ba'al and his house. and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands:

17 (For my father fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Mid'i-an:

18 And ye are risen up against my lech, Increase thine army, and come father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made A-bimē-leeh, the son of his maidservant, king E'bed, his anger was kindled.

over the men of She'chem, because he is your brother:)

19 If we then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jer'ub-ba'al and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in A-bim'ē-lech, and let him also rejoice in you:

20 But if not, let fire come out from A-bim'ē-lĕch, and devour the men of She'chem, and the house of Mil'lo: and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Mil'lo, and devour A-bim'ē-lēch.

21 And To'tham ran away, and fled, and went to Be'er, and dwelt there, for fear of A-bim'e-lech his brother.

22 When A-bim'e-lech had reigned three years over Iş'rā-ĕl,

23 Then God sent an evil spirit between A-bim'e-lech and the men of Shē'chem; and the men of Shē'chem dealt treacherously with A-bim'e-lech:

24 That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jer'ub-ba'al might come, and their blood be laid upon A-bim'ë-lëch their brother, which slew them, and upon the men of She'chem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shē'chem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told À-bim'ē-lĕch.

26 And Ga'al the son of E'bed came with his brethren, and went over to Shē'chēm: and the men of Shē'chēm put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields. and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed A-bim'e-lech.

28 And Ga'al the son of E'bed said Who is A-bim'ē-lech, and who is She' chem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jer'ub-ba'al? and Ze'bul his officer? serve the men of Ha'mor the father of Shē'chem: for why should we serve him?

29 And would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove A-bim'ē-lech. And he said to A-bim'ē-

30 ¶ And when Zē'bŭl the ruler of the city heard the words of Ga'al the son of 31 And he sent messengers unto A-bim'e-lech privily, saying, Behold, Ga'al the son of E'bed and his brethren be come to Shë'chëm; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city; and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And A-bim'ē-lěch rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against She' chem in four companies.

35 And Gā'āl the son of E'bĕd went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and A-bim'e-lech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Ga'al saw the people, he said to Ze'bul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zê'bul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gā'ăl spake again and said. See, there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Me-ŏn'ē-nim.

38 Then said Ze'bul unto him. Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst. Who is A-bim'e-lech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Ga'al went out before the men of Shë'chëm, and fought with A-bim'ë-

40 And A-bim'ē-leeh chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And A-bim'ē-lech dwelt at A-rumáh: and Zē'bŭl thrust out Gā'ăl and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shē'chĕm.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow. that the people went out into the field;

and they told A-bim'e-lech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city: and he rose up against them.

44 And A-bim'e-lech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran the people that is with thee, and lie in upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And A-bim'ē-lech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein. and beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

46 I And when all the men of the tower of She'chem heard that, they entered into a hold of the house of the god Be'rĭth.

47 And it was told A-bim'e-lech, that all the men of the tower of She'chem were gathered together.

48 And A-bim'e-leeh gat him up to mount Zal'mon, he and all the people that were with him; and A-bim'e-lech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed A-bim'e-lech, and put them to the hold. and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then went A-bim'ē-lech to The! bez, and encamped against The bez.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And A-bim'e-lech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon A-bim'ē-lech's head.

and all to brake his skull.

54 Then he called hastily unto the young man his armor-bearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Iş'rā-ĕl saw that A-bim'ē-lech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 C Thus God rendered the wickedness of A-bim'e-leeh, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren:

57 And all the evil of the men of She' chem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jer'ub-ba'al.

CHAPTER 10

AND after A-bim'ē-lēch there arose to defend İş'rā-ĕl Tō'la the son of pū'ah, the son of Dō'dō, a man of Is'sa-char; and he dwelt in Sha'mir in mount E'phra-im.

2 And he judged Ĭş'rā-ĕl twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shā'mīr.

3 C And after him arose Ja'īr, a Gil'ēăd-īte, and judged İş'rā-ĕl twenty and two years.

4 And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Ha'voth-ja'ir unto this day, which are in the land of Gil'ē-ăd.

5 And Ta'ir died, and was buried in encamped in Miz'peh.

Cā'mŏn.

6 C And the children of Is'ra-el did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Ba'a-lim, and Ash'ta-roth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zi'don, and the gods of Mo'ab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Phi-lis'tines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him.

7 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Is'rā-ĕl, and he sold them into the hands of the Phi-lis'tines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they yexed and oppressed the children of Is'ra-el: eighteen years, all the children of Is'ra-el that were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Am'o-rites, which is in Gil'ē-ăd.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and Îs'rā-ĕl was sore distressed.

10 ¶ And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Bā'a-lim.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Is'rā-ĕl. Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Am'o-rites. from the children of Ammon, and from the Phi-lis'tines?

12 The Zī-dō'nĭ-ăns also, and the Ama-lek-ites, and the Ma'on-ites, did oppress you; and ve cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ve have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 ¶ And the children of Is'rā-ĕl said unto the LORD. We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; deliver us only, we pray thee, this

16 And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery

of Is'rā-ĕl.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gil'ē-ad. And the children of Îş'rā-ĕl assembled themselves together, and

18 And the people and princes of Gil'ē-ad said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad.

CHAPTER 11

TOW Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a harlot: and Gil'e-ad begat Jĕph'thah.

2 And Gil'ē-ăd's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jeph'thah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house: for thou art the son of a strange woman.

3 Then Jeph'thah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob; and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in process of against the house of E'phra-im; so that time, that the children of Ammon made war against İş'rā-ĕl.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Is'rā-ĕl, the elders of Gil'ē-ad went to fetch Teph'than out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jeph'thah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jeph'thah said unto the elders of Gil'ē-ad. Did not ve hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ve come unto me now when ve are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gil'ē-ăd said unto Teph'thah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad. 9 And Tenh'than said unto the elders of Gil'ē-ăd, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me. shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gil'e-ad said unto Jeph'thah, The LORD be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Jeph'thah went with the elders of Gil'e-ad, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jeph'thah uttered all his words before the LORD in Miz'peh.

12 ¶ And Jeph'thah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jeph'thah, Because Iş'ra-el took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Ar'non even unto Jab' bok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jeph'thah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of

Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jěph'thah, Îş'rā-ĕl took not away the land of Mo'ab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Is'rā-ĕl came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came to

Kā'dĕsh:

17 Then Is'rā-ĕl sent messengers unto the king of E'dom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of E'dom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Mo'ab; but he would not consent: and Iş'rā-ĕl abode in Kā'děsh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of E'dom, and the land of Mô'ab, and came by the east side of the land of Mo'ab. and pitched on the other side of Ar'non. but came not within the border of Mô'ăb: for Ar'non was the border of Mō'ăb.

19 And Ĭş'rā-ĕl sent messengers unto Sī'hon king of the Am'o-rites, the king of Hesh'bon; and Is'ra-el said unto him. Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place.

20 But Sī'hon trusted not Is'rā-ĕi to pass through his coast: but Si'hon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jā'haz, and fought against Iş'rā-ĕl.

21 And the LORD God of Is'ra-el delivered Sī'hon and all his people into the hand of Is'ra-el, and they smote them: so Is'ra-el possessed all the land of the Am'o-rites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the coasts of the Am'o-rites, from Ar'non even unto Jăb'bŏk, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD God of Iş'rā-ēl hath dispossessed the Am'ō-rītes from before his people Iş'rā-ĕl, and shouldest thou possess it?

24 Wilt not thou possess that which Chē'mosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us. them will we possess.

25 And now art thou any thing better than Bā'lāk the son of Zīp'pŏr, king of Mô'ăb? did he ever strive against Is-rā-ĕl, or did he ever fight against them. 26 While İş'rā-ĕl dwelt in Hĕsh'bŏn and her towns, and in A-rô'er and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Ar'non, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time?

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge be judge this day between the children of Is'ra-el and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jeph'thah which he sent him.

29 ¶ Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jeph'thah, and he passed over Gil'e-ad, and Ma-nas'seh, and passed over Miz'pěh of Gil'ē-ād, and from the children of Ammon. 30 And Jeph'thah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands. 31 Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a hurnt offering.

32 (So Jeph'thah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from A-ro'er. even till thou come to Min'nith. even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vinevards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Is'ra-el.

34 C And Jeph'thah came to Miz'peh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in ∧ND the men of E'phrā-ĭm gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Teph'thah. Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Teph'than said unto them. I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ve delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ve delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4 Then Jeph'than gathered together all the men of Gil'e-ad, and fought with E'phrā-im: and the men of Gil'ē-ad smote E'phrā-im, because they said, Ye Gil'ē-ăd-îtes are fugitives of E'phrā'im among the E'phra-im-ites, and among the Ma-nas'sites.

5 And the Gil'e-ad-ites took the passages of Jordan before the E'phra-imites: and it was so, that when those E'phrā-im-ites which were escaped said, Let me go over, that the men of Gil'ē-ad said unto him, Art thou an E'phrā-im-ite? If he said, Nay;

6 Then said they unto him. Say now Shib'bō-leth: and he said Sib'bō-leth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Tordan; and there fell at that time of the E'phra-im-ites forty and two thousand.

CHAPTER 13

ND the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines forty years.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of Zo'rāh, of the family of the Dan'ites, whose name was Ma-no'ah; and his wife was barren, and bare not.

3 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her. Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a

5 For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Iş'rā-ĕl out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.

6 I Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

8 Then Ma-no'ah entreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

12 And Ē'lön the Zĕb'ū-lön-īte died, not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and showed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath anpeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Má-nō'āh arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Ma-no'ah said, Now let the words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and how shall we do unto 13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Ma-no'ah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe. 15 ¶ And Má-nō'āh said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. 16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Må-no'ah, Though thou detain me. I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Ma-nō'ah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD. 17 And Ma-no'ah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honor?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus aftermy name, seeing it is secret?

19 So Mà-nô'àh took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wondrously: and Ma-no'ah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar: and Mà-nō'áh and his wife looked on it. and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Mà-nō'ah and to his wife. Then Mà-nō'ah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Má-no'ah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have 23 But his wife said unto him. If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have showed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 Cl And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan hetween Zô'rah and Esh'tā-ŏl.

CHAPTER 14

AND Samson went down to Tim'nath. A and saw a woman in Tim'nath of the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said. I have seen a woman in Tim'nath of the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines: now therefore get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philis'tines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Phi-lis' tines: for at that time the Phi-lis'tines had dominion over Is'rā-ĕl.

5 I Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Tim'nath. and came to the vineyards of Tim'nath: and, behold, a young lion roared against him.

6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 I And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father

10 T So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men

11 And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 I And Samson said unto them. I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ve give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people. and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it

17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 If And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ash' ke-lon, and slew thirty men of them, and and mother, and he gave them, and they took their spoil, and gave change of gardid eat; but he told not them that he had ments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

CHAPTER 15

BUT it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her: therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her. I pray thee, instead of her.

3 ¶ And Samson said concerning them. Now shall I be more blameless than the Phi-lis'tines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Phi-lis'tines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives

6 Then the Phi-lis'tines said, Who hath done this? And they answered. Samson, the son-in-law of the Tim'nite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Phi-lis' tines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be was in the jaw, and there came water avenged of you, and after that I will thereout; and when he had drunk, his selves in Lē'hī.

10 And the men of Tudah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come unto her. up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock E'tam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Phi-lis'tines are rulers over us?

And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 And they said unto him. We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philis'tines. And Samson said unto them. Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me vourselves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 I And when he came unto Le'hi, the Phi-lis'tines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand

17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Rā'măth-lē'hī.

18 C And he was sore athirst, and called. on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 But God clave a hollow place that spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof Ĕn-hāk'kō-rē, which is in Lē'hī unto this day.

20 And he judged Is'ra-ĕl in the days of the Phi-lis'tines twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

HEN went Samson to Ga'za, and I saw there a harlot, and went in

2 And it was told the Gā'zītes, saving. Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the mornwhat is this that thou hast done unto us? ing, when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of a hill that is before He'bron.

4 ¶ And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sō'rĕk, whose name was Dē-li'lah.

5 And the lords of the Phi-lis'fines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 ¶ And Dē-li'lah said to Samson, Tellme, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withes that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Phi-lis'tines brought up to her seven green withes which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Phi-lis'tines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withes, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known.

10 And Dē-li'lah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and he

as another man.

12 Dē-li'lāh therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Phi-lis' tines be upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Dē-li'lāh said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web.

14 And she fastened it with the pin.

and said unto him, The Phi-lis'tines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

15 ¶ And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death:

17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and he like any other man.

18 And when Dē-li'lāh saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Phi-lis'tines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Phi-lis'tines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from

him.

20 And she said, The Phī-lis'tīneş be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the LORD was departed from him.

21 ¶ But the Phi-lis'fines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Ga'za, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Phi-lis'fines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Da'gon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call a molten image: now therefore I will for Samson, that he may make us And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport; and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Phi-listines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made

28 And Samson called unto the LORD. and said, O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Phi-lis'tines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the

30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Phi-lis'tines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zō'rah and Esh'ta-ol in the buryingplace of Ma-no'ah his father. And he judged Is'rā-ĕl twenty years.

AND there was a man of mount E'phrā-im, whose name was Mi'càh.

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother. his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and restore it unto thee.

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Mi'cah.

5 And the man Mi'cah had a house of gods, and made an eph'od, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons.

who became his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Is'rā-ĕl. but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 I And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Le'vite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount E'phra-im to the house of Mī'cah, as he journeyed.

9 And Mī'cah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Le'vite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Mi'cah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Le'vite went in.

11 And the Le'vite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Mi'cah consecrated the Le'-vite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Mī'cah. 13 Then said Mī'cah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Le'vite to my priest.

CHAPTER 18

IN those days there was no king in Is'rā-ĕl: and in those days the tribe of the Dan'ites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valor, from Zo'rah, and from Esh' tā-ŏl, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount E'phra-im, to the house of Mi'cah, they image, and a molten image? now there-lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Mi'cah, they knew the voice of the young man the Le'vite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Mi'cah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, Go in neace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 I Then the five men departed, and came to La'ish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zī-dō'nĭ-ăns. quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zī-dō'nī-ans, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zō'rah and Esh'tā-ŏl: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Dăn'ites, out of Zo'rah and out of Esh'ta-ol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of 12 And they went up, and pitched in Kīr'jāth-jē'a-rīm, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Ma'ha-neh-dan' unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjăth-jē'a-rīm.

13 And they passed thence unto mount E'phrā-im, and came unto the house of Mi'cah.

14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of La'ish, and said unto their brethren. Do ve household. know that there is in these houses an eph'od, and teraphim, and a graven way: and when Mi'cah saw that they

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Le'vite, even unto the house of Mi'cah, and saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the eph'od, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Mi'cah's house, and fetched the carved image, the eph'od, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Is'ră-ĕl?

20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the eph'od, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.

22 I And when they were a good way from the house of Mi'cah, the men that were in the houses near to Mi'cah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Mi'cah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows ruth upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy 28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zi'don, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by Beth'-re'hob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father. who was born unto Is'ra-el: howbeit the name of the city was La'ish at the first.

30 M And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Ger'shom, the son of Ma-nas'seh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Mi'cah's graven image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in

CHAPTER 19

ND it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Iş'rā-ĕl, that there was a certain Le'vite sojourning on the side of mount E'phra-im, who took to him a concubine out of Bethlehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehemjudah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

damsel's father had said unto the man. Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart. his father-in-law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until afternoon. and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant. his father-in-law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to-morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Je'bus, which is Terusalem: and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Je'bus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Jeb'ūsites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Is'rā-ĕl; we will pass over to Gib'ē-ah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come. and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gib'ē-ah, or in Rã'màh.

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them. when they were by Gib'e-ah, which belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gib'e-ah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodging.

16 I And, behold, there came an old 5 ¶ And it came to pass on the fourth man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount E'phrāim; and he sojourned in Gib'e-ah: but damsel's father said unto his son-in- the men of the place were Benjamites.

21 So he brought him into his house. and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and

22 Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Be'li-al, beset the house round about, and beat at the door. and spake to the master of the house. the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

CHAPTER 20

HEN all the children of Is'ra-el went Lout, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Bê'êr-shê'bà, with the land of Gil'ē-ad, unto the LORD in Miz'peh.

2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Is'ra-el, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Is'ra-el were gone up to Miz'peh.) Then said the children of Is'ra-el, Tell us, how was this wicked-

4 And the Le'vite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gib'e-ah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gib'e-ah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Is'ra-ĕl: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Is'rā-ĕl.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Is'rā-ĕl; give here your advice and counsel.

8 C And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house.

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gib'e-ah; we will go up by lot against it; done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us the men. the children of Be'li-al, which are in Gǐb'ē-ah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Iş'rā-ĕl. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Is'ra-ĕl:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gib'ē-ah, to go out to battle against the children of Is'ra-ël.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Gib' ē-àh, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; every one could sling stones at a hair breadth, and not miss

17 And the men of Is'rā-ĕl, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

¶ And the children of Is'rā-ĕl arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gĭb'ē-ah.

20 And the men of Is'rā-ĕl went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Is'ra-el put themselves in array to fight against them at Gib'e-ah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gib'ē-ah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Is'rā-ĕl-ītes that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Is'ra-el, encouraged themselves, and set their places, e battle again in array in the place where Gib'ē-ah.

23 (And the children of Is'ra-ĕl went up and wept before the LORD until even. and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Is'ra-ĕl came 12 I And the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl sent near against the children of Benjamin

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gib'e-ah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl again eighteen thousand men: all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Is'rā-ĕl. and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Is'ra-el inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days. 28 And Phin'ē-has, the son of El'ē-a' zar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to-morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 And Is'rā-ĕl set liers in wait round

ahout Gib'e-ah.

30 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gib'ē-ah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gib'e-ah in the field, about thirty men of Is'rā-ĕl.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Is'ra-el said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Is ra-el rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Ba'al-ta'mar: and the liers in wait of Iş'rā-ĕl came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of 35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Iş'rā-ĕl: and the children of Iş'rā-ĕl destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and a hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Is'rā-ĕl gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Is'ra-el and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

30 And when the men of Is'rā-ĕl retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Is'ra-el about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Is'rā-ĕl turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Iş'rā-ĕl unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gib'e-ah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valor.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rim'mon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gi'dom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of were men of valor.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rim'mon, and abode in the rock Rim'

2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept

3 And said, O LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl. why is this come to pass in Is'rā-el, that there should be to-day one tribe lacking

4 And it came to pass on the morrow. that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. 5 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl said, Who is there among all the tribes of Is'ra-ël that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Miz'peh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕI repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Îş'rā-ĕl this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them. that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 And they said. What one is there of the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl that came not up to Miz'peh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jā'besh-gil'ē-ad to the assembly.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Ta'besh-gil'e-ad there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, 12 And they found among the inhabitants of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male; and they brought them unto the camp to Shi'loh, which is in the land of Ca'naan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rim'mon, and to call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Tā'besh-gil'ē-ad: and vet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Îş'rā-ĕl.

16 I Then the elders of the congregation said. How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said. There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Is'ra-ĕl.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Iş'rā-ĕl have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shi'loh yearly, in a blace which is on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Beth-el to She'chem, and on the south of Le-bo'nah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vinevards:

21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shī'loh come out to dance in dances, then come ve out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shi'loh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them. Be favorable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that we should be guilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced. whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance. and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Is'ra-ĕl departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Is'rā-ĕl: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

CHAPTER 1

TOW it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Mo'ab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was E-lim! ē-lech, and the name of his wife Nā'ō-mī, and the name of his two sons Mäh'lon and Chil'i-on, Eph'rath-ites of both of them; and the woman was left Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into of her two sons and her husband.

the country of Mo'ab, and continued there.

3 And E-lim'ē-lech Nā'ō-mi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Mo'ab; the name of the one was Or'pah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelt there about ten

5 And Mäh'lön and €hĭl'ī-ŏn died also in the country of Mo'ab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Tudah.

8 And Na'ō-mī said unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead. and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them: and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people. 11 And Nā'ō-mī said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb. that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have a husband also to-night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again; and Or'pah kissed her mother-in-law; but Ruth clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister-inlaw is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister-in-law.

16 And Ruth said, Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.

6 Then she arose with her daugh- to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass. ters-in-law, that she might return from when they were come to Beth-lehem, the country of Mo'ab: for she had heard that all the city was moved about them. and they said, Is this Na'o-mi?

20 And she said unto them. Call me not Nă'ō-mī, call me Mā'ra: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with 21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Na'ō-mī, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Na'o-mi returned, and Ruth the Mō'āb-īt'ĕss, her daughter-in-law, with her, which returned out of the country of Mo'ab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2

ND Nā'ō-mī had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of E-lim'e-lech; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Mo'ab-it'ess said unto Nā'ō-mī. Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of E-lim'e-lech.

4 I And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.
5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers. Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Mo'ab-it'ish damsel that came back with Na'o-mi out of the country of Mô'ăb:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now. that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens:

9 Let thine eves be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: 19 The So they two went until they came have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her. It hath fully been showed me, all that thou hast done unto thy motherin-law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find favor in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left.

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying. Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not: 16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an e'phah of barley.

18 (And she took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother-in-law said unto her. Where hast thou gleaned to-day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she showed her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said. The man's name with whom I wrought today is Boaz.

ter-in-law, Blessed be he of the LORD. who hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Na'o-mi said unto her. The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Mô'ăb-ît'ess said. He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Na'ō-mī said unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens. that they meet thee not in any other field

23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest: and dwelt with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER 3

HEN Nā'ō-mī her mother-in-law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred. with whose maidens thou wast? Behold. he winnoweth barley to-night in the threshingfloor.

3 Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6 T And she went down unto the floor. and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn; and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 ¶ And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a near kinsman.

10 And he said, Blessed be thou of 20 And Na'ō-mi said unto her daugh- the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not: I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman.

12 And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee. as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

14 (And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the veil that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her motherin-law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me. Go not empty unto thy mother-in-

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Nā'ō-mī, that is come again out of the country of Mō'ab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother E-lim'elěch's:

showed more kindness in the latter end ing, Buy it before the inhabitants. and than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it. redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said. I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Na'o-mi. thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moăb-īt'ess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 M And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself: for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Iş'rā-ĕl concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe. and gave it to his neighbor: and this was a testimony in Is'rā-el.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz. Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 C And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was E-lim'e-lech's, and all that was Chil'ion's and Mäh'lon's, of the hand of Nä'ō-mī.

10 Moreover Ruth the Mo'ab-it'ess. the wife of Mäh'lon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said. We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and THEN went Boaz up to the gate, and like Le'ah, which two did build the house of Iş'rā-ĕl: and do thou worthily in Eph'rà-täh, and be famous in Bethlehem:

> 12 And let thy house be like the house of Phā'rēz, whom Tā'màr bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 C So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And the women said unto Na'o-mi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not 4 And I thought to advertise thee, say- left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Is'ra-el. 15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law, which loveth thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath borne him.

16 And Na'o-mi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it. 17 And the women her neighbors gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to O'bed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 C Now these are the generations of Phā'rēz: Phā'rēz begat Hez'ron.

19 And Hez'ron begat Ram, and Ram begat Am-min'a-dab.

20 And Am-min'a-dab begat Näh'shon. and Näh'shon begat Săl'mon,

21 And Săl'mon begat Boaz, and Boaz

begat Ö'bĕd, 22 And Ö'bĕd begat Jesse, and Jesse Nā'ō-mī; and they called his name begat David.

BOOK OF SAMUEL

OTHERWISE CALLED, THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS

CHAPTER 1

NOW there was a certain man of Rā'mā-thā'im-zō'phim, of mount E'phrā-ĭm, and his name was El-kā'nah, the son of Je-ro'ham, the son of E-li'hu, the son of To'hū, the son of Zuph, an Eph'rath-ite:

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Pē-nin'nah: and Pē-nin'nah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shi'loh. And the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'ehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 M And when the time was that Elkā'nāh offered, he gave to Pē-nīn'nāh his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion: for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her: therefore she wept. and did not eat.

8 Then said El-kā'nāh her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons?

9 C So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shī'lōh, and after they had drunk. Now E'li the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD.

10 And she was in bitterness of soul. and prayed unto the LORD, and went

11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that E'li marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore E'li thought she had been drunken.

14 And E'li said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said. No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Be'li-al: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then E'li answered and said, Go in

The birth of Samuel. Hannah rejoiceth thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her coun- mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowl-tenance was no more sad.

19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Rā'mah: and El-kā'nah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered

20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man El-ka'nah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

23 And El-kā'nah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck prevail.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one e'phah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shi'loh: and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and his house. And the child did minister brought the child to E'li.

26 And she said, O my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD: as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

CHAPTER 2

ND Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the LORD, mine is enlarged over mine enemies; because den flesh of thee, but raw. I rejoice in thy salvation.

peace: and the God of Is'ra-el grant thee there is none besides thee: neither is there any rock like our God.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your edge, and by him actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

5 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that the barren hath borne seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

7 The LORD maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 He will keep the feet of his saints. and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed. 11 And El-kā'nāh went to Rā'māh to unto the LORD before E'li the priest.

12 W Now the sons of E'li were sons of Bē'li-āl: they knew not the LORD.

13 And the priest's custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand:

14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shi'löh unto all the Is'rā-ĕl-ītes that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast horn is exalted in the LORD; my mouth for the priest; for he will not have sod-

The sin of Eli's sons. His house dishonored desireth: then he would answer him. Nau: but thou shalt give it me now: and if not. I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the offering of the LORD. 18 C But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen ěph'ŏd.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. 20 4 And E'li blessed El-ka'nah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons And the child and two daughters.

Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 I Now E'li was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Is'ra-el; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: ve make the LORD's ever.

people to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favor both with the LORD, and also with men.

27 I And there came a man of God unto E'li, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Phā'raōh's house?

28 And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an eph'od before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of sleep; Īş'rā-ĕl?

29 Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have com-and then take as much as thy soul thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Is'ra. #1 saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk he. fore me for ever: but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for them that honor me I will honor, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see an enemy in mu habitation in all the wealth which God shall give Is'ra-el: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be a sign unto thee. that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has; in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine anointed for 36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

CHAPTER 3

ND the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before E'li. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when E'li was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not

3 And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto E'li, and said. Here manded in my habitation; and honorest am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again. Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to E'li. and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD vet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to E'li, and said, Here am I: for thou didst call me. And E'li perceived that the LORD had called the child.

o Therefore E'li said unto Samuel, Go. tie down: and it shall be, if he call thee. that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel. Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak: for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ And the LORD said to Samuel. Behold, I will do a thing in Iş'rā-ĕl, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against E'li all things which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of E'li, that the iniquity of E'li's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 C And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house

16 Then E'li called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered.

Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide anu thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 T And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Is'rā-ĕl from Dan even to Bē'ēr-shē'ba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. 21 And the LORD appeared again in Shi'loh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shi'löh by the word of the

CHAPTER 4

ND the word of Samuel came to all A Is'rā-ĕl. Now Iş'rā-ĕl went out against the Phi-lis'tines to battle, and pitched beside Eb'en-e'zer: and the Phi-lis'tines pitched in A'phek.

2 And the Phi-lis'tines put themselves in array against Is'rā-ĕl: and when they joined battle, Is ra-el was smitten be-fore the Phi-lis tines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand

3 I And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Iş'rā-ĕl said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to-day before the Phi-lis'tines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shi'loh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shī'lōh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth between the cherubim: and the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'ehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Is' rā-ĕl shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Phi-lis'tines heard the of the LORD. And Samuel feared to noise of the shout, they said, What show E'll the vision.

meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Phi-lis'tines were afraid; for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said. Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore. 8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men. O ve Phi-lis'tines, that ve be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have taken, and because of her father-in-law been to you: guit yourselves like men.

10 T And the Phi-lis'tines fought, and Is'rā-el was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Iş'rā-ĕl thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'ē-has, were slain.

12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shi'loh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, E'li sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when E'li heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told E'li.

15 Now E'li was ninety and eight years old: and his eves were dim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto E'li, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said. Is'rā-ĕl is fled before the Phi-lis' tines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hoph'ni and Phin'e-has. are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Iş'rā-ĕl forty years.

19 I And his daughter-in-law, Phin'ehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not: for thou hast borne a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard if.

21 And she named the child I'-cha-

Eli dieth. Dagon falleth before the ark and her husband.

22 And she said, The glory is departed from Is'ra-el: for the ark of God is taken.

CHAPTER 5

AND the Phi-lis'tines took the ark of God, and brought it from Eb'enë'zër unto Ashdod.

2 When the Phi-lis'tines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dā'gŏn, and set it by Dā'gŏn, 3 I And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Da'gon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Da'gon, and set him in his place again. 4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dā'gŏn was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Da'gon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dā'gŏn was left to him. 5 Therefore neither the priests of Dā'gŏn, nor any that come into Dā'gŏn's house, tread on the threshold of Da'gon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerods. even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said. The ark of the God of Is'rā-el shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Da'gon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Phi-lis'tines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Iş'rā-ĕl? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Iş'rā-ĕl be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Is'ra-el about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 I Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ek'ron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ek'ron, that the Ek'ron-ites cried out, saying, They have bod, saying, The glory is departed from brought about the ark of the God of Is'ra-ei: because the ark of God was Is'ra-ei to us, to slav us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Phi-lis'tines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Is'ra-el, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the crv of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6

ND the ark of the LORD was in the La country of the Phi-lis'tines seven months.

2 And the Phi-lis'tines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Iş'rā-ĕl, send it not empty; but in any wise return him a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Phi-lis'tines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land; and ye shall give glory unto the God of Is'ra-el: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Phā'raōh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no voke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from

them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it the ark of the LORD, even he smote of may go.

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth'-she'mesh, then he hath done us this great evil; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us: it was a chance that happened to us.

10 I And the men did so: and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart. and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Běth'-shē'měsh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Phi-listines went after them unto the border of Běth'-shē'měsh.

13 And they of Beth'-she'mesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the vallev: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Běth'-shē'mīte, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt offering unto the LORD.

15 And the Le'vites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Běth'-shē'měsh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philis'tines had seen it, they returned to Ek'ron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Phi-lis'tines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gā'zà one, for Ās'kē-lŏn one, for Gath one, for Ēk'rŏn one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philis'tines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth'shë mite.

19 ¶ And he smote the men of Beth'shë mësh, because they had looked into the people fifty thousand and threelamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great heard him. slaughter.

20 And the men of Běth'-shē'měsh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kīr'jăth-jē'a-rīm, saying, The Phi-lis'tines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

CHAPTER 7

ND the men of Kîr'jăth-jê'a-rim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of A-bin'a-dab in the hill, and sanctified El'ē-ā'zar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kīr'jāth-jē'a-rīm, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Iş'rā-ĕl lamented after

the LORD.

3 ¶ And Samuel spake unto all the house of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ash'taröth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.

4 Then the children of Is'rā-ĕl did put away Bā'a-līm and Ash'ta-roth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Ĭş'rā-ĕl to Miz'pěh, and I will pray for you unto

the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpen, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lorn, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the Lorn. And Samuel judged the children of Is'rā-ĕl in Miz'pĕh.

7 And when the Phi-lis'tines heard that the children of Is'rā-ĕl were gathered together to Miz'peh, the lords of the Phi-lis'tines went up against Îş'rā-ĕl. And when the children of Is'ra-el heard it, they were afraid of the Phi-lis'tines. 8 And the children of Is'ra-el said to

Samuel. Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.

> 10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Phi-lis'tines drew near to battle against Is'ra-ĕl: but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Phi-lis'tines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Ĭs'rã-ĕl.

11 And the men of Is'ra-el went out of Miz'peh, and pursued the Phi-lis'tines. and smote them, until they came under Běth'-cär'

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Miz'peh and Shen, and called the name of it Eb'en-e'zer, saying. Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 ¶ So the Phi-lis'tines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Is'ra-el: and the hand of the LORD was against the Phi-lis'tines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Phi-lis! tines had taken from Is'rā-ĕl were restored to Iş'rā-ĕl, from Ĕk'rŏn even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Is'rā-ĕl deliver out of the hands of the Philis'tines. And there was peace between Îs'rā-ĕl and the Am'ō-rītes.

15 And Samuel judged Is'ra-ël all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gil'găl, and Miz-pěh, and judged Iş'rā-ĕl in all those places.

17 And his return was to Ra'mah, for there was his house; and there he judged Iş'rā-ĕl; and there he built an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over İş'rā-ĕl.

2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, A-bi'ah: they were judges in Bē'ēr-shē'ba. 3 And his sons walked not in his ways. but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Is'ra-el gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Rā'māh.

CHAPTER 9

YOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Ā'bi-ĕl, the son of Zē'rôr, the son of Bē-chō'răth, the son of A-phī'ah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Îş'rā-ĕl a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son. Take now one of the servants with 12 And he will appoint him captains thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honorable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can show us

9 (Beforetime in Is'rā-ĕl, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to-day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people to-day in the high place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterward they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, say-

16 To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Is'rā-ēl, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines; for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall reign over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to-day, and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Is/ra-ĕi? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am one carrying three kids, and another not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Is ra-el? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlor, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 ¶ And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still a while, that I may show thee the word of God.

CHAPTER 10

THEN Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the Lord hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance?

2 When thou art departed from me today, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zĕl'zah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tā'bor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Bethed, one carrying three kids and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

4 And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Phi-lis'tines: and it shall come to pass. when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy:

6 And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

7 And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold. he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place. 14 ¶ And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said. To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, presents. But he held his peace. we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 If And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Miz'peh;

18 And said unto the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, Thus saith the LORD God of lş'rā-ĕl, I brought up Is'rā-ĕl out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him. Nau. but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Ma'tri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Be-9 And it was so, that, when he had hold, he hath hid himself among the

And all the people shouted, and said. God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 T And Saul also went home to Gib'e-ah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of Bē'lī-ăl said. How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no

CHAPTER 11

HEN Nā'hāsh the Ammonite came L up, and encamped against Ta'beshgil'ē-ad: and all the men of Ja'besh said unto Na'hash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Na'hash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Is'rā-ēl.

3 And the elders of Jā'besh said unto him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Is'rā-ēl: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 Then came the messengers to Gib'e-ah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jā'besh.

6 And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of 15 'rā-ēl by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in Be'zek, the children of Iş'rā-el were three hundred thousand, and the men of Tudah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jā'běsh-gū'ē-ād, To-morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and showed it to the men of Jā'běsh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jā'bĕsh said, To-morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 ¶ And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to-day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Iş rā-ēl. 14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gil'gāl, and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gil'găl, and there they made Saul king before the Lord in Gil'găl; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the Lord; and there Saul and all the men of Îş'rā-êl rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12

AND Samuel said unto all Is'rā-ĕi, Behoid, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and grayheaded; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: witness against me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord of all the righteous acts of the Lord, which he did to you and to your fathers.

8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgat the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sis'ēr-a, captain of the host of Hā'zōr, and into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Bā'a-lim and Ash'ta-roth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies. and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent Jer'ub-ba'al, and Be'dan, and Jeph'thah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelt safe.

12 And when ye saw that Na'hash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but king. a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your king.

13 Now therefore, behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD: then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God:

the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD; then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 ¶ Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not wheat harvest to-day? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great. which we have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel. Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added king

20 M And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart; should ye go after vain things, which appointed: but Samuel came not to and into the hand of the king of Mo'ab, cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

22 For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way:

24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you. 25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your

CAUL reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Iş'rā-ĕl, 2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Iş'rā-ĕl; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Mich'mash and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gib'e-ah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of 15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the Phi-lis'tines that was in Ge'ba. and the Phi-lis'tines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Iş'rā-ĕl heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Phi-lis' tines, and that Iş'rā-ĕl also was had in abomination with the Phi-lis'tines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gil'gal.

5 ¶ And the Phi-lis'tines gathered themselves together to fight with Isrā-ĕl, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Mich'mash, eastward from Beth'-a'ven.

6 When the men of Is'ra-el saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickunto all our sins this evil, to ask us a ets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

> 7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gil'ē-ād. As for Saul, he was yet in Gil'gal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 C And he tarried seven days, accord-21 And turn ye not aside: for then ing to the set time that Samuel had Gil'găl; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 ¶ And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me. and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Phi-lis' tines gathered themselves together at Mich'mash:

12 Therefore said I. The Phi-lis'tines will come down now upon me to Gil'găl, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul. Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon İş'rā-ĕl for ever.

14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gil'găl unto Gib'ē-ah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul, and Tonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in Gib'ē-ah of Benjamin: but the Phi-lis'tineş encamped in Mich'mash.

17 C And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Phi-lis'tines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Oph'rah, unto the land of Shu'ăl:

18 And another company turned the way to Běth'-hō'rŏn: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of Zē-bō'im toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Is'ra-el: for the Phi-lis'tines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 But all the Iş'rā-ĕl-ītes went down to the Phi-lis'tines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21 Yet they had a file for the mattocks. and for the coulters, and for the forks. and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of bat. tle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jona. than: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Phi-list tines went out to the passage of Mich!

măsh.

CHAPTER 14

NOW it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armor. Come, and let us go over to the Philis'tines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gib'e-ah under a pomegranate tree which is in Mig'ron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men:

3 And A-hī'ah, the son of A-hī'tŭb, I'-cha-bŏd's brother, the son of Phin'ehas, the son of E'li, the Lord's priest in Shī'lōh, wearing an eph'od. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 C And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Phi-lis'tines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bo'zez, and the name of the other Sē'něh.

5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Mich'mash, and the other southward over against Gib!

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armor, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

7 And his armor-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thy heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will hold, every man's sword was against his discover ourselves unto them.

O If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand; and this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Phi-lis'tines; and the Phi-lis'tines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer. and said, Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armor-bearer, Come up after me; for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Is'ra-el.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armorbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armor-bearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were a half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gib'eah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto A-hi'ah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of

of Is'rā-ĕl.

19 C And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Phi-lis'tines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves. and they came to the battle: and, be-fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were in our place, and will not go up unto with the Phi-lis'tines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Is'ra-el-ites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Is'rā-ĕl which had hid themselves in mount E'phrā-im, when they heard that the Phi-lis'tines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So the LORD saved Is'rā-ĕl that day: and the battle passed over unto Běth'-ā'věn.

24 ¶ And the men of Îş'rā-ĕl were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped: but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people. and said. Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be multitude melted away, and they went the man that eateth any food this day.

And the people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had God was at that time with the children there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Phi-lis'tines?

31 And they smote the Phi-lis'tines that day from Mich'mash to Ai'ja-lon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 I Then they told Saul, saying,

Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 Q And Saul said, Let us go down after the Phi-lis'tines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God. Shall I go down after the Phi-lis'tines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Is'rā-ĕl? But he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw ye near hither, all the chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For, as the LORD liveth, which saveth Is ra-el, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Is'rā-ĕl, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul. Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall thousand men of Judah.

Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Iş'rā-ĕl? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Phi-lis'tines: and the Phi-lis'tines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Îş'rā-ēl, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Mo'ab, and against the children of Ammon, and against E'dom, and against the kings of Zo'bah, and against the Phi-lis'tines: and whithersoever he turned himself. he vexed them.

48 And he gathered a host, and smote the Am'a-lek-ites, and delivered Iş'rā-ĕl out of the hands of them that spoiled

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan. and Ish'ū-ī, and Měl'chī-shu'à: and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Me'rab, and the name of the younger Mi'chal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was A-hin'ō-am, the daughter of A-him'a-az: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was the father of Saul: and Ner the father of Abner was the son of A'bĭ-ĕl.

52 And there was sore war against the Phi-lis'tines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

CHAPTER 15

CAMUEL also said unto Saul, The Deno sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Iş'rā-ĕl: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Am'a-lek did to Iş'rā-ĕl, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Am'a-lek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Te-la'im, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten

5 And Saul came to a city of Am'a-lek. and laid wait in the valley.

6 C And Saul said unto the Ke'nites. Go, depart, get you down from among the Am'a-lek-ites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye showed kindness to all the children of Is'ra-el, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Ke'nites departed from among the Am'a-lek-ites.

7 And Saul smote the Am'a-lek-ites from Hav'i-läh until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took A'gag the king of the Am'à-lek-ites alive, and utterly dethe sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared A'gag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 CT Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Car'mel. and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gil'gal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Am'a-lek-ites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath -said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl, honor me now, I pray thee, before the

and the LORD anointed thee king over Īs'rā-ĕl?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Am'a-lek-ites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought A'gag the king of stroyed all the people with the edge of Am'a-lek, and have utterly destroyed the Am'a-lek-ites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gil'găl.

22 And Samuel said. Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 T And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will 14 And Samuel said, What meaneth not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over İş'rā-ĕl.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him. The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Is'rā-ĕl from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbor of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the Strength of Is'rā-ĕl will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet elders of my people, and before Is'rā-ĕl. and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul: and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me A'gag the king of the Am'alek-ites. And A'gag came unto him delicately. And A'gag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed A'gag in pieces before these.

the LORD in Gil'gal. 34 Then Samuel went to Ra'mah:

and Saul went up to his house to Gib'eah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Is'rā-ĕl.

CHAPTER 16

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Is'rā-ĕl? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said. Take a heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify vourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 C And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on E-li'ab, and said. Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy Look not on his countenance, or on the son, which is with the sheep. height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

8 Then Jesse called A-bin'a-dab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said. Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Sham'mah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the LORD said, Arise. anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil. and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Lorn came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ra'mah.

14 T But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him. Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants. which are before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on a harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee. that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants. Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants. and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid. and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly: and he became his armor-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favor in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took a harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER 17

Now the Phi-lis'tines gathered to-gether their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shō'chōh. hetween Sho'choh and A-ze'kah, in Beth-lehem. E'phes-dăm'mim.

2 And Saul and the men of Is'rā-ĕl were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of E'lah, and set the battle in array against the Phi-lis'tines.

3 And the Phi-lis'tines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Is'ra-ĕl stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 I And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Phi-lis'tines. named Go-li'ath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head had put the battle in array, army weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Is'rā-ĕl, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Phi-lis'tine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and they saw the man, fled from him, and serve us.

10 And the Phi-lis'tine said, I defy the armies of Is'ra-ĕl this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Is ra-el heard those words of the Phi-lis'tine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 W Now David was the son of that Eph'rath-ite of Beth-lehem-judah. whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Tesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were E-li'ab the firstborn, and next unto him A-bin'a-dab. and the third Sham'mah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from which belongeth to Judah, and pitched Saul to feed his father's sheep at 16 And the Phi-lis'tine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ë'phåh of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren;

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Is'rā-el, were in the valley of E'lah, fighting with the Phi-lis'tines.

20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle. 21 For Is'ra-el and the Phi-lis'tines against army.

22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Phi-lis'tine of Gath, Go-li'ath by name, out of the armies of the Phi-lis'tines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Is'rā-ĕl, when were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Is'rā-ĕl said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Is'rā-ĕl is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Is'rā-ĕl.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philis'tine, and taketh away the reproach from Is'ra-el? for who is this uncircumcised Phi-lis'tine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 ¶ And Ē-li'āb his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and E-li'ab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 ¶ And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

32 M And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Phi-lis'tine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Phi-lis'tine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philis'tine shall be as one of them, seeing he lis'tine arose, and came and drew nigh

37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Phi-lis'tine. And Saul said unto David. Go. and the LORD be with thee.

38 I And Saul armed David with his armor, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armor, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Phi-lis'tine.

41 And the Phi-lis'tine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Phi-lis'tine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Phi-lis'tine said unto David. Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Phi-lis'tine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Phi-lis'tine said to David. Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Phi-lis'tine Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Is'ra-ël. whom thou hast defied.

46 This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Phi-lis'tines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Iş'rā-ĕl.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's. and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Phihath defied the armies of the living God. to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Phi-lis'tine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Phi-lis'tine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Phitis'tine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Phi-lis'tine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Phi-lis'tine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof. and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Phi-lis'tines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Iş'rā-el and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Phi-lis'tines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ek'ron. And the wounded of the Phi-lis'tines fell down by the way to Shā'a-ra'im, even unto Gath, and unto Ek'ron.

53 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl returned from chasing after the Phi-lis'tines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Phi-lis'tine, and brought it to Jerusalem: but he put his armor in his tent.

55 (And when Saul saw David go forth against the Phi-lis'tine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell

56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Phi-lis'tine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Phi-lis'tine in his hand. 58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David an- 13 Therefore Saul removed him from swered, I am the son of thy servant him, and made him his captain over a Tesse the Beth-lehemite.

CHAPTER 18

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan behaved himself very wisely, he was loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Phi-lis'tine, that the women came out of all cities of Is'rā-ĕl, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music.

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin: for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 I And Saul was afraid of David. because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with 15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he afraid of him.

16 But all Iş'rā-ĕl and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Mē'rāb, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Phi-lis'tines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Iş'rā-ĕl, that I should be son-in-law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Mě'rāb Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Ā'dri-ēl the Mē-hō'lā-thīte to wife.

20 And Mi'chal Saul's daughter loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Phi-lis'tines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my sonin-law in the one of the twain.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son-in-law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but a hundred foreskins of the Philis'fines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philis'fines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law; and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philis'tines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Mi'ehāl his daughter to wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Mi'chal

Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Phi-lis'tines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

CHAPTER 19

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.

2 But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not similed against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good.

5 For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Phi-lis'tine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Is'ra-lithou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

8 ¶ And there was war again; and David went out, and fought with the Phi-lis' tines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Mi'chai David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So Mī'chăl let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Mī'chāl took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. 15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. 16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Mi'chal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Mi'chal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

18 C So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ra'mah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Na'ioth. 19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Nā'iŏth in Rā'mah.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he also to Rā'mah, and came to a great well that is in Se'chū: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Na'ioth in Ra'mah.

23 And he went thither to Na'ioth in Rā'mah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Na'ioth in Rā'māh. 24 And he stripped off his clothes also. and prophesied before Samuel in like field. manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

CHAPTER 20

AND David fled from Na'ioth in Ra' mah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will show it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.

3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Tonathan, Behold, to-morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at 6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said. Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O

LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕI, when I have sounded my father about to-morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and show it thee;

13 The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will show it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live show me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, Tomorrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone £7zěl.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou; for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the Lond liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the Lord be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat

LORD God of Ĭṣ'rā-ĕl, when I have by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to

Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favor in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter. 40 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 ¶ And as soon as the lad was sone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and howed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Tonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER 21

THEN came David to Nöb to A-him's list the priest: and A-him's list was afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said unto Å-him'ē-lēch the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

2 Now therefore what is under thing my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Dō'ĕg, an E'dŏm-ite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto A-hīm'ē-lēch, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's husiness required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Gō-l'āth the Phi-lis'tine, whom thou slewest in the valley of E'lāh, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the eph'ōd: if thou wilt take that, take it for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 ¶ And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to A'chish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of A'chish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of A'chish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said A'chish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of madmen, that ye have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

CHAPTER 22

DAVID therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave A-dül-lam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpěh of Mö'žb: and he said unto the king of Mo'ab. Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Mo'ab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 I And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Ha'reth.

6 When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gib'e-ah under a tree in Ra'mah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;)

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds:

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that showeth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or showeth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 ¶ Then answered Dō'ĕg the E'dŏmite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to A-him'e-leeh the son of A-hi'tub.

10 And he inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Gō-li'āth the Philis'tine.

11 Then the king sent to call A-him'elech the priest, the son of A-hi'tub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of A-hi'tub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then A-him'ē-lech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful hold, we be afraid here in Judah: how Doeg slayeth Ahimelech and the priests bidding, and is honorable in thine

house?

15 Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant. nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, A-him'ē-lech, thou, and all thy father's house.

17 I And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Do'eg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Do'eg the E'dom-ite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ĕph'ŏd.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword. both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the sons of A-him'ē-lěch the son of A-hī'tŭb, named A-bī'àthar, escaped, and fled after David.

21 And A-bi'a-thar showed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests.

22 And David said unto A-bi'a-thar, I knew it that day, when Do'eg the E'domite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

CHAPTER 23

HEN they told David, saying, Behold, the Phi-lis'tines fight against Kē-ī'lah, and they rob the threshingfloors.

2 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Phi-lis'tines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Phi-lis'tines, and save Kē-ī'lah.

3 And David's men said unto him. Beamong all thy servants as David, which much more then if we come to Ke-ī'lāh is the king's son-in-law, and goeth at thy against the armies of the Phi-lis'tines?

4 Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Ke-i'lah; for I will deliver the Phi-lis'tines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Ke-ilah, and fought with the Phi-lis'tines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Ke-i'lah.

6 And it came to pass, when A-bi'a-thar the son of A-him'e-leeh fled to David to Kē-ī'lah, that he came down with an eph'od in his hand.

7 M And it was told Saul that David was come to Ke-i'lah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Ke-i'lah, to besiege David and his men.

9 @ And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to A-bi'a-thar the priest, Bring hither the eph'od.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Ke-i'lah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the men of Ke-i'lah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Kē-ī'lāh deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up.

13 Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Kē-ī'lah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Ke-i'lah; and he forbare to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strongholds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 C And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for thee; and thou shalt be king over Is'rā-el, and I shall be next unto thee: and that also Saul my father knoweth.

18 And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 I Then came up the Ziph'ites to Saul to Gib'e-ah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strongholds in the wood, in the hill of Ha-chī'lah, which is on the south of Te-shi'mon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilely.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Mā'ŏn, in the plain on the south of Je-shi'mon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Ma'on. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Mā'on.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 I But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Phi-lis'tines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Phi-lis'tines: therefore they called that place Sē'la-ham-mäh'lē-koth.

29 ¶ And David went up from thence. and dwelt in strongholds at En-ge'di.

CHAPTER 24

AND it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Phithe hand of Saul my father shall not find lis tines, that it was told him, saying,

David spareth Saul's life in the cave

Behold. David is in the wilderness of wicked: but mine hand shall not be Ĕn-gē'dī.

Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Is'ra-ĕl, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men. The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to not. stretch forth mine hand against him. seeing he is the anointed of the LORD. 7 So David staved his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed of the cave, and went on his way.

9 M And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD hath delivered thee to-day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand; for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; vet thou huntest my soul to take it.

12 The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee:

but mine hand shall not be upon thee. 13 As saith the proverb of the ancients. Wickedness proceedeth from the house of Caleb.

upon thee. 14 After whom is the king of Is'ra-el come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.

16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast showed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 And now, behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Iş'rā-ĕl shall be established in thine hand.

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.

22 And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto the hold.

CHAPTER 25

ND Samuel died; and all the Is'ra-A el-ites were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ra'mah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Pā'rān.

2 And there was a man in Mā'on, whose possessions were in Car'mel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Cär'měl.

3 Now the name of the man was Nā² băl. and the name of his wife Ab'ī-gāil; and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the 4 C And David heard in the wilderness that Na'bal did shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men. and David said unto the young men, Get him. you up to Car'mel, and go to Na'bal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there aught missing unto them, all the while they were in Car'mel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will show thee. Wherefore let the young men find favor in thine eyes; for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Na'bal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

10 C And Nā'bal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants nowadays that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men. whom I know not whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ve on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

14 C But one of the young men told Ab'i-gail, Na'bal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilrailed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields.

16 They were a wall unto us both by that follow my lord. night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Bē'lī-āl, that a man cannot speak to 18 Then Ab'ī-gāil made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants. Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Na'bal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him:

and he hath requited me evil for good. 22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Ab'i-gail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground,

24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid. I pray thee. speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Be'li-al, even Na'bal: for as his name is, so is he: Na'bal is his name. and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyderness to salute our master; and he self with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nā'bāl,

> 27 And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will cer-17 Now therefore know and consider tainly make my lord a sure house; be-thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul; but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Is'ra-ĕl;

31 That this shall be no grief unto thee. nor offense of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 T And David said to Ab'ī-gāil, Blessed be the LORD God of Iş'ra-ĕl, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Is'ra-ël liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabăl by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her. Go up in peace to thine house; see. I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 C And Ab'i-gail came to Na'bal: and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nā'băl's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Na'bal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Na'bal, that he died.

39 ¶ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, that hath pleaded the cause of people by night; and, behold, Saul lay

LORD, and evil hath not been found in my reproach from the hand of Na'hall and hath kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Na'bal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Ab'i-gail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Ab'i-gail to Car'mel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. 41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. 42 And Ab'i-gail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

44 ¶ But Saul had given Mi'chăl his daughter, David's wife, to Phal'ti the son of La'ish, which was of Gal'lim.

CHAPTER 26

AND the Ziph'ites came unto Saul to Gib'ē-ah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Ha-chi'lah. which is before Je-shi'mon?

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Is'ra-el with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Zĭph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Haehī'lah, which is before Jē-shī'mon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to A-him'ē-lĕch the Hit'tīte, and to A-bish' ā-ī the son of Zĕr'u-ī'āh, brother to Jo'ab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And A-bish'ā-i said. I will go down with thee.

7 So David and A-bish'ā-ī came to the sleeping within the trench, and his spear

8 Then said A-bish'ā-ī to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

o And David said to A-bish'ā-ī, Destrov him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 David said furthermore. As the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him: or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish.

II The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster. and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them. 13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off: a great space being between

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Is'ra-el? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said. Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord,

O king. 18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my stuck in the ground at his bolster: but lord the king hear the words of his serv-Abner and the people lay round about ant. If the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering: but if they be the children of men. cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD. saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Is'ra-el is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David; for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold. I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to-day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eves of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail.

So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

ND David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Phi-lis'tines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Iş'rā-ĕl: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto A'ehish, the son of Mā'och, king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with A'chish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, A-hin'o-am the Jez're-el-it'ess, and Ab'i-gail the Car'měl-it'ess, Nabăl's wife.

5 T And David said unto A'chish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

6 Then A'chish gave him Zik'lag that day: wherefore Zik'lag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Phi-lis'tines was a full ther by dreams, nor by U'rim, nor by year and four months.

8 I And David and his men went up. and invaded the Gesh'ū-rītes, and the Gěz'rītes, and the Am'a-lek-ītes: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to A'chish.

10 And A'chish said, Whither have ye made a road to-day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Je-rah'me-el-ites, and against the south of the Ke'nites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Phi-lis'tines.

12 And A'chish believed David, saving, He hath made his people Is'ra-el utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

CHAPTER 28

ND it came to pass in those days, that the Phi-lis'tines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Īş'rā-ĕl. And A'chish said unto David Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men.

2 And David said to A'chish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And A'chish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

3 ¶ Now Samuel was dead, and all Îş'rā-ĕl had lamented him, and buried

4 And it was told Saul that David was And Saul had put away those that had fled to Gath: and he sought no more familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Phi-lis'tines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shu'nem: and Saul gathered all Is'ra-el together, and they pitched in Gil-bō'a.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Phi-lis'tines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not nei-prophets.

7 Then said Saul unto his servants. Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him. Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En'-dôr.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him. Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards. out of the land: wherefore then lavest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 I And Samuel said to Saul, Why him in Rā'mah, even in his own city. hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Phi-lis'tines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

17 And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbor, even to David:

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Am'a-lek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day 19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Is'ra-el with thee into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines: and to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Iş'rā-ĕl into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from not go fight against the enemies of my the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

CHAPTER 29

NOW the Phi-lis'tines gathered to-gether all their armies to A'phěk: and the İş'rā-ĕl-ītes pitched by a fountain which is in Tez're-el.

2 And the lords of the Phi-lis'tines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rearward with A'chish.

3 Then said the princes of the Phi-lis! tines, What do these Hebrews here? And A'ehish said unto the princes of the Phi-lis'tines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Is'ra-el, which hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Phi-lis'tines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Phi-lis'tines said unto him. Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these thousands?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten

6 Then A'chish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favor thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Phi-lis'tines.

8 M And David said unto A'chish, But 23 But he refused, and said, I will not what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may lord the king?

9 And A'chish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding, the princes of the Phi-lis'tines have said. He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

Il So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Phi-lis'tines. And the Phi-lis'tines went up to Jez'rē-ei.

CHAPTER 30

AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Zik'läg on the third day, that the Åm'å-lëk-ites had invaded the south, and Zik'läg, and smitten Zik'läg, and burned it with fire:

2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives were taken captives, A-hin'ō-ăm the Jez'rē-ĕl-īt'ĕss, and Ab'ī-gāil the wife of Nā'bāl the Cär'mĕl-īte.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the Lorn his God.

7 And David said to Å-bi'á-thár the priest, Å-him'ē-lĕeh's son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ĕph'ŏd. And Å-bi'á-thár brought thither the ĕph'ŏd to

David.

8 And David inquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Be'sor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Be'sor.

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water:

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins; and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Am'a-lêk-ite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the Cher's-thites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Zik'iag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Phi-lis' tines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day; and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Am'a-lek-ites had carried away; and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 ¶ And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Be'sor; and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him and when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men, and men of Bē'lī-al, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them auaht of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children. that they may lead them away, and 23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so. my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

25 And it was so from that day forward. that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Is'rā-ĕl unto this day.

26 C And when David came to Zik'lag. he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD:

27 To them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were in south Ra'moth, and to them which were in Jat'tir, 28 And to them which were in A-ro'er, and to them which were in Siph'moth. and to them which were in Esh'temō'à.

29 And to them which were in Ra'chal, and to them which were in the cities of the Jē-räh'mē-ĕl-ītes, and to them which were in the cities of the Ke'nītes.

30 And to them which were in Hor'mah. and to them which were in Chor-ash'an. and to them which were in A'thach.

31 And to them which were in Hē'bron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

upon Saul and upon his sons; and the fasted seven days.

Phi-lis'tines slew Jonathan, and A-bin' à-dăb, and Měl'chi-shu'à, Saul's sons. 3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul unto his armorbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 I And when the men of Is'rā-ĕl that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Is'ra-el fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philis'tines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Phi-lis'tines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gil-bô'à.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Phi-lis'tines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10 And they put his armor in the house of Ash'tà-roth; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth'-shan'.

11 ¶ And when the inhabitants of Ta'. besh-gil'e-ad heard of that which the Phi-lis'tines had done to Saul.

12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Běth'-shăn', and came to Jā'běsh, and

OTHERWISE CALLED, THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS

CHAPTER 1

TOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Am'a-lek-ites, and David had abode two days in Zik'lag:

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent. and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him. Out of the camp of Is'rā-ĕl am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered. That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gil-bo'a, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, İ am an Am'alĕk-īte.

9 He said unto me again, Stand. I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jona. than his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Iş'rā-ĕl; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 I And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Am'a-lek-ite.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

17

And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: hehold, it is written in the book of Ja'sher:)

19 The beauty of Iş'rā-ĕl is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of As'ke-lon; lest the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gil-bo'a, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Ĭş'rā-ĕl, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights; who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER 2

ND it came to pass after this, that David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of young men now arise, and play before Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto He'bron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, A-hin'ō-am the Jez'rē-elīt'ess, and Ab'ī-gāil Nā'băl's wife the Cär'měl-ite.

3 And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of He'bron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Ja'beshgil'ë-ad were they that buried Saul.

5 ¶ And David sent messengers unto the men of Jā'besh-gil'e-ad, and said unto them, Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have showed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have hand nor to the left from following buried him.

6 And now the LORD show kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Tudah have anointed me king over them.

8 ¶ But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ish'-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to

Mā'ha-nā'im;

9 And made him king over Gil'ē-ăd. and over the Ash'ŭr-ites, and over Tezrē-ĕl, and over E'phrā-im, and over Ben-

12 I And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish'-bo'sheth the son of Saul, went out from Mā'ha-nā'im to Gib'ē-on.

13 And Jo'ab the son of Zer'u-i'ah, and 27 How are the mighty fallen, and the the servants of David, went out, and met together by the pool of Gib'e-on: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

> 14 And Abner said to To'ab. Let the us. And Jo'ab said, Let them arise.

> 15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish'-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

> 16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkăth-hăz'zū-rim, which is in Gib'ē-on.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Iş'rā-ĕl, before the servants of David.

18 I And there were three sons of Zĕr'u-ī'āh there, Jō'āb, and A-bīsh'ā-ī, and As'a-hel: and As'a-hel was as light of foot as a wild roe.

19 And As'a-hel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said. Art thou As'a-hel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armor. But As'a-hel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to As'a-hel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Jo'ab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib. 10 Ish'-bō'sheth Saul's son was forty that the spear came out behind him; 11 And the time that David was king hel fell down and died stood still.

24 To'ab also and A-bish'a-i pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Am' mah, that lieth before Gi'ah by the way of the wilderness of Gib'e-on.

25 C And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill.

26 Then Abner called to To'ab, and said. Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Jo'ab said, As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Jo'ab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Is'ra-ël no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bith'ron, and they came to Ma'ha-

30 And Jo'ab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Ăs'à-hěl.

CHAPTER 3

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 M And unto David were sons born in Hē'bron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of A-hin'o-am the Tez're-el-it'ess:

3 And his second, Chil'ē-āb, of Ab'i-gāil the wife of Nā'bāl the Cār'mĕl-īte; and the third, Ab'sā-lom the son of Mā'a-cah the daughter of Tal'mai king of Ge'shur:

Hag'gith; and the fifth, Sheph'a-ti'ah the son of Ab'i-tal; 5 And the sixth, Ith're-am, by Eg'lah

David's wife. These were born to David in Hē'bron.

6 I And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Riz'pah, the daughter of A-i'ah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner. Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish'-bo'sheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do show kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to-day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Iş'rā-ĕl and over Judah, from Dan even to Bē'er-shē'bà.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Is'ra-el unto thee.

13 T And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Mi'chal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish'bö'shěth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Mi'chal, which I espoused to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philĭs'tĭnes

15 And Ish'-bo'sheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from Phăl'ti-ĕl the son of La'ish.

16 And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Ba-hū'rīm. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return, And he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had communication 4 And the fourth, Ad'o-ni'jah the son of with the elders of Is'ra-el, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Iş'rā-ĕl out of the hand of the Phi-listines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in He'bron all that seemed good to Is'rā-ĕl, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to He'bron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Is ra-el unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And, behold, the servants of David and Jo'ab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in He'bron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Jō'āb and all the host that was with him were come, they told Jō'āb, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Jo'ab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite

goner

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Jō'āb was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Si'rāh; but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to He'bron, Jō'āb took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Ås'à-hel his brother.

28 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 Let it rest on the head of Jō'āb; and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Jō'āb one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Jō'āh and A-bīsh'ā-ī his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother As'ā-hēl at Gīb'ē-on in the battle.

31 ¶ And David said to Jō'āb, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sack-cloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in He'bron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or aught else, till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Is/rā-ël understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Nër. 38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Is/rā-ēl?

39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zer u-rah be too hard for me: the Lord shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAPTER 4

AND when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in He'bron, his hands were feeble, and all the Iş'rāěl-ītes were troubled.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Bā'ā-nāh, and the name of the other Rē'chāb, the sons of Rim'mön a Bē-ē'rŏth-īte, of the children of Benjamin: (for Bē-ē'rŏth also was reckoned to Benjamin:

3 And the Bē-ē'rŏth-ītes fled to Gĭt'tāim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jez're-el, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mē-phib'ō-sheth.

5 And the sons of Rim'mon the Be-eroth-ite, Re'chab and Ba'a-nah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish'-bo'sheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth rib: and Re'chab and Bä'à-nàh his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish' bō'shĕth unto David to Hē'bron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish'-bō'sheth the son of Saul thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rē'chāb and Bā'a-nah his brother, the sons of Rim' mon the Be-e'roth-ite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath sity, 10 When one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him. and slew him in Zik'lag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in He'bron. But they took the head of Ish'-bo'sheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hê'bron.

CHAPTER 5

HEN came all the tribes of Is'ra-el to David unto He'bron, and spake. saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Is'ra-el; and the Lorn said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people s'rā-el, and thou shalt be a captain over Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

3 So all the elders of Is'ra-el came to the king to He'bron; and king David made a league with them in He'bron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Iş'rā-ĕl.

4 T David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hē'bron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Iş'rā-ĕl and Judah.

6 4 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jeb'ū-sītes, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless, David took the stronghold of Zion: the same is the city of 8 And David said on that day, Whoseever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jeb'ū-sites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, redeemed my soul out of all adver- he shall be chief and captain. Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Mil'lo and inward.

10 And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

11 ¶ And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees. and carpenters, and masons: and they built David a house.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Îs'rā-ĕl. and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Is'rā-ĕl's sake.

13 ¶ And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from He bron: and there were yet sons and daughters born thence the ark of God, whose name is to David. 14 And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem: Sham-mū'ah, and Sho'bab, and Nathan, and Solomon, 15 Íb'här also, and Ěl'ī-shū'à, and Në'pheg, and Ja-phi'a,

16 And E-lish'a-mä, and E-li'a-da, and E-liph'a-let.

17 ¶ But when the Phi-lis'tines heard that they had anointed David king over Is'rā-ĕl, all the Phi-lis'tines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold.

18 The Phi-lis'tines also came and spread themselves in the valley of Reph'a-im.

19 And David inquired of the LORD, saving, Shall I go up to the Phi-lis'tines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philis'tines into thine hand.

20 And David came to Ba'al-pe-ra'zim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Ba'al-pe-ra'zim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men burned them.

22 C And the Phi-lis'tines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Reph'a-im.

23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come trees.

24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Phī-līs'tīneş.

25 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him: and smote the Philis'tines from Gë'bà until thou come to Gā'zēr.

CHAPTER 6

AGAIN, David gathered together all the chosen men of Iş'rā-ĕl, thirty thousand.

called by the name of the LORD of hosts that dwelleth between the cherubim.

3 And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of A-bin'à-dăb that was in Gib'ē-ah: and Uz'zah and A-hī'ō, the sons of A-bin'adab, drave the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of A-bin'a-dab which was at Gib'e-ah, accompanying the ark of God: and

A-hi'ō went before the ark,

5 And David and all the house of Iş'rā-ĕl played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries. and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to Nā'chon's threshingfloor, Uz'zah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uz'zah, and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uz'zah: and he called the name of the place Pë'rëz-ŭz'zah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of O'bed-e'dom the Git'tite. 11 And the ark of the LORD continued upon them over against the mulberry in the house of O'bed-e'dom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Ö'běd-ē'dom, and all his household.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house, of O'bed-e'dom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of O'bed-e'dom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. 14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen eph'od.

15 So David and all the house of 2 And David arose, and went with all Iş'rā-ĕl brought up the ark of the LORD the people that were with him from with shouting, and with the sound of the 16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Mī'chāl Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people. even among the whole multitude of is'rā-el, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Mi'chal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Iş'rā-ĕl to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Mi'chăl, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Iş'rā-ĕl: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honor.

23 Therefore Mi'chal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

AND it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies:

2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains.

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is

with thee.

4 C And it came to pass that night that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, 5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in anu house since the time that I brought up the children of Is'ra-el out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Is'ra-el spake I a word with any of the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl, whom I commanded to feed my people Is'rā-ĕl, saying, Why build ye not me a house of cedar?

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Is'ra-el:

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Is'ra-el, and will plant them. that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime,

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Iş'rā-ĕl, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee a house.

12 I And when thy days be fulfilled. and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 He shall build a house for my name. and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever. 17 According to all these words, and Nathan speak unto David.

18 Then went king David in, and sat hefore the LORD, and he said, Who am I. O Lord Goo? and what is my house. that thou hast brought me hitherto?

10 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord GoD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great Phi-lis'tines. while to come. And is this the manner of man, O Lord GoD?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord God, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore thou art great. O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Iş'rā-ĕl, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from and twenty thousand men. the nations and their gods?

24 For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people İş'rā-ĕl to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house. establish it for ever, and do as thou hast

26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Iş'rā-ĕl: and let the house of thy servant David be established before

thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Is'rā-ĕl, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee a house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O Lord God, thou art that God, and thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it which he subdued; may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast spoken it: and children of Ammon, and of the Phi-list according to all this vision, so did with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

AND after this it came to pass, that David smote the Phi-lis'tines, and subdued them: and David took Metheg-am'mah out of the hand of the

the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Mô'abites became David's servants. and brought gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also Hăd'ăd-ē'zēr, the son of Re'hob, king of Zo'bah, as he went to recover his border at the river

Eū-phrā'tēs.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for a hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succor Had'ad-e'zer king of Zō'bah, David slew of the Syrians two 6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Had'ad-ezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Be'tah, and from Be-rothai, cities of Had'ad-e'zer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 ¶ When Tô'i king of Hā'măth heard that David had smitten all the host of Hăd'ăd-ē'zēr,

10 Then Tổ'i sent Jồ'răm his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hăd'ăd-ē'zēr, and smitten him: for Hăd'ăd-ē'zēr had wars with To'i. And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations

tines, and of Am'a-lek, and of the spoil restore thee all the land of Saul thy of Had'ad-e'zer, son of Re'hob, king of father; and thou shalt eat bread at my Zö'bàh.

13 And David gat him a name when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being eighteen thousand men.

14 ¶ And he put garrisons in E'dom; throughout all E'dom put he garrisons, and all they of E'dom became David's And the LORD preserved house. David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Is'rā-ĕl: and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

16 And Jo'ab the son of Zer'u-i'ah was over the host; and Je-hosh'a-phat the son of A-hi'lud was recorder:

17 And Zā'dŏk the son of A-hī'tŭb, and A-him'ē-lech the son of A-bi'a-thar. were the priests; and Se-ra'iah was the scribe:

18 And Be-na'iah the son of Te-hoi'a-da was over both the Cher'e-thites and the Pěl'ē-thītes: and David's sons were chief rulers.

CHAPTER 9

AND David said, Is there yet any that A is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?

2 And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Zi'ba. And when they had called him unto David. the king said unto him, Art thou Zi'bà? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said. Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God unto him? And Zī'bā said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is lame on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Zi'ba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Ma'chir, the son of Am'mi-ĕl, in Lō'-dē'bar.

5 If Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Ma'chir, the son of Am'mi-ĕl, from Lō'-dē'bär.

6 Now when Mē-phib'ō-shĕth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mē-phib'ōsheth. And he answered, Behold thy servanti table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called to Zi'ba. Saul's servant, and said unto him. I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him. and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mē-phib'ō-sheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Zi'ba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Zi'ba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mé-phib'o-sheth. said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mē-phib'ō-sheth had a young son, whose name was Mi'cha, And all that dwelt in the house of Zi'ba were servants unto Mē-phib'ō-sheth.

13 So Mē-phib'ō-shěth dwelt in Terusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

CHAPTER 10

AND it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Ha'nun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will show kindness unto Hā'nun the son of Nā'hash, as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hā'nun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honor thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Ha'nun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments grown, and then return.

6 C And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Běth'-rê'hob, and the Syrians of Zō'ba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Mā'à-càh a thousand men, and of Ish'-tob twelve thousand men. 7 And when David heard of it, he sent Jo'ab, and all the host of the mighty

8 And the children of Ammon came out. and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zo'ba, and of Re'höb, and Ish'-töb, and Mā'a-cah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Jo'ab saw that the front of the hattle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Īs'rā-ĕl, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of A-bish'a-i his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 And Jo'ab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fied, then fied they also before A-bish'a-i, and entered into the city. So Jo'ab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Terusalem.

15 C And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Is'ra-el, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hăd'ar-ē'zēr sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to He'lam: and Shō'băch the captain of the host of Hăd'ar-ē'zēr went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he

5 When they told it unto David, he sent gathered all Is'ra-el together, and to meet them, because the men were passed over Jordan, and came to Hegreatly ashamed: and the king said, lam. And the Syrians set themselves in Tarry at Jer'i-cho until your beards be array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Is'rā-ĕI; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Had'ar-e'zer saw that they were smitten before Iş'rā-ĕl, they made peace with Is'ra-ĕl, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 11

ND it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Jō'āb, and his servants with him, and all Is'rā-ĕl; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Răb'bah. But David tarried still at Terusalem.

2 If And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Băth'-shē'ba, the daughter of E-li'am, the wife of U-rī'ah the Hīt'tīte?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Jo'ab, saying, Send me U-ri'ah the Hit'tite. And Jo'ab sent Ū-rī'ah to David.

7 And when U-rī'ah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Jo'ab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to U-rī'ah, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And U-rī'ah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But U-ri'ah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, U-ri'ah went not down unto his house, David said unto U-ri'ah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And U-ri'ah said unto David, The ark, and Iş'rā-ĕl, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Jo'ab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to U-rī'ah, Tarry here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. So U-rī'ah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 I And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Jo'ab, and sent it by the hand of U-ri'ah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye U-rī'āh in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Jo'ab observed the city, that he assigned U-rī'ah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with To'ab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and U-rī'ah the Hĭt'tīte died also.

18 Then Jo'ab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote A-bim'ē-leeh the son of Jěr'ŭb-bē'shěth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in The bez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant U-ri'ah the Hit'tite is dead also.

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Jo'ab had art the man. Thus saith the LORD God sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David. Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant U-ri'ah the Hit'tite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Jo'ab, Let not this thing displease thee, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of U-ri'ah heard that U-ri'ah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house. and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

CHAPTER 12

AND the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children: it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveler unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him: but took the poor man's lamb. and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 And Nathan said to David, Thou of Is'rā-ĕl, I anointed thee king over hand of Saul:

8 And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom. and gave thee the house of Iş'ra-el and of Tudah; and if that had been too little. I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed U-ri'ah the Hit'tite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of U-ri'ah the Hit'tite to be thy 11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold. I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbor, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Is'ra-el, and before the sun.

13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15 C And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that U-rī'ah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

Is'rā-ēl, and I delivered thee out of the ants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants. Is the child dead?

And they said. He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive: but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said. Who can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 C And David comforted Băth'shē'ba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon; and the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jed'i-di'ah, because of the LORD.

26 ¶ And To'ab fought against Rab'bah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Jō'āb sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Răb'bah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rab'bah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he 19 But when David saw that his serv- unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. CHAPTER 13

↑ND it came to pass after this, that Ab'sà-lòm the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Ta'mar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Ta'mar: for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Ton'a-dab, the son of Shim'e-ah David's brother: and Jon'a-dab was a very subtile man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tā'mar, my brother Ab'sa-lōm's sister. 5 And Jōn'a-dāb said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Ta'mar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 I So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Ta'mar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Ta'mar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tā'mar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tā'mār. Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Ta'mar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my thing ought to be done in Is'ra-el: do not thou this folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shall be as one of the fools in Is'ra-el. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king: for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she.

forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her exceed. ingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her, And Am. non said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colors upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins appareled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tā'mar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colors that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Ab'sa-lom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Ta'mar remained desolate in her brother Ab'sà-lŏm's house,

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Ab'sa-lom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Åb'så-löm hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Ta'mar.

23 ¶ And it came to pass after two full years, that Ab'sa-lom had sheepshearers in Bā'āl-hā'zŏr, which is beside E'phrāim: and Ab'sa-lom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Ab'sa-lom came to the king and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Ab'sa-lom, Nav. my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Ab'sa-lom, If not, I prav thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Ab'sa-lom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 @ Now Ab'sa-lom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant. 29 And the servants of Ab'sa-lom did unto Amnon as Ab'sa-lom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 (And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Ab'sà-lòm hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes

32 And Jon'a-dab, the son of Shim'e-ah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Ab'sa-lom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tā'mar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think Amnon only is dead.

34 But Ab'sa-lom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hillside behind him.

35 And Jon'a-dab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted aught unto thee, bring him to me, and he up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.

Täl'mai, the son of Am-mi'hud, king of Ge'shur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Ab'sà-lòm fled, and went to Gë-shur, and was there three years. 39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Ab'sa-lom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

TOW Jô'āb the son of Zer'u-i'ah per-ceived that the king's heart was toward Ab'sa-lom.

2 And Jo'ab sent to Te-ko'ah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Jo'ab put the words in her mouth.

4 I And when the woman of Te-ko'ah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall that all the king's sons are dead: for quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Te-ko'ah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the 37 I But Ab'sa-lom fled, and went to king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said,

Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Jo'āb with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Jo'āb, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Jo'ab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said unto Jō'āb, him: and when he had called for Ab'sà-

Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Åb'sa-löm again.

22 And Jō'āb fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Jō'āb said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Jō'āb arose and went to Gē'shūr, and brought Ab'sa-lŏm to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Ab'sa-löm returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 ¶ But in all Iş'rā-ĕi there was none to be so much praised as Åb'sā-löm for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it; because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight.

27 And unto Ab'sa-lom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tā'mar; she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 Q So Ab'sá-löm dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's 29 Therefore Åb'så-löm sent for Jō'āb, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Jō'āb's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire.

And Ab'sa-lōm's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Jō'āb arose, and came to Åb'så-lōm unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Åb'så-löm answered Jō'āb, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Gō'shūr? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Jō'āb came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Ab'sàthe king; and the king kissed Ab'sa-lom. continually with Ab'sa-lom.

CHAPTER 15

AND it came to pass after this, that Ab'sa-lom prepared him chariots him.

2 And Ab'sa-lom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Ab'sa-lom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Js/ra-ĕl.

3 And Ab'sa-lom said unto him. See. thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear

thee

4 Ab'sa-lom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance. he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Ab'sa-lom to all Is'ra-ël that came to the king for judgment: so Ab'sa-lom stole the hearts of the men of Iş'rā-ĕl.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after forty years, that Ab'sa-lom said unto the king. I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in He'bron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while Tahode at Gë'shur in Syria, saving, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD. 9 And the king said unto him. Go in peace. So he arose, and went to

He'bron

10 T But Ab'sa-lom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Iş'rā-ĕl, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Ab'sa-lom reigneth in He'bron.

11 And with Ab'sa-lom went two huncalled; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Ab'sa-lom sent for A-hith'ophěl the Gi'lo-nite, David's counselor, lom, he came to the king, and bowed offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy himself on his face to the ground before was strong; for the people increased > 13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Is'rā-el are after Ab'sà-lom.

14 And David said unto all his servants and horses, and fifty men to run before that were with him at Jerusalem. Arise. and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Ab'sa-lom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly. and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are readu to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cher'e-thites, and all the Pel'e-thites, and all the Git tites. six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then said the king to It'tā-i the Git'tite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ĭt'tā-ī answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ĭt'tā-ī, Go and pass over. And It'ta-i the Git'tite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country went with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: dred men out of Jerusalem, that were the king also himself passed over the brook Kid'ron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

24 T And lo Zā'dok also, and all the Lê'vites were with him, bearing the ark from his city, even from Gi'loh, while he of the covenant of God: and they set went up, until all the people had done that ye can hear.

25 And the king said unto Zā'dŏk, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favor in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and his habitation:

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zā'dŏk the priest, Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, A-him'ā-az thy son, and Jonathan the son of A-bi'a-thar.

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zā'dŏk therefore and A-bī'a-thar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 M And David went up by the ascent of mount Ol'i-vet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 C And one told David, saving. A-hith o-phel is among the conspirators with Ab'sa-lom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of thy sight, my lord, O king.

A-hith'o-phel into foolishness.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hū'shaī the Ar'chite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head:

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burden unto me:

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Ab'sa-lom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of A-hith'o-phel.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zā'dŏk and A-bī'a-thar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Za'dok and A-bī'a-thar the priests.

their two sons, A-him'ā-az Zā'dŏk's son, let me go over, I pray thee, and take off and Jonathan A-bi'a-thar's son; and by his head.

down the ark of God; and A-bi'a-thar them ye shall send unto me every thing 37 So Hū'shaī David's friend came into the city, and Ab'sa-lom came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

ND when David was a little past the A top of the hill, behold, Zi'ba the servant of Me-phib'o-sheth met him. with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Zi'ba, What meanest thou by these? And Zi'ba said The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is the master's son? And Zi'ba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To-day shall the house of Is'rā-ĕl restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Zi'ba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephib'o-sheth. And Zi'ba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in

5 And when king David came to Bà-hū'rim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul whose name was Shim'e-i, the son of Ge'ra: he came forth, and cursed still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shim'ē-ī when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou man of Be'li-al. 8 The LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Ab'sà-lom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 Then said A-bish'ā-ī the son of Zĕr'u-ī'āh unto the king, Why should 36 Behold, they have there with them this dead dog curse my lord the king?

him curse, because the LORD hath said sa-lom. unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to A-bish'ā-i, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Beniamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shim'ē-i went along on the hillside over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 C And Ab'sa-lom, and all the people the men of Iş'rā-ĕl, came to Jeru-salem, and A-hith'ō-phĕl with him.

16 And it came to pass, when Hu'shai the Ar'chite, David's friend, was come unto Ab'sà-lòm, that Hū'shai said unto Ab'sa-lom, God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Ab'sa-lom said to Hū'shai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 And Hū'shai said unto Ab'sa-lom, Nav: but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Iş'rā-ĕl, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 ¶ Then said Åb'så-löm to Å-hith'ō-phěl, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And A-hith'o-phel said unto Ab'salom. Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Iş'rā-ĕl shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong.

upon the top of the house; and Ab'sa-in the sight of all Iş'rā-ĕl.

10 And the king said, What have I to do God: so was all the counsel of A-hith'owith you, ye sons of Zer'u-i'ah? so let phel both with David and with Ab-

CHAPTER 17

OREOVER À-hìth'ō-phěl said unto Áb'sà-lŏm, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only:

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Ab'sa-lom well, and all the elders of Is'ra-el.

5 Then said Ab'sa-lom, Call now Hū' shai the Ar'chite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6 And when Hu'shai was come to Abså-lom, Åb'så-lom spake unto him, saying, A-hith'o-phel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not, speak thou.

7 And Hū'shai said unto Ab'sa-lom. The counsel that A-hith'o-phel hath given is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hū'shai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Ab'sa-lom.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Is'rā-ĕl knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant

11 Therefore I counsel that all Is'ra-ĕl be generally gathered unto thee, from 22 So they spread Ab'sa-lom a tent Dan even to Be'er-she'ba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and lom went in unto his father's concubines that thou go to battle in thine own person.

23 And the counsel of A-hith'o-phel, 12 So shall we come upon him in some which he counseled in those days, was place where he shall be found, and we as if a man had inquired at the oracle of will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Is'rā-ĕl bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Åb'så-löm and all the men of Is'rå-ël said, The counsel of Hü'shai the Ar'chite is better than the counsel of Å-hith'ō-phĕl. For the Lord had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Å-hith'ō-phĕl, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Åb'så-löm.

15 ¶ Then said Hü'shai unto Zā'dök and to A-bi'á-thàr the priests, Thus and thus did A-hith'ō-phēl counsel Ab'sà-lòm and the elders of Is'rā-ēl; and thus and thus have I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and A-him'ā-āz stayed by En-rō'gēi; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless, a lad saw them, and told Åb'sà-löm: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bà-hū'rīm, which had a well in his court; whither they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Ab'sa-löm's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is A-him'a-za and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath A-hith'ophěl counseled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 ¶ And when Å-hith'ō-phĕl saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his house, hold in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to Mā'hà-nā'im. And Åb'sà-löm passed over Jordan, he and all the men of İş'rā-ĕl with him.

25 ¶ And Åb'så-löm made Åm'å-så captain of the host instead of Jō'āb: which Ām'ā-sā was a man's son, whose name was Ith'rā an Iş'ā-ël-ite, that went in to Āb'ī-gāil the daughter of Nā'hāsh, sister to Zĕr'u-i'āh Jō'āb's mother.

26 So Ĭş'rā-ĕl and Āb'sa-lom pitched in the land of Gil'e-ad.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mā'hā-nā'im, that Shō'hi the son of Nā'hāsh of Rāb'bāh of the children of Ammon, and Mā'chir the son of Am'mī-ĕl of Lō'-dē'bār, and Bār-zu' lā-ī the Gil'e-ād-ite of Rō'gē-lim,

28 Brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

CHAPTER 18

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Jo'ab, and a third part under the hand of A-bish'a:1 the son of Zér'u-l'ah, Jo'ab's brother, and a third part under the hand of l't'a:i the Git'tite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succor us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

Absalom slain. Tidings sent to David

5 And the king commanded Jo'ab and A-bish'a-ī and It'tā-ī, saying, Deal cently for my sake with the young man. even with Ab'sa-lom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the cantains charge concerning Ab'sà-lòm.

6 C So the people went out into the field against Is'ra-el: and the battle was in the wood of E'phrā-im;

7 Where the people of Iş'rā-ĕl were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

o (And Ab'sa-lom met the servants of David. And Ab'sa-lom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told To'ab, and said, Behold, I saw Ab'sa-lom hanged in an oak.

11 And Jo'ab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him. and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle. 12 And the man said unto Jô'āb, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and A-bish'a-i and It'ta-i, saving, Beware that none touch the young man Ab'sa-lom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Jô'ab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Ab'sa-lom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Jo'ab's armor compassed about and smote

Ab'sa-lom, and slew him.

the people returned from pursuing after down to the earth upon his face before

Is'rā-ĕl; for Jō'āb held back the people. 17 And they took Ab'sa-lom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Is'rā-ĕl fled every one to his tent.

18 ¶ Now Åb'sà-lŏm in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Ab'sa-lom's place.

19 I Then said A-him'a-az the son of Zā'dok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Jo'ab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead

21 Then said Jo'ab to Cū'shī, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cū'shi bowed himself unto To'ab, and 22 Then said A-him'ā-az the son of Zā'dŏk vet again to Tō'āb. But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cū'shī. And Jō'āb said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then A-him'a-az ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cū'shî.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said. He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Methinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of A-him'ā-az the son of Zādok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And A-him'ā-az called, and said 16 And To'ab blew the trumpet, and unto the king, All is well. And he fell the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Ăb'sā-lŏm safe? And A-him'a-az answered, When Jo'ab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant. I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cū'shī came; and Cū'shī said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cū'shī, Is the young man Ab'sà-lom safe? And Cū'shī answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 ¶ And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Ab'sa-lom! my son, my son Ab'sa-lom! would God I had died for thee, O Ab'sa-lom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER 19

AND it was told Jō'āb, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Ăb'sà-lŏm.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice. O my son Åb'så-löm! O Åb'så-löm, my son, my son!

5 And Jo'ab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends. For thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest Benjamin with him, and Zi'bà the servneither princes nor servants: for this ant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Iş'rā-ĕl had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Is'ra-el. saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Phi-lis'tines; and now he is fled out of the land for Åb'så-löm.

10 And Ab'sà-lom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak ye not a word of bring.

ing the king back?

11 ¶ And king David sent to Zā'dŏk and to A-bi'a-thar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Iş'rā-ĕl is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to Am'a-sa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of To'ab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gil'gal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 ¶ And Shim'ē-ī the son of Gē'rá, a Benjamite, which was of Ba-hū'rīm. hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of day I perceive, that if Ab'sa-lom had sons and his twenty servants with him;

and they went over Jordan before the king. 18 And there went over a ferryboat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shim'e-i the son of Gë'ra fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. 20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king. 21 But A-bish'ā-ī the son of Zĕr'u-ī'āh answered and said, Shall not Shim'ē-i be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zer'u-i'ah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Iş'rā-ĕl?

ē-i, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

24 ¶ And Mē-phib'ō-shěth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me. Mē-phib'osheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Zi'ba divide the land. 30 And Mē-phib'ō-shĕth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And Bär-zĭl'lā-ī the Gĭl'ē-ăd-īte came down from Ro'ge-lim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Bär-zil'lā-ī was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mā'hà-nā'im; for he was a very great man. 33 And the king said unto Bär-zil'lā-ī, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Bär-zīl'lā-ī said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant 23 Therefore the king said unto Shim' be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chim'ham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chim'ham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee. 39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed Bär-zil'lā-ī, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gil'gal, and Chim'ham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Iş'ra-ĕi. 41 ¶ And, behold, all the men of Iş'rā-el came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and 29 And the king said unto him, Why have brought the king, and his house-over Tordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Iş'rā-ĕl, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Is'rā-ĕl answered hand to kiss him. the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of pursued after She'ba the son of Bich'ri. the men of Is'rā-ĕl.

CHAPTER 20

AND there happened to be there a man of Bē'li-āl, whose name was Shē'bà, the son of Bich'rī, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O İş'rā-ĕl.

2 So every man of İş'rā-ĕl went up from after David, and followed She'ba the son of Bich'ri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem: and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the king to Åm'å-så, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Am'a-sa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to A-bish'ā-ī, Now shall She'bà the son of Bich'rī do us more harm than did Ab'sà-lom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him To'ab's men, and the Cher'e-thites, and the Pěl'e-thites, and all the mighty men; shall surely ask counsel at Abel; and so and they went out of Jerusalem, to pur- they ended the matter. sue after She'ba the son of Bich'ri.

11 And one of Jo'ab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoreth Io'ab. and he that is for David, let him go after Tō'āb.

12 And Am'a-sa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still. he removed Am'a-sa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him. when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Jo'ab, to pursue after She'ba the son of Bich'ri.

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl unto Abel, and to Beth'-ma'a-chah, and all the Be'rites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth'-ma'a-chah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Jo'ab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 ¶ Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Jo'ab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Jo'ab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They

20 And Jô'āb answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. 21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount E'phra-im, She'ba the son of Bich'ri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Jō'āb, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom; and they cut off the head of She'ba the son of Bich'ri, and cast it out to Jo'ab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Jo'ab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 T Now Jo'ab was over all the host of Is'rā-ēl: and Bē-nā'jah the son of Jēhoi'à-dà was over the Cher'e-thites and over the Pel'e-thites:

24 And A-do'ram was over the tribute: and Jē-hosh'a-phat the son of A-hi'lud was recorder:

25 And Shē'và was scribe: and Zā'dŏk and A-bī'a-thar were the priests:

26 And I'ra also the Ja'ir-ite was a chief ruler about David.

CHAPTER 21

THEN there was a famine in the days I of David three years, year after year; and David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gib'e-on-ites. 2 And the king called the Gib'e-onites, and said unto them; (now the Gib'ē-on-ites were not of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, but of the remnant of the Am'ō-rītes; and the children of Iş'rā-ĕl had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Iş'rā-ĕl and Judah:)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gib'ē-on-ites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD?

4 And the Gib'e-on-ites said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Iş'rā-ĕl. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do that the king commanded. And after for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Îs'rā-ĕl.

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gib'e-ah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Me-phib'o-sheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Tonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Riz'päh the daughter of A-ī'ah, whom she bare unto Saul, Ar-mo'nī and Mēphib'o-sheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for A'dri-el the son of Barzīl'lā-ī the Mē-hō'là-thīte:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gib'e-on-ites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 ¶ And Riz'päh the daughter of A-i'ah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by 11 And it was told David what Riz'päh the daughter of A-i'ah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 I And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Ja'beshgil'ē-ăd, which had stolen them from the street of Beth'-shan', where the Phi-lis'tines had hanged them, when the Phi-lis'tines had slain Saul in Gĭl-bō'à:

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Ze'lah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that God was entreated for the land.

2 SAMUEL 21, 22

15 M Moreover the Phi-lis'tines had me, the floods of ungodly men made me yet war again with Iş'rā-ĕl; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Phi-lis'tines:

and David waxed faint.

16 And Ish'bī-bē'nŏb, which was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.

17 But A-bish'ā-ī the son of Zer'u-ī'ah succored him, and smote the Phi-lis' tine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Is'ra-el.

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philis'tineş at Gob: then Sib'bē-chai the Hū'shath-ite slew Săph, which was of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Phi-lis'tines, where El-ha'nan the son of Jā'a-rē-or'ē-gim, a Bethlehemite, slew the brother of Gö-li'ath the Git tite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he defied Îş'rā-ĕi, Jonathan the son of Shim'e-ah the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 22

AND David spake unto the LORD the words of this song, in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:

2 And he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;

3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

7 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth shook and trembled: the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen upon the wings of the wind. 12 And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

13 Through the brightness before him were coals of fire kindled.

14 The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered his voice.

15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea anpeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 He sent from above, he took me: he drew me out of many waters:

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay. 20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

CHAPTER 23

OW these be the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob. and the sweet psalmist of Is'ra-el, said.

2 The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Is'ra-el said, the Rock of 37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under Iş'rā-ĕl spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

7 But the man that shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

8 These be the names of the mighty 44 Thou also hast delivered me from men whom David had: The Tach'mo-captains; the same was Ad'i-no the Ez'nîte: he lifted up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was El'ē-ā'zar the son of Do'do the A-ho'hite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Phi-lis'tines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Iş'rā-ĕl were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Phi-list tines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword; and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 And after him was Sham'mah the son of A'gee the Ha'ra-rite. And the Phi-lis'tines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentils: and the people fled from the Phi-lis'tines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Phi-lis'tines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of A-dul'lam: and the troop of the Phi-lis'tines pitched in the valley of Reph'a-im.

14 And David was then in a hold, and the garrison of the Phi-lis'tines was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said. Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Phi-lis'tines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And A-bish'ā-ī, the brother of Jo'ab, the son of Zer'u-ī'ah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three.

of a pit in time of snow.

21 And he slew an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things did Be-na'iah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, and had the name among three mighty men.

23 He was more honorable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his guard. 24 As'à-hel the brother of Jô'ab was one of the thirty; El-ha'nan the son of

CHAPTER 24

ND again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Iş rā-ĕl, and he moved David against them to say, Go, Go now through all the tribes of Is'ra-ël. from Dan even to Be'er-she'ba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Jo'ab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, a hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Jo'ab, and against the captains of the host. And Jo'ab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Iş'rā-ĕl.

5 I And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in A-rō'er, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward Ja'zer:

6 Then they came to Gil'e-ad, and to the land of Täh'tim-hod'shi; and they came to Dăn'-jā'ăn, and about to Zī'dŏn,

7 And came to the stronghold of Tyre. and to all the cities of the Hi'vites, and of the Ca'naan-ites: and they went out father's house. to the south of Judah, even to Be'ershē'bà.

the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Jo'ab gave up the sum of the of Gad, went up as the LORD comnumber of the people unto the king: and there were in Iş'rā-ĕl eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 ¶ And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of said unto the king, The LORD thy God famine come unto thee in thy land? or accept thee. wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a 14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 ¶ So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Iş'rā-ĕl from the morning even to-the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Be'ershë'ba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of A-rau'nah the Těb'ū-sīte.

17 And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand. I pray thee, be against me, and against my manded.

20 And A-rau'nah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and A-rau'nah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And A-rau'nah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

22 And A-rau'nah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 All these things did A-rau'nah, as a king, give unto the king. And A-rau'nah

So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. 25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Is ra-el.

THE FIRST

BOOK OF THE KINGS

COMMONLY CALLED, THE THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS

CHAPTER 1

NOW king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of İş'rā-ĕl, and found Ab'i-shag a Shu'nam-mīte, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Ād'ō-ni'jāh the son of Hāg' gith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Ab'sà-lôm.

7 And he conferred with Jō'āb the son of Zĕr'u-i'āh, and with Ā-bī'ā-thār the priest: and they following Ād'ō-nī'jāh helped him.

8 But Zā'dōk the priest, and Bē-nā'jāh the son of Jē-hō's-da, and Nathan the prophet, and Shim'ē-ī, and Rē'ī, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Ād'ō-nī'jāh.

9 And Ad'o-ni'jah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zo'hē-lēth, which is by En-ro'gĕl, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benā'jāh, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Băth'-shē'bà the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Ad'o-ni'jáh the son of Häg'gith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Ad'ōnn'iāh reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ And Bāth'-shē'bà went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Åb'i-shäg the Shu'nàm-mite ministered unto the king.

16 And Băth'-shē'ba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou?

17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And now, behold, Ad'ō-nī'jāh reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

19 And he hath slain oven and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath cailed all the sons of the king, and Å-bř'á-thár the priest, and Jō'āb the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass. when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Ad'o-ni'jah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host. and A-bi'a-thar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say. God save king Ad'ō-ni'jah.

26 But me, even me thy servant, and Zā'dŏk the priest, and Bē-nā'iah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not showed it unto. thy servant, who should sit on the throne him, and the people piped with pipes, of my lord the king after him?

28 Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath'-she'ba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said. As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress.

30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Băth'-shē'bà bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king

David live for ever.

32 T And king David said, Call me Zā'dŏk the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Be-na'jah the son of Jehôi'à-dà. And they came before the king.

eves of all Is'ra-el are upon thee, that with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gi'hŏn:

> 34 And let Zā'dŏk the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Is'ra-el: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

> 35 Then we shall come up after him. that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Is'rā-ĕl and over Judah.

> 36 And Bē-nā'iàh the son of Tē-hôi'à-dà answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so 37 As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zā'dŏk the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Be-na'iah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, and the Cher'e-thites, and the Pěl'ē-thites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule. and brought him to Gi'hon.

39 And Za'dok the priest took a horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet: and all the people said. God save king

40 And all the people came up after and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Ad'ō-ni'jah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when To'ab heard the sound of the trumpet. he said. Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of A-bi'a-thar the priest came: and Ad'ō-nī'jāh said unto him, Come in; for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Ad'ō-nī'jāh, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zā'dŏk the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Bē-nā'iah the son of Jē-hôi'a-da, and the Chĕr'ē-thītes, and the Pel'e-thites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zā'dŏk the priest and Nathan 33 The king also said unto them. Take the prophet have anointed him king in Gi'hon: and they are come up from way, to walk before me in truth with all thence rejoicing, so that the city rang their heart and with all their soul, there again. This is the noise that ye have shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the heard. 46 And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Ad'ō-nī'jāh were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 M And Ad'o-ni'iah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Ad'ō-nī'jāh feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to-day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said. If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAPTER 2

NOW the days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and show thyself a man:

3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself:

4 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, it was his from the LORD.

David's charge to Solomon. His death throne of Is'ra-ël.

5 Moreover thou knowest also what Jo'ab the son of Zer'y-i'ah did to me. and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Is'ra-el, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Am'a-sa the son of Je'ther, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But show kindness unto the sons of Bär-zil'lā-ī the Gil'ē-ăd-īte, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Ab'sa-lom thy brother.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shim'ē-ī the son of Gë'ra, a Benjamite of Ba-hū'rīm, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mā'hà-nā'im: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him: but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

· 11 And the days that David reigned over İş'rā-ĕl were forty years: seven years reigned he in He'bron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Terusalem.

12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 ¶ And Ad'o-ni'jah the son of Haggith came to Bath -she ba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said,

Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Is'ra-el set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for saying. If thy children take heed to their 16 And now I ask one petition of thee.

deny me not. And she said unto him, though he turned not after Ab'sa-lom.

Say on. 17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Ab'i-shag the Shu'nam-mite to wife.

18 And Băth'-shē'ba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king. 19 @ Băth'-she'bà therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Ad'o-ni'jah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother: and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not say thee nay. 21 And she said, Let Ab'i-shag the Shu'nam-mite be given to Ad'o-ni'jah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou upon his own head, who fell upon two ask Ab'i-shag the Shu'nam-mite for Ad'ō-nī'jāh? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for A-bi'a-thar the priest, and for Jo'ab the son of Zer'u-i'ah.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the 24 Now therefore, as the Lord liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and be peace for ever from the LORD. who hath made me a house, as he promised, Ad'ō-nī'jah shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Be-na'iah the son of Je-hoi'a-da; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 C And unto A-bī'a-thar the priest said the king, Get thee to An'a-thoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out A-bī'a-thar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD which he spake concerning the house of E'li in Shi'löh.

Jō'āb had turned after Åd'ō-nī'jāh,

And Jo'ab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Jō'āb was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Be-na'iah the son of Je-hoi'a-da, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Be-na'iah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Bē-nā'iah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Jo'ab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Jo'ab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall return his blood men more righteous and better than he. and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Isra-el, and Am'a-sa the son of Je'ther, captain of the host of Judah.

23 Then king Solomon some Lord, saying, God do so to me, and 33 Their blood snau mercal more also, if Ad'o-ni'jah have not upon the head of Jo'ab, and upon the more also, if Ad'o-ni'jah have not upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon the more also, if and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there

> 34 So Bē-nā'iah the son of Jē-hôi'a-da went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 ¶ And the king put Bē-nā'jāh the son of Je-hoi'a-da in his room over the host: and Za'dok the priest did the king put in the room of A-bi'a-thar.

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for Shim'ë-i, and said unto him, Build thee a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kid'ron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shim'ë-i said unto the king. The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And 28 Then tidings came to Jö'āb: for Shim'ē-ī dwelt in Jerusalem many days. 39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shim'e-i ran away unto A'chish son of Mā'a-chah king of Gath. And they told Shim'ē-i, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shim'ē-ī arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to A'chish to seek his servants: and Shim'e-i went, and brought his servants from Gath.

Shim'ē-ī had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shīm'ē-ī, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Shim'ē-ī, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father; therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head:

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed. and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Bē-nā'jāh the son of Je-hoi'a-da; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3

AND Solomon made affinity with Phā'raōh king of Egypt, and took Phā'raōh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Terusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days.

3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in burnt offerings, and offered peace offer-high places.

4 And the king went to Gib'e-on to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

Solomon asketh an understanding heart

5 In Gib'é-on the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast showed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kind-41 And it was told Solomon that ness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of the people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord. that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12 Behold, I have done according to thy word: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee. neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honor: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk.

then I will lengthen thy days.

15 And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up ings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 I Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, O my

His judgment between the two women lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. 10 And this woman's child died in the night: because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom. and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son.

which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. 24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

child in two, and give half to the one.

and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said. O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Is'ra-el heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

CHAPTER 4

2 And these were the princes which he had; Az'a-rī'ah the son of Zā'dŏk the priest.

Shī'sha, scribes; Jē-hosh'a-phat the son of A-hi'lud, the recorder.

4 And Bē-nā'jah the son of Jē-hôi'à-dà was over the host: and Za'dok and A-bi'a-thar were the priests:

5 And Az'a-rī'ah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Za'bud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend:

6 And A-hī'shär was over the household: and Ad'o-ni'ram the son of Ahda was over the tribute.

7 Cl And Solomon had twelve officers over all Is'rā-ĕl, which provided victuals for the king and his household; each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hûr, in mount E'phrā-im; 9 The son of Dē'kār, in Mā'kāz, and in Shā-al'bim, and Běth'—shē'měsh, and E'lön—běth—hā'năn:

10 The son of He'sed, in A-ru'both; to him pertained So'choh, and all the land of He'pher:

11 The son of A-bin'a-dab, in all the region of Dor; which had Ta'phath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

12 Bā'ā-nā the son of A-hī'lūd; to him bertained Ta'a-nach and Me-gid'do. and all Beth'-she'an, which is by Zarta'nah beneath Jez're-el, from Beth'shē'ān to A'běl-mē-hō'lah, even unto 25 And the king said, Divide the living the place that is beyond Jok'ne-am:

13 The son of Ge'ber, in Ra'mothgil'ē-ād; to him pertained the towns of Jā'īr the son of Mā-nās'sēh, which are in Gil'ē-ad; to him also pertained the region of Ar'gob, which is in Ba'shan, threescore great cities with walls and brazen bars:

14 A-hin'a-dab the son of Id'do had

Mā'hà-nā'im:

15 A-him'ā-az was in Naph'ta-li; he also took Băs'măth the daughter of Solomon to wife:

16 Bā'à-nàh the son of Hū'shaī was in Ash'er and in A'loth:

17 Jē-hosh'a-phat the son of Pa-ru'ah, in Ís'sá-chär:

18 Shim'ē-i the son of E'lah, in Beniamin:

19 Gē'bēr the son of U'rī was in the So king Solomon was king over all country of Gil'ē-ād, in the country of Si'hōn king of the Am'ō-rītes, and of Og king of Bā'shan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

20 @ Judah and Ĭş'rā-ĕl were many, as 3 El'i-ho'reph and A-hi'ah, the sons of the sand which is by the sea in multi-

Solomon's wisdom. Hiram sendeth timber tude, eating and drinking, and making kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Phi-lis'tines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 I And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour. and threescore measures of meal.

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep. besides harts, and roebucks, and fallow deer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiph' sah even to Az'zah, over all the kings on this side the river; and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Tudah and Is'ra-ĕl dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Bē'ēr-shē'ba, all the days of Solomon.

26 T And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victuals for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 T And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of

Egypt.

31 For he was wiser than all men; than E'than the Ez'ra-hite, and He'man, and Chal'col, and Dar'da, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

CHAPTER 5

AND Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David.

2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saving, 3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build a house unto the name of the LORD his God, for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build a house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon: and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Si-do-

7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saving, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. 9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea; and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there. and thou shalt receive them: and thou year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

13 ¶ And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Iş'rā-ĕl; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Ad'ō-ni'rām was over the

15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;

16 Besides the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

AND it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Iş'rā-ël were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Is'rā-ël, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

2 And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 ¶ And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:

13 And I will dwell among the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, and will not forsake my people Îş'rā-ĕl.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar: there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof; and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ And within the oracle he made two cherubim of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubim within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubim, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall. and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. 28 And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 ¶ And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree; the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive tree: and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open the other. flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubim, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were fold-

20 And the oracle in the forepart was ing, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubim and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 C And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

CHAPTER 7

BUT Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 THe built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was a hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that law on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 4 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them; and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.

7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to 8 C And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also a house for Phā'raōh's daughter. whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed The work of Hiram for the temble stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naph'ta-li, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding. and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he cast two pillars of brass. of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits:

17 And nets of checkerwork, and wreaths of chainwork, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates; and so did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

right pillar, and called the name thereof Ta'chin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz.

lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was a handbreadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

27 I And he made ten bases of brass: four cubits was the length of one base. and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim: and upon the ledges there was a base above; and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit; but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and a half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like 21 And he set up the pillars in the the work of a chariot wheel: their axle-porch of the temple: and he set up the trees, and their naves, and their felloes. and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the 22 And upon the top of the pillars was undersetters were of the very base itself. a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof. and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 C Then made he ten layers of brass: one layer contained forty baths: and every layer was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, over against the south.

40 C And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of

the LORD:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases:

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea:

45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of bright brass. 46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Suc'coth and Zar'than.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

THEN Solomon assembled the elders of Is'ra-el, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Is'rā-ĕl assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Eth'a-nim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Is'ra-el came.

and the priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Le'vites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the con-gregation of Is'rā-ĕl, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place. into the oracle of the house, to the most holy blace, even under the wings of the cherubim.

7 For the cherubim spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in 48 And Solomon made all the vessels 'the holy blace before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they covenant with the children of Is'ra-el. when they came out of the land of Egypt. 10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD. 11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

12 Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

13 I have surely built thee a house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about. and blessed all the congregation of Isrā-ĕl: and all the congregation of İş'rā-ĕl stood:

15 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Iş'rā-ĕl out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Is ra-el to build a house, that my name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Iş'rā-ĕl.

17 And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl.

18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to huild a house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart.

19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Is'ra-el, as the LORD promised, and have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of

Egypt. 22 C And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Iş'rā-ĕl, and spread forth his hands toward heaven: 23 And he said, LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest thou gavest unto their fathers.

covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl. keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Is'ra-el: so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Is'rā-ĕl, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee: how much less this house that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said. My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 If any man trespass against his neighbor, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 ¶ When thy people Iş'rā-ĕl be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, and bring them again unto the land which there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest or near: them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Is'ra-el, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities: whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be:

38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Is'rā-ĕl, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:

30 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways. whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 That they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake:

42 (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house:

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Is'ra-el; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy 44 If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

35 When heaven is shut up, and no man that sinneth not.) and thou he angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far

47 Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness:

48 And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause.

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be onen unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt.

O Lord Gop.

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD. he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Is'ra-el with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Is'ra-ĕl, according to all that he promised: there hath not 46 If they sin against thee, (for there is failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses and all Solomon's desire which he was his servant.

57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

58 That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes. and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

50 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Is'ra-el at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 M And the king, and all Is'ra-ĕl with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. 63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Isrā-el dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brazen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of the two houses, the house of the LORD, heart for all the goodness that the LORD, and the king's house, had done for David his servant, and for Is'rā-ĕl his people.

2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gib'e-on.

3 And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication. that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee. and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Ís'rā-ĕl for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Is'ra-ĕl.

6 But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I cut off Is'ra-el out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Îş'rā-ĕl shall be a proverb and a byword among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Ga'bul unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised: for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Mil'lo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Ha'zor, and Me-gid'do, and Ge'zēr.

16 For Pha'raöh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Ge'zer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Ca'naan-ites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 And Solomon built Ge'zer, and Beth'-ho'ron the nether.

18 And Bā'al-ath, and Tăd'mor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

not of the children of Is'ra-el.

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Îş'rā-ĕl also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day.

22 But of the children of Is'ra-el did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

did he build Mil'lo.

ND when the queen of She'ba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of She'ba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD: there was no more spirit in her. 6 And she said to the king. It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of She ba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 (I Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold.

18 @ Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 I And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of Thar'shish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 I And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 II And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen varn at a price.

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Is'ra-ĕl Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives. princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ash'tō-rĕth the goddess of the Zi-do'ni-ans, and after Mil'com the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

9 ¶ And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, which had appeared unto him twice.

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solo- king of Zō'bah: mon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee. and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee. I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

13 Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

14 4 And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hā'dad the E'dom-ite: he was of the king's seed in E'dom.

15 For it came to pass, when David was in E'dom, and Jo'ab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in E'dom;

16 (For six months did To'ab remain there with all Is'ra-el, until he had cut off every male in E'dom:)

17 That Hā'dād fled, he and certain E'dom-ites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt: Hā'dǎd being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Mid'i-an, and came to Pa'ran: and they took men with them out of Pa'ran, and they came to Egypt, unto Phā'raöh king of Egypt; which gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Ha'dad found great favor in the sight of Phā'raōh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Täh'pē-nēş the queen.

20 And the sister of Täh'pē-nēš bare him Gë-nu'băth his son, whom Täh'pënes weaned in Pha'raoh's house: and Gē-nū'bāth was in Phā'raōh's household among the sons of Pha'raöh.

22 Then Pha'raoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered. Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

23 C And God stirred him up another adversary, Re'zon the son of E-li'a-dah. which fled from his lord Had'ad-e'zer

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein. and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Is'rā-ĕl all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Ha'dad did: and he abhorred

Īş'rā-ĕl, and reigned over Syria.

26 4 And Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne băt, an Eph'răth-îte of Zer'e-da, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zē-ru'ah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Mil'lo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jer'o-bo'am was a mighty man of valor: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. 29 And it came to pass at that time when Jer'o-bo'am went out of Jerusa-lem, that the prophet A-hi'jah the Shi'lo-nite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And A-hi'jah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Ter'o-bo'am. Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Is'rā-ĕl, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl:)

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jěr'ō-bō'ăm. And Jěr'ō-bō'ăm arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shi'shak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 C And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Iş'rā-ĕl was forty vears.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers. and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rē'hō-bō'ăm his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 12

ND Rē'hō-bō'ăm went to Shē'chĕm: for all Is'rā-ĕl were come to Shē' roughly, and forsook the old men's counchem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled made your yoke heavy, and I will add to from the presence of king Solomon, and Jěr'ō-bō'am dwelt in Egypt,)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jěr'ō-bō'ăm and all the congregation of Iş'rā-ĕl came, and spake unto Rēhō-bō'ăm, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them. Depart yet 35 But I will take the kingdom out of for three days, then come again to me.

And the people departed.

6 C And king Rê'hō-bō'ăm consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them. What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the voke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us: thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jěr'ō-bō'ăm and all the people came to Rë'hō-bō'ăm the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people

sel that they gave him;

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by A-hijàh the Shī'lō-nīte unto Jēr'ō-bō'ām the then shall the heart of this people turn son of Ne'bat.

16 G So when all Is'ra-el saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Tesse: to your tents, O Is'ra-el: now see to thine own house, David. So Iş'rā-ĕl departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Iş'rā-ĕl which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rê'hō-bō'ăm reigned over them.

18 Then king Re'hō-bō'am-sent A-dô' ram, who was over the tribute; and all Îs'ra-el stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Re'ho-bo'am made flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Iş'rā-ĕl rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Isrā-ĕl heard that Jĕr'ō-bō'am was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Is'rā-ĕl: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 And when Re'hō-bō'am was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjachosen men, which were warriors, to and ordained a feast unto the children or fight against the house of Iş'rā-ĕl, to Iş'rā-ĕl; and he offered upon the altar, bring the kingdom again to Re'hō-bō'am and burnt incense. the son of Solomon.

26 And Jer'ō-bō'am said in his heart. Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, again unto their lord, even unto Re'hobo'am king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Re ho-bo'am king of Tudah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Îş'rā-ĕl, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one. even unto Dan.

31 And he made a house of high places, speed to get him up to his chariot, to and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of

32 And Těr'ō-bō'ăm ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Beth-el, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which of the eighth month, even in the month min, a hundred and fourscore thousand which he had devised of his own heart;

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Entreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward. 8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

11 @ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el; the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Tudah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and that carnest from Judah? And he said, LORD, which he spake unto him.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with 17 For it was said to me by the word ho'am heard the saying of the man of of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saving, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water. 20 I And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saving. Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcass shall not come unto the sepulchre

29 And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcass in his own grave; and they mourned over him, sauing, Alas, my brother!

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons. saving, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones:

32 For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the Sa-ma'ri-a, shall surely come to pass.

33 C After this thing Jer'o-bo'am returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jer'o-bo'am, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

AT that time A-bī'jāh the son of Jēr'ō-bō'ām fell sick.

2 And Ter'o-bo'am said to his wife. Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself. that thou be not known to be the wife of Jěr'ō-bō'ăm; and get thee to Shī'lōh: behold, there is A-hi'jah the prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people.

3 And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jer'o-bo'am's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shi'loh, and came to the house of A-hī'jāh. But A-hī'jāh could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

5 ¶ And the LORD said unto A-hi'jah, Behold, the wife of Ter'o-bo'am cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son: for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be cause of the sins of Jer'o-bo'am, who another woman.

6 And it was so, when A-hi'iah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jer'o-bo'am; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

11 Him that dieth of Jer'o-bo'am in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Is'ra-el shall mourn for him. and bury him: for he only of Jer'o-bo'am shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Is'ra-el in the house of Jěr'ō-bō'ăm.

14 Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Îş'rā-ĕl, who shall cut off the house of Ter'o-bo'am that day: but what? even now.

15 For the LORD shall smite Is'ra-ël, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Is'ra-el out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river. because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger.

16 And he shall give Îş'rā-ĕl up bedid sin, and who made Is'rā-ĕl to sin.

17 ¶ And Jěr'ō-bō'ām's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tir'zah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Is'rā-ĕl mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant A-hī'jāh the prophet.

Rē'hō-bō'ăm was forty and one years old when he hegan to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Is'ra-ĕl, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Na'a-mah an Am'mon-it'ess.

22 And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built them high places. and images, and groves, on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 And there were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Is'ra-ël.

25 C And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Re'hō-bō'am, that Shī'shak king of Egypt came up against Jeru-

NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jer o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat reigned A-bī'jām over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Mā'a-chah, the daughter of A-bish'a-lom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem:

5 Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of U-ri'ah the Hit-

14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless A'sa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and

16 C And there was war between A'sa and Ba'a-sha king of Iş'ra-ĕl all their

17 And Ba'a-sha king of Is'ra-ël went up against Tudah, and built Ra'mah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to A'sa king of Judah.

18 Then A'sa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king A'sa sent them to Ben'-ha'dad, the son of Tăb'ri-mon, the son of Hē'zi-on, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying.

19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Ba'a-sha king of Is'rā-ĕl, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben'-ha'dad hearkened unto king A'sa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Is'rā-ĕl, and smote I'jon, and Dan, and A'bel-beth-ma'a-chah, and all nē-roth, with all the land of Naph'ta-li.

21 And it came to pass, when Ba'a-sha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ra'mah, and dwelt in Tir'zah.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he 27 C And Ba'a-sha the son of A-hi'jah. of the house of Is'sa-char, conspired against him; and Ba'a-sha smote him at Gib'be-thon, which belonged to the Phi-lis'tines; for Na'dab and all Is'ra-el laid siege to Gib'be-thon.

28 Even in the third year of A'sa king of Tudah did Ba'a-sha slav him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Ter o-bo'am: he left not to Jer'o-bo'am any that breathed, until he had de-stroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant A-hi'iah the Shi'lo-nite:

6 So Bā'a-sha slept with his fathers. and was buried in Tir'zah: and E'lah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the prophet Je hi the son of Ha-na'ni came the word of the LORD against Ba'a-sha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in proveking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jer'o-bo'am; and because he killed him.

8 II In the twenty and sixth year of A'sa king of Judah began E'lah the son of Bā'ā-shā to reign over İş'rā-ĕl in Tir'zàh, two years.

9 And his servant Zim'rī, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. as he was in Tîr'zah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Ar'za steward of his house in Tir'zah.

10 And Zim'ri went in and smote him. and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of A'sa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 4 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Bā'a-sha: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsfolk, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zim'ri destroy all the house of Bā'à-shà, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Bā'a-sha

by Te'hū the prophet,

13 For all the sins of Ba'a-sha, and the sins of E'lah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Is'ra-el to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl to anger with their vanities.

15 ¶ In the twenty and seventh year of A'sa king of Judah did Zim'rī reign seven days in Tir'zah. And the people were encamped against Gib'be-thon, which belonged to the Phi-lis'tines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zim'ri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Îş'rā-ĕl made Om'rī, the captain of the host, king over Îş'rā-ĕl that day in the camp.

17 And Om'rī went up from Gib'bēthon, and all Is'ra-el with him, and they besieged Tîr'zah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zim'rī saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house. and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jer'o-bo'am, and in his sin which he did, to make Is'rā-ĕl

21 ¶ Then were the people of Iş'rā-ĕl divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tib'ni the son of Gi'nath. to make him king; and half followed Om'ri.

22 But the people that followed Om'ri prevailed against the people that followed Tib'ni the son of Gi'nath: so Tib'ni died, and Om'ri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of A'sa king of Judah began Om'rī to reign over Is'rā-ĕl, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tir zah.

24 And he bought the hill Sa-ma'rī-a of She'mer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of She'mer, owner of the hill. Samā'rī-a.

30 And Ahab the son of Om'rī did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, that he took to wife Tez'e-bel the daughter of Eth'ba'al king of the Zi-do'ni-ans, and went and served Bā'āl, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Ba'al in the house of Ba'al, which he had built in Sà-mā'rĭ-à.

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl to anger than all the kings of 34 ¶ In his days did Hi'ĕl the Bĕth'ěl-ite build Jěr'i-cho: he laid the foundation thereof in A-bi'ram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Se'gub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

13 And E-li'iah said unto her, Fear not: go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and

CHAPTER 18

AND it came to pass after many days. that the word of the LORD came to E-li'jah in the third year, saying, Go, show thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And E-li'jah went to show himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Sá-mā'rĭ-à.

3 And Ahab called O'ba-di'ah, which was the governor of his house. (Now O'ba-dī'ah feared the LORD greatly:

5 And Ahab said unto Ō'bà-dī'ah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and O'ba-di'ah went another way by himself.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jez'e-bel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, E-li'jah is here: and he

15 And E-li'jah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand. I will surely show myself unto him to-day.

16 So O'bà-dì'àh went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet

E-li'jah.

17 I And it came to pass, when Ahab saw E-li'jah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Is'ra-ĕi?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Iş'rā-ĕl; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Bā'a-līm.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Is'rā-ël unto mount Cär'měl, and the prophets of Ba'al four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Tez'e-bel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Car'mel.

21 And E-li'jah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Bā'āl, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said E-li'jah unto the people. 8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Bā'āl's prophets are four locks; and let them choose one bullock said, Do it the third time. And they did for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ve on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And E-li'jah said unto the prophets of Bā'āl, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Ba'al from morning even until noon, saying, O Bā'āl, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

E-li'jah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And E-li'jah said unto all the people. Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

41 ¶ Ánd Ē-li'jāh said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And E-li'jah went up to the top of Car'mel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, 43 And said to his servant. Go up now. look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's of the LORD came, saying, Iş'rā-ĕl shall hand. And he said, Go up, say unto be thy name:

CHAPTER 19

AND Ahab told Jez'e-bel all that E-lihad slain all the prophets with the sword. 2 Then Jez'e-bel sent a messenger unto E-li'jah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Be'ershe'ba, which belongeth to Judah, and

4 (But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die: and said, It is enough; now, O LORD. take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee. 8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Hô'rěb

9 ¶ And he came thither unto a cave. and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. 14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Is'ra-el have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go. return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hăz'ā-ĕl to be king over Syria:

16 And Je'hū the son of Nim'shī shalt thou anoint to be king over Iş'rā-ĕl: and E-li'sha the son of Sha'phat of A'belmē-hō'lah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Haz'a-el shall Je'hu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Je'hū shall E-li'sha slay.

18 Yet I have left me seven thousand in Iş'rā-ĕl, all the knees which have not bowed unto Ba'al, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

19 C So he departed thence, and found E-li'sha the son of Sha'phat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and E-li'jah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after E-li'jah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee?

21 And he returned back from him. and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them. and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after E-li'jah, and ministered unto him.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben'-ha'dad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children:

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to-morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that ha'dad sent out, and they told him. whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Is'rā-ĕl called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him. Hearken not unto him.

nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben'-ha'dad, Tell my lord the king. All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again. 10 And Běn'-ha'dad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Sa-ma'rī-a shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Benhadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

13 ¶ And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Is'rā-ĕl, sav-will deliver it into thine hand this day:

and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. 14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said. Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he numbered all the people. even all the children of Iş'rā-el, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Běn'-hā'dăd was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben'saying, There are men come out of Sá-mã'rĭ-à.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city. and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Is'ra-el pursued them: and Ben'-ha'dad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Is'ra-el went out. and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet came to the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we ing, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou shall be stronger than they. And he

27 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Is'rā-ĕl pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 ¶ And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

the other seven days. And so it was. that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Iş'rā-ĕl slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to A'phek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben'-ha'dad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

31 @ And his servants said unto him. Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Iş'rā-ĕl are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Isrā-ĕl: peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, and said, Thy servant Ben'-ha'dad saith, I pray

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said. Thy brother Ben'-ha'dad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben'ha'dad came forth to him; and he caused by the palace of Ahab king of Sa-ma'ri-a. him to come up into the chariot.

Then if it seem good to thee, I will give thee said Ahab, I will send thee away with the worth of it in money.

35 ¶ And a certain man of the sons the Syrians, and went up to A'phek, to of the prophets said unto his neighbor in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised 29 And they pitched one over against himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing. then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Is'rā-ĕl said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.

41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Is'ra-ĕl discerned him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Is'ra-el went to his thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet house heavy and displeased, and came to Sa-mā'rī-a.

sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Na'both the Jez're-el-ite, and said unto him. Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered. I will not give thee my vinevard.

7 And Jez'e-bel his wife said unto him. Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Is'ra-el? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Na'both the Jez'reěl-īte.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Na'both.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Na'both on high among the people:

10 And set two men, sons of Be'li-al, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jěz'ē-běl had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Na'both on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Be'li-al, and sat before him: and the men of Be'li-al witnessed against him, even against Na'both, in the presence of the people, saying, Na'both did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and out before the children of Iş'rā-ĕl. stoned him with stones, that he died.

Na'both is stoned, and is dead.

15 Of And it came to pass, when Tez'ebel heard that Na'both was stoned, and was dead, that Tez'e-bel said to Ahah Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're-el-ite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Natboth is not alive, but dead,

16 And it came to pass, when Ahah heard that Na'both was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're-el-ite, to take possession of it.

17 I And the word of the LORD came to E-li'jah the Tish'bite, saving

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Iş'rā-ĕl, which is in Sa-mā'rī-à: behold, he is in the vineyard of Na'both. whither he is gone down to possess it.

19 And thou shalt speak unto him. saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Na'both shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

20 And Ahab said to E-li'jah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee. and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Îs'rā-ĕl, 22 And will make thine house like the house of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, and like the house of Ba'a-sha the son of A-hī'jāh, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Iş'rā-el to sin.

23 And of Jez'e-bel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jez'ebel by the wall of Jez're-el.

24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 @ But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jez'e-bel his wife stirred up.

26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Am'o-rites, whom the LORD cast

CHAPTER 22

AND they continued three years with-A out war between Syria and Is'ra-el. 2 And it came to pass in the third year, that Je-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah came down to the king of Is'ra-el.

3 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said unto his servants, Know ye that Ra'moth in Gil'ē-ad is ours, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said unto Je-hosh'a-phat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gil'e-ad? And Je-hosh'a-phat said to the king of Is'ra-el, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jē-hosh'a-phat said unto the king of Is'rā-ĕl, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

6 Then the king of Iş'rā-ĕl gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Rā'moth-gil'ē-ad to battle. or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And Te-hosh'a-phat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides.

that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Is'rā-ĕl said unto Jē-hŏsh'à-phăt, There is yet one man, Mī-cā'iah the son of Im'lah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him: for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Je-hosh'a-phat said, Let not the king say so.
9 Then the king of Iş'rā-ĕl called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Mica'iah the son of Im'lah.

10 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl and Jēhosh'a-phat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Sa-ma'rī-a; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

nā'a-nāh made him horns of iron: and he said. Thus saith the LORD. With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so. saving, Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Mi-ca'iah spake unto him, saving, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Mī-cā'iāh said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me.

that will I speak.

15 ¶ So he came to the king. And the king said unto him. Mī-cā'iah, shall we go against Rā'moth-gil'ē-ad to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, I saw all Ĭş'rā-ĕl scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Is'ra-el said unto Te-hosh'à-phat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ra'moth-gil'e-ad? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also; go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD 11 And Zĕd'ē-kī'áh the son of Chē- hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all

24 But Zĕd'ē-kī'ah the son of Chēnā'a-näh went near, and smote Mica'iah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Mī-cā'jāh said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself. 26 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said, Take Mī-cā'jāh, and carry him back unto A'mon the governor of the city, and to Jo'ash the king's son; 27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Mī-cā'jāh said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Iş'rā-ĕl and Jē-hŏsh'a-phāt the king of Judah went up to Rā'moth-gil'e-ad.

30 And the king of Is'rā-ĕl said unto Jē-hosh'a-phat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Is'ra-ĕl disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Is'rā-ĕl.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Te-hosh'a-phat. that they said, Surely it is the king of Ĭş'rā-ĕl. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jē-hŏsh'a-phăt cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Is'rā-ĕl, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Is'ra-ĕl between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

37 T So the king died, and was brought to Sa-ma'ri-a: and they buried the king in Sa-mā'rĭ-a.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Sa-ma'ri-a; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armor: according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab. and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'ra-el? 40 So Ahab slept with his fathers: and A'ha-zī'ah his son reigned in his stead 41 ¶ And Jē-hosh'a-phat the son of A'sa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Is'ra-el.

42 Je-hosh'a-phat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Terusalem. And his mother's name was A-zū'bah the daughter of Shil'hi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of A'sa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense vet in the high places.

44 And Je-hosh'a-phat made peace

45 Now the rest of the acts of Tehosh'a-phat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

THEN Mō'āb rebelled against Is' rā-ĕl after the death of Ahab.

2 And A'ha-zī'ah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Sa-ma'rī-a, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them. Go. inquire of Bā'āl-zē'bub the god of Ek'ron whether I shall recover of this disease.

3 But the angel of the LORD said to E-li'iah the Tish'bite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Sa-ma'rī-a, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Is'ra-el, that ye go to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub the god of Ek'ron?

4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And E-li'jah departed.

5 C And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ve now turned back?

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Iş'rā-ĕl, that thou sendest to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub the god of Ek'ron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him, He was a hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is E-li'jah the Tish'bite.

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spake unto him, Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down.

10 And E-li'jah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his 11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And E-li'jah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before E-li'jah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants. be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

the LORD. For a smuch as thou hast sent and thither, so that they two went over messengers to inquire of Bā'āl-zē'būb the god of Ek'ron, is it not because there is no God in Iş'rā-ĕl to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 So he died according to the word of the LORD which E-li'jah had spoken. And Je-ho'ram reigned in his stead. in the second year of Je-ho'ram the son of Je-hosh'a-phat king of Judah; because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of A'hazī'ah which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl?

CHAPTER 2

AND it came to pass, when the LORD would take up E-li'jah into heaven by a whirlwind, that E-li'jah went with

E-li'sha from Gil'gal,

2 And E-li'jah said unto E-li'sha. Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And E-li'sha said unto him, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

6 And E-li'jah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Tordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And E-li'jah took his mantle, and 16 And he said unto him, Thus saith waters, and they were divided hither on dry ground.

9 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that E-li'jah said unto E-li'sha, Ask what I shall do for thee. before I be taken away from thee. And E-li'sha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. 10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and E-li'iah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 ¶ And E-li'sha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Iş'rā-ĕl, and the horsemen thereof! And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of E-li'jah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of E-li'jah 3 And the sons of the prophets that that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of E-li'jah? And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and E-li'sha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jer'i-chō saw him, they said, The spirit of E-li'jah doth rest on E-li'sha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 Q And they said unto him. Behold 5 And the sons of the prophets that now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

> 17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jer'i-cho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not? 19 I And the men of the city said unto wrapped it together, and smote the E-li'sha, Behold, I pray thee, the situaground barren.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of E-li'sha which he spake.

23 C And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Jē-hō'rām the son of Ahab began to reign over Iş'rā-ĕl in Så-mā'rī-à in the eighteenth year of Jē-hosh'a-phāt king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the image of Bā'āl that his father had made. 3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Ter'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat. which made Iş'rā-ĕl to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 C And Me'sha king of Mô'ab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Is'rā-ĕl a hundred thousand lambs, and a hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Mō'āb rebelled against the king of Is'rā-ĕl.

6 ¶ And king Jē-hō'răm went out of Sà-mā'rī-à the same time, and numbered all İş'rā-ĕl.

7 And he went and sent to Jē-hosh'aphat the king of Tudah, saving. The king of Mo'ab hath rebelled against me: wilt city, and every choice city, and shall fell tion of this city is pleasant, as my lord thou go with me against Mo'ab to seeth; but the water is naught, and the battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of E'dom. 9 So the king of Iş'rā-ĕl went, and the and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have king of Judah, and the king of E'dom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them.

10 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Mo'ab!

11 But Jē-hosh'a-phat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Iş'rā-ĕl's servants answered and said, Here is E-li'sha the son of Shā'phāt, which poured water on the hands of E-li'jah.

12 And Jē-hosh'a-phat said. The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Îs'rā-ĕl and Jē-hŏsh'à-phăt and the 13 And E-li'sha said unto the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Mo'ab.

14 And E-li'sha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jē-hosh'a-phat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said. Thus saith the LORD. Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts.

18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Mô'āb-ītes also into your hand, 19 And ve shall smite every fenced with stones.

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat offering was offered. that, behold, there came water by the way of E'dom, and the country was filled with water.

21 ¶ And when all the Mō'āb-ītes heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Mo'ab-ites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore,

Mô'ăb, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Is'ra-ël, the Is'ra-ël-îtes rose up and smote the Mo'ab-ites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Mô'āb-ītes, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-har'aseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

26 ¶ And when the king of Mo'ab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of E'dom: but they could should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Iş'rā-ĕl: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto E-li'sha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee yes. sels abroad of all thy neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son. Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil staved.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 I And it fell on a day, that E-li'sha passed to Shu'nem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that, as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in 13 And he said unto him. Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Ge-ha'zī answered, 2 And E-li'sha said unto her, What Verily she hath no child, and her hus-

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that E-li'sha had said unto her, according to the time of 18 C And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head! And he said to a lad. Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband. and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither new moon. nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Car'mel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gē-hā'zī his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shu' nam-mite:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gē-ha'zī came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

30 And the mother of the child said As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Ge-hā'zī passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.

32 And when E-li'sha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto

the LORD.

34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Ge-ha'zi, and said, Call this Shu'nam-mite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 ¶ And E-li'sha came again to Gil' gal: and there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof.

41 But he said, Then bring meal. And 29 Then he said to Ge-ha'zī, Gird up he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour 43 And his servitor said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? He said again. Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

TOW Nā'à-măn, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valor, but he was a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Is'ra-ël a little maid; and she waited on Na'a-man's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Sa-ma'ri-a! for he would recover him of his leprosy.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid

And it came to pass, when the king of Iş'rā-ĕl had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? door of the house of E-li'sha.

10 And E-li'sha sent a messenger unto him, saving, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11 But Nā'a-man was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand. and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place. and recover the leper.

12 Are not Ab'a-na and Phar'par. rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Iş'rā-ĕl? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saving of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean,

15 ¶ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said. Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Is ra-el: now with him ten talents of silver, and six therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of 21 So Gē-hā'zī followed after Nā'amăn. And when Nā'a-măn saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all

22 And he said. All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount E'phrā-im two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Na'à-man said. Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two hags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house; and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And E-li'sha said unto him. Whence comest thou, Gē-hā'zī? And he said. Thy servant went no whither.

26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Na'a-man shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

CHAPTER 6

ND the sons of the prophets said unto E-li'sha. Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us.

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam,

3 And one said. Be content, I pray thee. and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down

5 But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said. Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said. Where fell it? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither: and the iron did swim.

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Syria warred against Is'rā-ĕl, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Is'rā-ĕl, saving, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Is'ra-el sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice,

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing: and he called his servants, and said unto them. Will ye not show me which of us is for the king of Is'ra-el?

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but E-li'sha, the prophet that is in Iş'ra-ĕl, telleth the king of Is'ra-ël the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber.

13 ¶ And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Do'than.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses. and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

16 And he answered. Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

17 And E-li'sha prayed, and said. and let us make us a place there, where LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye. he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: 29 So we boiled my son, and did eat and, behold, the mountain was full of him: and I said unto her on the next horses and chariots of fire round about day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: E-lī'shā.

18 And when they came down to him E-li'sha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them Ē-lī'shā.

21 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said unto E-li'sha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

25 And there was a great famine in Sá-ma'rī-a: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Ĭş'rā-ĕl was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. 27 And he said, If the LORD do not

CHAPTER 7

THEN E-li'sha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To-morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Sa-mā'rī-a.

2 Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 ¶ And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there ments and vessels. which the Syrians was no man there. 6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots. and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another. Lo, the king of İş'rā-ĕl hath hired against us the kings of the Hit'tites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent. and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another. We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 I And the king arose in the night. and said unto his servants. I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. HEN spake E-li'sha unto the woman. whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven years.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saving of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Phi-lis'tines seven

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Phi-lis'tines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her

4 And the king talked with Ge-ha'zī the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that E-li'sha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling body to life, that, behold, the woman, 15 And they went after them unto Jor- whose son he had restored to life, cried land. And Ge-ha'zī said, My lord, O ram the son of Je-hosh'a-phat king of king, this is the woman, and this is her Judah began to reign. son, whom E-li'sha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land. even until now.

7 ¶ And E-li'sha came to Damascus; and Ben'-ha'dad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Haz'a-el, Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hăz'ā-ĕl went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben'-ha'dad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And E-li'sha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath showed me that he shall surely die.

11 And he settled his countenance steadfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Haz'a-el said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of İş'rā-ĕl: their strongholds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 And Haz'a-el said. But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And E-li'sha answered, The LORD hath showed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from E-li'sha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said E-li'sha to thee? And he answered. He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow. that he took a thick cloth, and dipped if in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Haz'a-el reigned in his stead.

LORD.

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Indah for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give him always a light. and to his children.

20 In his days E'dom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Jo'ram went over to Za'ir, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the E'dom-ites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 Yet E'dom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Lib nah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Jo'ram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Jo'ram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and A'hà-zī'ah his son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth year of Jo'ram the son of Ahab king of Is'rā-ĕl did Ā'hà-zī'ah the son of Jē-hō'rām king of Judah begin to reign.

26 Two and twenty years old was A'hazī'ah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ath'a-li'ah, the daughter of Om'rī king of Iş'rā-ĕl.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 C And he went with Jo'ram the son of Ahab to the war against Haz'a-el king of Syria in Rā'mŏth-gĭl'ē-ăd; and the Syrians wounded Jo'ram.

29 And king Jo'ram went back to be healed in Jez're-el of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ra'mah, when he fought against Haz'a-el king of Syria. And A'ha-zī'ah the son of Jēho'ram king of Judah went down to see Jehu is anointed king over Israel

To'ram the son of Ahab in Jez're-el, because he was sick.

CHAPTER 9

ND E-li'sha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thine hand, and go to Rā'mŏth-gil'ē-ăd:

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there Je'hū the son of Je-hosh'aphät the son of Nim'shi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber;

3 Then take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the none go forth nor escape of LORD, I have anointed thee king over to go to tell it in Jez'rê-êl. Is'rā-ĕl. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

4 T So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ra'moth-gĭľē-ăd.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Je'hū said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Is'rā-ĕl.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD.

at the hand of Jez'e-bel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Is'ra-ël:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Nē'băt, and like the house of Bā'a-sha

the son of A-hi'jah:

10 And the dogs shall eat Jez'e-bel in the portion of Jez're-el, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 Then Te'hū came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them. Ye know the man, and his communication. 12 And they said, It is false; tell us now.

And he said. Thus and thus spake he to many?

me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Is'ra-el.

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Je'hū is king.

14 So Je'hū the son of Je-hosh'a-phat the son of Nim'shi conspired against Torăm. (Now Jo'răm had kept Rā'moth-gil'ē-ād, he and all Iş'rā-ĕl, because of Hăz'ā-ĕl king of Syria.

15 But king Jo'ram was returned to be healed in Jez're-el of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hăz'ā-ēl king of Syria.) And Jē'hū said, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city

16 So Jē'hū rode in a chariot, and went to Těz'rē-ĕl: for Tö'răm lav there. And A'ha-zi'ah king of Judah was come down to see Jo'ram.

17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jez're-el, and he spied the company of Te'hū as he came, and said, I see a company. And Jō'ram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Je'hū said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jē'hū answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Je'hū the son of Nim'shī; for he driveth furiously.

21 And Jö'răm said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Jo' răm king of Îş'rā-ĕl and Ā'hà-zī'ah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot. and they went out against Te'hū, and met him in the portion of Na'both the Jez're-el-ite.

22 And it came to pass, when Jö'răm saw Jē'hū, that he said, Is it peace, Te'hū? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jez'e-bel and her witchcrafts are so treachery, O A'ha-zī'ah.

24 And Je'hū drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Je-ho'ram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bid'kar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Na'both the Jez'reel-ite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Na'both, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the

LORD.

27 ¶ But when A'hà-zī'ah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Je'hu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gûr, which is by Ib'le-am. And he fled to Me-gid'do, and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of To'ram the son of Ahab began A'hà-zī'ah to reign over Judah.

30 Q And when Te'hū was come to Jěz'rē-ĕl, Jěz'ē-běl heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Te'hū entered in at the gate. she said, Had Zim'ri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and him: but who slew all these?

23 And Jo'ram turned his hands, and told him. And he said, This is the word ant E-li'jah the Tish'bite, saying, In the portion of Jez're-el shall dogs eat the flesh of Jez'e-bel:

37 And the carcass of Jez'e-bel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jez're-el; so that they shall not say, This is Jez'e-bel.

CHAPTER 10

AND Ahab had seventy sons in Sa. mā'rī-a. And Jē'hū wrote letters, and sent to Sa-ma'ri-a, unto the rulers of Jez're-el, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying,

2 Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armor;

3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also. and the bringers up of the children, sent to Je'hū, saying, We are thy servants. and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jez're-el by to-morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jez're-el.

8 ¶ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning. that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew

10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake by his servant

E-li'jah. 11 So Je'hū slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jez're-el, and all his great men, and his kinsfolk, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 Of And he arose and departed, and came to Sa-mā'rī-a. And as he was at the shearing house in the way,

13 Te'hū met with the brethren of A'hàzi'ah king of Judah, and said, Who are ve? And they answered, We are the brethren of A'ha-zi'ah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them. 15 C And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Je-hon'a-dab the son of saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Je-hon'a-dab answered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Sa-ma'ri-a, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samā'rī-a, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to E-li'jah.

18 T And Je hū gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Bā'āl a little; but Jē'hū shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Ba'al, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Bā'āl: intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Bā'al.

claimed it.

21 And Je'hū sent through all Is'rā-ĕl: rā-ĕl to sin. and all the worshippers of Ba'al came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Bā'āl; and the house of Bā'āl was full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry. Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Bā'āl. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Je'hū went, and Je-hon'a-dab the son of Re'chab, into the house of Bā'āl, and said unto the worshippers of Bā'āl, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Ba'al only. 24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Je'hū appointed fourscore men without, and said, f any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of 25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Je'hū said to the guard and to the captains. Go in, and slay them; Re'chab coming to meet him: and he let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Bā'ăl.

26 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Bā'āl, and burned

them.

27 And they brake down the image of Bā'āl, and brake down the house of Bā'āl, and made it a draught house unto this day.

28 Thus Je'hū destroyed Ba'al out of Iş'rā-ĕl.

29 ¶ Howbeit, from the sins of Jer ōbo'am the son of Ne'bat, who made Isrā-ĕl to sin, Jē'hū departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

30 And the LORD said unto Je'hū, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab acwhosoever shall be wanting, he shall not cording to all that was in mine heart, live. But Je'hū did it in subtilty, to the thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Iş'ra-ĕl.

31 But Je'hū took no heed to walk in 20 And Je'hū said, Proclaim a solemn the law of the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl with assembly for Ba'al. And they pro- all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jer'o-bo'am, which made Is-cut Is'rā-ĕl short: and Hăz'ā-ĕl smote them in all the coasts of Is'ra-ĕl;

33 From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gil'ē-ad, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Ma-nas'sites, from A-ro'er, which is by the river Ar'non. even Gil'ē-ăd and Bā'shān.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Je'hū, and all that he did, and all his might. are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'ra-el?

35 And Je'hū slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Sa-ma'ri-a. And Jē-hō'à-haz his son reigned in his stead. 36 And the time that Je'hū reigned over Is'rā-ĕl in Sa-mā'rī-a was twenty and eight years.

CHAPTER 11

AND when Ath'a-li'ah the mother of A'ha-zi'ah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal.

2 But Jē-hosh'ē-ba, the daughter of king Jō'rām, sister of Ā'ha-zi'ah, took To'ash the son of A'ha-zī'ah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Ath'à-li'àh, so that he was not

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Ath'a-li'ah did reign over the land.

4 And the seventh year Je'hôi'à-dà sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do:-A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sûr; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the nant between the LORD and the king and watch of the house, that it be not broken the people, that they should be the down.

7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundrede did according to all things that Te-how à-dà the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Tē-hoi'a-da the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple. along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son. and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.

13 C And when Ath'a-li'ah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of

the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Ath'a-li'ah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason.

15 But Jē-hôl'ā-dā the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges; and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

17 ¶ And Jē-hôi'á-dá made a cove-LORD's people; between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Ba'al, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew about, every man with his weapons in Mat'tan the priest of Ba'al before the altars. And the priest appointed officers LORD: and the priests that kept the door over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the Lorn, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. 20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Ath'a-li'ah with the sword beside the king's house.

21 Seven years old was Jē-hō'ash when he began to reign.

CHAPTER 12

IN the seventh year of Jē'hū, Jē-hō' āsh began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zib'i-ah of Bē'ēr-shē'bā.

2 And Je-ho'ash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Je-ho'a-da the priest instructed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 ¶ And Jē-hō'āsh said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the Lorn, even the money of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the Lorn,

5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jē-hō'āsh the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then king Jē-hô'āsh called for Jē-hô'ā-dā the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them. Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jē-hôi'á-dá the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the Lord.

11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 Howbeit there were not made for the house of the Long bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the

that was brought into the house of the LORD:

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

15 Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.

17 ¶ Then Hăz'ā-ēl king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hāz'ā-ēl set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jē-hō'ásh king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jē-hō'sh'a-his phāt, and Jē-hō'sām, and Ā'hā-zī'āh, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hāz'ā-ēl king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.

19 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Jō'āsh, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and slew Jo'ash in the house of Mil'lo, which goeth down to Sil'la.

and set it beside the altar, on the right 21 For Jöz'a-chār the son of Shīm'ē-ăth, side as one cometh into the house of the and Jē-hŏz'a-băd the son of Shō'mēr, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Am'á-zi'áh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 13

IN the three and twentieth year of Jo' ash the son of The Tribit ash the son of A'ha-zi'ah king of Judah, Jē-hô'à-haz the son of Jē'hū began to reign over Is'rā-ĕl in Sa-mā'rī-a, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, which made Is'rā-ĕl to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Iş'rā-ĕl, and he delivered them into the hand of Haz'a-el king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben'-ha'dad the son of Haz'a-el, all their days.

4 And Je-ho'a-haz besought the LORD. and the LORD hearkened unto him: for he saw the oppression of Iş'rā-ĕl, because the king of Syria oppressed them. 5 (And the LORD gave Iş'rā-ĕl a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Is'rā-ĕl dwelt in their tents, as beforetime.

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jer'o-bo'am, who made Is'rā-ĕl sin, but walked therein: and there remained the grove also in Sa-ma'rĭ-a.)

7 Neither did he leave of the people to Jē-hō'a-haz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing.

8 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hō² à-haz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl?

9 And Te-ho'a-haz slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Sa-mā'rī-a: and To'ash his son reigned in his stead.

10 In the thirty and seventh year of Jō'āsh king of Judah began Jē-hō'āsh the son of Je-ho'a-haz to reign over Isrā-ĕl in Sā-mā'rī-ā, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, who made Is'ra-el sin: but he walked therein.

12 And the rest of the acts of Jo'ash. and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Am'à-zī'àh king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Îş'rā-ĕl?

13 And Jo'ash slept with his fathers. and Jer'o-bo'am sat upon his throne: and To'ash was buried in Sa-ma'ri-a with the kings of İş'rā-ĕl.

14 ¶ Now E-li'sha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Tot ash the king of Iş'ra-ĕl came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father! the chariot of Is' rā-ĕl, and the horsemen thereof.

15 And E-li'sha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows.

16 And he said to the king of Is'ra-ël. Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and E-li'sha put his hands upon the king's hands.

17 And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then E-li'sha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance. and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in A'phěk, till thou have consumed them. 18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

20 C And E-li'sha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Mo'ab-ites invaded the land at the coming in of the vear.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of E-li'sha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of E-li'sha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 ¶ But Hăz'ā-ĕl king of Syria oppressed Is'rā-ĕl all the days of Jē-hō'ā-

23 And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Tacob, and would not destroy them. neither cast he them from his presence as yet.

24 So Hāz'ā-ĕl king of Syria died; and Běn'-hā'dăd his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Je-ho'ash the son of Je-ho'a-haz took again out of the hand of Ben'-ha' dad the son of Haz'a-el the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Je-hoa-haz his father by war. Three times did Jō'ash beat him, and recovered the cities of Is'ra-ël.

CHAPTER 14

TN the second year of Jo'ash son of Je-ho'a-haz king of Is'ra-el reigned Am'a-zī'ah the son of Jo'ash king of Judah.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je'ho-addăn of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Jö'āsh his father did.

4 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.

5 (And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand. that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father.

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall zi'ah, are they not written in the book of

be put to death for his own sin.

7 He slew of E'dom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took Se'lah by war, and called the name of it Jok'the-el

unto this day

8 ¶ Then Am'a-zī'ah sent messengers to Je-ho'ash, the son of Je-ho'a-haz son of Je'hū, king of Is'rā-ĕl, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.

9 And Je-ho'ash the king of Iş'ra-ĕl sent to Am'a-zī'ah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

and thine heart hath lifted thee up; glory of this, and tarry at home; for why shouldest thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Am'a-zī'ah would not hear. Therefore Je-hō'ash king of Iş'ra-ĕl went up; and he and Am'a-zī'ah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Běth'-shê'měsh, which belongeth to Tudah.

12 And Tudah was put to the worse before Is'ra-el; and they fled every man to their tents

,13 And Jē-hō'ăsh king of Îş'rā-ĕl took Am'à-zī'àh king of Judah, the son of Jēho'ash the son of A'ha-zī'ah, at Beth'shē'mesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of E'phrā-im unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Sá-mā'rī-á.

15 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hōăsh which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Am'a-zī'ah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl?

16 And Je-ho'ash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Sa-mā'rī-a with the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl; and Jĕr'ō-bō'ām his son reigned in his stead.

17 ¶ And Am'a-zī'āh the son of Jō'āsh king of Judah lived after the death of Jē-hō'ăsh son of Jē-hō'à-hăz king of Işrā-ĕl fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Am'athe Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to La' chish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. 21 ¶ And all the people of Judah took Az'à-rī'àh, which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Am'a-zī'ah.

22 He built E'lath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Am'à-10 Thou hast indeed smitten E'dom, zī'ah the son of Jo'ash king of Judah, Jĕr'ō-bō'ām the son of Jō'āsh king of Ĭṣ'rā-ĕl began to reign in Sā-mā'rǐ-ā, and reigned forty and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jer-ō-bō'am the son of Nō'bāt, who made Is'rā-ēl to sin.

25 He restored the coast of Îş'rā-ēl from the entering of Hā'māth unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Iş'rā-ēl, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Â-mīt'taī, the prophet, which was of Gāth'-hē'nhēr.

26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Iş'rā-ĕl, that it was very bitter: for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Is'ra-el.

27 And the LORD said not that he would blot out the name of Is'rā-ĕi from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jĕr'ō-bō'ām the son of Jō'āsh.

28 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jer'ō-bo'ām, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hā'māth, which belonged to Judah, for Is'rā-ĕl, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl?

29 And Jer'ō-bō'ām slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Is'rā-el; and Zāch'ā-rī'āh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 15

IN the twenty and seventh year of Jer'ō-bō'am king of Isrā-ēl began Āz'ā-rī'āh son of Ām'ā-zī'āh king of Judah to reign.

2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jéch'o-li'ah of Jerusalem. 3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Am'a-zi'ah had done; 4 Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places. 5 ¶ And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house. And Jo'tham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Az'a-ri'ah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Āz'ā-rī'āh slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jō'thām his son reigned in his stead.

A I In the thirty and eighth year of Az'a-n'ah king of Judah did Zāch'a-n'ah the son of Jēr'ō-bō'ām reign over iştrā-ēl in Sa-mā'n'-ā six months.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jer'6-bo'am the son of Ne'bat, who made ĭs'rā-ĕi to sin.

10 And Shāi'lüm the son of Jā'bĕsh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and

reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zāch'ā-rī'āh, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'rā-či.

12 This was the word of the Lord which he spake unto Je'hū, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of İş'rā-ĕl unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 ¶ Shāl'lum the son of Jā'bēsh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uz-zi'ah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Sa-mā'ri-a.

14 For Měn'a-hěm the son of Gã'di went up from Tir'zah, and came to Samā'n'-a, and smote Shā'l'lūm the son of Jā'bēsh in Sa-mā'n'-a, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shaillum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'rā-ĕi.

16 ¶ Then Měn'â-hēm smote Tiph' sảh, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tir'zàh: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the women therein that were with child he ripped up.

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Az'a-rī'ah king of Judah began Mēn'a-hēm the son of Gā'dī to reign over Iş'rā-ēl, and reigned ten years in Sa-mā' rī-ā.

18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jer'ō-bō'ām the son of Nō'bāt, who made Is'rā-ĕl to sin.

19 And Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Měn'a-hèm gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the ten in the book of the Chronicles of the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Měn'à-hěm exacted the money of Is'ra-ël, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and staved not there in the land.

21 @ And the rest of the acts of Men'ahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl?

22 And Měn'a-hěm slept with his fathers; and Pěk'á-hi'áh his son reigned in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth year of Az'a-rī'ah king of Judah, Pěk'a-hī'ah the son of Měn'a-hěm began to reign over Is'rā-ël in Sa-ma'ri-a, and reigned two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Nê'băt, who made Îş'rā-ĕl to sin.

25 But Pe'käh the son of Rem'a-li'ah. a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Sa-ma'ri-a, in the palace of the king's house, with Ar gob and A-ri'eh, and with him fifty men of the Gil'ē-ad-ites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pek'ahī'āh, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl.

27 In the two and fiftieth year of Az'à-rī'àh king of Judah, Pē'käh the son of Rem'a-li'ah began to reign over Isrā-ĕl in Sà-mā'rĭ-à, and reigned twenty vears.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jer'o-bo'am the son of Nē'băt, who made Îs'rā-ĕl to sin.

29 In the days of Pe'käh king of Iş' rā-ĕl came Tig'lath-pi-lē'şēr king of Assyria, and took l'jon, and A'bel-bethmā'a-chah, and Ja-nō'ah, and Kē'desh, and Hā'zŏr, and Gil'ē-ād, and Galilee, all the land of Naph'ta-li, and carried them captive to Assyria.

30 And Hō-shē'à the son of E'làh made a conspiracy against Pē'kāh the son of Rěm'a-lī'ah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the Úz-zī'àh.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pe'käh. and all that he did, behold, they are writ-kings of Ís'rā-ĕl.

32 In the second year of Pë'käh the son of Rem'a-li'ah king of Is'ra-el began Jö'tham the son of Uz-zī'ah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-ru'sha, the daughter of Zā'dŏk.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uz-zi'ah had done. 35 I Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the Lord. 36 W Now the rest of the acts of Totham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days the LORD began to send against Tudah Rē'zīn the king of Syria, and Pe'käh the son of Rem'ali'àh.

38 And Jo'tham slept with his fathers. and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 16

N the seventeenth year of Pe'käh the son of Rem'a-li'ah, Ahaz the son of Jô'thăm king of Judah began to reign. 2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Îş'rā-ĕl.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and

under every green tree.

5 4 Then Re'zīn king of Syria, and Pē'kāh son of Rem'a-li'ah king of Isrā-ĕl, came up to Jerusalem to war: and twentieth year of Jo'tham the son of they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rē'zin king of Svria recovered E'lath to Syria, and drave the to E'lath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tig'lathpi-lê'şêr king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Is'rā-ĕl, which rise up against me. 8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD. and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, in his stead.

and slew Re'zin.

10 M And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tig'lath-pi-le'şer king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to U-ri'jah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And U-ri'jah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so U-ri'jah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the brazen altar, which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Ū-rī'jāh the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by.

16 Thus did U-ri'jah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 And king Ahaz cut off the borders cretly those things that were not right

Jews from E'lath: and the Syrians came of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

19 T Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Tudah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hez'e-ki'ah his son reigned

CHAPTER 17

IN the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hō-shē'ā the son of Ē'lāh to reign in Sā-mā'rī-ā over Īş'rā-ĕl nine years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl that were before him.

3 ¶ Against him came up Shăl'măn-ē' şer king of Assyria; and Hö-she'a became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hō-shē'à: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 I Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Sa-ma'rī-a, and besieged it three years.

6 In the ninth year of Ho-she'a the king of Assyria took Sa-mā'rī-a, and carried Iş'rā-ĕl away into Assyria, and placed them in Ha'lah and in Ha'bor by the river of Go'zan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Isra-el had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pha'raoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Is'ra-el, and of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl, which they had made.

9 And the children of Is'ra-ĕl did se-against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities. from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up images and proves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them. Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Isrā-ĕl, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ve from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded thereof. your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not them.

believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Bā'āl.

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire. and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Is'ra-ĕl, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.

19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Iş'rā-ĕl which they made.

until he had cast them out of his sight. är-va'im.

21 For he rent Is'rā-ĕl from the house of David; and they made Jer'o-bo'am the son of Ne'bat king; and Jer'o-bo'am drave Is'rā-ĕl from following the LORD. and made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Is'ra-ĕl walked in all the sins of Jer'o-bo'am which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Is'ra-el out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Is'ra-ël carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 4 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cu'thah, and from A'va, and from Ha'math, and from Seph'ar-va'im, and placed them in the cities of Sa-ma'rī-a instead of the children of Is'ra-el; and they possessed Sa-ma'ri-a, and dwelt in the cities

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of 26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Så-mā'rī-å, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Sa-mā'rī-a came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Sa-mar'i-tans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Suc' coth-be'noth, and the men of Cuth made Nêr'gal, and the men of Ha'math made

A-shi'ma.

31 And the A'vites made Nib'haz and 20 And the LORD rejected all the seed Tär'tak, and the Se'phar-vites burnt of Iş'ra-ĕl, and afflicted them, and de- their children in fire to A-dram'mē-lĕch livered them into the hand of spoilers, and A-nam'me-lech, the gods of Seph-

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the Lord, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Is ra-ĕl;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances. and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ve shall not forget: neither shall ye fear other gods.

fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. 40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but Medes:

they did after their former manner. 41 So these nations feared the LORD. and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

CHAPTER 18

NOW it came to pass in the third fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

year of Hō-shē'á son of E'làh king
14 And Hĕz'ē-kī'áh king of Judah sent of Is'rā-ĕl, that Hĕz'ē-kī'āh the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was A'bi, the daughter of Zăch'à-rī'àh.

3 And he did that which was right in silver that was found in the house of the the sight of the LORD, according to all LORD, and in the treasures of the king's that David his father did.

4 II He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did burn incense to it: and he called it Nē-hǔsh'tăn.

5 He trusted in the LORD God of is: rā-ĕl; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forthand he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He smote the Phi-lis'tines, even unto Ga'za, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 C And it came to pass in the fourth vear of king Hez'e-ki'ah, which was the seventh year of Ho-she'a son of E'lah king of Iş'rā-ĕl, that Shăl'măn-ē'sēr king of Assyria came up against Sa-ma! rī-a, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hez'e. kī'ah, that is the ninth year of Hō-shē'a king of Is'rā-ĕl. Sa-mā'rĭ-a was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria did carry 39 But the LORD your God ye shall away Is'rā-ĕl unto Assyria, and put ear: and he shall deliver you out of the them in Hā'lah and in Hā'bŏr by the river of Go'zan, and in the cities of the and gave it to the king of Assyria. 17 (T And the king of Assyria sent Tär! tan and Rab'sa-ris and Rab'-sha-keh from La'chish to king Hez'e-ki'ah with a great host against Jerusalem: and they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them E-li'a-kim the son of Hil-ki'ah, which was over the household, and Sheb'na the scribe, and To'ah the son of A'saph the recorder.

19 And Răb'-shà-keh said unto them. Speak ye now to Hez'e-ki'ah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words.) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust. that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Phas raoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hez'ekī ah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assvria. and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me. Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said E-li'a-kim the son of Hil-kī'ah, and Sheb'na, and Jo'ah, unto Răb'-sha-kĕh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in him the words of Rab'-sha-keh.

16 At that time did Hez'e-ki'ah cut off the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Răb'-shà-kĕh said unto them. Hath my master sent me to thy master. and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with vou?

28 Then Răb'-sha-kĕh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Tews' language. and spake, saving. Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hez'ekī'ah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hěz'ē-kī'ah make vou trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hez'e-ki'ah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ve every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hez'e-ki'ah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. 33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Ha'math, and of Ar'pad? where are the gods of Seph'ar-va'im, He'na, and I'vah? have they delivered Sa-ma'rī-à out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him

Then came E-li'a-kim the son of Hil-ki'ah, which was over the household, and Sheb'na the scribe, and Jo'ah the son of A'saph the recorder, to Hez'ekī'āh with their clothes rent, and told

CHAPTER 10

AND it came to pass, when king A Hez'e-ki'ah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent E-li'a-kim, which was over the household, and Sheb'na the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to I-sa'iah the prophet the son of A'moz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hěz'ē-kī'ah. This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab'-sha-keh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thu prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Hez'e-kī'ah came to I-sa'jah.

6 And I-sa'iah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumor, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Răb'-shà-kĕh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Lib'nah; for he had heard that he was departed from La'chish.

9 And when he heard say of Tīr-hā'kàh king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee; he sent messengers again unto Hez'e-ki'ah, saving, 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hez'e-kî'ah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroved; as Go'zăn, and Hâ'răn, and Rē'zeph, and the children of E'den which were in The-la'sar?

13 Where is the king of Hā'māth, and the king of Ar pad, and the king of the city of Seph'ar-va'im, of He'na, and I'vah?

14 C And Hez'e-kī'ah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hez e-ki'ah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hez'e-ki'ah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Is'ra-el. which dwellest between the cherubin. thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, bow down thine ear, and hear: open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sen-nach'er-ib. which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands.

18 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD our God. I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God.

20 ¶ Then I-şā'jāh the son of Ā'mŏz sent to Hěz'ē-kī'áh, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sen-nach'er-ib king of Assyria I have heard.

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee. and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at

thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thu voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Is'ra-ĕl.

23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar trees thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his Car'mel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.

I have formed it? now have I brought it reigned in his stead. to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

34 For I will defend this city, to save it.

for mine own sake, and for my servant

David's sake.

35 I And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Sĕn-năch'ēr-ĭb king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nin'e-veh.

37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nis'roch his god, that A-dram'me-leeh and Sha-rezer his sons smote him with the sword: 25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I and they escaped into the land of have done it, and of ancient times that Armenia. And E'sar-had'don his son

CHAPTER 20

N those days was Hez'e-ki'ah sick L unto death. And the prophet I-sa' iah the son of A'moz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die. and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall.

and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hez'e-ki'ah wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore I-şā'jāh was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him,

saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hez'e-kī'ah the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And I-sā'iah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 ¶ And Hĕz'ē-kī'āh said unto Ī-ṣāiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And I-şā'jāh said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hěz'ē-kī'ah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And I-să'iâh the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

12 Q At that time Be-rô'dach-bal'a-dan, the son of Bal'a-dan, king of Baby- tions of the heathen, whom the LORD lon, sent letters and a present unto Hez'e-ki'ah: for he had heard that Hěz'ê-kī'àh had been sick.

13 And Hez'e-kī'ah hearkened unto them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious. ointment, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hez'e-ki'ah showed them not.

14 Then came Î-şā'jāh the prophet unto king Hez'e-ki'ah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hěz'ē-kī'ah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. 15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hez'e-kī'ah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them.

16 And I-sā'iàh said unto Hez'e-kī'ah,

Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried unto Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hez'e-kī'ah unto I-şā'iah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?

20 4 And the rest of the acts of Hez'eki'ah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hez'e-kī'ah slept with his fathers: and Ma-nas'seh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 21

MA-NAS'SEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Heph'zihah.

3 For he built up again the high places which Hez'e-kī'ah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Bā'āl, and made a grove, as did Ahah king of Is'ra-el; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said. In Jerusalem will I put my name.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. 7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Is'ra-el, will I put my name for eyer:

8 Neither will I make the feet of Is'rā-ĕl move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manăs'sĕh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Is'ra-ël. 10 M And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because Ma-năs'sĕh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Am'orites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Sa-ma'ri-a, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover Ma-nas'seh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manas'seh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Ma-nas'seh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uz'za: and A'mon his son reigned in his stead.

19 ¶ A'mon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Mē-shul'lēměth, the daughter of Hā'rŭz Jŏt'bah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father

Ma-nas'sĕh did.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 I And the servants of A'mon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king A'mon: and the people of the land made Tō-sī'ah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of A'mon which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Tudah?

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 ¶ And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Jo-si'ah, that the king sent Shā'phan the son of Az'ali'ah, the son of Mē-shul'lam, the scribe. to the house of the LORD, saving,

4 Go up to Hil-ki'ah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work, which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house.

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 Howbeit, there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 Q And Hil-ki'ah the high priest said unto Shā'phan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hil-ki'ah gave the book to Shā'phan, and he read it.

9 And Sha'phan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again. and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.

10 And Sha'phan the scribe showed the king, saying, Hil-ki'ah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hil-ki'ah the priest, and A-hi'kam the son of Sha' phan, and Ach'bor the son of Michā'iah, and Shā'phan the scribe, and As'a-hī'ah a servant of the king's, saying, 13 Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me. O-SIAH was eight years old when he and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that and one years in Jerusalem. And his is found: for great is the wrath of the our fathers have not hearkened unto the LORD. words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

14 So Hil-ki'ah the priest, and A-hi'kăm, and Ach'bor, and Sha'phan, and As'a-hi'ah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shal'lum the son of Tik'väh, the son of Här'häs, keeper of the wardrobe: (now she dwelt in Terusalem in the college:) and they communed with her.

15 I And she said unto them. Thus saith the LORD God of Is'ra-el, Tell the man that sent you to me.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

17 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Judah which sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Is'ra-el, As touching the words which thou hast heard:

19 Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eves shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

CHAPTER 23

AND the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Terusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant Mo'lech.

3 @ And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hil-ki'ah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Bā'āl, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Yerusalem in the fields of Kid'ron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Ba'al, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kid'ron, and burned it at the brook Kid'ron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Gë'ba to Bë'er-shë'ba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled To'pheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hin'nom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Insigh keepeth the passover. His death the kings of Judah had given to the sun. at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Na'thanme'lech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Ma-nas'seh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kid'ron.

13 And the high places that were before Terusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Is'ra-el had builded for Ash'tō-rĕth the abomination of the Zido'ni-ans, and for Che'mosh the abomination of the Mo'ab-ites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jer'ō-bō'am the son of Ne'bat, who made Iş'rā-el to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.

16 And as Jō-sī'ah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said. What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him. It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Tudah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his prophet that came out of Sa-ma'ri-a.

20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Is'ra-el, nor in all the days of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Jo-si'ah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Jō-sī'ah put away, that he might per-form the words of the law, which were written in the book that Hil-ki'ah the priest found in the house of the LORD. 25 And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses: neither after him arose there any like him. 26 M Notwithstanding, the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Ma-nas'seh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Iş'rā-ĕl, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen. and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Jo-sī'ah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 ¶ In his days Phā'raōh-nē'chōh king of Egypt went up against the king bones alone, with the bones of the of Assyria to the river Eu-phra'tes; and king Jö-sī'ah went against him; and he 19 And all the houses also of the high slew him at Mē-gid'do, when he had seen him.

30 And his servants carried him in a him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Je-ho'a-haz the son of To-sī'ah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31 ¶ Jē-hō'à-hăz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ha-mū'tāl, the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib'nah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Phā'raōh-nē'chōh put him in bands at Rib'lah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of a hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34 And Phā'raōh-nē'chōh made Ē-lī'akim the son of Jo-si'ah king in the room of Jö-sī'ah his father, and turned his name to Jē-hôi'a-kim, and took Jēho'a-haz away: and he came to Egypt, and died there.

35 And Jē-hoi'a-kim gave the silver and the gold to Phā'raōh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Phā'raōh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Phä'raöh-në'chöh.

36 ¶ Jē-hôi'a-kim was twenty and Babylon came against the city, and his five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zē-bū'dah, the daughter of Pē-dā'iah of Ru'mah.

37 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

IN his days Něb'ü-chăd-něz'zàr king . of Babylon came up, and Jē-hoi'akim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chal'dees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Mo'ab-ites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD. which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the them out of his sight, for the sins of Ma-nas'seh, according to all that he did:

4 And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jēhôi'a-kim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jē-hoi'a-kim slept with his fathers: and Je-hoi'a-chin his son reigned

in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Eū-phrā'tēs all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 🖫 Jē-hoi'a-chĭn was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Ne-hush'ta. the daughter of El-na'than of Terusalem. 9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10 I At that time the servants of Něb'ū-chăd-něz'zar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nĕb'ū-εhăd-nĕz'zār king of servants did besiege it.

12 And Je-hoi'a-chin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Iş'rā-ĕl had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.

14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Je-hôr'a-chin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into LORD came this upon Judah, to remove captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Zedekiah carried to Babylon. The house of the Lord despoiled 2 KINGS 24, 25

seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 C And the king of Babylon made Mat'ta-ni'ah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zěď ē-kī′áh.

18 Zěď e-kí ah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ha-mu'tal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib'nah.

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Je-hor'a-kim had done.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah. until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zĕd'ē-kī'ah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER 25

AND it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Neb'uchăd-nez'zar king of Babylon came, he. and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zed'e-ki'ah.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the guard took away. the land.

4 ¶ And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls. which is by the king's garden: (now the Chal'dees were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward the plain.

5 And the army of the Chal'dees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jer'i-cho: and all his army were scattered from him. 6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Rib'lah; and they gave judgment upon him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zed'eki'ah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zed'e-ki'ah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 4 And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the which mustered the people of the land,

16 And all the men of might, even nineteenth year of king Něb'ū-chăd-leven thousand, and craftsmen and něz'zar king of Babylon, came Něb' miths a thousand, all that were strong ü-zar-a'dan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Terusalem:

9 And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chal'dees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Něb'ū-zär-ā'dăn the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases. and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chal'dees breakein pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of 16 The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapiter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapiter three cubits; and the wreathed work, and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathed work.

18 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Sē-rā'jah the chief priest, and Zeph'ani'ah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

19 And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, 1 and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Něb'ū-zär-ā'dăn captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Rib'lah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Rib'lah in the land of Ha'math. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Něb'ű-chăd-něz'zár king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Ged'ali'ah the son of A-hi'kam, the son of Shā'phăn, ruler.

23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Ged'ali'ah governor, there came to Gĕd'a-li'ah to Mīz'pāh, even Ish'mā-ĕl the son of Něth'a-nī'ah, and Jō-hā'năn the son of Ca-re'ah, and Se-ra'iah the son of Tăn-hū'měth the Ne-toph'a-thite, and Jā-az'a-nī'ah the son of a Mā-ach'athite, they and their men.

24 And Ged'a-li'ah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chal'dees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of rate for every day, all the days of his Babylon; and it shall be well with you. life.

25 But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ish'mā-el the son of Neth'a. nī'ah, the son of E-lish'a-ma, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him and smote Ged'a-li'ah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chal'dees that were with him at Miz'pah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies. arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chal'dees.

27 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Je-hôr'a-chin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that E'vil-me. ro'dach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Je-hol'a-chin king of Judah out of prison;

28 And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon:

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily to him of the daughter of Shu'à the Cā'nāan-īt'ēss. And Ēr, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD; and he slew him.

4 And Ta'mar his daughter-in-law bare him Phā'rēz and Zē'rāh. All the sons of Cā'lēb-ĕph'rā-tāh, then A-bī'āh Hēz! Judah were five.

5 The sons of Pha'rez: Hez'ron, and Hā'mŭl.

6 And the sons of Ze'rah; Zim'rī, and E'than, and He'man, and Cal'col, and Da'ra: five of them in all.

7 And the sons of Car'mi; A'char, the troubler of Is'rā-ĕl, who transgressed in the thing accursed.

8 And the sons of E'than; Az'a-rī'ah. 9 The sons also of Hez'ron, that were born unto him: Tē-rāh'mē-ĕl, and Răm. and Chē-lu'baī.

10 And Ram begat Am-min'a-dab: and Am-min'a-dab begat Nah'shon, prince of the children of Judah:

Săl'mà begat Boaz,

12 And Boaz begat O'bed, and O'bed begat Jesse. 13 ¶ And Jesse begat his firstborn E-li'ab, and A-bin'a-dab the second, and Shim'ma the third, the fifth.

15 O'zem the sixth, David the seventh: 16 Whose sisters were Zer'u-ī'āh, and Ab'ī-gāil. And the sons of Zer'u-ī'āh; A-bish'ā-ī, and Jō'āb, and As'à-hĕl. three.

17 And Ab'i-gail bare Am'a-sa: and the father of Am'a-sa was Te'ther the Ĭsh'mā-ĕl-īte.

18 ¶ And Caleb the son of Hez'ron begat children of A-zū'bah his wife, and of Jer'i-oth: her sons are these; Je'sher, and Sho'bab, and Ar'don.

19 And when A-zū'bah was dead, Caleb took unto him Eph'rath, which bare him Hûr.

20 And Hûr begat Ü'rī, and Ü'rī begat Eph'lal begat Ö'bĕd.

Bē-zăl'ē-ĕl.

21 ¶ And afterward Hez'ron went in to the daughter of Ma'chir the father of Gil'ē-ad, whom he married when he was threescore years old; and she bare him Sē'gub.

22 And Sē'gub begat Jā'īr, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gil'ē-ăd.

23 And he took Gē'shur, and Ā'rām. with the towns of Ja'ir, from them, with Ke'nath, and the towns thereof, even threescore cities. All these belonged to the sons of Mā'chir the father of Gil'ē-ăd.

24 And after that Hez'ron was dead in She'ma.

ron's wife bare him Ash'ur the father of Tē-kō'a.

25 @ And the sons of Je-rah'me-el the firstborn of Hez'ron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bu'nah, and O'ren, and O'zěm, and A-hī'jah.

26 Jē-räh'mē-ĕl had also another wife. whose name was At'a-rah; she was the

CHAPTER 4

THE sons of Judah; Phā'rēz, Hēz'rŏn, and Cār'mi, and Hūr, and Shō'bāl. 2 And Rē-ā'jāh the son of Shō'bāl begat Jā'hāth; and Jā'hāth begat Ā-hū'mai, and Lā'hād. These are the families of the Zō'rāth-ites.

3 And these were of the father of E'tăm; Jez'rē-el, and Ish'ma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was Hăz'ĕ-lĕl-pō'nī:

4 And Pē-nū'ël the father of Gē'dör, and Ē'zēr the father of Hū'shāh. These are the sons of Hūr, the firstborn of Eph'rā-tāh, the father of Beth-lehem.

5 ¶ And Åsh'ŭr the father of Tē-kō'ā had two wives, Hē'läh and Nā'ā-rāh.

6 And Nā'a-rah bare him A-hū'zām, and Hā'phēr, and Tēm'ē-nī, and Hā'ahāsh'tā-rī. These were the sons of Nā'a-rah.

7 And the sons of He'lah were, Ze-rèth, and Jē-zō'ar, and Eth'năn. 8 And Coz begat A'nŭb, and Zō-bē'bah, and the families of A-här'hĕl the son of Hā'rŭm.

9 ¶ And Jā'bĕz was more honorable than his brethren; and his mother called his name Jā'bĕz, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow.

10 And Jā'bēz called on the God of İş'rā-ēl, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested.

11 ¶ And Che'lub the brother of son. Shu'ah begat Me'hir, which was the 27 father of Esh'ton.

12 And Ésh'tön begat Běth'-rā'phå, and På-sē'ah, and Tē-hin'nah the father of Îr'-nā'hāšh. These are the men of Rē'chāh.

13 And the sons of Kē'năz; Ŏth'nĭ-ĕi, and Sē-rā'iàh; and the sons of Oth'nĭ-ĕi; Hā'thăth.

14 And Mē-ŏn'ō-thai begat Öph'rah: and Sē-tā'jāh begat Jō'āb, the father of the valley of Chār'ā-shim; for they were craftsmen.

15 And the sons of Caleb the son of Jē-phun'nēb; Yru, E'lāh, and Nā-ām; and the sons of E'lāh, even Kē'nāz.
16 And the sons of Jē'hā-lē'lē-ēl; Zīph, and Zi'phah, Tir'i-a, and A-sa're-el.

The sons of Judah and Simeon. Jabez

17 And the sons of Ezra were, Jē'thēr, and Mē'rēd, and Ē'phēr, and Jā'lōn: and she bare Miriam, and Shām'mā-ī, and Ish'bāh the father of Ēsh'tē-mō'ā.

18 And his wife Jē-hū-di'jāh bare Jē' rēd the father of Gē'dör, and Hē'bēr the father of Sō'ehō, and Jē-kū'thī-ĕi the father of Zā-nō'āh. And these are the sons of Bi-thi'āh the daughter of Phā' raōh, which Mē'rēd took.

19 And the sons of his wife Hō-dī'āh the sister of Nā'hām, the father of Kē-i-lāh the Gār'mīte, and Esh'tē-mō'ā the Mā-ăch'à-thite.

20 And the sons of Shi'mon were, Amnon, and Rin'nah, Ben'-ha'nan, and Ti'lon. And the sons of Ish'i were, Zō' hěth, and Běn'-zô'hěth.

21 ¶ The sons of Shē'lāh the son of Judah were, Ēr the father of Lē'cāh, and Lā'a-dāh the father of Mā-rē'shāh, and the families of the house of them that wrought fine linen, of the house of Ash'bē-ā, 22 And Jō'kim, and the men of Chō-

22 And Jö'kim, and the men of Chöze'bà, and Jö'ash, and Sā'raph, who had the dominion in Mō'āb, and Jā-shu'bi-lē'hēm. And these are ancient things, 23 These were the potters, and those that dwelt among plants and hedges: there they dwelt with the king for his work.

24 ¶ The sons of Simeon were, Něm'ū-ĕl, and Jā'mĭn, Jā'rĭb, Zē'rāh, and Shā'ŭl:

25 Shăl'lum his son, Mib'săm his son,

Mish'mà his son.

26 And the sons of Mish'ma; Ha-mū'ël his son, Zăc'chŭr his son, Shīm'ē-ī his son.

27 And Shim'ē-ī had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brethren had not many children, neither did all their family multiply, like to the children of Judah.

28 And they dwelt at Bē'ēr-shē'bà, and Möl'à-dàh, and Hā'zār-shu'āl, 29 And at Bil'hâh, and at E'zem, and at Tô'lăd.

30 And at Bē-thū'ěl, and at Hôr'mah, and at Zik'lag,

31 And at Beth'-mär'ca-both, and Hazär-sū'sim, and at Beth'-bir'e-i, and at Shā'à-rā'im. These were their cities unto the reign of David.

32 And their villages were, E'tăm, and A'în, Rĭm'mŏn, and Tō'chĕn, and

2 ($1000 Test

A'shan, five cities:

33 And all their villages that were round about the same cities, unto Ba'al his son, Bā'āl. These were their habitations, and their genealogy.

34 And Mê-shô'băb, and Jăm'lech, and Jō'shâh the son of Am'a-zi'āh,

35 And Joel, and Je'hu the son of Tos i-bi'ah, the son of Sē-rā'iah, the son of A'sī-ĕl, 36 And Ē-lī'ō-ē'nā-ī and Jā'à-kō'báh, and Jesh'o-ha'iah, and A-sa'iah, and A'di-el, and Je-sim'i-el, and Be-na'iah, 37 And Zi'za the son of Shi'phi, the son of Al'lon, the son of Je-da'iah, the son of Shim'ri, the son of She-ma'iah: 38 These mentioned by their names mere princes in their families: and the house of their fathers increased greatly. 39 C And they went to the entrance the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet. and peaceable; for they of Ham had dwelt there of old.

41 And these written by name came in the days of Hez'e-ki'ah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their rooms: because there was nasture there for their flocks.

42 And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Se'ir, having for their captains Pěl'á-tī'àh, and Nē'à-rī'àh, and Rēphā'iāh, and Ūz-zī'ēl, the sons of Ish'ī. 43 And they smote the rest of the Am'a-lek-ites that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

CHAPTER 5

NOW the sons of Reuben the first-born of Iş'rā-ĕl, (for he was the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled alogies in the days of Jo'tham king of his father's bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Īş'rā-ĕl: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright.

brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birthright was Joseph's:) 3 The sons, I say, of Reuben the firstborn of Is'ra-el were, Ha'noch, and threescore, that went out to the war.

Păl'lū, Hěz'ron, and Car'mi.

4 The sons of Joel; Shē-mā'jah his son, Gog his son, Shim'e-i his son,

5 Mi'cah his son, Rē-ā'ia his son,

6 Bē-ē'rah his son, whom Til'gathpil-në'sër king of Assvria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Je-i'el, and Zĕch'à-rī'àh,

8 And Be'la the son of A'zaz, the son of She'ma, the son of Joel, who dwelt in A-ro'er, even unto Ne'bo and Ba'al-me'on:

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Eū-phrā'tēş: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gil'e-ad.

10 And in the days of Saul they made of Ge dor, even unto the east side of war with the Hagar-ites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gĭl'ē-ăd.

11 I And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bas shăn unto Săl'câh:

12 Joel the chief, and Shā'pham the next, and Jā'a-naī, and Shā'phāt in Bā'shăn.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Mī'chā-ĕl, and Mēshul'lam, and She'ba, and Jo'ra-i, and Ja'chan, and Zi'a, and He'ber, seven.

14 These are the children of Ab'i-hail the son of Hū'rī, the son of Ja-rō'ah, the son of Gil'e-ad, the son of Mi'cha-el. the son of Jē-shish'ā-ī, the son of Jāh'dō, the son of Buz;

15 A'hi the son of Ab'di-ĕl, the son of Gū'nī, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gil'e-ad in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Shar'on, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by gene-Judah, and in the days of Jer'o-bo'am king of Iş'ra-el.

18 I The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Ma-nas-2 For Judah prevailed above his seh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and > 19 And they made war with the Hagar-ītes, with Jē'tŭr, and Nē'phīsb, and Nō'dāb.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Ha'gar-ites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them; because they put their trust in him.

21 And they took away their cattle: of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their steads until the captivity.

23 And the children of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bā'shan unto Bā'alhēr'mon and Sē'nīr, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even E'phêr, and Ish'i, and E'li-ĕl, and Az'ri-ĕl, and Jeremiah, and Hô'da-vī'ah, and Jähdi-ĕl, mighty men of valor, famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 ¶ And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Iş'rā-ĕl stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Til'gath-pil-ne'ser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh, and brought them unto Hā'lah, and Hā'bor, and Hā'ra, and to the river Go'zan, unto this day.

CHAPTER 6

THE sons of Levi; Gēr'shŏn, Kō'hăth, and Mē-rā'rī.

2 And the sons of Kô'hặth; Ăm'răm, Iz'här, and Hē'bron, and Uz-zī'él.

3 And the children of Am'ram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The sons also of Aaron; Nā'dāb and A-bī'hū, El'ē-ā'zar and Ith'a-mār.

8 And A-hi'tub begat Zā'dok, and Zat dok begat A-him'a-az,

9 And A-him'ā-az begat Az'a-rī'ah, and Az'a-rī'ah begat Jō-hā'nan, 10 And Jo-ha'nan begat Az'a-rī'ah; (he it is that executed the priest's office in the temple that Solomon built in Terusalem:) 11 And Az'a-rī'ah begat Am'a-rī'ah, and Am'a-ri'ah begat A-hi'tub.

12 And A-hi'tub begat Zā'dok, and Zā!

dŏk begat Shăl'lüm,

13 And Shāl'lum begat Hil-kī'ah, and Hil-kī'ah begat Az'a-rī'ah, 14 And Az'a-rī'ah begat Sē-rā'iah, and Sē-rā'iáh begat Tē-hŏz'á-dăk.

15 And Je-hoz'a-dak went into cabtivity, when the LORD carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Něb'ū-chăd-něz'zár.

16 ¶ The sons of Levi; Ger'shom, Ko: hăth, and Mē-rā'rī.

17 And these be the names of the sons of Gēr'shom; Lib'ni, and Shim'ē-i. 18 And the sons of Kō'hath were, Am! răm, and Iz'här, and Hē'bron, and Uz-zī'ĕl.

19 The sons of Me-ra'ri; Mäh'li, and Mū'shī. And these are the families of the Le'vites according to their fathers.

20 Of Ger'shom; Lib'nī his son, Ja'hath his son, Zim'mah his son, 21 Jô'ah his son, Ĭd'dō his son, Zē'rāh his son, Jē-ăt'ē-raī his son.

22 The sons of Ko'hath; Am-min'a-dab his son, Kö'rah his son, As'sīr his son, 23 El-kā'nah his son, and E-bī'a-saph his son, and As'sir his son, 24 Tā'hāth his son, Ū'rī-ĕl his son, Ŭz-zī'áh his son, and Shā'ŭl his son.

25 And the sons of El-kā'nāh; A-măs' ā-ī, and A-hī'mŏth.

26 As for El-kā'nāh: the sons of El-kā' nah: Zō'phaī his son, and Na'hath his son, 27 E-lī'āb his son, Jē-rō'hām his son,

El-kä'nàh his son. 28 And the sons of Samuel; the first-born Văsh'nī, and A-bī'ah.

29 The sons of Me-ra'rī; Mäh'lī, Līb'nī 4 C El'ē-a'zar begat Phin'ē-has, Phin' his son, Shim'ē-ī his son, Uz'za his son, 30 Shim'ē-à his son, Hag-gi'ah his son,

A-măs'ā-ī,

36 The son of El-ka'nah, the son of Toel, the son of Az'a-ri'ah, the son of Zěph'a-ni'ah, 37 The son of Ta'hath, the son of As' sir, the son of E-bi'a-saph, the son of with their suburbs, Kō'rah.

38 The son of Iz'har, the son of Ko' hath, the son of Levi, the son of Iş'rā-ĕl. 39 And his brother, A'saph, who stood on his right hand, even A'saph the son of Ber'a-chi'ah, the son of Shim'e-a, 40 The son of Mī'chā-ĕl, the son of Bā'à-sē'iah, the son of Mal-chī'ah.

41 The son of Eth'ni, the son of Ze'rah, the son of A-da'jah, 42 The son of E'than, the son of Zim-mah, the son of Shim'e-i,

43 The son of Ja'hath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

44 And their brethren the sons of Merā'rī stood on the left hand: E'than the son of Kish'i, the son of Ab'di, the son of Măl'lŭch.

Ām'ā-zī'āh, the son of Hil-ki'āh, 46 The son of Ām'zī, the son of Bā'nī, the son of Shā'mēr. 47 The son of Mah'li, the son of Mushī, the son of Mē-rā'rī, the son of Levi. 48 Their brethren also the Le'vites were appointed unto all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

49 C But Aaron and his sons offered upon the altar of the burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the place most holy, and to make an atonement for Isrā-el, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50 And these are the sons of Aaron: Ěl'ē-ā'zar his son, Phin'ē-has his son.

A-bīsh'ū-a his son.

51 Buk'kī his son, Ŭz'zī his son, Zĕr'ā-

52 Mē-rā'iŏth his son, Am'a-rī'ah his son, A-hi'tub his son.

53 Zā'dok his son. A-hīm'ā-āz his son. 54 I Now these are their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Ko'hath-ites: for theirs was the lot.

55 And they gave them He'bron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it.

56 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Je-phun'neh.

57 And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely, He'bron, the city of refuge, and Lib'nah with her suburbs, and Jat'tīr, and Esh'tē-mô'a, 58 And Hi'len with her suburbs. Debir with her suburbs,

O ail Is'rā-ĕl were reckoned by gene. alogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Is'ra-El and Tudah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

2 Now the first inhabitants that dwell in their possessions in their cities were, the Is'ra-el-ites, the priests, Le!

vites, and the Neth'i-nim.

3 And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of E'phraim, and Ma-năs'sĕh:

4 U'thai the son of Am-mi'hud, the son of Om'ri, the son of Im'ri, the son of Bā'nī, of the children of Phā'rēz the son of Judah.

5 And of the Shī'lo-nītes: A-sā'iah the firstborn, and his sons.

6 And of the sons of Zē'rah; Jē-ū'ĕl. and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Săl'lū (the son of Me-shul'lam, the son of Ho-the son of Mē-shul'lam, the son of Za' dok, the son of Me-ra'ioth, the son of A-hi'tub, the ruler of the house of God:

12 And A-da'iah the son of Je-ro'ham. the son of Pash'ur, the son of Mal-chijah, and Mā-as'i-ai the son of A'di-el, the son of Jäh'zē-rah, the son of Mēshul'lam, the son of Me-shil'le-mith. the son of Im'mer:

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God

14 And of the Le'vites; She-ma'iah the son of Has'shub, the son of Az'ri-kam, the son of Hash'a-bi'ah, of the sons of Mē-rā'rī:

15 And Bak-bak'kar, He'resh, and Gatal, and Mat'ta-ni'ah the son of Mi'cah. the son of Zich'ri, the son of A'saph;

16 And O'ba-dī'ah the son of Shē-mā' igh, the son of Ga'lal, the son of Je-duthun, and Ber'e-chi'ah the son of A'sa, the son of El-kā'nah, that dwelt in the villages of the Ne-toph'a-thites.

17 And the porters were, Shal'lum. and Ak'kub, and Tal'mon, and A-hi'man. and their brethren: Shal'lum was the chief:

18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shal'lum the son of Ko're, the son of E-bi'a-saph, the son of Ko'rah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Kô'rah-ites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phin'e-has the son of El'e-a' zar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.

21 And Zech'a-rī'ah the son of Meshël'ë-mi'ah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. 25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Le'vites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

27 If And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mat'ti-thi'ah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shal'lum the Ko'rah-ite, had the set office over the things that were made in the pans. 32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Ko'hath-ites, were over the showbread, to prepare it every sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Le'vites, who remaining in the chambers were free: for they were employed in that work day and night.

34 These chief fathers of the Le'vites were chief throughout their generations: these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 C And in Gib'e-on dwelt the father of Gib'ē-on, Jē-hī'ĕl, whose wife's name was Mā'a-chàh:

36 And his firstborn son Ab'don, then Zûr, and Kish, and Bā'āl, and Něr, and Nā'dāb.

37 And Gē'dor, and A-hī'o, and Zech'arī'āh, and Mīk'löth.

38 And Mik'loth begat Shim'e-am. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren. 39 And Něr begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Măl'chi-shu'a, and A-bin'a-dăb, and Esh'-bā'ăl.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Mer-ib-bā'āl: and Mer'ib-bā'āl begat Mī'cah. 41 And the sons of Mi'cah were, Pi'thon, and Me'lech, and Tah're-a, and

Ahaz. 42 And Ahaz begat Jā'rāh; and Jā'rāh Zim'rī; and Zim'rī begat Mō'zā;

43 And Mō'za begat Bin'ē-a; and Rēphā'iah his son, El'ē-ā'sah his son, A'zĕl his son.

44 And A'zĕl had six sons, whose names are these, Az'rī-kam, Bo'chē-ru, and Ish'mā-ĕl, and Shē'a-ri'āh, and Ö'bà-dī'āh, and Hā'nān. These were the sons of A'zĕl.

CHAPTER 10

NOW the Phi-lis'tines fought against Is'rā-ĕl; and the men of Is'rā-ĕl fled from before the Phi-lis'tines, and fell down slain in mount Gil-bo'à.

2 And the Phi-lis'tines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Phi-lis'tines slew Jonathan, and A-bin'adăb, and Măl'chi-shu'à, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armor-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armorbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Is'rā-ĕl that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Phi-lis'tines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Phi-lis'tines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gil-bō'à.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Phi-lis tines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armor in the house for the LORD of hosts was with him. of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Da'gon.

14 And inquired not of the LORD: there. fore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER 11

HEN all Iş'rā-ĕl gathered themselves to David unto Hē'bron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Is'ra-el: and the LORD thy God said unto thee. Thou shalt feed my people Is'ra-el, and thou shalt be ruler over my people

Îş'rā-ĕl.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Is: rā-ĕl to the king to Hē'bron; and David made a covenant with them in He'bron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over [5'7ā-ēl, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all [5'7ā-ēl went to Jerusalem, which is]ē'būs; where the Jeb'u-sites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Je'bus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither, Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jeb'ū-sites first shall be chief and captain. So Jo'ab the son of Zer'u-i'ah went first up, and was chief. 7 And David dwelt in the castle: therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city round about even from Mil'lo round about: and Jo'ab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater:

10 I These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Iş'rā-ĕl, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Iş'rā-ĕl.

11 And this is the number of the mighty bodies of his sons, and brought them to men whom David had; Jà-shō'bē-am, a Hach'mo-nite, the chief of the captains: him with a staff, and plucked the spear he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was El'e-a'zar the son of Do'do, the A-ho'hite, who was one of the three mighties.

13 He was with David at Pas'-dam' mim, and there the Phi-lis'tines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Phi-lis'tines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Phi-lis tines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

15 ¶ Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of A-dul'lam; and the host of the Phi-lis'tines encamped in the valley of Rěph'ā-im.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Phi-lis'tines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Phi-lis'tines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD.

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it: therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

20 ¶ And A-bish'ā-ī the brother of Jō'āb, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honorable than the two; for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.

22 Bē-nā'iàh the son of Jē-hôi'à-dà, the Josh'à-phặt the Mith'nite, son of a valiant man of Kāb'zē-ĕl, who 44 Üz-zī'à the Ash'tē-rāth-īte, Shā'mà son of a valiant man of Kăb'zē-ĕl, who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Mō'āb: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a and Josh'a-vi'ah the sons of El-nā'am, weaver's beam; and he went down to and Ith'mah the Mo'ab-ite.

out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Be-na'iah the son of Jē-hôi'à-dà, and had a name among the three mighties.

25 Behold, he was honorable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, As'a-hel the brother of Jo'ab, Elhã'năn the son of Dô'dō of Beth-lehem.

27 Shăm'mŏth the Hā'rō-rīte, Hē'lĕz the Pel'o-nite.

28 I'ra the son of Ik'kesh the Te-koite, A'bi-ë'zër the An'toth-ite.

29 Sĩb'bē-caī the Hū'shath-ītə, Î'lā-ī the A-ho'hite, 30 Ma-har'a-i the Ne-toph'a-thite, He-

NOW these are they that came to David to Zik'lag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was A'hī-ē'zēr, then Jō'āsh. the sons of Shē-mā'ah the Gib'ē-athite; and Jē'zi-ĕl, and Pē'lĕt, the sons of Az-mā'věth; and Běr'a-cháh, and Jē'hū the An'toth-ite,

4 And Is-mā'iah the Gib'ē-on-īte, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Ja-hā'zī-ĕl, and Jo-ha'nan, and Jos'a-bad the Ge-

7 And Jō'ē-lah, and Zĕb'a-dī'ah, the sons of Je-ro'ham of Ge'dor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains; 9 E'zer the first, O'bà-dī'ah the second.

E-li'ab the third. 10 Mish-măn'nah the fourth, Jeremiah

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a

18 Then the spirit came upon A-masā-ī, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Ma-nas'seh to David, when he came with the Philis'tines against Saul to battle; but they helped them not: for the lords of the Phi-lis'tines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master

Saul to the jeopardy of our heads. 20 As he went to Zik'lag, there fell to him of Ma-nas'seh, Ad'nah, and Joz'abăd, and Jē-dī'ā-ĕl, and Mī'ehā-ĕl, and Joz'a-bad, and E-li'hū, and Zil'thai. captains of the thousands that were of Mā-năs'sĕh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God. 23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to He'bron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war. 25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Je-hôi'à-dà was the leader of the Aar'on-ites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

30 And of the children of E'phra-im twenty thousand and eight hundred. mighty men of valor, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Is'sa-char. which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Iş'rā-ĕl ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zĕb'ū-lŭn, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank: they were not of double heart. 34 And of Naph'ta-li a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. 35 And of the Dăn'îtes expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Ash'er, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand. 37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Is' rā-ĕl: and all the rest also of Iş'rā-ĕl were of one heart to make David king. 39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were nigh them. even unto Is'sa-char and Zeb'ū-lun and Năph'tà-li, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Is'ra-el.

AND David consulted with the cap- of O'běd-ē'dom, and all that he had. A tains of thousands and hundreds. and with every leader.

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Is'ra-el together, from Shi'hôr of Egypt even unto the entering of He'math, to bring the ark of God from Kîr'jath-je'a-rim.

6 And David went up, and all Is'ra-ĕl, to Bā'a-lah, that is, to Kīr'jāth-jē'a-rīm, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubim, whose name is called on it.

7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of A-bin'a-dab: and Uz'za and A-hi'o drave the cart.

8 And David and all Iş'rā-ĕl played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 I And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chi'don, Uz'za put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uz'za, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uz'zà: wherefore that place is called Pē'rĕz-ŭz'zā to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of O'bedē'dom the Git'tite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of O'běd-ē'dom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house

8 ¶ And when the Phi-lis'tines heard that David was anointed king over all Iş'rā-ĕl, all the Phi-lis'tineş went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Phi-lis'tines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rěph'ā-ĭm.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Phi-lis'tines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Bā'āl-pē-rā'zim: and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Ba'aipē-rā'zim,

12 And when they had left their gods

13 And the Phi-lis' tines yet again spread a-dab, themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Phi-lis'tines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Phi-lis'tines from Gib'e-on even to Gā'zēr.

17 And the fame of David went out into

CHAPTER 15

AND David made him houses in the A city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Le'vites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Is'ra-el together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Le'vites:

5 Of the sons of Ko'hath; U'rī-el the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Me-ra'ri; A-sa'iah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty: 7 Of the sons of Ger'shom; Joel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of El'i-za'phan; She-maiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of He'bron; E'lī-ĕl the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of Uz-zī'ĕl; Am-mĭn'àdab the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zā'dŏk and A-bi'à-thar the priests, and for the Lethere, David gave a commandment, and vites, for U'ri-el, A-sa'iah, and Joel, they were burned with fire. She-ma'iah, and E'li-el, and Am-min-

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Le'vites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl.

15 And the children of the Le'vites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses com-

16 And David spake to the chief of the Le'vites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music. psalteries and harps and cymbals. sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Le'vites appointed He'man the son of Joel; and of his brethren, A'saph the son of Ber'e-chi'ah; and of the sons of Mē-rā'rī their brethren,

E'than the son of Kū-shā'iah:

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zěch'a-rī'ah, Ben, and Jā-ā'zĭ-ĕl, and Shē-mĭr'a-mŏth, and Jēhī'ēl, and Ŭn'nī, E-lī'āb, and Bē-nā'jah. and Mā'à-sē'iah, and Măt'ti-thī'ah, and E-liph'ē-lĕh, and Mik-nē'jah, and Ö'bĕdē'dom, and Jē-ī'ěl, the porters.

19 So the singers, He'man, A'saph, and E'than, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zěch'a-rî'ah, and A'zĭ-ĕl, and Shē-mir'a-moth, and Jē-hi'el, and Un'ni, and E-li'ab, and Ma'a-se'iah, and Bē-nā'jah, with psalteries on Al'a-moth: 21 And Măt'tĭ-thī'ah, and E-lĭph'ē-lĕh and Mik-ne'iah, and O'bed-e'dom. and Tē-ī'ĕl, and Az'ā-zī'āh, with harps on the Shem'i-nith to excel.

22 And Chen'a-ni'ah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful. 23 And Ber'e-chi'ah and El-ka'nah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Sheb'a-ni'ah, and Je-hosh'aphāt, and Nē-thān'ē-ĕl, and A-mās'ā-ī, and Zĕeh'ā-rī'āh, and Bē-nā'jāh, and Ĕl'ī-ē'zēr, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Ö'běd-ë'dom and Tē-hī'ah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 T So David, and the elders of Isrā-ĕl, and the captains over thousands. went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of O'běd-ē'dom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Le'vites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Le'vites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chena-ni'ah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ĕph'ŏd of linen, manded, according to the word of the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet. and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Mi'chal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king

David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 16

SO they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Is'rā-ĕl, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Le'vites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl:

5 A'sāph the chief, and next to him Zēch'a-rī'ah, Jē-rī'ēl, and Shē-mīr'a-moth, and Jē-hī'ēl, and Māt'tī-thr'ah, and E-li'ab, and Be-na'iah, and O'bed-e'dom: and Je-i'el with psalteries and with harps; but A'saph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Be-na'iah also and Ja-ha'zi-el the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God. 7 Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of A'saph and his brethren. 8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvelous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth:

13 O ye seed of Ĭş'rā-ĕl his servant. 28 Thus all Iş'rā-ĕl brought up the ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant: the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:

16 Even of the covenant which he unto Isaac:

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Iş'rā-ĕl for an everlasting covenant.

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Ca'naan, the lot of your inheritance:

19 When ye were but few, even a few,

and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes.

22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. 23 Sing unto the LORD, all the earth:

show forth from day to day his salvation. 24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvelous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens. 27 Glory and honor are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place. 28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and to bless his house. come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for ever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us, from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of made with Abraham, and of his oath Is'ra-el for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the

LORD.

37 I So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD A'saph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work reauired:

38 And O'běd-e'dom with their brethren. threescore and eight: O'bed-e'dom also the son of Je-du'thun and Hô'sah to be porters:

39 And Zā'dŏk the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gib'e-on.

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Is'rā-ĕl;

41 And with them He'man and Tedu'thun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever;

42 And with them He'man and Tedu'thun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jē-dū'thun were porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned

CHAPTER 17

Now it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus he is good; for his mercy endureth for saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Iş'rā-ĕl unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. 6 Wheresoever I have walked with all

Is'ra-čl, spake I a word to any of the judges of Iş'rā-ĕl, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people İş'rā-ĕl:

s And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the o Also I will ordain a place for my people Is'ra-ël, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall he moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Is'rā-ĕl. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee, that the LORD will build thee a house.

11 I And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me a house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for ever-

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 Q And David the king came and sat before the LORD; and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree. O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honor of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Iş'rā-ĕi, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Is'ra-el didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying. The LORD of hosts is the God of Ĭs'rā-ĕl, even a God to Ĭs'rā-ĕl: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

27 Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

CHAPTER 18

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Phi-lis tines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philis'tines.

2 And he smote Mo'ab: and the Moab-ites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote Hăd'ár-ē'zēr king of Zō'bàh unto Hā'māth, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river

Eū-phrā'tēs.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them a hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Had'ar-e'zer king of Zō' bah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syriadamascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Had'ar-ē'zēr, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tib'håth, and from Chun, cities of Häd'ar-ê'zêr, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when Tổ'u king of Hā'mặth heard how David had smitten all the host of Hặd'ar-ē'zēr king of Zō'bah;

10 He sent Hà-dō'rām his son to king David, to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hād'ar-ē'zēr, and smitten him; (for Hād'ar-ē'zēr had war with Tō'u;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 ¶ Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from E'dom, and from Mô'āb, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Phi-lis tines, and from Am'a-lēk.

12 Moreover, A-bish'ā-ī the son of Zer'u-ī'āh slew of the E'dom-ītes in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in E'dom; and all the E'dom-ites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Iş-ra-ĕl, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Jō'āb the son of Zĕr'u-ī'āh was over the host; and Jē-hosh'ā-phāt the son of A-hī'lud, recorder;

16 And Zā'dōk the son of Ā-hi'tūb, and Ā-bim'ē-lēch the son of Ā-bi'ā-thār, were the priests; and Shāv'shā was scribe;

17 And Bē-nā'jāh the son of Jē-hôj'à-dà was over the Chèr'ē-thites and the Pēl'ē-thites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

CHAPTER 19

Now it came to pass after this, that Na'hash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will show kindness unto Hā'nun the son of Nā'hāsh, because his father showed kindness to me, And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hā'nun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hā'nun, Thinkest thou that David doth honor thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hā'nun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served; and he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jer'i-cho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hā'nun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mĕs'ō-pō-tā'mī-ā, and out of Sÿr'ī-ā-mā'ā-chāh, and out of Zō'bāh.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand, chariots, and the king of Mā'á-châh and his people; who came and pitched before Měd'ē-bà. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Jô'āb, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Jō'āb saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Iṣ'rā-ĕi, and put them in array against the weigh a talent of gold, and there were

Syrians. 11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of A-bish'a-i his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people. and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight. 14 So Jo'ab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him. 15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before A-bish'ā-ī his brother, and entered into the city. Then like a weaver's beam. Jo'ab came to Jerusalem.

16 M And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Is'rā-ĕl, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Sho'phach the captain of the host of Had'ar-e'zer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Iş'rā-ĕl, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Is'rā-ĕl: and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Sho'phach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Had'arë'zër saw that they were put to the worse before Is'ra-el, they made peace with may know it. David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 20

ND it came to pass, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Jô'ab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Răb'bah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Jô'ab smote Răb'bah, and destroyed it.

precious stones in it: and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Terusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Ge'zer with the Philis'tineş; at which time Sib'bē-chaî the Hū'shath-ite slew Sip'pai, that was of the children of the giant; and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Phi-lis'tines; and El-hā'nān the son of Jā'ir slew Läh'mī the brother of Göli'ath the Git'tite, whose spear staff was

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.

7 But when he defied Iş'rā-ĕl, Jonathan the son of Shim'e-a David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 21

AND Satan stood up against Ĭṣ'rā-ĕl, and provoked David to number

Īs'rā-ĕl.

2 And David said to Jo'ab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number İş'rā-ĕl from Be'er-she'ba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I

3 And Jo'ab answered, The LORD make his people a hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Iş'rā-ĕl?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Jo'ab. Wherefore Jo'ab departed, and went throughout all Îş'rā-ĕl, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Jō'āb gave the sum of the Rab'bah, and destroyed it. number of the people unto David. And 2 And David took the crown of their all they of Iş'rā-el were a thousand king from off his head, and found it to thousand and a hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to To'ab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Îs'rā-ĕl.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 I And the LORD spake unto Gad.

David's seer, saying

10 Go and tell David, saving, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I wheat. may do it unto thee.

unto him. Thus saith the LORD, Choose

thee

12 Either three years' famine: or three months to be destroyed before thy foes. while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Is'rā-ĕl. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad. I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD: for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Is'ra-ël: and there fell of Is'ra-ël seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ôr'năn the Jĕb'ū-site.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Ierusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

I that commanded the people to be and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house: but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Of Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ôr'năn the Tĕb'ū-sīte.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the

LORD.

20 And Or'nan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Or'nan was threshing

21 And as David came to Or'nan. Or's 11 So Gad came to David, and said nan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Or'nan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ör'năn said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes; lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings. and the threshing instruments for wood. and the wheat for the meat offering: I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ôr'năn. Nav: but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Or'nan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 T At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the 17 And David said unto God, Is it not threshingfloor of Or'nan the Jeb' ū-sīte, then he sacrificed there.

and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at 30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER 22

THEN David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Iş'ra-ël.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Is'rā-el; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;

4 Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zī-dô'nĭ-ănş and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 I Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Is'rā-ël.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee. who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about; for his name shall be Solomon. and I will give peace and quietness unto Is'rā-ĕl in his days.

10 He shall build a house for my name: and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over îş'rā-ĕl for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the thousand.

which Moses made in the wilderness, house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Is'rā-el, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Is'ra-ĕl: be strong, and of good courage: dread not.

nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver: and of brass and iron without weight: for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass. and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

17 T David also commanded all the princes of Is'ra-ĕl to help Solomon his son, saying.

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 23

CO when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Is'ra-ël.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Is'ra-el, with the priests and the Le'vites.

3 Now the Le'vites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls. man by man, was thirty and eight 4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers and judges:

5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith. 6 And David divided them into courses.

6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Ko'hath, and Mē-ra'rī.

7 ¶ Of the Gēr'shon-ites were Lā'a-dăn, and Shim'ē-ī. 8 The sons of Lā'à-dăn: the chief was Jē-hī'ĕl, and Zē'thām, and Joel, three. 9 The sons of Shim'ē-i; Shē-lō'mith, and Hā'zi-ĕl, and Hā'rān, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Lā'ā-dān.

10 And the sons of Shim'ē-i were, Jā'hāth, Zi'na, and Jē'ush, and Bē-rī'ah.

These four were the sons of Shim'ē-ī.

11 And Jā'hāth was the chief, and Zi'-zāh the second: but Jē'ūsh and Bē-ri'āh had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of Kō'hặth; Ăm'rặm, Iz'här, Hē'bron, and Ŭz-zī'ĕl, four.

13 The sons of Am'ram; Aaron, and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were, Ger'shom, and El'i-e'zer.

16 Of the sons of Ger'shom, She-bu'el was the chief.

17 And the sons of El'i-e'zer were, Re'ha-bi'ah the chief. And El'i-e'zer had none other sons; but the sons of Re'ha-bi'ah were very many.

18 Of the sons of Iz'här; She-lo'mith

the chief.

19 Of the sons of Hē'bron; Jē-rī'ah the first, Am'ā-rī'ah the second, Jā-hā'zī-ēl the third, and Jēk'ā-mē'ām the fourth. 20 Of the sons of Üz-zī'ēl; Mī'cāh the first, and Jē-sī'ah the second.

21 The sons of Mē-rā'rī; Mäh'lī, and Mū'shī. The sons of Mäh'lī; Ěl'ē-ā'zàr.

and Kish.

22 And El'ē-ā'zar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish took them.

23 The sons of Mū'shī; Mäh'lī, and E'der, and Jer'e-moth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Is'rā-ĕi hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever.

26 And also unto the Lē'vītes: they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof, 27 For by the last words of David the Lē'vītes were numbered from twenty years old and above:

28 Because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;

29 Both for the showbread, and for the fine flour for meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and

30 And to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at even;

31 And to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:

32 And that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the Lorn.

CHAPTER 24

Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron. Na'dab and A-bi'hū, El'ē-ā'zar and Ith'a-mār.

2 But Nā'dāb and Ā-bī'hū died before their father, and had no children: therefore Ēl'ē-ā'zār and Ĭth'ā-mār executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both Zā'dök of the sons of El'ē-ā'zar, and A-him'ē-lech of the sons of Ith'a-mär, according to their offices in their service.

1 CHRONICLES 24, 25

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of El'e-a'zar than of the sons of Ith'a-mar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of El'e-a'zar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ith'a-mar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of El'ea'zar, and of the sons of Ith'a-mar.

6 And Shē-mā'jah the son of Nēthăn'e-el the scribe, one of the Le'vites. wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Za'dok the priest, and A-him'e-lech the son of A-bi'a-thar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Le'vites: one principal household being taken for El'ē-ā'zar, and one taken for Ith'a-mär.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehôi'à-rīb, the second to Jē-dā'iah.

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Sē-ō'rīm.

Mĭi'à-min.

to A-bī'iah.

11 The ninth to Jesh'ū-ah, the tenth to Shec'a-nī'ah,

12 The eleventh to E-li'a-shib, the twelfth to Jä'kim,

13 The thirteenth to Hup'pah, the fourteenth to Te-sheb'e-ab.

14 The fifteenth to Bil'gah, the sixteenth to Im'mer,

15 The seventeenth to He'zîr, the eighteenth to Aph'sēş,

16 The nineteenth to Peth'a-hi'ah, the twentieth to Je-hez'e-kel,

17 The one and twentieth to Ta'chin. the two and twentieth to Ga'mul, 18 The three and twentieth to De-la' jah, the four and twentieth to Mā'azī'āh.

19 These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl had commanded him.

20 T And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Am'ram; Shu'bā-ĕl: of the sons of Shu'bā-ĕl;

Teh-de'iah.

21 Concerning Re'ha-bi'ah: of the sons of Re/ha-bī'ah, the first was Is-shī'ah. 22 Of the Ĭz'här-ites: Shē-lô'mŏth: of the sons of She-lo'moth; Ja'hath. 23 And the sons of Hebron; Je-ri'ah the first, Am'a-ri'ah the second, Jahā'zi-ĕl the third, Jĕk'a-mē'am the fourth. 24 Of the sons of Uz-zī'el; Mī'chah: of the sons of Mī'chah; Shā'mīr.

25 The brother of Mi'chah was Is-shī'ah: of the sons of Is-shī'ah: Zĕch'à-rī'àh.

26 The sons of Mē-rā'rī were Mäh'lī and Mū'shī: the sons of Jā'a-zī'ah; Bē'nō. 27 The sons of Mē-rā'rī by Jā'azī'ah; Bē'nō, and Shō'ham, and Zac'cur, and Ib'rī.

28 Of Mäh'lī came El'ē-ā'zar, who had no sons. 29 Concerning Kish; the son of Kish was Jē-räh'mē-ĕl.

30 The sons also of Mū'shī; Mäh'li, and E'der, and Jer'i-moth. These were the sons of the Le'vites after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against 9 The fifth to Mal-chi'jah, the sixth to their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zā'dŏk, 10 The seventh to Hak'koz, the eighth and A-him'e-lech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Le'vites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

MOREOVER David and the cap-tains of the host separated to the service of the sons of A'saph, and of Hē'man, and of Jē-dū'thun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service

2 Of the sons of A'saph; Zăc'cur, and Joseph, and Něth'à-nī'àh, and As'à-rêlah, the sons of A'saph under the hands of A'saph, which prophesied according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jē-dū'thun: the sons of Jē-dū' thun; Ged'a-li'ah, and Ze'rī, and Jeshā'iàh, Hăsh'à-bi'àh, and Măt'tī-thī'àh, six, under the hands of their father Jē-dū'thŭn, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Hē'măn: the sons of Hē'măn; Bŭk-ki'ah, Măt'ta-ni'ah, Üz-zī'el, Shē-bū'ěl, and Těr'i-moth, Hăn'à-nī'àh, Há-nā'nī, Ē-lī'à-tháh, Gid-dăl'tī, and Rōmăm'ti-ē'zēr, Jösh'bē-kā'shah. Măl'lōthi, Hö'thir, and Ma-ha'zi-oth:

5 All these were the sons of He'man the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to A'saph. Te-du'thun, and He'man.

7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 4 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now the first lot came forth for A'saph to Toseph: the second to Ged'ali'ah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zăc'cur, he, his sons. and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Iz'ri, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 12 The fifth to Něth'à-nī'àh, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 13 The sixth to Buk-ki'ah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 14 The seventh to Jesh'a-re'lah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 15 The eighth to Jē-shā'iah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mat'ta-ni'ah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 17 The tenth to Shim'ē-ī, he, his sons.

and his brethren, were twelve:

18 The eleventh to A-zā'rē-ĕl, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

19 The twelfth to Hash'a-bi'ah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

20 The thirteenth to Shu'bā-ĕl. he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 21 The fourteenth to Mat'ti-thi'ah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 22 The fifteenth to Jer'e-moth, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

23 The sixteenth to Hăn'à-nī'àh, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve: 24 The seventeenth to Josh'be-kashah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

25 The eighteenth to Hà-nā'nī, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

26 The nineteenth to Măl'lo-thi, he. his sons, and his brethren, were twelve-

27 The twentieth to E-li'a-thab he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

28 The one and twentieth to Ho'thir. he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

29 The two and twentieth to Giddăl'ti, he, his sons, and his brethren.

were twelve:

30 The three and twentieth to Ma-hat zī-oth, he, his sons, and his brethren. were twelve:

31 The four and twentieth to Romăm'tĭ-ē'zēr, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

CHAPTER 26

ONCERNING the divisions of the porters: Of the Kôr'hites was Meshel'e-mī'ah the son of Ko're, of the sons of A'saph.

2 And the sons of Me-shel'e-mi'ah were, Zech'a-rī'ah the firstborn, Jēdī'ā-el the second, Zeb'à-dī'àh the third,

Jäth'nĭ-ĕl the fourth,

3 E'lam the fifth, Je'ho-ha'nan the sixth, E-li'o-e'na-i the seventh,

4 Moreover the sons of O'bed-e'dom were, Shē-mā'jāh the firstborn, Jēhoz'a-bad the second, Jo'ah the third, and Sā'car the fourth, and Nē-thăn'ē-ěl the fifth,

5 Am'mi-el the sixth, Is'sa-char the seventh. Pē-ŭl'thai the eighth: for God blessed him.

6 Also unto Shē-mā'iah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valor.

7 The sons of Shē-mā'iah; Ōth'nī, and Rē'phā-ĕl, and Ö'bĕd, Ěl-zā'băd, whose brethren were strong men. E-li'hū, and Sĕm'à-chī'àh.

8 All these of the sons of O'běd-ē'dom: they and their sons and their brethren. able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of O'bedē'dŏm.

9 And Mē-shĕl'ē-mī'āh had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also Hō'sah, of the children of Mē-rā'rī, had sons; Sīm'rī the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;)

11 Hil-ki'ah the second, Těb'a-li'ah the third, Zěch'á-rī'ah the fourth: all The Levites who were over the treasure thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 ¶ And they cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to Shel'emī'ah. Then for Zech'a-rī'ah his son, a wise counselor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. 15 To O'běd-e'dom southward; and to his sons the house of A-sup'pim.

16 To Shup'pim and Ho'sah the lot king. came forth westward, with the gate Shal'le-cheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward.

17 Eastward were six Le'vites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward A-sup'pim two and two.

18 At Pär'bär westward, four at the causeway, and two at Pär'bär.

10 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Ko're, and among the sons of Mē-rā'ri.

20 M And of the Le vites, A-hi jah was over the treasures of the house of God. and over the treasures of the dedicated

21 As concerning the sons of La'a-dan; the sons of the Ger'shon-ite La'a-dan. chief fathers, even of La'a-dan the Gēr'shon-ite, were Jē-hi'ē-li. 22 The sons of Je-hi'e-li; Ze'tham, and Toel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the LORD. 23 Of the Am'ram-îtes, and the Îz'har-ites, the He'bron-ites, and the Uz-ziěl-ites:

24 And She-bū'el the son of Ger'shom. the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by El'ī-ē'zēr; Rēhá-bī'áh his son, and Tē-shā'iáh his son, and Jō'rām his son, and Zich'rī his son, and Shē-lō'mīth his son:

26 Which Shē-lō'mith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of

the LORD.

28 And all that Samuel the seer, and the sons and brethren of Ho'sah were Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Jo'ab the son of Zer'u-i'ah, had dedicated; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of She-lo'mith, and of his brethren.

29 I Of the Iz'har-ites. Chen'a-ni'ah and his sons were for the outward business over Is'rā-ĕl, for officers and judges.

30 And of the He'bron-ites, Hash'abi'ah and his brethren, men of valor, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Is'ra-ĕl on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the 31 Among the He'bron-ites was Jerī'jāh the chief, even among the Hē' bron-ites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valor at Jā'zēr of Gil'ē-ad.

32 And his brethren, men of valor, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

TOW the children of Iş'rā-ĕl after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and. four thousand.

2 Over the first course for the first month was Jà-shō'bē-ăm the son of Zăb'dĭ-ĕl: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3 Of the children of Pē'rez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.

4 And over the course of the second month was Dō'daī an A-hō'hīte, and of his course was Mik'loth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand.

5 The third captain of the host for the third month was Be-na'iah the son of Jē-hôi'à-dá, a chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 6 This is that Be-na'iah, who was mighty among the thirty, and above the Gil'ē-ad, Id'do the son of Zeeh'a-rī'ah:

7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was As'a hel the brother of Jo'ab, and Zeb'a-di'ah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was Sham'huth the Iz'ra-hite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was I'ra the son of Ik'kesh the Te-ko' ite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10 The seventh captain for the seventh month was He'lez the Pel'o-nite, of the children of E'phrā-im: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sib'be-cai the Hū'shath-ite, of the Zar'hites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth month was A'bi-e'zer the An'e-toth-ite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth month was Ma-har'a-i the Ne-toph'athite, of the Zär'hites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand,

14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Be-na'iah the Pir'athon-ite, of the children of E'phra-im: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Hěl'da-i the Ne-toph'athite, of Oth'ni-el: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

16 ¶ Furthermore over the tribes of Is'ra-el: the ruler of the Reubenites was El'i-ē'zēr the son of Zich'ri: of the Sīm'ē-ŏn-ītes, Sheph'á-ti'ah the son of Mā'a-chah:

17 Of the Le'vites, Hăsh'à-bi'àh the son of Kem' ū-ël: of the Aar'on-ites, Zā'dök: 18 Of Judah, E-li'hū, one of the brethren of David: of Is'sa-char, Om'rī the son of Mī'chā-ĕl:

19 Of Zěb'ū-lŭn, Ĭsh-mā'jāh the son of O'bà-dī'ah; of Naph'tà-li, Jěr'i-moth

the son of Az'ri-ĕl:

ro'ham. These were the princes of the tribes of İş'rā-ĕl.

23 T But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Iş'rā-ĕl like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Jō'āb the son of Zĕr'u-ī'āh began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Is'ra-ĕl: neither was the number put in the account of the Chronicles of king David.

25 ¶ And over the king's treasures was Az-mā'věth the son of A'di-el: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jē-hon'a-than the son of Uz-zī'ah:

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was

Ĕz'rī the son of Chē'lub:

27 And over the vineyards was Shim! ē-ī the Rā'măth-īte: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zăb'dī the Shiph'mīte:

28 And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low plains was Bā'āl-hā'năn the Gē-dē'rīte: and over the cellars of oil was Jo'ash:

29 And over the herds that fed in Shăr'on was Shit'rai the Shăr'on-ite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shā'phǎt the son of Ad'lā-ī: 30 Over the camels also was O'bil the Ĭsh'mā-ĕl-īte: and over the asses was Jeh-de'iah the Me-ron'o-thite:

31 And over the flocks was Ja'ziz the Hā'gēr-īte. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's. 32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counselor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jē-hī'el the son of Hāch'mō-nī was with the king's sons: 33 And A-hith'o-phel was the king's counselor: and Hū'shai the Ar'chite was the king's companion:

34 And after A-hith'o-phel was Jehôi'à-dà the son of Bē-nā'iàh, and À-bī'à-thàr: and the general of the king's army was Jō'ăb.

CHAPTER 28

ND David assembled all the princes 21 Of the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh in and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in mine heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build a house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of İş'rā-ël chose me before all the house of my father to be king over İş'rā-ël for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all İs'rā-ël:

5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over

Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

as mis day, and in the sight of all Is'rā-ël the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong, and do it.

11 II Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlors thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God and of the treasuries of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Le'vites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of showbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of ailwan

17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins he gave gold by weight for every basin; and likewise silver by weight for every basin of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the cherubim, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed, for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

21 And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Le'vites, even they shall they offered willingly, because with perbe with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAPTER 29

URTHERMORE David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house.

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of O'phir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Is'ra-el, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave, for the service of the house of God, of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Je-hi'ěl the Ger'shon-ite. 9 Then the people rejoiced, for that LORD, and the king.

fect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl our father, for ever and ever. 11 Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honor come of thee. and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are strangers before thee. and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow.

and there is none abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Is'ra-el, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee:

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision.

20 T And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the Solomon asketh wisdom and knowledge

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto exceedingly in the sight of all Is'rā-ĕl. the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Is ra-el: 22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Za'dok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Is'ra-el obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon the countries.

and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Is'rā-ĕl.

26 Thus David the son of Tesse reigned over all Is'ra-ĕl.

27 And the time that he reigned over Īs'rā-ĕl was forty years; seven years reigned he in He'bron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer.

30 With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Is'rā-ĕl, and over all the kingdoms of

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE

CHAPTER 1

↑ND Solomon the son of David was A strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Is'rā-ĕl. to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Is'ra-el, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gib'e-on; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God. which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kīr'jāth-jē'a-rīm to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover the brazen altar, that Bezăl'ē-ĕl the son of Ū'rī, the son of Hûr, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD; and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the

at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast showed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in be-fore this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life: but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

13 I Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gib'e-on to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Is'rā-ĕl.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as blenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen varn at a

CHAPTER 2

AND Solomon determined to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 C And Solomon sent to Hū'răm the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold. I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Is'rā-ĕl.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build him a house, only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple. and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Terusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants,

9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat. and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine. and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ¶ Then Hū'răm the king of Tỹre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over

them.

12 Hū'ram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Is'ra-el, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man. endued with understanding, of Hū'răm my father's.

14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Top'pa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 4 And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Is rā-ĕl, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them: and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set threescore and ten thousand of them to be bearers of burdens. and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people awork.

CHAPTER 3

HEN Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Mo-ri'ah, where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of Or'nan the Jeb'uşīte.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 I Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house he ceiled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Pär-vä'im.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubim on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the parts were inward.

upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy house he made two cherubim of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

14 ¶ And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubim thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Ja'chin, 4 And the porch that was in the front and the name of that on the left Boaz.

CHAPTER 4

TOREOVER he made an altar of VI brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder

6 II He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them: but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

8 He made also ten tables, and placed 8 He made also ten rapies, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made for the house of the Lord a hundred basins of gold.

9 ¶ Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

10 And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And Hū'ram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hūrăm finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God:

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of month. the pillars;

made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it. 16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Hū'răm his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Tordan did the king

Suc'coth and Zer'e-da'thah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight wings over the place of the ark, and the of the brass could not be found out.

19 ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God. the the showbread was set:

was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Iş'rā-ĕl, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

> 8 For the cherubim spread forth their cherubim covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the golden altar also, and the tables whereon ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Ho'reb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, when they came out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:

12 Also the Le'vites which were the singers, all of them of A'saph, of Hê'man, of Jē-dū'thun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar. and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumneters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music. and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD:

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

CHAPTER 6

HEN said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

2 But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Is rā-ĕl: and all the congregation of Işrā-ĕl stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saving,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Is'ra-el to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Ĭş'rā-ĕl:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that spoken unto thy servant David. my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people

Īş'rā-ĕl.

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl.

8 But the LORD said to David my father. Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father. and am set on the throne of Is'ra-el, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Īs'rā-ĕl.

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Is'ra-el, and spread forth

his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Is'rā-ĕl, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, O LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and showest mercy unto the servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 Thou which hast kept with the servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Ĭş'rā-ĕl, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Iş'rā-ĕl; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O LORD God of Is'ra-el. let thy word be verified, which thou hast

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Is'ra-el, which they shall make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Iş'rā-ĕl be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens. and forgive the sin of thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 T When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

dren of men;)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Iş'rā-el, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Is'ra-ël, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen. and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near:

37 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land 28 If there be dearth in the land, if of their captivity, whither they have there be pestilence, if there be blasting carried them captives, and pray toward or mildew, locusts or caterpillars; if their their land, which thou gavest unto their hast chosen, and toward the house which

I have built for thy name:

39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 Now, my God, let, I beseech thee. thine eyes be open, and let thine ears he attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore arise, O LORD God. into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

42 O LORD God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAPTER 7

NOW when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's

house.

3 And when all the children of Is'rā-ĕl saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Le'vites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all ľs'rā-ĕl stood.

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt fathers, and toward the city which thou offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Isrā-ĕl with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Ha'math unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had showed unto David, and to Solomon. and to Iş'rā-ĕl his people.

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 ¶ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to deyour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked. and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments:

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Is'rā-ĕl.

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my offerings, and the fat of the peace statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and his captains, and captains of his chariots serve other gods, and worship them;

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land.

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 That the cities which Hū'răm had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Is'ra-el to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hā'māth-zō' bah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tad mor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hā'māth.

5 Also he built Beth'-ho'ron the upper. and Běth'-hô'ron the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 And Bā'al-ath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen. and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ As for all the people that were left of the Hit tites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Hi'vites, and Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Iş'rā-ĕl consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 I And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pha'raoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Isrā-el, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch.

13 Even after a certain rate every day. offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Lë'vites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Le'vites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 Then went Solomon to E'zi-ongē'bēr, and to E'loth, at the sea side in the land of E'dom.

18 And Hū'rām sent him, by the hands of his servants, ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to O'phir. and took thence four hundred and fifty the Jeb'ü-sites, which were not of talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

ND when the queen of She'ba heard (1) of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at 9 But of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl did Jerusalem, with a very great company, Solomon make no servants for his work; and camels that bare spices, and gold in but they were men of war, and chief of abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of She'ba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built.

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel: his cupbearers also, and their apparel: and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words. until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Iş'rā-ĕl, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and iustice.

9 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of She'ba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Hū'răm, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from O'phir, brought algum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum trees terraces to the house of the LORD. and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Shē'bā all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

and threescore and six talents of gold; plains in abundance.

14 Besides that which chapmen and communed with him of all that was in merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 T And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tär! shish with the servants of Hū'răm: every three years once came the ships of Tärshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 C And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 II And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Terusalem.

26 ¶ And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Phi-lis'tines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king made silver in Jerusa-13 @ Now the weight of gold that came lem as stones, and cedar trees made he to Solomon in one year was six hundred as the sycamore trees that are in the low 28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Å-hi'jah the Shi'lonite, and in the visions of hi'do the seer against Jer'ō-bō'am the son of Nē'bắt?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Iş'rā-ĕl forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rê'hō-bō'ām his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 10

AND Rē'hō-bō'ăm went to Shē'chem: for to Shē'chem were all Iş'rā-el come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jer'ō-bō'ām the son of Nē'bāt, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jer'ō-bō'ām returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So The Both Solomon the king heard it, that Jer'ō-bō'ām returned out of Egypt.

Jer'o-bo'am and all Is'ra-el came and spake to Re'hō-bō'am, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rē'hō-bō'ăm took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou if somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jer'o-bo'am and all the people came to Re'ho-bo'am on the third day, as the king bade, saving, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rē'hō-bō'ăm forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of A-hi'jah the Shi'lō-nite to Jĕr'ō-bō'am the son of Ne'băt.

16 ¶ And when all Isrā-ĕi saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Isrā-ĕi: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Isrā-ĕi went to their tents,

17 But as for the children of Is'rā-ēl that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rē'hō-bo'am reigned over them.

18 Then king Rē'hō-bō'ām sent Hà-dō' răm that was over the tribute; and the children of Iş'rā-ēl stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rē'hōbō'ām made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Ierusalem.

chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Is'rā-ĕl rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

77 - 77 - 77 - 77 - 77

CHAPTER 11

AND when Rē'hō-bō'ām was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin a hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Iş' rā-ēl, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rē'hō-bō'ām.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shē-mā'jāh the man of God, saying, 3 Speak unto Rē'hō-bō'ăm the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Iştra-el in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house; for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jer'o-bo'am.

5 ¶ And Re'hō-bō'am dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Tudah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and E'tam.

and Tē-kō'à,

A-dŭl'lăm,

8 And Gath, and Ma-re'shah, and

A-zē'kah, 10 And Zō'rah, and Aj'a-lon, and He' bron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and store of victuals, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 I And the priests and the Le'vites that were in all Iş'rā-ĕl resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Le'vites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jer'o-bo'am and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made.

16 And after them, out of all the tribes of Is'ra-el, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Is'ra-el came to Terusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Re'ho-bo'am the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rē'hō-bō'ăm took him Mā⁴ ha-lath the daughter of Jer'i-moth the son of David to wife, and Ab'i-hail the daughter of E-li'ab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children: Je'ush. and Shem'a-ri'ah, and Za'ham.

20 And after her he took Mā'à-chàh him A-bī'jàh, and At'tā-ī, and Zī'za, and Shē-lō'mǐth.

21 And Re'hō-bō'ăm loved Mā'à-chàh the daughter of Ab'sa-lom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Re hō-bō'am made A-bī'jah the son of Mā'a-chah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed 7 And Beth'-zûr', and Shō'cō, and of all his children throughout all the countries of Tudah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victuals in abundance. And he desired 9 And Ad'o-ra'im, and La'chish, and many wives.

CHAPTER 12

AND it came to pass, when Re'ho-bo'am had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Isrā-ĕl with him.

2 And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rē'hō-bō'am, Shī'shak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lu'bim, the Suk'ki-im, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which bertained to Tudah, and came to Terusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shë-mā'jāh the prophet to Re'ho-bo'am, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Terusalem because of Shi'shak, and said unto them. Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shi'shak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Is'rā-ĕl and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to She-ma'iah, saving, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Terusalem by the hand of Shi'shak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servthe daughter of Ab'sa-lom; which bare ants; that they may know my service,

Abijah maketh war against Jeroboam and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shi'shāk king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10 Instead of which king Re'hō-bō'am made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether; and also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Re'hō-bō'am strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Re'hō-bō'am was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Is'rā-ēl, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Nā'a-mah an Am mon-it'ess.

14 And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD. 15 Now the acts of Re'hō-bō'am, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shē-mā'jāh the prophet, and of Id'dō the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Re'hō-bō'am and Jer'ô-bô'am continually.

16 And Rê'hô-bô'am slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and A-bi'jah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 13

NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jěr'ō-bō'ăm began À-bī'jah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Mi-chā'iāh the daughter of Ū'rī-ĕl of Gib'ē-āh. And there was war between Ā-bi'jāh and Jēr'ō-bō'ām.

3 And Å-bi'jah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen meni. Jero-bō'am also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valor.

4 ¶ And Å-bi'jäh stood up upon mount Zēm'á-rā'im, which is in mount Ē'phrāim, and said, Hear me, thou Jēr'ō-bō'ām, and all Īs'rā-ēl:

5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of İş'rā-ĕl gave the kingdom over İş'rā-ĕl to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jer 6-bo am the son of Ne bat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Be'li-äl, and have strengthened themselves against Re'hōbō'ām the son of Solomon, when Re'hōbō'ām was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multi-tude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jër'ö-bō'am made you for gods.

9 Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the L& vites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Lêvites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the showbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Is a lift jet ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 ¶ But Jĕr'ō-bō'ām caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, be-chosen men, being mighty men of valor. hold, the battle was before and behind:

priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jerő-bő'am and all Ís'rā-ĕl before A-bi'jah and Judah.

16 And the children of Is'ra-el fied before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And A-bī'jah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Iş'rā-ĕl five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Is'ra-el were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And A-bī'jāh pursued after Jer'oho'am, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jesh'a-nah with the towns thereof, and E'phra-in with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jer'o-bo'am recover strength again in the days of A-bi'iah: and the LORD struck him, and he died. 21 @ But A-bi'jah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of A-bi'jah. and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Ĭďďō.

CHAPTER 14

CO A-bi'jah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and A'sa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And A'sa did that which was good and right in the eves of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves:

4 And commanded Tudah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 C And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us forsake him, he will forsake you.

and they cried unto the LORD, and the build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is vet before us: because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 And A'sa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand: and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valor.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Ze'rah the Ethiopian with a host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Ma-re'shah.

10 Then A'sa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zeph'a-thah at Ma-re'shah. 11 And A'sa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before A'sa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And A'sa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Ge'rar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Ge'rar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they spoiled all the cities: for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattle. and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 15

ND the Spirit of God came upon Az'a-rī'ah the son of Ö'děd:

2 And he went out to meet A'sa, and said unto him. Hear ye me, A'sa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye 3 Now for a long season Is'rā-ĕi hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak; for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when A's heard these words, and the prophecy of O'ded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount E'phrāim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephra-im and Manas'seh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Istra-ël in abundance, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of A'sà.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And also concerning Mā'à-chàh the mother of A'sà the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and A'sà cut Judah maketh a covenant to seek God down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kid'ron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Iş'rā-ĕl: nevertheless the heart of A'sa was perfect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of A'sa.

CHAPTER 16

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Å'så, Bā'a-shā king of Ĩs̄s rā-ēl came up against Judah, and built Rā'māh, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Å'sā king of Judah.

2 Then A's brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben'-ha'dad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saving,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Ba'a-sha king of Ig'rā-ēl, that he may depart from me.

4 And Běn'-hā'dăd hearkened unto king Ā'sā, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Îş'rā-ĕi; and they smote Î'jön, and Dan, and Ā'bĕi-mā'im, and all the store cities of Naph'.

tà-lī.

5 And it came to pass, when Bā'ā-shā heard it, that he left off building of Rā' mah, and let his work cease.

6 Then A'sa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ra'mah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Ba'a-sha was building; and he built therewith Ge'ba and Miz'pah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hà-nā/nī the seer came to Ā'sā king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the Lorn thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine

hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lū'bim a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have 10 Then A'sa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And A'sa oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 T And, behold, the acts of A'sa. first and last, lo. they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Is'ra-ël.

12 And A'sa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet. until his disease was exceeding great: vet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 C And A'sa slept with his fathers. and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER 17

AND Jē-hosh'a-phāt his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Iş'rā-ĕl.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of E'phrā-im, which A'sa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Te-hosh'aphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Bā'ā-līm:

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Īs'rā-ĕl.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jē-hosh'a-phat presents; and he had riches and honor in abundance. 6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 If Also in the third year of his reign affinity with Ahab. he sent to his princes, even to Ben'hā'il, and to O'ba-dī'ah, and to Zeeh'a- to Ahab to Sa-mā'rī-a. And Ahab killed rī'ah, and to Nē-thăn'ē-ĕl, and to Mīchā'iah, to teach in the cities of Judah. 8 And with them he sent Le'vites. even Shē-mā'iah, and Něth'a-nī'ah, and Zeb'a-di'ah, and Ās'a-hel, and She-mir'a-moth, and Je-hon'a-than, and Ad'o-ni'jah, and To-bi'jah, and Tob'ăd'ō-ni'iàh. Lē'vītes: and with them E'lish-à-må and Je-hô'răm, priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 T And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Tudah, so that they made no war against Jē-hosh'a-phat.

11 Also some of the Phi-lis'tines brought Jē-hosh'a-phat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

12 ¶ And Jē-hŏsh'á-phặt waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Terusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Tudah, the captains of thousands: Ad'nah the chief, and with him mighty men of valor three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Je'hō-hā'năn the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Am'a-si'ah the son of Zich'ri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD: and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

17 And of Benjamin; E-li'a-da a mighty man of valor, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand.

18 And next him was Te-hoz'a-bad, and with him a hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war.

19 These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

CHAPTER 18

NOW Jē-hosh'á-phặt had riches and honor in abundance, and joined

2 And after certain years he went down sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Rā'mŏth-gil'ē-ăd.

3 And Ahab king of İş'rā-ĕl said unto Jē-hosh'a-phat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad? And he answered him. I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jē-hŏsh'a-phăt said unto the king of İş'rā-ĕl, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

5 Therefore the king of Iş'rā-ĕl gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jē-hosh'a-phat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said unto Jē-hosh'a-phat, There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Mi-ca'iah the son of Im'la. And one spake saying after this manner, and Jē-hosh'a-phat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly

Mī-cā'iàh the son of Im'là.

9 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl and Jē-hŏsh'àphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Sa-ma'ri-a; and all the prophets prophesied before them. 10 And Zed'e-kī'ah the son of Chēnā'a-näh had made him horns of iron. and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Mī-cā'jāh spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Mī-cā'iāh said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will

the king said unto him, Mī-cā'iah, shall we go to Rā'moth-gil'ē-ad to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Is'rā-ēj scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Iş'rā-ĕl said to Jēhosh'a-phat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Iş'rā-ĕl, that he may go up and fall at Rā'moth-gil'ē-ad? And another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalf also prevail; go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zĕď'ē-kī'àh the son of Chēnā'a-näh came near, and smote Mī-cā' iah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Mī-cā'iah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself, 25 Then the king of Ĭş'rā-ĕl said, Take ye Mi-ca'iah, and carry him back to A'mon the governor of the city, and to Jo'ash the king's son; 26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water 14 And when he was come to the king, of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Mī-cā'jāh said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken. all ve people.

28 So the king of Ĭş'rā-ĕl and Jē-hŏsh'àphat the king of Judah went up to Ra-moth-gil'e-ad

29 And the king of Is'rā-ĕl said unto Tē-hosh'a-phāt, I will disguise myself. and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Is'ra-el disguised himself; and they went to the hattle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Is'rā-ĕl.

31 And it came to pass, when the cap-tains of the chariots saw Je-hosh'a-phat, that they said, It is the king of Iş'rā-ĕl. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jē-hosh'a-phat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Is'ra-el between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Is'ra-el stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the courageously, and the LORD shall be sun going down he died.

CHAPTER 19

AND Jē-hosh'a-phat the king of Ju-dah returned to his house in peace to Terusalem.

2 And Je'hū the son of Hà-na'nī the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jē-hosh'a-phat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless, there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jē-hŏsh'a-phăt dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Be'er-she'ba to mount E'phrā-im, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 I And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the iudement.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehosh'a-phat set of the Le'vites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Is'ra-el, for the judgment of the LORD. and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saving, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And, behold, Am'a-ri'ah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD: and Zeb'a-di'ah the son of Ish' mā-ĕl, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal with the good.

CHAPTER 20

TT came to pass after this also, that the children of Mo'ab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other besides the Ammonites, came against Te-hosh'a-phat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehosh'a-phat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be in Haz'a-zon-ta'mar, which is En-ge'dī.

3 And Jē-hosh'a-phat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and pro-claimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came of the brook, before the wilderness of to seek the LORD.

5 Cl And Te-hosh'a-phat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers. art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God. who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Iş'rā-ĕl, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Mö'ab and mount Se'ir, whom thou wouldest not let Is'ra-ĕl invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession. which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives,

14 ¶ Then upon Jā-hā'zĭ-ĕl the son of Zech'a-rī'ah, the son of Be-na'iah, the watchtower in the wilderness, they son of Ie-i'el, the son of Măt'tâ-ni'ah, a Le'vite of the sons of A'saph, came the they were dead bodies fallen to the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jē-hosh'a-phat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but carry away: and they were three days in God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against

Jē-ru'ēl. 17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you O Tudah and Ierusalem: fear not, nor he dismayed; to-morrow go out against them; for the LORD will be with you

18 And Te-hosh'a-phat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Indah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Le vites, of the children of the Ko'hath-ites, and of the children of the Kôr'hites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl with a loud voice on high.

20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Te-ko'a: and as they went forth, Jehosh'a-phat stood and said, Hear me. O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ve be established; believe his prophets. so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 I And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Mo'ab. and mount Se'ir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Mo'ab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Se'ir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Se'ir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the looked unto the multitude, and, behold, earth, and none escaped.

25 Ånd when Jē-hosh'à-phät and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 W And on the fourth day they asthem: behold, they come up by the cliff sembled themselves in the valley of of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end Ber'a-chah; for there they blessed the chah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Je-hosh'athat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Iş'rā-ĕl.

30 So the realm of Je-hosh'a-phat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round

31 ¶ And Jē-hŏsh'á-phặt reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A-zū'bah the daughter of Shil'hi.

32 And he walked in the way of A'sa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers. 34 Now the rest of the acts of Je-hosh' à-phặt, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Je'hū the son of Hà-nā'nī, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl.

35 ¶ And after this did Je-hosh'a-phat king of Judah join himself with A hazi'ah king of İş'rā-ĕl, who did yery

wickedly:

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tär'shish: and they made the ships in É'zĭ-ŏn-gā'bēr. 37 Then Ěl'ī-ē'zēr the son of Dō'dāvah of Ma-re'shah prophesied against Jē-hosh'a-phat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with A'ha-zī'ah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the shins were broken, that they were not able to go to Tär'shish.

CHAPTER 21

NOW Je-hosh'a-phat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehō'răm his son reigned in his stead.

LORD: therefore the name of the same hosh'a-phat, Az'a-n'ah, and Je-hi'el, place was called. The valley of Ber'a- and Zech'a-n'ah, and Az'a-n'ah, and Mī'chā-ĕl, and Sheph'a-tī'ah: all these were the sons of Te-hosh'a-phat king of Îş'rā-ĕl.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jē-hō'rām;

because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jē-hō'rām was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Is'ra-ĕl.

5 I Të-hō'răm was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the E'dom-ites revolted from under the dominion of Tudah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jë-hō'răm went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the E'dom-ites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the E'dom-ites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Lib'nah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a writing to him from E-li'jah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Je-hosh'a-phat thy father, nor in the ways of A'sa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which 2 And he had brethren the sons of Je- were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 M Moreover the LORD stirred up against Je-ho'ram the spirit of the Philis'tines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives: so that there was never a son left him. save Te-ho'a-haz, the youngest of his

18 M And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAPTER 22

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made A'hà-zī'āh his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So A'ha-zī'ah the son of Je-ho'ram king of Judah reigned.

2 Forty and two years old was A'hazī'ah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Ath'a-li'ah the daughter of Om'ri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counselors, after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 ¶ He walked also after their coun-Ahab king of Is'ra-ël to war against into covenant with him.

Jehoram dieth. Ahaziah his son is slain Hăz'ā-ĕl king of Syria at Rā'möthgil'ē-ad: and the Syrians smote Jo'ram. 6 And he returned to be healed in Texre-el because of the wounds which were given him at Rā'mah, when he fought with Haz'a-el king of Syria. And Az'arī'ah the son of Jē-hō'ram king of Judah went down to see Jo-ho'ram the son of Ahab at Jez're-el, because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of A'ha-zi'ah was of God by coming to Jo'ram: for when he was come, he went out with Te. ho'ram against Je'hu the son of Nim! shi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Te'hū was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of A'ha. zī'āh, that ministered to A'hā-zī'āh, he slew them.

9 And he sought A'ha-zī'ah; and they caught him, (for he was hid in Sa-ma! ri-a,) and brought him to Je'hū: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jē-hosh'a-phas, who sought the Lorn with all his heart. So the house of A'hazī'āh had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 W But when Ath'a-li'ah the mother of A'ha-zi'ah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But Je'hō-shab'ē-ath, the daughter of the king, took Jo'ash the son of A'ha-zī'ah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jē'hō-shab'ē-ath, the daughter of king Jē-hō'răm, the wife of Jē-hôi'à-dà the priest, (for she was the sister of A'hazī'āh,) hid him from Ath'ā-lī'āh, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Ath'à-li'ah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER 23

▲ND in the seventh year Jē-hôi'à-dà A strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Az'a-rī'ah the son of Jē-rō'hām, and Ĭsh'mā-ĕl the son of Jē'hō-hā'nān, and Āz'a-rī'āh the son of O'běd, and Mā'à-sē'jàh the son of A-dãsel, and went with Te-ho'ram the son of iah, and E-lish'a-phat the son of Zich'ra.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Le'vites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Is'rā-ĕl, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Le'vites.

shall be porters of the doors: 5 And a third part shall be at the king's house: and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. 6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Le'vites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Le'vites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth

8 So the Le'vites and all Judah did according to all things that Je-hôr'a-da the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Je-hoi'a-da the priest dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover Jē-hôi'à-dà the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jē-hôi'a-da and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

12 C Now when Ath'a-li'ah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets. also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Ath'a-li'ah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason.

14 Then Je-hor'a-da the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jē-hôi'à-dà made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the Lord's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Ba'al, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Măt'tăn the priest of Bā'āl before the altars.

18 Also Jē-hoi'a-da appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Le'vites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained by David.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Ath'a-li'ah with the sword.

CHAPTER 24

TÖ'ÄSH was seven vears old when he J began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zib'ī-ah of Bē'ēr-shē'ba.

2 And Jo'ash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jē-hôi'à-dà the priest.

3 And Jē-hôi'a-da took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 I And it came to pass after this, that Jo'ash was minded to repair the house of the LORD.

· 5 And he gathered together the priests and the Le vites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Is'ra-el money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Lē'vītes hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Je-hôi'à-dà the chief, and said unto him. Why hast thou not required of the Le'vites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Is'rā-ĕl, for the tabernacle of witness? 7 For the sons of Ath'a-li'ah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Bā'a-lim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD. 9 And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Is'ra-el in the wilderness. 10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. 11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Le'vites. and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Je-hôr'à-dà gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Je-hoi'a-da, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD. even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Je-hoi'a-da.

15 C But Te-hol'a-da waxed old, and was full of days when he died: a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Is'ra-el, both toward God. and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Je-hôr'a-da came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zěch'à-rī'àh the son of Jē-hôi'à-dà the priest, which stood above the people. and said unto them. Thus saith God. Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him. and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Jo'ash the king remembered not the kindness which Je-hoi'a-da his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 I And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus

24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the set the house of God in his state, and LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against lo'ash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases.) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Je-hôi'a-da the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; Zā'bād the son of Shīm'ēath an Am'mon-it'ess, and Je-hoz'abad the son of Shim'rith a Mo'ab-it'ess. 27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Am'a-zī'ah his son reigned in his stead.

ĂM'A-ZI'AH was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Te'hō-ăd'dăn of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.

3 @ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded. saving. The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 @ Moreover Am'a-zi'ah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Iş'rā-ĕl for a hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him. saying, O king, let not the army of counsel. Is ra-el go with thee; for the LORD is not with Is'rā-ĕl, to wit, with all the children of E'phrā-ĭm.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Am'a-zi'ah said to the man of God. But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Is'ra-el? And the man of God answered. The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Am'a-zī'ah separated them. to wit, the army that was come to him out of E'phrā-im, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 Q And Am'a-zī'ah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Se'ir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But the soldiers of the army which Am'a-zi'ah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Sá-mā' rī-a even unto Běth'-hō'rŏn, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 C Now it came to pass, after that Am'à-zī'àh was come from the slaughter of the E'dom-ites, that he brought the gods of the children of Se'ir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Am'à-zī'ah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him. Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my

17 Then Am'a-zī'ah king of Judah

Amaziah slain. Uzziah king of Judeh took advice, and sent to Jo'ash, the son and buried him with his fathers in the of Je-ho'a-haz, the son of Je'hu, king of city of Judah. Is'rā-ĕl, saving, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Jō'ash king of Ĭs'rā-ĕl sent to Åm'a-zī'ah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saving, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the E'dom-ites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Am'a-zī'ah would not hear: for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of E'dom.

21 So Jō'ash the king of Is'rā-ĕl went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Am'a-zī'ah king of Judah, at Běth'-shē'měsh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was put to the worse before Is'ra-ël, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Jö'äsh the king of İş'rā-ĕl took Am'a-zi'ah king of Judah, the son of To'ash, the son of Je-ho'a-haz, at Beth'she'mesh, and brought him to Terusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of E'phra-im to the corner gate, four hundred cubits,

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with O'bed-e'dom. and the treasures of the king's house. the hostages also, and returned to Sà-mā'rĭ-à.

25 T And Am'a-zī'ah the son of Tō'ash king of Judah lived after the death of Jo'ash son of Je-ho'a-haz king of Isrā-ĕl fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Am'àzī'ah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Is'ra-ĕl?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Am'azi'ah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to La'chish after him, and slew him there.

CHAPTER 26

THEN all the people of Judah took Uz-zī'ah, who was sixteen year old, and made him king in the room of his father Am'a-zī'ah.

2 He built E'loth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uz-zī'ah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifth and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jec'o-li'ah d Terusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Am'a-zī'ah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of Zech'a-rī'ah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Phi-lis'tines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jab'neh and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philis'tines.

7 And God helped him against the Phi-lis'tines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gûr'-ba'al, and the Ma-hū'nim.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uz-zī'ah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uz-zi'ah built towers in Terusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert. and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carměl: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover Uz-zī'ah had a host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Je-i'el the scribe and Mā'a-sē'jah the ruler, under the hand of Han'a-ni'ah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valor 28 And they brought him upon horses, were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army. three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uz-zi'ah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons. and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines. invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his marvelously helped, till he was strong. 16 4 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Az'a-rī'ah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valignt men:

18 And they withstood Uz-zī'ah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uz-zī'ah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honor from the LORD God.

10 Then Uz-zī'ah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD.

20 And Az'a-rī'ah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; vea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uz-zī'āh the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jo'tham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 Q Now the rest of the acts of Uzzī'ah, first and last, did Ī-ṣā'iah the prophet, the son of Ā'moz, write.

23 So Uz-zī'āh slept with his fathers. and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jo'tham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 27

TÖ'THĂM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Je-ru'shah, the daughter of Zā'dŏk.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uz-zi'ah did; howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly. 3 He built the high gate of the house of name spread far abroad; for he was the LORD, and on the wall of O'phel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 THe fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So To'tham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jō² tham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they gre written in the book of the kings of Iş'rā-el and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Terusalem.

9 ¶ And Jö'thäm slept with his fathers. and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 28

AHAZ was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Iş'rā-ĕl, and made also molten images for Bā'à-lim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hin'nom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Is'ra-ël.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria: and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Iş'rā-ĕl, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 T For Pë'käh the son of Rëm'àli'ah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zich'ri, a mighty man of E'phräim, slew Mā'a-sē'iah the king's son, and Az'rī-kām the governor of the house, and El-ka'nah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Is'rā-ĕl carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much to Sa-mā'rĭ-a.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was O'ded: and he went out before the host that came to Sa-ma'rī-a, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

the children of Judah and Jerusalem for but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? 11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren; for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of E'phrā-im, Az'à-rī'ah the son of Jō-hā'năn, Bĕr'ē-chī'ah the son of Mē-shīl'lē-moth, and Jē'hīz-kī'ah the son of Shal'lum, and Am'a-sa the son of Had'lai, stood up against them that came from the war.

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Iş'rā-ĕl.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives. and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them. and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jer'i-cho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Sa-mā'rī-a.

16 C At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help

17 For again the E'dom-ites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Phi-lis'tines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Běth-shē'měsh, and Aj'á-lon, and Gē-dē'roth, and Shō'chō with the villages thereof. spoil from them, and brought the spoil and Tim'nah with the villages thereof. Gim'zo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there. 19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Iş'rā-ĕl; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD. 20 And Til'gath-pil-ne'ser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not. 21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of 10 And now we purpose to keep under the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes. bondmen and bondwomen unto you: and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Is'rā-ĕl.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God. and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him alters in every corner of Terusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 I Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Iş'rā-ĕl.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Is'rā-ēl: and Hez'ē-kī'āh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 29

HEZE-KI'AH began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was A-bi'jäh, the daughter of Zech'arī'āh.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 @ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. 4 And he brought in the priests and the Le'vites, and gathered them together into the east street, 5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Le'vites; sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Is ra-ël.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Is'ra-el. that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye altar of the LORD. should minister unto him, and burn incense.

12 Then the Le'vites arose, Ma' hath the son of A-mas'a-i, and Toel the son of Az'a-rī'ah, of the sons of the Kō' hăth-îtes: and of the sons of Mē-rā'rī; Kish the son of Ab'dī, and Az'a-rī'ah the son of Je-hal'e-lel: and of the Ger'shonites: Jo'ah the son of Zim'mah, and E'den the son of Jo'ah:

13 And of the sons of El'i-zā'phăn: Shim'ri, and Je-i'el: and of the sons of A'saph: Zech'à-rī'àh, and Măt'tà-nī'àh: 14 And of the sons of He'man; Jehī'ĕl, and Shīm'ē-ī: and of the sons of

Jē-dū'thun; Shē-mā'iah, and Ūz-zī'ĕl. 15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Le'vites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kĭďrŏn.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days: and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hez'e-kī'ah the king, and said. We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the showbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hĕz'ē-kī'āh the king rose 9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

> 21 And they brought seven bullocks. and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the 22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Is'ra-ĕl: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Īs'rā-ĕl.

25 And he set the Le'vites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 And the Le'vites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hez'e-ki'ah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Iş'rā-ĕl.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hez'e-kī'ah the king and the princes commanded the Le'vites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of A'saph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hez'e-ki'ah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart, burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Let vites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Le'vites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. 36 And Hez'e-ki'ah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly,

CHAPTER 30

AND Hez'e-ki'ah sent to all İş'rā-el A and Judah, and wrote letters also to E'phrā-im and Ma-nas'sēh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Terusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time. because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Is'rā-ĕl, from Bë'ër-shë'bà even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Is'ra-ël at Terusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Is'ra-el and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of İş'rā-ĕl, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Is'rā-el, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ve see.

8 Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ve turn again unto the LORD. wour brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of E'phra-im and Ma-nas'seh, even unto Zeb'ū-lun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, divers of Ash'er and Ma-năs'sĕh and of Zĕb'ū-lun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 C And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away. and cast them into the brook Kid'ron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Le'vites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Le'vites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Le'vites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

like your brethren, which trespassed Is'sa-char and Zeb'ū-lun. had not against the LORD God of their fathers, cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hez'e-ki'ah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. 20 And the LORD hearkened to Hez'ekī'ah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Is'ra-el that were present at Terusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Le'vites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hěz'ē-kî'āh spake comfortably unto all the Le'vites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD; and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hez'e-ki'ah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah. with the priests and the Le'vites, and all the congregation that came out of Is'rā-ĕl, and the strangers that came out of the land of Is'ra-el, and that dwelt in Tudah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Is'rā-ĕl there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the priests the Lê'vîtes arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

CHAPTER 31

NOW when all this was finished, all Iş'rā-ĕl that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the 18 For a multitude of the people, even images in pieces, and cut down the many of E'phrā-jm and Mà-nās'sĕh, groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in E'phrā-ĭm also and Ma-năsseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Īş'rā-ĕl returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hĕz'ē-kī'āh appointed the courses of the priests and the Le'vites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Le'vites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Terusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Le'vites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.

5 C And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Is'ra-el brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of to their courses; Iş'rā-ĕl and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hez'e-kī'ah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Ĭs'rā-ĕl.

9 Then Hez'e-ki'ah questioned with the priests and the Le'vites concerning the heaps.

10 And Az'a-ri'ah the chief priest of the house of Zā'dŏk answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hez'e-ki'ah commanded heart, and prospered.

to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them,

12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Con'o-ni'ah the Le' vite was ruler, and Shim'e-i his brother was the next.

13 And Je-hi'el, and Az'à-zi'ah, and Na'hath, and As'a-hel, and Ter'i-moth. and Joz'a-bad, and E'lī-ĕl, and Is'machī'ah, and Mā'hath, and Bē-nā'jah, were overseers under the hand of Conō-nī'ah and Shim'ē-ī his brother, at the commandment of Hez'e-kī'ah the king, and Az'a-ri'ah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Ko're the son of Im'nah the Le'vite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And next him were E'den, and Min'ia-min, and Jesh'ū-a, and Shemā'jāh, Am'ā-rī'āh, and Shec'à-nī'āh, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses. as well to the great as to the small:

16 Besides their genealogy of males. from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Le'vites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons. and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Lē'vītes.

20 And thus did Hez'e-kī'ah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his

CHAPTER 32

AFTER these things, and the estab-A lishment thereof, Sen-nach'er-ib king of Assyria came, and entered into Tudah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hez'e-ki'ah saw that Sennăch'er-ib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem.

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him. 4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? 5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Mil'lo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him.

8 With him is an arm of flesh: but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of

Hěz'ē-ki'āh king of Judah. 9 ¶ After this did Sĕn-năeh'ēr-ĭb king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against La'chish, and all his power with him,) unto Hěz'ē-kī'ah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying, 10 Thus saith Sen-nach'er-ib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Terusalem?

11 Doth not Hez'e-kī'ah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hez/e-kī'ah salem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ve not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand? 15 Now therefore let not Hez'e-ki'ah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hěz'ē-kī'ah.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Iş'rā-ĕl, and to speak against him, saving. As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hez'e-ki'ah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice. in the Jews' speech, unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cause Hez'e-ki'ah the king, and the prophet I-sa'iah the son of A'moz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hez'e-ki'ah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sen-nach'er-ib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the taken away his high places and his LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to altars, and commanded Judah and Jeru- Hez'e-ki'ah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ¶ In those days Hěz'ē-kī'ah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

25 But Hez'e-kī'ah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding, Hěz'ē-kī'ah humbled himself for the pride of his heart. both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hĕz'ē-kī'āh.

27 Of And Hez'e-ki'ah had exceeding much riches and honor: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels:

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hez'e-kī'ah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gi'hon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hez'e-kī'ah prospered in all his works.

31 T Howbeit, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hez'ekī'āh, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of I-şā'iah the prophet, the son of A'moz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Iş'rā-ĕl.

33 And Hez'e-ki'ah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. And Ma-nas'seh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 33

NA-NAS'SEH was twelve years old his fathers. When he began to reign, and he

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Îs'rā-ĕl.

3 I For he built again the high places which Hez'e-ki'ah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Ba'alim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said. In Terusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of

the LORD.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hin'nom; also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Is'ra-el, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Is'ra-el from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Ma-nas'seh made Tudah and the inhabitants of Terusalem to err. and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Is'rā-ĕl.

10 And the LORD spake to Ma-nas'seh. and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 T Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manas'seh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of 13 And prayed unto him: and he was reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem: entreated of him, and heard his suppli-salem into his kingdom. Then Ma-nas' made Jō-si'ah his son king in his stead. seh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gi'hon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about O'phel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods. and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the seek after the God of David his father: LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Is'ra-ĕl.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 C Now the rest of the acts of Manăs'seh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Is'ra-el.

19 His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 C So Ma-nas'seh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and A'mon his son reigned in his stead.

21 Cl A'mon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Ma-nas'seh his father: for A'mon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Ma-nasseh his father had made, and served them:

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Ma-nas'seh his father had humbled himself; but A'mon trespassed more and more.

[Õ-SĪ'ÀH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Terusalem one and thirty years. 2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. 3 I For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was vet young, he began to and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. 4 And they brake down the altars of Bā'a-lim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them. he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Terusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manăs'sĕh, and E'phrā-im, and Simeon, even unto Năph'tà-lī, with their mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Is'rā-ĕl, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 T Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Sha'phan the son of Az'a-li'ah, and Mā'a-sē'lah the governor of the city, and Jō'ah the son of Jō'a-haz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hil-ki'ah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God. which the Le'vites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Ma-nas'seh and E'phrā-im, and of all the remnant of Iş'rā-ĕl, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Terusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the 25 T But the people of the land slew house of the LORD, and they gave it to of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jā'hāth and Ö'bà-d'āh, the Lê'vītes, of the sons of Mē-rā'rī; and Zēch'à-rī'āh and Mā-shū'lām, of the sons of the Kō'hāth-ītes, to set it forward; and other of the Lê'vītes. all that could skill of instruments of music.

13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Le'vites there were scribes, and officers, and porters,

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hil-ki'ah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by

Moses.

15 And Hīl-kī'áh answered and said to Shā'phān the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hīl-kī'áh delivered the book to Shā'phān.

16 And Shā'phān carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shā'phān the scribe told the king, saying, Hīl-kī'ah the priest hath given me a book. And Shā'phān read it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hil-ki'áh, and Å-hi'kăm the son of Shā'phān, and Ab'dön the son of Mi'cah, and Shā' phān the scribe, and Å-sā'jāh a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Iş'rā-ēl and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hil-ki'ah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shal'lim the son of Tik'vath, the son of Has'rah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, Tell ve the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Is'rā-ël concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 I Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the Lond, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Le'vites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of ings two thousand and six hundred book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Terusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Jō-sī'ah took away all the ahominations out of all the countries that bertained to the children of Is'ra-el. and made all that were present in Is'ra-ĕl to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER 35

rOREOVER, Jo-si'áh kept a pass-IVI over unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.

3 And said unto the Le'vites that taught all Is'rā-ĕl, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Is'rā-ĕl did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Ĭs'rā-ĕl,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Iş'rā-ĕl, and according to the writing of Solomon his son:

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the 6 So kill the passover, and sanctify vourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

sand small cattle, and five hundred 10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the

Le'vites in their courses, according to the king's commandment. 11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Le'vites flaved them. 12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots. and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Le-vites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of A'saph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and A'saph, and Hê'man, and Jê-dū'thun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service: for their brethren the Lë'vites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Jo-si'ah.

17 And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Io-si'ah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Jō-sī'ah had prepared the temple, Ne'cho king of Egypt came up to fight against Car'chemish by Eŭ-phrā'tēs: and Tō-sī'ah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him. saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Jo-sī'ah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Në'chō from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Me-gid'do. 23 And the archers shot at king Josī'āh; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for To-sī'ah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Jō-sī'ah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Jö-sī'āh in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Is'ra-el: and, behold, they are written in the lamenta-

THEN the people of the father's stead in HEN the people of the land took made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

4 And the king of Egypt made E-li'a. kim his brother king over Judah and Terusalem, and turned his name to Jē-hôi'à-kim. And Nē'chō took Jē-hō'àhaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 Q Te-hoi'a-kim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 Against him came up Něb'ū-chădnez'zar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon,

7 Něb'ū-chăd-něz'zar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Te-hoi'akim, and his abominations which he did. and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Is'rā-ĕl and Judah: and Jēhôi'à-chin his son reigned in his stead.

¶ Jē-hôi'à-chin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Terusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And when the year was expired. king Něb'ū-chăd-něz'zár sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zĕd'ē-kī'ah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ¶ Zĕd'ē-kī'āh was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Teremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also rebelled against king Něb' ū-chăd-něz'zàr, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl.

14 I Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Terusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers at Jerusalem, and condemned the land sent to them by his messengers, rising un betimes, and sending: because he

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Terusalem. and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And them that had escaped from had compassion on his people, and on the sword carried he away to Babvlon: where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

22 T Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah man, or him that stooped for age; he might be accomplished, the LORD gave them all into his hand. stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

CHAPTER 1

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Is'rā-ĕl, (he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Of Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Tudah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Le'vites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Terusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD. which Něb'ū-chăd-něz'zar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mith're-dath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Shěsh-băz'zar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty

10 Thirty basins of gold, silver basins of a second sort four hundred and ten. and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Shesh-baz'zar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

59 And these were they which went up from Tel'-me'lah, Tel'-har'sa, Che'rub, Ad'dan, and Im'mer: but they could not show their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Is'ra-el: 60 The children of De-la'iah, the children of Tō-bi'ah, the children of Nē-

70 So the priests, and the Le'vites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Neth'i-nim, dwelt in their cities, and all Iş'rā-ĕl in their cities.

CHAPTER 3

AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Is'rā-ĕl were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jesh'ū-a the son of Joz'a-dak, and his brethren the priests, and Zě-růb'bà-běl the son of Shē-ălti-el, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Iş'rā-el, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases: for fear was upon them because of the offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons. that they should not eat of the most holy, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offer-65 Besides their servants and their ings unto the LORD. But the foundation of 7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zi'dön, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Jöp'på, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zörüb'bà-běl the son of Shē-āl'fi-ēl, and Jēsh'ū-ā the son of Jöz'à-dāk, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Lē'vītes, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Lē'vītes, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jësh'ū-à with his sons and his brethren, Kād'mī-ĕi and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Hĕn'a-dād, with their sons and their brethren the Lē'vītes.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Le ries the sons of Arsaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king

of Is'rā-ĕl.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward is ra-ëi. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Le'vites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAPTER 4

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Is rā-ēl; 2 Then they came to Zĕ-rüb'bā-bēl, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Ē'sār-hād'don king of Ās'sūr, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zĕ-rub'ba-bĕl, and Jĕsh'ū-ā, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Iş'rā-ĕl, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Iş'rā-ĕl, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

5 And hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Da-ri is king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of A-hāṣ'ū-ē'rŭs, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of År'tăx.ērx'ēş wrote Bish'läm, Mith'rē-dāth, Tā'bē-ēl, and the rest of their companions, unto År'tāx.ērx'ēş king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Rê'hum the chancellor and Shim's shai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Ar'tăx-ērx'ēs the king in this sort:

9 Then wrote Re'hum the chancellor, and Shim'shai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Di'nà-ites, the Aph'ar-sath'ehites, the Tar'pèl-ites, the A-phar'sites, the Archē-vites, the Babylonians, the Sū-san'chites, the Dē-halvites, and the E'lam-ites,

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Ås-nāp'pēr brought over, and set in the cities of Sâ-mā'ri-à, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Ar'tax-erx'es the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and certified the

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records. and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces. and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Re'hum the chancellor, and to Shim'shai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Sa-mari-a, and unto the rest beyond the river. Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 II Now when the copy of king Artăx-ērx'ēş' letter was read before Rē' hum, and Shim'shai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign woked the God of heaven unto wrath, he of Da-rī'ŭs king of Persia.

CHAPTER 5

HEN the prophets, Hăg'gā-ī the prophet, and Zěsh'ā-rī'āh the son of Id'do, prophesied unto the Tews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Is'ra-el, even unto them.

2 Then rose up Zĕ-rŭb'bà-bĕl the son of Shē-ăl'tĭ-ĕl, and Jĕsh'ū-à the son of Joz'a-dak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping

3 ¶ At the same time came to them Tăt'nai, governor on this side the river, and She'thar-boz'nai, and their companions, and said thus unto them. Who hath commanded you to build this house. and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Da-ri'us: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 The copy of the letter that Tăt'nai. governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boz'nai, and his companions the A-phar cach-ites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Da-rī'us the king: 7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Da-ri'us the king. all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on. and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Ĭş'rā-èl builded and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had progave them into the hand of Něb'ū-chădněz'zár the king of Babylon, the Chălde'an, who destroyed this house, and unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus God.

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Neb'ūchăd-nez'zar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Shësh-baz'zar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Shësh-băz'zâr. and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER 6

THEN Dà-rī' us the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Ach'me-tha, in the palace that is in the province of the Mêdeş, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Terusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the breadth thereof threescore cubits:

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Něb'ūchad-nez'zar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto

Babylon, be restored, and brought again every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tăt'naï, governor bemade a decree to build this house of yond the river, She'thar-boz'nai, and your companions the A-phar'sach-ites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

> 7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Tews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover I make a decree what ve shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered.

9 And that which they have need of. both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savors unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Dà-ri'us have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

13 Then Tăt'nai, governor on this side the river. She'thar-boz'nai, and their companions, according to that which Da-ri'us the king had sent, so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded. height thereof threescore cubits, and the and they prospered through the prophesying of Hag'ga-i the prophet and Zecha-ri'ah the son of Id'dc. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Is'rā-ĕl, and according to the commandment of Cvrus, and Da-rī'ŭs, and Ar'tax-ērx'ēş king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month A-dar', which his request, according to the hand of the was in the sixth year of the reign of Da- LORD his God upon him.

ri'ŭs the king.

16 C And the children of Iş'rā-ĕl, the priests, and the Le'vites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Iş'rā-ĕl, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Is'rā-ĕl.

18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Le'vites in their courses. for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem: as it is written in the book of Moses.

19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Le'vites were purified together, all of them were pure. and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Is'ra-ĕl, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD

God of Is'rā-ĕl. did eat.

22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Is'rā-ĕl.

CHAPTER 7

NOW after these things, in the reign freely offered unto the God of İş'rā-ĕl, of Ar'tăx-ērx'ēş king of Persia, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, Ezra the son of Sē-rā'iāh, the son of 16 And all the silver and gold that thou Az'a-rī'ah, the son of Hil-kī'ah.

2 The son of Shal'lum, the son of Za-

Az'a-rī'ah, the son of Mē-rā'iŏth, 4 The son of Zer'a-hi'ah, the son of Uz'zī, the son of Bŭk'kī, of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and had given; and the king granted him all after the will of your God.

7 And there went up some of the children of Is'rā-ĕl, and of the priests, and the Le'vites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Neth'i-nim, unto Terusalem, in the seventh year of Ar'taxerx'es the king.

8 And he came to Terusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it. and to teach in Iş'rā-ĕl statutes and judgments.

11 W Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Ar'tăx-erx'es gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Is'ra-el.

12 Ar'tăx-ērx'ēş, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect beace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Is'ra-ĕl, and of his priests and Le'vites, in my realm, which are minded of their own free will to go up to Terusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem. according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand:

15 And to carry the silver and gold. which the king and his counselors have canst find in all the province of Babylon. with the freewill offering of the people, dok, the son of A-hī'tub, and of the priests, offering willingly for 3 The son of Am'a-rī'ah, the son of the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with 5 The son of A-bish'ū-a, the son of their meat offerings and their drink offer-Phin'ē-has, the son of El'ē-a'zar, the son ings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Terusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to he was a ready scribe in the law of thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the Moses, which the LORD God of Is'ra-el rest of the silver and the gold, that do

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God. those deliver thou before the God of Terusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, even I Är'tax-erx'es the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred measures of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for wny should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that, touching any of the priests and Le'vites, singers, porters. Neth'i-nim, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. 25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 T Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem:

28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Iş'rā-ĕl chief men to go up with me.

6 Of the sons also of A'din: E'bed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty

7 And of the sons of E'lam; Je-sha'iah the son of Ath'a-li'ah, and with him seventy males.

12 And of the sons of Az'gad: To-ha'nan the son of Hak'ka-tan, and with him a hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Ad'o-ni'kam. whose names are these, E-liph'e-let. Tē-ī'ĕl, and Shē-mā'iah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Big'vā-ī: Ū'thaī. and Zăb'bud, and with them seventy males. 15 4 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to A-ha'va; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for El'i-ē'zēr, for Ā'ri-ĕl. for She-ma'jah, and for El-na'than, and for Jā'rīb, and for El-nā'than, and for Nathan, and for Zech'a-ri'ah, and for Mē-shul'lam, chief men; also for Joi'àrib. and for El-nā'thăn, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Id'do the chief at the place Ca-siph'i-a, and I told them what they them that went up with me from Baby- should say unto Id'do, and to his brethsiph'i-a, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God mon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mäh'li, the son of Levi, the son of Iş'rā-ĕl; and Shĕr'ēbī'ah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hash'a-bi'ah, and with him Je--shā'iàh of the sons of Mē-rā'rī, his brethren and their sons, twenty:

20 Also of the Neth'i-nim, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Le'vites, two hundred and twenty Něth'i-nim: all of them were expressed by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of A-ha'va, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was entreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sher'e-bi'ah, Hash'abi'ah, and ten of their brethren with them

25 And weighed unto them the silver. and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Is'ra-el there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels are holv also: and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Le'vites, and chief of the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Le'vites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of A-ha'va on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy. and of such as lay in wait by the way. 32 And we came to Terusalem, and abode there three days.

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Mer'e-moth the son of U-ri'ah the priest; and with him was El'ē-ā'zarthe son of Phin'e-has; and with them was Joz'a-bad the son of Jesh'ū-a, and No'a-di'ah the son of Bin'nū-i. Lē'vītes:

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Iş'rā-ĕl, twelve bullocks for all Iş'rā-ĕl, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

36 4 And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people.

and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Is'ra-ĕl, and the priests, and the Le'vites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations. evenof the Ca'naan-ites, the Hit'tites, the Per'iz-zites, the Jeb'u-sites, the Ammonites, the Mo'ab-ites, the Egyptians, and the Am'o-rites.

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked fathers of Iş'rā-ĕl, at Jerusalem, in the off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Is'rā-ĕl, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 I And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God.

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been showed from the LORD our God. to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God. and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Terusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments.

11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ve may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great tres- 8 And that whosoever would not come pass, seeing that thou our God hast pun- within three days, according to the counished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as 14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Is'ra-el, thou art righteous; for we remain yet escaped. as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAPTER 10

TOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Is'rā-ĕl a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shech'à-ni'àh the son of Jē-hi'ĕl. one of the sons of E'lam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Is'ra-el concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise: for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Le'vites, and all Iş'rā-ĕl, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jo-ha'nan the son of E-li'a-shib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem:

8 And that whosoever would not come sel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Is'rā-ĕi.

11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

15 © Only Jonathan the son of Ås'å-hel and Jā'hà-zī'àh the son of Tik'väh were employed about this matter: and Mēshhi'lām and Shāb'bē-thai the Lē'vite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 ¶ And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jěsh'ū-à the son of Jōz'à-dāk, and his brethren; Mā'à-sē'iāh, and Ē'i-ē'zēr, and Jā'rīb, and Gē'à-li'āh.

19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of Im'mer; Ha-na'ni, and Zěb'à-dī'àh.

21 And of the sons of Hā'rīm; Mā'a-sē' jāh, and Ē-lī'jāh, and Shē-mā'jāh, and Jē-hi'ēl, and Ŭz-zī'āh.

22 And of the sons of Pash'ür; E-li'ō-ē'nā-ī, Mā'a-sē'iāh, Ish'mā-ĕl, Nē-thān' ē-ĕl, Jŏz'a-băd, and Ĕl'a-sah.

23 Also of the Le vites; Jöz'a-băd, and Shim'ē-ī, and Kē-la'jāh, (the same is Kĕl'ī-tā,) Pēth'a-hī'āh, Judah, and El'ī-ē'zēr.

24 Of the singers also; E-li'à-shib: and of the porters; Shāl'lüm, and Tē'lēm, and D'ri.

25 Moreover of Ĭş'rā-ĕl: of the sons of Pā'rōsh; Rā-mi'āh, and Jē-zi'āh, and Māl-chi'āh, and Mī'a-min, and Ĕl'ē-ā'zar, and Māl-chi'jāh, and Bē-nā'jāh.

26 And of the sons of E'lăm; Măt'táni'áh, Zéch'á-ri'áh, and Jē-hi'él, and Ab'di, and Jēr'ē-móth, and E-li'áh. 27 And of the sons of Zät'tü; E-li'ō-ē'

27 And of the sons of Zăt'tū; E-li'ō-ēnā-ī, E-li'ā-shib, Măt'tā-nī'āh, and Jērē-moth, and Zā'bād, and Ā-zi'zā.

28 Of the sons also of Beb'ā-ī; Jē'hōhā'nān, Hān'à-nī'àh, Zāb'bā-ī, and Āth'lā-ī.

Atn'ia-1.

29 And of the sons of Bā'nī; Mē-shŭl'lăm, Māl'lüsh, and A-dā'jah, Jā'shŭb, and She'al, and Ra'möth.

30 And of the sons of Pa'hath-mō'ab; Ad'na, and Che'lal, Bē-na'jah, Mā'a-se' iah. Mā'ta-ni'ah. Bē-za'l'ē-ēl. and Bīn-nū-ī, and Mā-nās'sēh. 31 And of the sons of Hā'rim; Ēl'ī-ēzēr, Ī-sh'jāh, Māl-ehi'āh, Shē-mā'jāh, Shim'ē-ön.

32 Benjamin, Măl'lŭch, and Shěm'à-rī'àh.

33 Of the sons of Hā'shum; Māt'tēnā'ī, Māt'tā-thah, Zā'bād, E-liph'ē-lēt, Jēt'ē-maī, Mā-nās'sēh, and Shim'ē-ī. 34 Of the sons of Bā'ni; Mā'a-dā'ī, Ăm'răm, and Ū'ĕl, 35 Bē-nā'jāh, Bē-dē'jāh, Chĕl'lūh, 36 Và-ni'àh, Měr'ē-mŏth, Ē-li'à-shīb, 37 Mặt'tà-ni'àh, Mặt'tē-nā'ī, and Jāà-sau.

38 And Bā'nī, and Bĭn'nū-ī, Shǐm'ē-ī, 39 And Shĕl'ē-mi'āh, and Nathan, and Ā-dā'jāh, 40 Mach-nad'ē-baī, Shā'shaī, Sha-ra'ī, 41 A-za'rē-ĕl, and Shĕl'ē-mī'ah, Shĕm' ā-rī'āh, 42 Shāi'lum, Ām'ā-rī'āh, and Joseph.

43 Of the sons of Ne'bo: Te-i'el, Măt'tithī'ah. Zā'bad. Zē-bī'na. Tā'dau. and and some of them had wives by whom Toel. Bē-nā'iah.

44 All these had taken strange wives: they had children.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

CHAPTER 1

HE words of Ne'he-mi'ah the son of Hach'a-li'ah. And it came to pass in the month Chis'leu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shu'shan the palace. 2 That Ha-na'ni, one of my brethren. came, he and certain men of Judah; and

I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and re-proach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

4 M And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven.

5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Iş'ra-el thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Isboth I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my there were of you cast out unto the utter-them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong 11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper. I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

CHAPTER 2

AND it came to pass in the month Ni'san, in the twentieth year of Ar'tax-erx'es the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me. Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.

3 And said unto the king. Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and rā-el, which we have sinned against thee: the gates thereof are consumed with both I and my father's house have fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I praved to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favor in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. 6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou recommandments, and do them: though turn? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

most part of the heaven, yet will I gather 7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into

Tudah:

8 And a letter unto A'sāph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which abpertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Săn-băl'lăt the Hör'ō-nite, and Tō-bi'āh the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Iş'rā-ĕl.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some fewmen with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with firet come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also 9 And next unto it the king's words that he had spoken iah the son of Hûr unto me. And they said, Let us rise up part of Jerusalem.

and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when San-bal'lat the Hör'ō-nīte, and Tō-bi'ah the servant, the Ammonite, and Gō'shem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 3

THEN E-li'a-shib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Mē'ah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hā-nān'ē-ēl.

2 And next unto him builded the men of Jer'i-cho. And next to them builded Zăc'cur the son of Im'rī.

3 But the fish gate did the sons of Häs' sē-nā'ah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Mer'smoth the son of U-ri'jah, the son of Köz. And next unto them repaired Me-shuil läm the son of Ber'e-chi'ah, the son of Me-shez'a-beel. And next unto them repaired Za'dök the son of Ba'a-na.

5 And next unto them the Tē-kō'ītes repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jēhôf'à-dà the son of Pà-sē'àh, and Mēshū'l'ām the son of Bès'ô-dē'iàh; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Mĕl'âti'âh the Gib'ē-ôn-ite, and Jā'dön the Mē-rön'ō-thite, the men of Gib'ē-ôn, and of Miz'pāh, unto the throne of the and of Miz'pah, unto the throne governor on this side the river.

8 Next unto him repaired \(\tilde{V}z-zi'\)el the son of H\(\tilde{H}a'-\tilde{A}'\)jah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired H\(\tilde{A}n'\)ah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall

9 And next unto them repaired Rē-phā' jāh the son of Hûr, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Je-daiáh the son of Há-ru'máph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hat'tush the son of Hash'abnì'àh.

11 Măl-chī'jāh the son of Hā'rīm, and Hā'shub the son of Pā'hāth-mō'āb, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired Shall lum the son of Ha-lo'hesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley gate repaired Hā'nun, and the inhabitants of Za-no'ah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

14 But the dung gate repaired Malchi'ah the son of Re'chab, the ruler of part of Běth'-hặc'çē-rĕm; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shal'lun the son of Col-ho'zeh, the ruler of part of Miz'päh; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Si-lo'ah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Ne'he-mi'ah the son of Az'buk, the ruler of the half part of Beth'-zûr', unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bā'nī. Next unto him repaired Hash'a-bi'ah, the ruler of the half part of Kë-i'lah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren. Băv'ā-ī the son of Hĕn'ā-dăd, the ruler of the half part of Kē-ī'lah.

19 And next to him repaired E'zer the son of Jesh'ū-a, the ruler of Miz'pah, another piece over against the going up to the armory at the turning of the wall.

20 After him Ba'ruch the son of Zab' ba-i earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of E-li'a-shib the high priest.

21 After him repaired Měr'e-möth the

the men of the plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin and Hā'shub over against their house. After him repaired Az'á-rī'áh the son of Mā'áse'iah the son of An'a-nī'ah by his house.

24 After him repaired Bin'nū-i the son of Hen'a-dad another piece, from the house of Az'a-rī'ah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner. 25 Pā'lāl the son of U'zaī, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pē-dā'jah the son of Pā'rŏsh.

26 Moreover the Neth'i-nim dwelt in O'phel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

27 After them the Te-ko'ītes repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of O'phĕl.

28 From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

29 After them repaired Zā'dŏk the son of Im'mer over against his house. After him repaired also She-ma'iah the son of Sheeh'a-ni'ah, the keeper of the east gate.

30 After him repaired Hăn'a-nī'ah the son of Shel'e-mî'ah, and Ha'nun the sixth son of Zā'laph, another piece. After him repaired Me-shul'lam the son of Ber'e-chi'ah over against his chamber.

31 After him repaired Mal-chi'ah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Neth'i-nim, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miph'kad, and to the going up of the corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

CHAPTER 4

DUT it came to pass, that when Sănbăl'lăt heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Sa-ma'rī-a, and said, What son of U-rijah the son of Köz another themselves? will they sacrifice? will they do these feeble Jews? will they fortify piece, from the door of the house of make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now Tō-bī'ah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when me Săn-băl'lăt, and Tō-bī'ah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ash' dod-ites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Tews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. 13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places. I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our ene-nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by 19 I And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ve hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we labored in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in is much rubbish; so that we are not able the night they may be a guard to us, and labor on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAPTER 5

AND there was a great cry of the peo-ple and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said. We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said. We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of mies heard that it was known unto us, our brethren, our children as their chiland God had brought their counsel to dren: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants. and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them: for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them. We, after our ability, have redeemed our brethren the Tews, which were sold unto the heathen: and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer. 9 Also I said. It is not good that we do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou savest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised unto me in like manner the fifth time the LORD. And the people did according with an open letter in his hand; to this promise.

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Ar'tax-erx'es the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

been before me were chargeable unto shall it be reported to the king accordthe people, and had taken of them bread ing to these words. Come now thereand wine, besides forty shekels of sil- fore, and let us take counsel together.

Usuru rebuked. Sanballat's mischief ver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers. besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 Think upon me, my God, for good. according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6

NOW it came to pass, when San-bal'lat, and To-bi'ah, and Ge'shem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall. and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates:)

2 That Săn-băl'lăt and Gē'shem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of O'no. But they thought to do me mischief.

3 And I sent messengers unto them. saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Săn-băl'lăt his servant

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Găsh'mū saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall. that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, say-15 But the former governors that had ing. There is a king in Judah; and now

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest. but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shē-mā'jah the son of Dē-lā'jah the son of Mē-hět'à-bēel, who was shut up: and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for To-bi'ah and Săn-băl'lăt had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach

14 My God, think thou upon To-bī'ah and San-bal'lat according to these their works, and on the prophetess No a-di ah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 @ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month E-lul'.

in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 I Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tō-bī'ah, and the letters of Tō-bī'ah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah children of Jesh'ū-a and Jo'ab, two thousworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Sheeh'a-nī'ah the son of A'rah; and his son Jō-hā'năn had taken the daughter of Me-shul'lam the son of Běr'ē-chī'ah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him, And To-bi'ah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER 7

TOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Le'vites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hà-nā'nī, and Han'a-ni'ah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Terusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein.

6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Něb'ū-chăd-něz'zar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city:

7 Who came with Ze-rub'ba-bel, Jesh' ū-a, Nē'hē-mī'ah, Az'a-rī'ah, Ra'a-mī'ah, Nā'ha-mā'nī, Môr'dē-caī, Bil'shan, Mis'pē-rēth, Big'vā-ī, Nē'hum, Bā'a-nāh. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Is'rā-el was this; 8 The children of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy and two. 9 The children of Sheph'a-ti'ah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of A'rah, six hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pā'hāth-mō'āb, of the sand and eight hundred and eighteen. 12 The children of E'lam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

13 The children of Zăt'tū, eight hundred forty and five.

14 The children of Zăc'cā-ī, seven hundred and threescore.

15 The children of Bin'nū-i, six hundred forty and eight.

24 The children of Hā'rīph, a hundred and twelve.

25 The children of Gib'e-on, ninety and five. 26 The men of Beth-lehem and Ne-to-pháh, a hundred fourscore and eight. 27 The men of An'a-thoth, a hundred twenty and eight. 28 The men of Beth'-az-ma'veth, forty and two.

29 The men of Kīr'jāth-jē'à-rīm, Chēphī'rah, and Bē-ē'roth, seven hundred forty and three.

30 The men of Rā'māh and Gā'bā, six hundred twenty and one.

31 The men of Mich'mas, a hundred and twenty and two.

32 The men of Beth-el and A'i, a hundred twenty and three.

33 The men of the other Ne'bo, fifty and two.

34 The children of the other E'lam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. 35 The children of Ha'rim, three hundred and twenty.

36 The children of Jer'i-cho, three hundred forty and five.

37 The children of Lod, Ha'did, and O'no, seven hundred twenty and one. 38 The children of Sē-na'ah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty. 39 The priests: the children of Jeda'iah, of the house of Jesh'ū-a, nine hundred seventy and three. 40 The children of Im'mer, a thousand fifty and two.

two hundred forty and seven.

42 The children of Hā'rīm, a thousand dren of Tō-bī'ah, the children of Nēand seventeen.

Jesh'ū-a, of Kad'mi-el, and of the of Ha-ba'iah, the children of Koz, the 44 The singers: the children of A'saph, a hundred forty and eight.

45 The porters: the children of Shar. lum, the children of A'ter, the children of Tal'mon, the children of Ak'kub, the children of Ha-ti'ta, the children of Shō'baī, a hundred thirty and eight. 46 I The Neth'i-nim: the children of Zī'ha, the children of Ha-shu'pha, the children of Tab-ba'oth, 47 The children of Ke'ros, the children of Sī'à, the children of Pā'dŏn,

48 The children of Le-ba'na, the children of Hag'a-ba, the children of Shăl'maï, 49 The children of Ha'nan, the children of Gid'del, the children of Ga'har, 50 The children of Re-a'iah, the children of Re'zin, the children of Ne-ko'da.

51 The children of Gaz'zam, the children of Uz'za, the children of Pha-se'ah, 52 The children of Be'saī, the children of Mē-ū'nim, the children of Nēphish'e-sim.

53 The children of Bak'buk, the children of Ha-ku'pha, the children of Här'hŭr.

54 The children of Baz'lith, the children of Mē-hī'da, the children of Här'shå.

55 The children of Bär'kös, the children of Sis'er-a, the children of Ta'mah, 56 The children of Ne-zi'ah, the children of Hà-tī'phà.

57 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of So'tai, the children of Sō-phē'rěth, the children of Pē-rī'da, 58 The children of Ja'a-la, the children of Där'kon, the children of Gid'del,

Ã'mŏn. 60 All the Neth'i-nim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

61 And these were they which went up also from Tel'-me'lah, Tel'-ha-re'sha, Che'rub, Ad'don, and Im'mer: but they could not show their father's house, nor 41 The children of Pash'ur, a thousand their seed, whether they were of Iş'ra-el. 62 The children of De-la'iah, the chil-kō'dā, six hundred forty and two. 43 ¶ The Le'vites: the children of 63 ¶ And of the priests; the children children of Bär-zil'lā-ī, which took one of the daughters of Bär-zil'lä-i the Gil'ē-ăd-ite to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy. but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And the Tīr-shā'tha said unto them. that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Il'rim and Thum'mim.

66 I The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore.

67 Besides their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 M And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshā'thà gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Le'vites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Neth'i-nim, and all Is'ra-el, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Is'rā-ĕl were in their cities.

CHAPTER 8

ND all the people gathered them-A selves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; bring the book of the law of Moses, the joy of the LORD is your strength. which the LORD had commanded to Īş'rā-ĕl.

before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Măt'tĭ-thī'ah, and Shē'ma, and An'a-īàh, and Ū-rī'jah, and Hīl-kī'ah, and Mā'a-sē'iah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pē-dā'iah, and Mish'ā-ēl, and Māl-chī'ah, and Hā'shum, and Hăsh-băd'à-nà, Zech'à-rî'àh, and Mēshul'lăm.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jësh'ū-à, and Bā'nī, and Shër'ēbī'ah, Jā'mīn, Ak'kūb, Shāb'bē-thaī, Hō-dī'jāh, Mā'a-sē'jāh, Kĕl'ī-ta, Az'arī'ah, Toz'a-bad, Ha'nan, Pē-la'iah, and the Le'vites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. 9 ¶ And Nē'hē-mī'āh, which is the Tīr-shā'tha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Le'vites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for > 11 So the Le'vites stilled all the people, saving. Hold your peace, for the day is

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Lē'vites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Is'rā-el should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 $\Pi$ so the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of E'phrā-im.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jesh'ū-a the son of Nūn unto that day had not the children of İş'rā-ël done so. And there was very great gladness.

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

CHAPTER 9

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of 1stra-el were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Îş'rā-ĕl separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Lê'vites, Jēsh'ū-ā, and Bā'nī, Kād'mi-ĕl, Skēb'ā-nī'āh, Būu'nī, Shē'ē-bi'āh, Bā'nī, and Chē-nā'nī, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Lē'vītes, Jēsh'ū-ā, and Kād'mi-čl, Bā'ni, Hāsh'āb-ni'āh, Shēr'-bh'āh, Hō-di'jāh, Shēb'ā-ni'āh, and Pēth'ā-hi'āh, said, Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chal'dees, and gavest him the name of Abraham

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Ca'nāan-ites, the Hii'tites, the Ām'ō-rītes, and the Pēr-iz-zītes, and the Jēb'ū-sītes, and the Gir'gā-shītes, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their crv

by the Red sea:

10 And showedst signs and wonders upon Phā'raōh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deens, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Si'nai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks. and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Si'hon, and the land of the king of Hesh'bon, and the land of Og king of Bā'shăn.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers. that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Ca'naan-ites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, should go in to possess the land which and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee. thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies. so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies:

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly: 34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. 35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it vieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Le'vites, and priests, seal unto it.

CHAPTER 10

NOW those that sealed were, Ne-he-mi'ah, the Tir-sha'tha, the son of Hăch'à-li'ah, and Zid-kī'jah,

2 Sē-rā'iah, Az'a-rī'ah, Jeremiah, 3 Pāsh'ŭr, Am'a-rī'ah, Măl-chī'jah, 4 Hăt'tush, Sheb'a-ni'ah, Măl'luch, 5 Hā'rīm, Měr'ē-mŏth, O'bà-di'àh, 6 Daniel, Gĭn'nē-thŏn, Bā'rŭch, 7 Mē-shul'lam, A-bi'jah, Mij'a-min 8 Mā'à-zī'àh, Bīl'gā-ī, Shē-mā'iàh:

these were the priests.

9 And the Le'vites: both Tesh'ū-ā the son of Az'a-nī'ah, Bĭn'nū-ī of the sons of Hěn'à-dăd, Kăd'mi-ĕl;

10 And their brethren, Sheb'a-ni'ah, Hō-dī'jāh, Kĕl'ī-tā, Pē-lā'iāh, Hā'năn, 11 Mī'cha, Rē'hŏb, Hăsh'a-bī'ah.

12 Zăc'cŭr, Shĕr'ē-bī'ah, Shĕb'a-nī'ah,

13 Hō-dī'jàh, Bā'nī, Bē-nī'nū. 14 The chief of the people; Pa'rosh, Pā'hath-mô'āb, Ē'lam, Zat'thu, Ba'ni, 15 Bŭn'nī, Āz'gād, Bēb'ā-ī, 16 Ād'ō-nī'jāh, Bīg'vā-ī, Ā'dĭn, 17 Ā'tēr, Hīz-kī'jāh, Āz'zŭr, 18 Hō-dī'jah, Hā'shum, Bē'zā-ī,

19 Ha'riph, An'a-thöth, Ne'bai, 20 Mag'pi-ash, Me-shul'lam, He'zir, 21 Me-shez'a-beel, Za'dök, Jad-dū'a, 22 Pěl'á-tī'áh, Hā'năn, Ān'ā-ī'áh, 23 Hō-shē'á, Hăn'á-nī'áh, Hā'shŭb, 24 Hăl-lo'hesh, Pil'e-ha, Sho'bek, 25 Rē'hum, Ha-shab'nah, Ma'a-sē'iah 26 And A-hī'iah, Hā'nan, A'nan, 27 Măl'lŭch, Hā'rim, Bā'a-nah.

28 $\Pi$ And the rest of the people, the priests, the Le'vites, the porters, the singers, the Neth'i-nim, and all they that had separated themselves from the neaple of the lands unto the law of God. their wives, their sons, and their daugh. ters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding;

29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God. and to observe and do all the command. ments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land nor take their daughters for our sons

31 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

32 Also we made ordinances for us. to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: 33 For the showbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Is'ra-ël and for all the work of the house of our God.

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Le'vites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law:

35 And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of

the LORD:

36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:

37 And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Le'vites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.

38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Le'vites, when the Le'vites take tithes: and the Le'vites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Is'ra-el and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAPTER 11

AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men. that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 I Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Is'ra-el, the priests, and the Le'vites. and the Něth'i-nim, and the children of Solomon's servants.

4 And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; A-tha'iah the son of Uz-zī'ah, the son of Zech'a-ri'ah, the son of Am'a-ri'ah, the son of Sheph'a-ti'ah, the son of Mahā'là-lē'ĕl, of the children of Pē'rĕz:

5 And Mā'a-sē'jah the son of Bā'ruch, the son of Col-ho'zeh, the son of Hazā'iah, the son of A-dā'iah, the son of Jôi'à-rīb, the son of Zĕch'à-rī'àh, the son of Shi-lo'ni.

6 All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Terusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Benjamin; Săl'lū the son of Mē-shul'lam, the son of Jö'ed, the son of Pe-da'iah, the son of Kō-lā'iah, the son of Mā'a-sē'iah, the son of Ith'i-el, the son of Je-sa'iah.

8 And after him Găb'bā-ī, Săl'lā-ī, ninc hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the son of Zich'ri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Se-nu'ah was second over the city.

10 Of the priests: Jē-dā'iah the son of Jôi'a-rĭb, Jā'ehĭn.

11 Sē-rā'iah the son of Hil-ki'ah, the son of Mē-shul'lam, the son of Zā'dok, the son of Me-ra'ioth, the son of A-hitub, was the ruler of the house of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and A-da'iah the son of Je-ro'ham, the son of Pel'a-li'ah, the son of Am'zī, the son of Zĕch'ā-rī'āh, the son of Pash'ur, the son of Mal-chi'ah,

13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and A-mash'ā-ī the son of A-zā'rē-ĕl, the son of Å-hā'saī, the son of Mē-shīl'lē-mŏth, the son of Ĭm'mēr,

14 And their brethren, mighty men of valor, a hundred twenty and eight; and their overseer was Zab'di-el, the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Le'vites: She-ma'iah the son of Hā'shub, the son of Az'rī-kam, the son of Hāsh'a-bī'ah, the son of Bun'nī;

16 And Shab'be-thai and Toz'a-bad, of the chief of the Le'vites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Măt'tà-nī'ah the son of Mī'cha. the son of Zăb'dī, the son of Ā'sāph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer; and Bak'bū-kī'ah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Sham-mu'a, the son of Ga'lal, the son of Je-du'thun.

18 All the Lë'vites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover the porters, Ak'kub, Tal' mon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were a hundred seventy and two.

20 T And the residue of Is'ra-el, of the priests, and the Le'vites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

21 But the Něth'í-nim dwelt in Ö'phěl: and Zī'hà and Gis'pà were over the Něth'ĭ-nĭm.

22 The overseer also of the Le'vites at Terusalem was Uz'zī the son of Bā'nī, the son of Hăsh'à-bī'ah, the son of Măt'tâ-nī'āh, the son of Mī'chà. Of the sons of A'sanh, the singers were over brethren, were over against them in the the business of the house of God.

23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

24 And Pěth'à-hī'àh the son of Mēshez'a-beel, of the children of Ze'rah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kīr'jāth-ar'ba, and in the villages thereof, and at Di'bon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jē-kāb'zē-ĕl, and in the villages thereof, 26 And at Tesh'ū-à, and at Mol'à-dàh.

and at Beth'-phe'let. 27 And at Hā'zär-shu'ăl, and at Bē'ērshe'ba, and in the villages thereof, 28 And at Zik'lag, and at Me-ko'nah.

and in the villages thereof,

29 And at En-rim'mon, and at Zarē-ah, and at Jär'muth

30 Zà-nō'àh, A-dŭl'lam, and in their villages, at La'chish, and the fields thereof, at A-ze'kah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Be'ershe'ba unto the valley of Hin'nom.

31 The children also of Benjamin from Ge'bà dwelt at Mich'mash, and A-i'jà, and Beth-el, and in their villages,

32 And at An'a-thoth, Nob, An'a-ni'ah,

33 Hā'zŏr, Rā'māh, Gĭt'tā-ĭm 34 Hā'dĭd, Zē-bō'im, Nē-băl'lăt, 35 Lod, and O'no, the valley of craftsmen.

36 And of the Le'vites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

CHAPTER 12

NOW these are the priests and the Le'vites that went up with Zerüb'bā-běl the son of Shē-āl'tī-ēl, and Jēsh'ū-à: Sē-rā'iah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2 Ām'a-rī'ah, Māl'lüch, Hāt'tüsh,

3 Shech'à-nī'àh, Rē'hum, Mer'ē-moth,

4 Ĭd'dō, Gĭn'nē-thō, A-bī'jāh,

5 Mī'ā-min, Mā'ā-dī'āh, Bil'gāh, 6 Shē-mā'jāh, and Jôl'ā-rīb, Jē-dā'jāh, 7 Săl'lū, Ā'mŏk, Ḥīl-kī'āh, Jē-dā'jāh. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jesh'ū-a.

8 Moreover the Le'vites: Jesh'ū-a, Bin'nū-ī, Kād'mi-ĕl, Sher'ē-bī'ah, Ju-Těsh'ū-a, the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Băk'bū-ki'ah and Un'nī, their Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with watches.

10 ¶ And Jesh'ū-a begat Joi'a-kim Joi'a-kim also begat E-li'a-shib, and E-li a-shib begat Jôr'a-da, 11 And Jôr'a-da begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jad-dū'a.

12 And in the days of Jor'a-kim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Serā'jah, Mē-rā'jah; of Jeremiah, Hān'anī'āh;

13 Of Ezra, Mē-shul'lam: of Am'arī'ah. Jē'hō-hā'năn;

14 Of Měl'i-cū, Jonathan; of Shěb'ànī'āh, Joseph;

15 Of Ha'rim, Ad'na: of Mē-ra'iŏth.

Hěl'kā-ī; 16 Of Ĭd'dō, Zěch'à-rī'àh; of Gin!

nē-thŏn, Mē-shŭl'lām; 17 Of A-bī'jāh, Zieh'rī; of Mĭn'jā-mĭn, of Mô'à-dī'àh, Pīl'taï; 18 Of Bil'gah, Sham-mu'a; of Shemā'iah, Jē-hon'a-than;

19 And of Jôi'a-rīb, Măt'tē-nā'i; of Jē-dā'iah, Üz'zī; 20 Of Săl'lā-ī, Kāl'lā-ī; of Ā'mŏk, E'ber

21 Of Hil-kī'āh, Hăsh'ā-bī'āh; of Tē-dā'iah, Nē-thăn'ē-ĕl.

22 The Le'vites in the days of E-lī'a-shīb, Joi'a-da, and Jo-hā'nan, and Jad-du'a, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Dà-rī'ŭs the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the Chronicles, even until the days of Tohā'năn the son of E-lī'a-shīb.

24 And the chief of the Le'vites: Hash' â-bī'ah, Shēr'ē-bī'ah, and Jēsh'ū-à the son of Kăd'mĭ-ĕl, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Măt'tà-nī'àh, and Băk'bū-kī'àh, Ō'bà-dī'ah, Mē-shul'lam, Tal'mon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joi'a-kim the son of Jesh'ū-a, the son of Joz'adăk, and in the days of Ne'he-mi'ah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe

27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall dah, and Măt'tà-nī'ah, which was over of Jerusalem they sought the Le'vites out of all their places, to bring them to gladness, both with thanksgivings, and se'jah, Min'ja-min, Mi-cha'jah, E-li'owith singing, with cymbals, psalteries, e'nā-ī, Zech'a-rī'ah, and Han'a-nī'ah, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem. and from the villages of Ne-toph'a-thi:

29 Also from the house of Gil'gal, and out of the fields of Ge'ba and Az-ma' with: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Le'vites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Tudah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate: 32 And after them went Ho-sha'iah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Az'a-ri'ah, Ezra, and Mēshul'lam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shē-mā'jah, and Jeremiah,

35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zech'a-ri'ah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shē-mā'jah, the son of Māt'ta-nī'ah, the son of Mī-chā'jah, the son of Zāc'cŭr, the son of A'săph:

36 And his brethren, Shē-mā'iah, and A-zā'rā-ĕl, Mīl'a-lā'ī, Gīl'a-laī, Mā-ā'ī, Në-thăn'ë-ël, and Judah, Hà-na'nī, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David. even unto the water gate eastward.

that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the gate of E'phraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hanăn'ē-ĕl. and the tower of Mē'ah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me: ber of the house of our God, was allied 41 And the priests; E-li'a-kim, Mā'a- unto Tō-bī'ah:

with trumpets:

42 And Mā'a-sē'iah, and Shē-mā'iah, and El'ē-ā'zar, and Uz'zī, and Jē'hōhā'năn, and Mal-chī'jah, and E'lam, and E'zer. And the singers sang loud, with Jěz'rà-hī'ah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Le'vites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Le'vites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his 46 For in the days of David and A'saph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Is'rā-ĕl in the days of Zĕrub'ba-bel, and in the days of Ne'hemi'ah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Le'vites; and the Le'vites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

N that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the peo-38 And the other company of them ple; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Mo'ab-ite should not come into the congregation of God for ever:

2 Because they met not the children of Iş'rā-ĕl with bread and with water, but hired Ba'laam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Is'rā-ĕl all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, E-li'a-shib the priest, having the oversight of the cham-

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem the vessels, and the tithes of the corn. the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Le'vites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Terusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Ar'tax-erx'es king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and under-stood of the evil that E-li'a-shib did for Tô-bī'àh, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of To-bi'ah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 C And I perceived that the portions of the Le'vites had not been given them: for the Le'vites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then contended I with the rulers. and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together.

and set them in their place.
12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shěl'ē-mī'ah the priest, and Zā'dok the scribe, and of the Lē'vites, Pē-dā'iah: and next to them was Hā'nan the son of Zăc'cur, the son of Măt'tàni'ah: for they were counted faithful. and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading winepresses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

in, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Iş'rā-ĕl by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Terusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Terusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Le'vites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me. O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 In those days also saw I Tews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Mô'ăb:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them. and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons. nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for vourselves.

26 Did not Solomon king of Is'rä-ĕl sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Ĭş'rā-ĕl: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to 16 There dwelt men of Tyre also there- do all this great evil, to transgress wives?

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

CHAPTER 1

NOW it came to pass in the days of A-hāṣ'ū-ē'rŭs, (this is A-hāṣ'ū-ē' rus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces,)

2 That in those days, when the king A-has' u-e'rus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shu'shan the nalace.

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants: the power of Persia and Me'di-a. the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even a hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shu'shan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble,

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his all the people that are in all the prov-house, that they should do according to inces of the king A-has u-erical. every man's pleasure.

9 Also Văsh'tī the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king A-haş'ū-ē'rus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mē-hū'mān, Biz'tha, Hār-bō'na, Big'tha, and A-bāg'tha, Ze'thar, and Car'cas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of A-hăş'ū-ē'rŭs the king,

11 To bring Vash'ti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty:

for she was fair to look on.

12 But the queen Văsh'ti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshē-na, Shē'thar, Ad'ma-tha, Tar'shish, Mē'rēs, Mär-sē'nā, and Mē-mū'căn, the seven princes of Persia and Mē'dī-ā, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom,)

15 What shall we do unto the queen Văsh'ti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king A-has' u-e'rus by the chamberlains?

16 And Mē-mū'căn answered before the king and the princes, Văsh'ti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king A-haş'ū-e'rūs commanded Văsh'tî the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Me'di-a say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered. That Vash'ti come no more before king A-haş'ū-ē'rus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree, which he shall make, shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their of the women. husbands honor, both to great and small.

21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Mē-mū'can:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAPTER 2

FTER these things, when the wrath 🕰 of king A-hăş'ū-ē'rūs was appeased, he remembered Văsh'ti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shu'shan the palace. to the house of the women, unto the custody of He'ge the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vash'ti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 Q Now in Shu'shan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Môr'dē-cai, the son of Jā'īr, the son of Shim'e-i, the son of Kish, a Benjamite:

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jec'o-ni'ah king of Judah, whom Neb'ū-chăd-nez'zar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Ha-das'sah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Môr'dē-caī, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 C So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shu'shan the palace, to the custody of Heg'a-i, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Heg'a-i, keeper

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred: for Môr'dē-caī had charged her that she should not show it.

11 And Môr'dē-caī walked every day before the court of the women's house. to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 T Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king A-has'ū-ē'rus. after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with other things for the purifying of the women,) 13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king: whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shā-ash'gaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were in the king's gate, bowed, and rever-called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Ab'i-hail the uncle of Môr de-cai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Heg'a-i the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king A-has'ū-ē'rus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tě-běth', in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Văsh'tī.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants. even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Môr'decal sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet showed her kindred nor her people, as Môr'dē-cai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Môr'de-cai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 In those days, while Môr'de-cai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Big'than and Te'resh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king A-hăs' ū-ē'rŭs.

22 And the thing was known to Môr! de-cai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Môr'de-cai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER 3

AFTER these things did king A-has'u-ē'rus promote Hā'man the son of Hām'mē-dā'tha the A'gag-īte, and ad- and there was written according to all the princes that were with him.

enced Ha'man: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Môr's de-cai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Môr'dē-caī, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they snake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Ha'man, to see whether Môr'dē-cai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Hā'măn saw that Môr'dēcai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Ha'man full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Môr'dē-caī alone; for they had showed him the people of Mor'de-cai: wherefore Ha'man sought to destroy all the lews that were throughout the whole kingdom of A-has' ū-ē'rūs, even the people of Môr'dē-cai.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Ni'san, in the twelfth year of king A-has'ū-e'rūs, they cast Pûr, that is, the lot, before Ha'man from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month \hat{A} -där'. 8 \P And \hat{H} a'man said unto king A-has'ū-ē'rŭs. There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Ha'man the son of Ham'me-da'tha the A'gag-ite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Ha'man. The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, vanced him, and set his seat above all that Ha'man had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors 2 And all the king's servants, that were that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king A-has'u-e'rus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the for her people. thirteenth day of the twelfth month, 9 And Ha tach came and told Esther which is the month A-dar', and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shu'shan the palace. And the king and Ha'man sat down to drink; but the city Shu'shan was perplexed.

CHAPTER 4

A 7HEN Môr'dē-cai perceived all V that was done, Mor'de-cai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 I So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Môr'de-cai, and to take away his sackcloth from him:

but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hā'tāch, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Môr'dēcai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hā'tāch went forth to Môr'dē-caī unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shu'shan to destroy them, to show it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her. and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him the words of Môr'de-cai.

.10 C Again Esther spake unto Ha! tăch, and gave him commandment unto Môr de-cai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Môr'de-cai Esther's words.

13 Then Môr'dē-caī commanded to answer Esther. Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 I Then Esther bade them return

Môr de-cai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Tews that are present in Shu'shan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Môr'dē-cai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER 5

NOW it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal 7 And Môr de-cai told him of all that apparel, and stood in the inner court of had happened unto him, and of the sum the king's house, over against the king's of the money that Ha'man had promised house: and the king sat upon his royal the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court. that she obtained favor in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Ha'man come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Hā'măn to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Ha'man came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 C And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is:

8 If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Ha'man come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 Then went Hā'măn forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Hā'man saw Môr'dē-cai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Môr'dē-caī.

10 Nevertheless Hā'mān refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zerësh his wife.

11 And Hā'măn told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Hā'mān said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had the man withal whom the king delighteth prepared but myself; and to-morrow to honor, and bring him on horseback

14 ¶ Then said Zē'resh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Môr'dē-cai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Hā'man; and he caused the gallows to

N that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Môrde-cai had told of Big-tha'na and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king A-has'ū-ē'rus.

3 And the king said, What honor and dignity hath been done to Môr'de-cai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him. There is nothing done for him.

4 4 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Ha'man was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Môr'de-cai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Ha'man standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come

6 So Hā'măn came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honor? Now Hā'măn thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself?

7 And Ha'man answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honor.

8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array am I invited unto her also with the king, through the street of the city, and pro-

10 Then the king said to Hā'man Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Môr'de-cai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Ĥā'man the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Môr'de-cai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honor.

12 I And Môr'de-cai came again to the king's gate. But Hā'man hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

13 And Hā'măn told Zē'rĕsh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zē'resh his wife unto him. If Môr' de-cai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Ha'man unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER 7

SO the king and Hā'mān came to ban-quet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Es-ther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are sold, I and my people, to sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen. I had held my tongue. although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Å-hăş'ū-ë'rŭs answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, The adversary and inces: enemy is this wicked Ha'man. Then 6 For how can I endure to see the evil

Hā'man was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 I And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden; and Hā'man stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen: for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king,

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Ha'man was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth.

they covered Ha'man's face.

9 And Här-bo'nah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also the gallows fifty cubits high, which Ha'man had made for Môr'de-cai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Ha'man. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Hā'măn on the gallows that he had prepared for Môr's de-cai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is. the month Si-van', on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Môr'de-cai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

which is the month A-dar'.

13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at slew they; but on the spoil laid they not Shu'shan the palace.

15 Q And Môr'de-cai went out from parel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple; and the city of Shu'shan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honor.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of

TOW in the twelfth month, that is, the month A-dar', on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them; (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Tews had rule over them that hated them.)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king A-has'ū-ē'rūs, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces. and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Môr'de-cai fell upon

them.

4 For Môr'dē-cai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Môr'dē-cai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shu'shan the palace the Tews slew and destroyed five hundred men. 7 And Pär'shan-da'tha, and Dal'phon.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shu'shan the palace, and the ten sons of Hā'mān: what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shu'shan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Hā'măn's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shu'shan; and they hanged Ha'man's ten sons.

18 But the Jews that were at Shu'shan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month A-dar' a day of gladness and feasting, and a

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Pū'rīm after the name of Pûr. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them.

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Pu'rim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Ab'i-hail, and Môr'de-cai the Tew. wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Pu'rim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of A-has'u-erus, with words of peace and truth,

31 To confirm these days of Pū'rīm in their times appointed, according as Môrde-cai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

THE BOOK OF JOB

CHAPTER 1

THERE was a man in the land of Uz. whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels. and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great only upon himself put not forth thine household; so that this man was the hand. So Satan went forth from the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and ralled for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 C Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan. Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that caped alone to tell thee. feareth God, and escheweth evil?

said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands. and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the Sa-be'ans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to 16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chalde'ans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword: and I only am es-

18 While he was yet speaking, there 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's What? shall we receive good at the hand house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and wershipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER 2

AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. 5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face. 6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

7 T So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her. Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh.

of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his line.

11 ¶ Now when Jöb's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; El'i-phaz the Te'man-ite, and Bildad the Shu'hite, and Zō'phar the Nā'ama-thite': for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER 3

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said, 3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it: let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary; let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eves.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy wavs?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face: the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his

folly:

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

CHAPTER 6

DUT Jöb answered and said. D 2 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are swallowed up. 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me,

5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavory be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat. 8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for! 9 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 To him that is afflicted pity should be showed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty. 15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away:

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish. 19 The troops of Terma looked, the companies of She'ba waited for them. 20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were 21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid, 22 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless.

and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you

29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?

CHAPTER 7

Sthere not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of a hireling?

2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as a hireling looketh for the reward of his work;

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eve of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away; so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of ness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint: 14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions: 15 So that my soul chooseth strangling.

and death rather than my life.

16 I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning. but I shall not be.

CHAPTER 8

THEN answered Bildad the Shu'hīte, and said.

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression:

5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty:

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)
